St. John's, Wauseon, Swanton, Fayette take Blade boys poll titles

STEVE JUNGA BLADE SPORTS WRITER - 02/23/2016, 12:31am EST

The final Blade boys basketball poll of the 2015-16 season has crowned three new divisional champions, with Swanton being the only repeat champion in Division III.

Three Rivers Athletic Conference runner-up St. John's Jesuit (18-4, 12-2 TRAC) is the Blade champion in Division I.

The only losses for coach Ed Heintschel's Titans came against three teams with a combined 60-1 record — two versus TRAC champion Lima Senior (22-0), one against Lima Central Catholic (21-1), and the other to University of Detroit Jesuit (17-0). Lima Senior is ranked No. 2 in Ohio in D-I, Lima CC is No. 1 in Ohio D-III, and UD Jesuit in No. 1 in Michigan's Class A (big school division) state poll.

St. John's succeeds Southview as the Blade's D-I poll winner. Whitmer (16-6) ended at No. 2 in the poll.

In Division II, Northwest Ohio Athletic League co-champion Wauseon (19-3, 7-1) is the new Blade poll champ, succeeding 2015 winner Scott.

The Indians of coach Chad Burt shared the league title with Archbold. Napoleon (17-5) finishes at No. 2 in the final D-II Blade rankings.

Swanton's Bulldogs (19-3, 6-2), who ended in third place in the NWOAL, won their second straight Blade D-III poll crown thanks to a late season win over Toledo Area Athletic Conference champion Ottawa Hills (18-3, 15-1), which closes the regular season ranked No. 2 in D-III.

The new Division IV Blade champions are the Fayette Eagles of coach Todd Mitchell. Fayette (21-1, 10-0) won the Buckeye Border Conference title to complete a memorable year for the school's basketball programs.

The Fayette girls, who also ended the regular season at 21-1, were crowned as Blade Division IV poll champions last week.

The lone blemish for the Eagles boys team was a 36-35 overtime loss to Liberty Center on Jan. 30. The Fayette boys succeed 2015 winner Gibsonburg as the Blade's D-IV champions.

TAAC runner-up Toledo Christian (16-6, 14-2) ended the regular season ranked No. 2 by The Blade in D-IV.
