4. Patrick Henry (NF)15-5
5. Cardinal Stritch (5)15-5

Last week's rankings in parentheses. The poll ranks schools located within an 11-county circulation area: Defiance, Fulton, Hancock, Henry, Lucas, Ottawa, Putnam, Sandusky, Seneca, Williams and Wood. Also included are Hardin Northern from Hardin County and Mohawk from Wyandot County.

The final Blade boys basketball poll for the 2007-08 season features three schools as repeat champions, although one has taken up residence in a new division.

That shift was made by veteran coach Leroy Bates' Libbey Cowboys (18-2), who last Thursday defended their City League championship by beating St. John's Jesuit 61-39 in the title game. The Cowboys take the Blade trophy as Division II champions this year after capturing the D-I Blade title with a 19-1 mark last season. Libbey enters tournament action as Ohio's fourth-ranked team in the Associated Press poll.

Fostoria (19-1), champion of the Northern Ohio League, ranked No. 2 in D-II.

This year's Division I champ is Perrysburg (19-1), despite coach Dave Boyce's Yellow Jackets having their perfect regular season spoiled by a 76-64 loss to Southview (16-3) last Friday.

The Cougars' win jumped them to No. 2 in the final poll, and enabled them to share the Northern Lakes League championship with Perrysburg, which was ranked No. 3 in the final D-I state poll. The Jackets won an earlier meeting with the Cougars, 71-57 at Southview.

The two teams who repeated titles in the same divisions were Liberty-Benton (20-0) in D-III and Toledo Christian (19-1) in D-IV.

Veteran coach Steve Williman's Eagles, who were state runners-up in 2007 when they finished 26-1, turned in a second straight perfect season and No. 1 finish in the D-III state poll. The Eagles picked up their 12th Blanchard Valley Conference title in the last 18 years under Williman, who is 402-110 in his 22 seasons at Liberty-Benton. The Eagles are 148-14 (.914) in BVC play since 1990-91.

Toledo Christian, which took the Blade poll title last year with a 20-0 regular-season mark, is 60-6 overall the last three seasons under coach Dave McWhinnie. The Eagles' lone setback this season came Dec. 11 by a 43-38 count at Ottawa Hills. TC avenged that loss by toppling the Green Bears 62-57 in overtime Jan. 25 to force a title split in the Toledo Area Athletic Conference.
