Mackey Beams At Lake Erie Camp

It rained just as hard at Camp Yukita Tuesday as it did in Fremont, but the Ross high school grid squad went ahead with practice sessions in an attempt to get ready for next week's opener against Cambridge.

Coach Mal Mackey sounded slightly optimistic last night as he messaged by telephone the activities of the Giants, who will practice there today and Thursday before returning home Friday.

Ross will get a taste of competition Thursday afternoon in a scrimmage with Toledo DeVilbiss. The Tigers proved a rugged adversary in a scrimmage here last spring. The Giants held a 4-1 touchdown edge in that one, but DeVilbiss held the Ross running game pretty well in check. Ross had to resort to a passing game because the Tigers massed at the line on defense.

Houghtaling At Quarterback

Ted Houghtaling was at quarterback in a squad scrimmage yesterday, indicating that Mackey plans to go all the way with a switch he made in the spring, when Ron Whitcomb shifted to halfback. Also in the backfield were Charlie Black and Earl Asperger. Whitcomb was at right half, Black at left half, just the opposite of the way they lined up at the conclusion of spring drills.

Mackey was enthusiastic over the running of little Lester Franks, 159-pound right halfback who looked good toward the end of spring practice. "He looks as good as Jerome Surratt," declared Mal. If that's true, Ross opponents are in for some harrassing moments for the shifty Surratt romped to 13 touchdowns and netted 1129 yards last fall. Franks stands 5-6, two inches shorter than Surratt.

The offensive line was composed of Henry Tiller and Clyde Michaels alternating with Dick Harter at the ends, Julius Sims, three-year veteran, and Merton Hoagland at tackles, Bill Taborn and Billy Amor at guards, Louis Lorenzen at center. Charlie Jones, regular center last year, arrived in camp Tuesday afternoon but likely will not see action until next week. Jones weighed 265 last season but looks trim now. Mackey said he didn't know how much Jones weighs, but he judged it was less than 250. The big boy was hospitalized for several days recently with a leg infection and while he has recovered fully, is being kept out of action to prevent a damaging injury.

Mackey, optimistic by nature but somewhat of a pessimist in the spring, sounded like his old self. "We look sharper than in the spring," he said, and if the Fremont-Yukita telephone connection had phono-vision, undoubtedly he would have been grinning from ear to ear.

Ross, DeVilbiss Scrap To Draw In Scrimmage

Ross high school and Toledo DeVilbiss battled to a standoff in a scrimmage Thursday at Camp Yukita in the final football drill at the Lake Erie training site. The Giants returned to their home grounds this morning for a double workout.

Coach Mal Mackey announced that since there will be no teacher's meeting Saturday morning due to the extension of the summer vacation, Ross will practice at 10 a. m. on that day, then go back to double drills next week. Schools will not open until Sept. 15, according to an announcement yesterday by Supt. U. E. Dierer.

The snappy Tigers, coached by Hilton Murphy, gained consistently against the Ross defense, which was weakened considerably by the absence of Julius Sims, 175-pound end who goes to tackle on offense, and Charlie Jones, who weighs in the neighborhood of 250. Jones is a center on offense.

DeVilbiss, holding a distinct weight edge in the line, ripped off yardage up the middle despite excellent linebacking by Louis Lorenzen and Earl Asperger, who along with Douglas Frazier, 180-pound guard, were Ross high's defensive stalwarts.

Due to the nature of the scrimmage, which saw each team take the ball three times for about 20 minutes at a time, no type of a score could be kept. Ross had three breakaway plays that probably would have been touch-downs and two lengthy drives might have reached pay dirt under game conditions. DeVilbiss had three runs of a touchdown nature and likely could have racked up one or two more on marches.

Spearheading the Ross offense was Charlie Black, 170-pound junior, and that persistent and ever-improving sophomore, Lester Franks. Black, the workhorse, was usually good for yardage and broke away on one occasion for 50 yards on a quick opener, outrunning everybody.

Franks, who never played football until last fall when he reported to the junior high squad, demonstrated once more he will be tough to keep on the bench. The 159-pounder, who stands only 5-6, ripped off 15 yards the first time he carried and later zoomed all the way after taking a short pass from Ted Houghtaling, second of two quarterbacks. Frank Lenhart opened the scrimmage at that position.

Mackey, displeased with the results generally, saw one bright spot, the passing attack. Houghtaling was sharper, and the halfbacks got off some completions, one from Ron Whitcomb to Clyde Michaels, 160-pound senior who made a long gain out of the play. Houghtaling flipped a long pass to Henry Tiller, 150-pound sophomore end, and Dick Harter, 195-pound junior end, made a nice catch of a buttonhook pass from the quarterback.

Offensively, Ross started with

Protest Rejected; Greenberg Bitter

CHICAGO—R—The wrath of the Cleveland Indians Hank Greenberg and Ellis Ryan has been levelled on a decision of Will Harridge, American League president. Harridge Thursday rejected Cleveland's protest of the "Battle of the Tapaulin" in the nightcap of a Labor Day double-header at St. Louis.

Greenberg, Indians general manager, and Ryan, club president, said in Cleveland that "this is an outrageous decision by the American League." Harridge said he had no comment.

"Bill Veeck has been permitted to get away with another travesty on baseball which ranks with midgets and the 'Emancipation Proclamation' he awarded himself after firing Rogers Hornsby. Evidently the result of a ball game is no longer determined by the players on the field, but by whoever has the best or worst ground crew."

Star Illinois Back May Miss Season

CHICAGO—R—Coach Ray Eliot, of Illinois, is faced with the possible loss for the season of his All-American fullback candidate Bill Tate.

The senior star of the 1952 Rose Bowl game has been confined to his Mattoon, Ill., home since Tuesday with a fever, an inflamed appendix, and an ailment diagnosed as either a virus or effects of food poisoning.

Tiller and Michaels at ends, Morton Hoagland, 190, senior, and Keith Hull, 220, senior, at tackles; Billy Taborn, 175, senior, and Billy Amor, 150, junior, guards; Lorenzen, 172, senior, center; Lenhart, 155, junior, quarterback; Black and Whitcomb, 165, junior, halfbacks, and Asperger, 190, senior, at fullback. The defensive alignment saw Ron Karle, 180, senior, and Tiller at ends; Hoagland and Hull, tackles; Frazier, 180, and Tom Cooper, 180, junior, guards; Lorenzen and Asperger, linebackers; Black and Lenhart, halfbacks and Whitcomb, safety.

Sims was kept out of action due to a foot injury which is expected to be healed before the opener against Cambridge one week from today. Jones is on the mend from a leg infection, but likely will be kept out of action until next week. Tiller, subbing for Sims on defense, held up well.

Both teams tackled hard, but the scrimmage was clean. There were no injuries on either side from the rugged workout.

The DeVilbiss tackles and guards on defense ranged in weight from 195 to 235 pounds.

Ross Hi Mentor Worried, Makes Several Changes

If you want to describe the Ross high football outlook as of now without mincing words, declares Mal Mackey, just say: "It looks bad."

Singing a different tune than the one he hummed six days ago at Camp Yukita, the Ross mentor, backed by his assistants, declared that the Giants are far from ready for their opener with Cambridge this Friday.

Last Tuesday, Mackey felt that Ross was sharper than in spring practice, when the squad looked pretty sharp. Since viewing a scrimmage with Toledo DeVilbiss last Thursday and a squad tussle on Saturday, he has revised his opinion and said that the timing of the split T offense has disappeared.

In the spring, the Giants ran up a 4-1 touchdown edge in a duel with DeVilbiss and at no time did the Giants look bad on defense, but last week it was an even affair at the best, and the Tigers made hay with their running attack. Of course, Charlie Jones and Julius Sims, two line stalwarts, were absent from last week's workout, but Mal wasn't so disturbed about that as he was over his backfield play, which he described as "ragged."

Whitcomb At Quarterback

He announced today that as of the moment, he is going to use Ron Whitcomb at quarterback and start Les Franks at halfback. Whitcomb, regular quarterback for two years and a good runner, was shifted to halfback in the spring. There have been other recent changes. Frank Lenhart, formerly a reserve quarterback, has been moved to end and Dick Harter, until last week an end, has been shifted to second team fullback. Whether the shifts are permanent remains to be seen. When pressed for a starting lineup, Mackey listed four possibilities at right end, Clyde Michaels, Lenhart, Harter and Jerry Gallagher. Henry Tiller will be the left end. Other line starters, tentatively, are Julius Sims and Mert Hoagland, tackles; Bill Amor and Bill Taborn, guards, an either Charlie Jones or Louie Lorenzen, center. Jones is on the mend from an infected leg but is still on the doubtful list.

If Whitcomb starts at quarter, the other backfielders will be Franks, Charlie Black and Earl Asperger. If Ted Houghtaling, who is improving as a passer, should get the nod at quarter, Whitcomb will team with Black at halfback and Asperger will start at fullback.

Since there is no school this week, two drills a day will be held, with the afternoon practice starting at 2 o'clock.

Ross Concentrates On Passing Attack

There are only three days until the opening football game, and Ross high school could use a little extra time to get ready for the invasion of Cambridge Friday night.

The Giants, apparently tired from strenuous two-a-day workouts that started Sept. 1, lacked timing in a squad scrimmage at Harmon Field yesterday.

A few individuals stood out, among them halfbacks Charley Black and Ward Sewell. Black has developed shiftiness to go with his speed and power, while Sewell, a sophomore, displayed ability to cut back well after starting wide right end sweeps.

Jones In Harness

The Giants drilled extensively on a passing attack but completions were infrequent. Veteran Lineman Julius Sims did not participate because of a knee injury. He had a brace on the injured limb. He is expected to be ready for Friday's tussle, and so is Charley Jones, center. A leg infection sidelined Jones in early workouts, but he was doing okay in Monday's drill.

Coach Mal Mackey, although concerned with the absence of smoothness, says he believes that the situation will improve by Friday. He plans two drills today, then will taper off with one workout on Wednesday and Thursday.

The squad will make its first appearance under lights Wednesday night at 7:30. It will be a full dress rehearsal, with the students and general public invited.

The players who were at camp will appear at the meeting of the Ross Boosters' Association tonight at the American Legion building.

Cambridge Impressive

Cambridge high looked impressive Saturday in a scrimmage at Columbus Grandview high. The Bobcats ran up a 4-1 touchdown advantage.

Cambridge, which somehow obtained movies of a 1951 Ross game, did not give prior notice to the scrimmage because, according to the Cambridge newspaper, "of possible scouting."

Coach Paul Keltner said he was "very impressed with the team's blocking in the line."

Sophomore backs stole the show. Bill Harper was impressive at fullback. Jim Bennett at quarterback and Kenneth Lake at halfback.

Buddy Thomas, who Ross Coach Mal Mackey said resembles John Lewis, rambled 45 yards for one touchdown. Halfback Dave Wade scored two, one on a pass from Thomas.

Cambridge tossed eight passes and completed six.

Giants Show Power, Breakaway Threats—And Also Weak Defense

By Al Coxon
Messenger Sports Editor

They expected to see the Giants field a sound defensive club with less offensive power than last year. Instead, Ross ran up a 47-20 victory over Cambridge, but showed numerous defensive weaknesses in doing so.

The down-staters were a fancy-passing, daredevil crew that operated from more formations than there are in the book, or so it seemed. And just about everything they tried worked—until they got close to the

Costly Victory

Ross, which now has played 15 games without losing, faces Lorain here next Friday. The Steelers opened their season with an 18-7 victory over the Ashland College freshmen and reserves.

The game was only six minutes old when Ross scored its first touchdown. This was a 50-yard kickoff back to the 33 and marched to pay dirt in 10 plays. Earl Asperger was the workhorse. Black scored from six yards out and Ross from the 10. The extra points received a 70-yard touch.  Cambridge struck back with a stunning play. With both on the 30, Thomas faded back to his 20 and fired a pass to Dave Wade who made the catch on the 45 and ran it in for a touchdown, maneuvering all the way. Bob Braun's placement made the score 14-7 early in the second quarter.

Steelers Favored To End Ross High Grid Win Streak Tonight

We're Not Licked, Declares Mackey

Ross lays its long unbeaten streak on the line again tonight against a team that is experienced, capable and ambitious. The revenge-minded Steelers from Lorain are favored to end the 66 tie and 147 setback in the first two games since the series between the schools was resumed in 1950, roll into Harmon Field tonight, geared to pin the first defeat of the Giants since October 20, 1950, when Cleveland Shaw won 14-0. Since that time, Ross has gone 15 games without a loss, although there was a tie game last season.

If the weather is clear, a crowd of 6,000 is possible. That's how many saw the game here in 1950 and at Lorain in 1951. Lorain is bringing its band and about 1,000 fans.

"We Can Be Tough, Too"

The Giants, far from physically, rate as an underdog in most circles, but Coach Mal Mackey today refused to be dismayed by opinions, predictions and in-juries.

"Sure, we're hurt but I'm not conceding Lorain a thing, and neither are our kids," he said in an emphatic tone. "We'll have Whitecomb, Black and all the others in there and if any have to be taken out, we'll just dig in a little harder. I think Lorain is tough, but we can be tough, too."

Giants' optimism has been flowing freely in the Lorain Journal all week, and well it might because the Steelers were impressive as they blasted an Ashland College delegation yesterday as a freshman and reserves squad but reported this week by Vince Sikora, Journal sports editor, to be in the final days of the College varsity. Lorain has not less than 10 lettermen, all of whom played against Ross in 1951. Only two backfielders have graduated, Lavan McCall and Andy Kosco, leaving Capt. John Karason, built like a tank at 5'7 and 180 pounds, and quarterback Dan Jones, 5'5. The Steelers have shifted Lavan, Garcia to a halfback, where the 180-pounder has looked good, and Karason moved to halfback from fullback. Hank Edwards, extremely elusive, moves into a halfback job.

Van Buren Line Stalwart

Heading the front wall is Bob Van Buren, 196-pound tackle who is being groomed for All-Ohio honor. In the backfield, Bill Higgins center and backs the line on defense when the Steelers are in a five-man unit and moves up to guard on a six-man line. Jim Dick, a talented end, described as glib-fingered, is the favorite receiver of Jones, a very good passer. Pete Zoundas, formerly a center, goes to end. Van Buren's team has 330 pounds, 5'8 and 190 pounds, at tackle. The guards are a pair of 165-pounders, Jerry Novak and Gary Krause. Bill Van Buren is the only junior in the line. There are three seniors in the backfield, Jones, Karason and Garcia. Edwards is a junior.

The Steelers make four changes on defense. Ron Nehls, 120, is replaced at end; George Proreck, 180, joins in for Kutz at tackle; Earl Price, 170, senior replaces Edwards at halfback, and Emery Fekete, 160-pound junior, plays safety except in puntinig situations. Garcia going out on defense, Karason, who along with Jones backs the line, drops back to the safety slot when it appears a punt is in the offing.

Ross Has Weight Edge

Ross will have a weight advantage of three and one-half pounds in the offensive line while Lorain holds a four and one-half edge in the backfield. However, the Ross defensive line, in a six-man setup, holds a big margin, averaging 191 to 173.5. Ross does a lot of switching on defense, although with only 178 and Tom Cooper, 178, are the only newcomers. Tiller and Sims play end, Hull and Jones are at tackles and Hoagland and Cooper at guards. Louis Lorenzen comes in to back the line along with Earl Asperger, and Charles Black and Frank Lenhart are booked

Running Of Three Backs, All Underclassmen, Cheers Smith

The running of three backs who will be around again in 1953 featured St. Joe's scrimmage session Thursday.

The streaks are tuning their offense for the invasion of Fostoria St. Wendelin's here Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

Standing out above all was Joe Widmeyer, a back action man who is effective on line plunges. Widmeyer has been shifted to tailback since it is apparent that John (Pete) Spieldenner won't be available for that spot. Widmeyer was the right halfback against Bellevue last week.

Coach Bob Smith was also pleased with performances of Bob Darr, a sophomore who will play halfback, and newcomer Carlos Hinjosa. The latter just joined the squad Wednesday. His family moved here from Mercedes, Texas, where he lettered as a freshman quarterback.

How It Bows The Game

Hinjosa has excellent form and his ability to block proves that he knows the fundamentals of the sport.

Smith is still banking on Lyle Hamilton's foot injury being cleared up by Sunday. Had the St. Wendelin's game been tonight, when most Ohio teams play, Hamilton would have been forced to sit it out. Hinjosa is being groomed to understand Hamilton.

Aside from Spieldenner and Hamilton, the squad is free from injuries and bruises. Morale of the squad remains excellent, Smith reported.

St. Wendelin's, led by brilliant Bobby Hunt, opened the 1952 season by trouncing Sandusky St. Mary's, defending S.B.C. champion, 26-4.

For halfback duty, Ron Whitcomb is usually the safety man, but due to an injury, he will probably be kept on the bench defense and Franks will take over. Whitcomb's absence wouldn't do much defense any good. He was the team's No. 1 interceptor in 1951.

Black's chest injury may retard him, but he looms as Ross' leading ball carrier. Asperger, halfback, and Franks are both capable. Both Lorain and Ross have plenty of talented ball carriers.

Officials will be Al Alvarez, Jay Winters, Dick Wallace and Wayne Stewart.

Jones-Dick Combination Sparks 21-13 Victory; Black Dashes 90 Yards, Sewell Goes 55 For Giants

By Al Coxon

News-Messenger Sports Editor

A long, looping pass from quarterback Dan Jones to end Jim Dick and a determined 10-yard dash around end provided Lorain with a 21-13 football victory over Ross high last night and brought the unbeaten streak of the Giants to an end.

It was the first Fremont loss since Oct. 20, 1950, when East Cleveland Shaw took a 14-0 victory.

The Steelers and Giants waged a typical Fremont-Lorain game. It was hard-hitting and, except for four block-kicks by Lorain, was marked by outstanding line play.

The favored Steelers left defeated Lorain 13-7 after Ward Sewell, 175-pound sophomore, skirted left end and dashed 35 yards while doing stand-in duty for the injured Charley Black. Ross led 13-7 after that jaunt and had a first down on the Lorain 39.

Interception Sets Up Rally

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Ronnie Whitcomb, playing on an injured knee and forcing everyone to go into the fall four quarters, tried to pass to Jim Tiller, but the ball was intercepted by Jesse Garcia on his 23-yard line.

That turned out to be the key play of the game.

After the Steelers punched out a first down at the 23, Julian Sims and Tom Cooper spilled Jones for a seven-yard loss, but the 185-pounder passed to Garcia for a first down on the 50. Jones dashed to the Ross 31 but Lorain was holding and penalized to the 35.

Then the Jones-Dick combination which has clicked well for two seasons went into operation. Jones hurled a strike to reach the Lorain 46, and on the next play, pitched one down the middle of the field that Dick caught for a 41-yard dash, placing the ball on the 35-yard line.

It looked like Ross might make another goal line stand. Three plays gained only three yards. On fourth down, Karason took a pitch-out and ran the left flank for a Krause's kickoff on his 10-yard line and sped through the Lorain team for a touchdown. The 167-pound junior, bothered by a chest injury, eluded two Steelers the last 40 yards of his run. Ron Whitcomb's placement tied the score.

Injuries made the Ross chances look slim at halftime. Jones and Black were both out when the tempo increased. Whitcomb's knee threatened to force him off the field at any minute.

With Louis Lorenzen filling in for Jones in excellent style, the Giants refused to be subdued by the odds and the experienced Steelers. After barely getting a first down on the Ross 45 with a fourth-down snapper, Whitcomb, 190, who made his varsity debut last week, started a left end run. He cut back and flashed down the field without a hand being laid on him. Whitcomb's kick was wide and the score was 13-7 midway in the third period.

Then, in a sequence, Earl Asperger, Julian Sims, Mert Houshmand, Doug Frazer, Henry Tiller and Tom Cooper continued their excellent defensive work and after forcing Lorain to punt, started a march that reached the Lorain 39 and it appeared that the visitors were about to score. Then came the forward pass, the interception and the long Lorain march.

While the Ross team was downhearted as it left the field, it can gain satisfaction from the realization it played brilliantly with its back to the wall and made Lorain battle hard for every yard gained on the ground. Lorain had 107 yards more than the top defensive stars.

The difference in the teams was the passing of Jones, who is also an excellent runner.

Lorain held a 9-7 first down edge. Ross gained 167 yards on the ground to 151 for Lorain. Jones completed five of his passes for 88 yards, while total 10 and completed two, but netted only two yards on the completions.

Next Friday the Giants start their defense of the Buckeye League title when Fostoria invades.

Buckeyes Meet Indiana In Crimmins' Coaching Debut

By Fritz Howell

COLUMBUS, O.—#—Indiana, with a new coach, and Ohio State, with a new offense, clash Saturday in the year's first Western Conference grid game.

A crowd of about 75,000 is expected to almost fill the big Buckeye horseshoe on the banks of the Olentangy as the ancient enemies—the rivalry

Faced with that disadvantage in the avoidrups department, the Hoosier hopes hinge on speed and agility, which Indiana is reported to have in big bunches, along with superb condition. Crimmins, with little talent depth, has not scrimmaged in 10 days in an attempt to prevent injuries to key personnel.

Ohio will present its game plan

Giants Field Smallest Line In Years; Bulldogs Have Young Squad

Fremont's two high school football teams, Ross and St. Joe, start league action tonight.

Ross plays its third straight at Harmon Field and is favored to notch its first Buckeye League victory at the expense of Fostoria, while St. Joe is out of town for the first time and is the choice to subdue Elmore in a Sandusky Bay Conference game.

Ross will make a couple of changes due to the injury to Charles Jones, 245-pounder who plays center on offense and tackle on defense. Coach Mal Mackey said today that Louis Lorenzen will go all the way at center and that Mert Hoagland will shift out to left tackle on defense and Doug Frazier will start at Hoagland's guard spot.

One of the lightest Ross lines in recent years will take the field on offense. It will average only 169 pounds, with Merton Hoagland the heaviest at 190. Fostoria holds a seven-pound advantage.

The Redmen have six seniors and five juniors in their offensive alignment. At ends will be Jim Tucker, a senior, and Jim Arwood, junior; tackles are Gary Echelberry and 240-pound Ken Russell, both seniors; guards are Bill Messenger and Wesley True, both juniors, and the center is Rudy Schorndorff, a senior who weighs 200.

The Fostoria backfield will have two juniors, quarterback Hubert Landers and fullback Larry Hollenbaugh, and a pair of seniors, Jimmy Johnson and Lacy Lawson. On defense, four changes are made. Jim Swinehart, 197-pound senior, and Ray Stein, 193, a junior, enter the line. Don Houser, 167, sophomore takes a linebacker post and Duane Pierce, 160, another sophomore, goes in at halfback.

5,000 See Giants Run Up Biggest Score In Ancient Grid Rivalry

By Al Coxon

News-Messenger Sports Editor

A hard-running gang of backs and tough line blockers put a severe dent in the Fostoria football season at Harmon Field last night as the Giants ran up a record score in the ancient series.

There was offense unlimited in the Giants' rebound from last week's 21-13 setback at the hands of Lorain. Nine touchdowns were scored, six of them by boys who will be around a year or two longer, and 515 yards were gained on the ground.

When the smoke finally cleared, the scoreboard read Ross 58, Fostoria 20. The performance exceeded the fondest

Ross fan's hopes, even though the Redmen came here billed as a club that was strong on offense, weak on defense. With Jimmy Johnson sidelined by an injured ankle, the red-clad warriors never were in the game. Ross raced to a 32-6 halftime lead, then Coach Mal Mackey inserted second and third stringers but the assault only increased in tempo. The varsity squad scored one touchdown in the third quarter and the reserves were up three touchdowns in the fourth.

The 58 points mark a Fremont high against Fostoria. It was just six points short of the all-time record in the series, Fostoria scored 64 points in the 1911 game.

Little Lester Franks; fleet sophomore; Charles Black, a hard-hitting junior cutback artist, and plunging Earl Asperger set the early pace. When Mackey entrusted the offense to less experienced youngsters, sophomore Ward Sewell and junior Dick Harter seized the reins with gusto.

Franks dashed 55, 31 yards.

Franks dashed the crowd of 5,000 with runs of 55 and 31 yards. Black delighted the fans with vicious cutback running that kept Ross on its heels and Asperger bent the Fostoria defense in the middle with pile-driving thrusts that accounted for three touchdowns. Sewell kept them off balance with sweeps and cutbacks and Dick Harter, second string fullback, turned on speed and power for a 52-yard dash and also southpawed a touchdown pass.

Frank carried the ball 12 times and netted 172 yards. He carried only twice in the first half. The hard-working Black netted 107. Asperger accounted for 57. Sewell galloped 80 yards in six chances, one of them resulting in a 44-yard scoring dash. Harter ran eight times for 100 yards. Meanwhile, quarterbacks Ron Whitcomb and Ted Houghtaling did some slick ball handling and up front on offense, guards Bill Amor and Bill Taborn, tackles Mert Hoagland and Julius Sims and end Henry Tiller and Clyde Michaels and center Louis Lorenzen cleared the way for end sweeps, line plunges and an assortment of thrusts over tackle. Defensively Frazier, Tom Cooper, Hoagland, Keith Hull, Sims and Black distinguished themselves. Rennie Hirt looked good for the fourth quarter recruits.

The game was only three minutes and 45 seconds old when the Giants cashed their first touchdown. They marched 63 yards, with the highlight a 23-yard scamper by Franks. Asperger drove over from the eight-yard line. A bad pass from center spoiled the extra point attempt. Hoagland, who turned in another fine job, was in for a 10-yard pass on the Fostoria 42 to set up the second score. Black and Asperger did the bulk of the work and Asperger scored from the one. Again, the center pass was astray and Whitcomb couldn't kick the point. It was 12-0 at the quarter.

Yankees Win

By RALPH RODEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
World Series foes, for the first time in five years, will be well rested when the 1952 classic of Redmen and sprinted to the goal line. Houghtaling's pass for the extra point was incomplete.

The Redmen came up with a 76-yard play that was nullified when Landers was trapped while trying to pass. He dodged, circled, dodged some more and finally spotted a red shirt gridiron standing in the clear. He let go a long heave that settled down in McCafferty's tummy and the Fostoria back romped into the end zone with about five mates for protection. However, it turned out that the Redmen had a couple of ineligible receivers down field ahead of the pass and lost the touchdown and were penalized 15 yards.

Harter To Gallagher

Harter and Sewell combined to take the ball to the Fostoria 17 late in the game and Harter, taking a pitchout from Houghtaling, flipped a scoring pass to Jerry Gallagher, a junior end, for a touchdown. Houghtaling then passed to Gallagher for the 52nd point.

With 0:50 left to play, Harter raced 52 yards around right end. The 200-pound junior turned on the speed to elude the secondary. A pass by Houghtaling for the extra point was no good.

Landers returned the kickoff from his 21 to the Ross nine to set up the game's final touchdown, which came in the final 15 seconds when Landers plunged into the end zone.

Fosteria offered little in the way of defense. The Redmen found they could gain from a spread formation and several times made the Ross defense look bad by knifing between end and tackle for substantial gains.

Ross will need all its power next week. The Giants go to Findlay, a team that for three years has removed lustre from the Ross record. The Trojans ruined the Ross hopes for an unbeaten season in 1949 with a 26-13 victory. They spilled Ross again in 1950, 14-0, and in 1951, when they didn't win a game, forced Ross to the limit before yielding a 25-21 verdict, won in the last two minutes.

Findlay bounced Bowling Green 16-14 last night.

Ross high, having completed a three-game home stand, plays its first game of 1952 on a foreign football field to-night when the Giants travel to Findlay.

A large delegation of Fremonters will follow Mal Mackey's men as they try to score their third victory in four starts and their second in the Buckeye League. The winner of tonight's contest will probably battle it out with Marion for the championship, won last year by Ross.

This will mark the first time since 1945 that Ross has entered the Findlay game without an undefeated record. In that year, the Giants were surprised by Port Clinton, 7-0, in the opener. Ross had one tie on its record in 1950, the last time it visited the Hancock county city.

Mackey was not overly optimistic when he discussed his team's chances of overcoming a strange jinx that Findlay has held over Fremont for the last three seasons, but he wasn't a pessimist, either. "We will win if the boys play their normal game," he predicted.

Giants Pass For Both Touchdowns After Trojans Cash In On Fumbles

By Al Coxon

News-Messenger Sports Editor

FINDLAY— Balked by fumbles and held at bay by a tough defense for three quarters, a plucky Ross high football team made a brilliant fourth quarter comeback to nose out its rival Findlay 13-12 before more than 5,000 fans here last night.

Their ground attack virtually nil except for the plunging of fullback Earl Asperger, the Giants appeared doomed to fall victims of the mysterious jinx the Trojans seem to hold over the Fremonts until the final quarter.

After an offside penalty was blocked, Ross took to the air with halfbacks throwing passes to snatch a 12-0 lead away from Findlay.

Fumbles gave the Trojans numerous opportunities, and they cashed in on two of them. When they tallied their second one with six minutes left in the third period, it looked like curtains for the Fremonts.

But a tenaciously rugged crew of Giants never gave up the ship and they finally won the game six minutes later on a 15-yard pass from Ron Whitcomb to Charlie Black. Whitcomb operated from the back in the fourth period after Tom Cooper came in to assume the quarterback's duties.

Asperger Adds Point

Black's catch of Whitcomb's toss tied the score at 12-12, and while the two teams were tied, the Giants lined up for a running play and sent Asperger into the line for the extra point. The 180-pound senior fullback lunged over for the game-winning score.

Ross moved 34 yards for that touchdown. It was set up by a bruising run by Jim Lehman, a second down fumble by Frank Lin Lehman. Sims hit Ray Siford, the 118-pound Findlay halfback, with a drive to the 10, the ball rolled loose, and Lehman recovered. Keith Hull, the fullback, came two plays after Louis Lorenzen, one of the defensive standouts, came up with a second fumble following a run by Findlay's Bob August, but the referee ruled the whistle had already sounded, a decision which caused some wear and tear on Coach Mal MacKey's already maddened crew.

Two plays gained seven yards, 34 yards, and the ball was back, ready to sheer power, to the Findlay 15. He was hit several times but refused to be downed until the final whistle to score as he eluded the final defender. Black then took over on a cutback and the ball was recovered for a second loss by Jim Miller, stellar Findlay tackle. A fullback at the line on third down returned the ball 10 yards. It fumbled down on the 10-yard line.

Houghtaling took the ball from center Lorenzen, pitched to White, comb, who dropped back to his 30 and sent an arching pass that bounded Black five yards behind the closest defender. Black gathered it in over the goal line. Asperger's plunge broke the tie and gave Ross the one-point victory.

Ross Threatens Early

Ross had a couple of chances to move out to an early lead, but they were blotted out by Bob August pass and ran it back 23 yards in the first quarter, but after Asperger batted his way for 15 yards, he was stopped. Lin Lehman fumbled and recovered for an eight-yard loss. Asperger gained two. Whitcomb lost, trying to pass. Jim Miller was held for a two-yard gain. A poor Findlay punt put Ross in midfield a few minutes later. That then was applied when Asperger's end Findlay recovered on its own 23.

The Trojans, featuring an August-Dave Crysler passing combination, started with a 10-yarder, but Siford failed to gain, two passes were incomplete and a triple lateral netted nine yards, one to the 10, one to the 20, and the last to the 30, the midline stripe. Larry Myers, the celebrated transfer from Arcadia, punched out 10 yards in two cracks and Siford followed with a 10-yarder before Hull pounced on a fumble on the Ross 32. However, after an exchange of punts, Findlay hoped on a 10-yard fumble on the Ross 20 and this time the ball was held all the way.

Three punts gained 19 yards and after an offside attack rolled to the 11. August passed through two Ross defenders to Rooney for a touch down. Lorenzen, one of several defensive standouts, recovered to block the extra point attempt. Center Scores On Pass

The first half ended 6-6 and the margin was 12-12 in the third period after a fumble punt by Black was recovered by Miller on the Ross 24. Siford, behind a mass of blockers, moved for seven yards. Doug Frazer and Henry Tiller caught Siford for a two-point loss. Then came the play of the year.

Findlay lined up in one of its sticky spread formations. Center Bill Wright was on the right side of the line and after centering the ball, he trotted downfield, streaked across the field and was challenged for a 19-yard play.

The extra point attempt was blocked by Tom Cooper. There followed within 10 yards of Creighton, the Findlay captain.

That looked like curtain for the Giants. It wasn't, as subsequent plays proved.

The ball was on the Ross 44 a couple of minutes after the fourth quarter began. Houghtaling went in as a receiver, carrying a play selection from the bench. On the very next play, Houghtaling pitched wide to Siford, who passed downfield to Clyde Michaels, captain, on the Findlay 30. Michaels grabbed the ball and when Henry Tiller threw a block of his, Siford man-handled him into the end zone. Like the pass to Creighton, the defense was caught flat-footed.

Whitcomb's extra point attempt was wide of the mark, making the score 12-12 with 5:30 left to play.

Ross, Sandusky In 'Recognition' Battle

St. Joe Clyde Duel At Harmon Field

Streaks Rated Sixth In State

Ross high will be gunning for state recognition tonight at Sandusky, where the battling and never dull Giants take on Sandusky, rated the No. 6 team in Ohio after tying powerful East Liverpool a week ago.

Neither team will be at full strength. Ross will be minus Bill Amor's services at offensive guard, according to word from Trainer John Titsworth. Coach Jeff DeHaven, of Sandusky, has announced that halfback Jude Theibert won't be in uniform. Amor likely will be in grid togs but it is probable he will be forced to watch from the bench because of a knee injury.

Sandusky is expected to throw everything it has at the local boys in an effort to continue on the unbeaten path and at the same time avenge last year's stunning setback handed them by Ross. It was the only blot on Sandusky's record, a defeat fans over that way have never quite got over.

With Theibert out of action, the Blue Streaks probably will resort to tricky reverses and fake hand-off plays, something at which they are extremely proficient. Two years ago at Sandusky, Theibert and Darrell Hurlburt worked them to perfection as Ross was toppled, 29-7. The play is set up with the tailback going wide, holding the ball behind his hip. Some times the wingback will grab it on the run on a reverse. Other times, the tailback will keep it. The deception lies in the tailback's ability to conceal the ball.

Giants May Throw Often

There are indications Ross will throw more passes than usual tonight, especially when Ted Houghaling and Ron Whitcomb are both in the lineup. Whitcomb, who has been the regular quarterback, is slated to start at left half in the place of Lester Franks, with Houghaling taking over at quarterback. Mackey said if Franks does not start, he will be used for spot running. He also said that Jim Polter will play in place of Amor at guard.

Ross has averaged 33 points a game this season and its opposition has averaged 18. Sandusky's offense has averaged 17 points per contest and its defense has yielded an average of eight points per.

The game, tops in northwestern Ohio from a standpoint of importance and rivalry, will probably draw in the neighborhood of 8,000 fans if the weather is good. Kick-off time is 8 o'clock.

THE ROSS COACHING STAFF FELT IT HAD AN unusually heavy junior high football team when it averaged the weight of the line and learned it averaged 176 pounds per man. Yet, in their first two games the local boys met their match as far as size is concerned.

Bowling Green brought a rangy freshman squad here, and Al Ziemke, who with Harold Schahet coaches the Ross juniors, reports that Fostoria may have held a weight edge. Ross defeated the Fostorians yesterday, 34-7.

If the boys continue to grow proportionately, it looks like at least three Buckeye League schools will be putting husky varsity teams on the field in a couple of years.

The Sandusky newspaper predicts that the Blue Streaks will win tonight's game, 20-13. Howard Yawberg, Findlay coach, and Jim Richard, Toledo Blade sports writer, are picking the Giants.

Ross dropped its first cross country meet this week, 17 to 38, to Marion. Ron Root placed fourth, the highest position for the Fremonters. Doug Michaels won a seventh, Gary Schwartz was eighth, Dick Garcia ninth and Tom Wolf 10th. Green of Marion was first.

THIS IS THE FIFTH STOP ON THE 10-WEEK CIRCUIT OF A treacherous trail—pigskin predictions. Here goes:

Boss 23, Sandusky 13. Looking forward to the Giants' offense in high gear against a worthy opponent, Ross ought to be way up for this one, up so high even Theibert wouldn't make any difference.

St. Joe 26, Clyde 20. Stringing along with the Crimson Streaks to win another close one. This should be a mighty interesting contest at Harmon Field.

Gibsonburg 26, Genoa 13. The Comets won last week with a fourth quarter rally in which they scored four touchdowns. Herb Redding's Gibsonburgers don't figure to let that happen to them.

Game Has Bearing On S.B.C. Title

First in a series of "big ones" for St. Joe's title bid in the Sandusky Bay Conference comes up tonight at Harmon Field.

The ambitious and somewhat angry Fliers from Clyde high, still smarting from last week's defeat at Oak Harbor, will meet the Crimson Streaks in a game that could "break" the visitors' hopes and at the same time "make" the Fremonters.

If St. Joe happens to get past the Fliers, something that won't be done without a maximum of effort, all they have to worry about in the conference is Oak Harbor, conqueror of Clyde, and Gibsonburg, still unbeaten. That is in addition to Lakeside, not a contender but generally dangerous, especially on their home field. St. Joe will face Tiffin Calvert, always rugged, at Tiffin next Friday in a non-conference game.

Both teams have won three games and lost one. The Streaks have a three-game streak going after losing the opener to Bellevue, 28-26, Clyde won three straight before getting derailed at Oak Harbor, 20-12.

Spengler, Carte To Start

Jack Widman's ability to run is still a question mark. Both Widman and end Andy Kilsz have bruised hips. Coach Bob Smith said today that he plans to hold them on the bench at least for the first series of plays. Steve Spengler will start at offensive left end and Dale Carte will move into the backfield, with Gary Godfred yielding the quarterback spot to Carte and shifting to half-back.

However, if that combination doesn't produce results early, Widman will be rushed in at tailback and Kilsz, Lyle Hamilton's No. 1 passing target, will take over at end.

Clyde brings one of northwestern Ohio's better known all-around athletes, Jim Mitchell. The 200-pound senior plays end and is a ball-carrying threat as well as an agile pass receiver and good defensive performer. Mitchell starred for the Clyde track and basketball squads last year. He frequently is used on end-around plays and has a 95-yard scrimmage run to his credit.

The Clyde forward wall, the heaviest in the conference, averages 179 pounds, 17 pounds per man heavier than St. Joe. Gerald Cronin, at 185, is the heaviest boy on the St. Joe team. Clyde

Black Sprints 63 Yards; Fumble Spoils Late Bid

SANDUSKY—Ross and Sandusky, two rugged defensive clubs, battled to a 7-7 tie in a game of heartbreaks before 7,000 fans here last night.

Ross dominated play through most of the first half and took a 7-0 lead on a 63-yard run by Charlie Black and a place kick by Ross DeVese. Sandusky responded back strongly in the third period and scored early in the fourth behind the steady running of Chuck (Gus) Acierto and Acierto's placement.

Ross had a chance to go ahead with three minutes to play, after Sandusky's safety man, Doss DeVese, fumbled a punt, but after reaching the two-yard line, the Giants lost the ball on a fumble and Jerry Lewis recovered.

That was the death blow to a valiant Ross team's hopes of pulling off a bruising contest out of the fire.

S. H. S. Touchdown Nullified
Sandusky, operating without its star halfback Jude Theibert who is still confined to the hospital from injuries suffered last week, crossed the Ross goal early in the second quarter after marching 47 yards, but an eight-yard plunge by Acierto was nullified by an offside penalty.

Ross made three goal line stands in the first half. The Blue Streaks narrowly missed hitting pay dirt.

because ends dropped passes on two occasions and the Giants, with Julius Sims, Louis Lorenzen, Tom Cooper, Earl Asperger, Doug Frazier, Keith Hull and Mert Hoagland digging in, repulsed the foe early in the second quarter after Sandusky reached the Ross eight. Acierto crossed over the second down, but a penalty set the Streaks back to the 12. They finally surrendered the ball on the 12.

The Giants moved to their own 42 on a series of running plays. A five-yard penalty set them back to the 37. On the next play, Black, 167-pound junior halfback, broke loose on a quick opener and outran the surprised Sandusky secondary for a 63-yard scoring gallop. When Whitcomb toed the extra point the score was 7-0.

Later in the half Whitcomb made a leaping interception on the Sandusky 16. Lester Acierto spearheaded an advance that reached the 20-yard line. However, Black fumbled to end that threat.

Sandusky threatened early in the third period after receiving the kickoff and marching to the Ross 16. At that point, the Fremonters stiffened. Asperger spilled Tom Murray for a two-yard loss and after Acierto gained 6, two passes were incomplete, with Bill Mallory dropping a fourth-down heave on the three-yard line.

Streaks March 60

Whitcomb, punting against a strong wind, booted the ball to the Sandusky 40, and the Streaks promptly embarked on a 60-yard march. The big gain was a 25-yard run by DeVese to the Ross 25. Acierto and DeVese banged out a first down on the 13. DeVese plunged to the nine as the third period ended. Acierto got two on a line plunge. Three plays later, Acierto hit pay dirt from the one-foot line. Every yard was strongly challenged by the Giants' middle wall. Acierto's place kick was perfect and the score was 7-7 with nine minutes left.

Ross got its first down after receiving the kickoff, but Whitcomb was forced to punt and the ball rolled out of bounds on the 21. The Giants were offside on the punt, and Sandusky elected to accept the GIBSONBURG — Gibsonburg defeated Genoa 19-7 in a San-Ben-Buck Conference game to win its fourth game without a defeat before about 1,300 fans here last night. It was the Golden Bear's third conference victory.

All the scoring was made in the first half with the invading Genoa eleven taking a 7-6 lead in the first quarter. Don Himmering climaxed a long march by Gibsonburg with a 25-yard run for a touchdown.

Gibsonburg kicked off to Genoa and on the first play from scrimmage Jim Shimmin thrilled the crowd with an 87-yard touchdown dash. Jack Herman plunged over to give Genoa the briefly enjoyed 7-6 lead.

Bob Bowser carried the last 14 yards of a drive that began on Gibsonburg's own 34 to put the Golden Bears out in front again 13-6. Carl Bowser added the final tally with a two-yard plunge and Bob Bowser ran the ball over for the conversion point, making it 19-7.

penalty and made Whitcomb try again. This time he booted a line drive down the middle that DeVese fumbled and Henry Tiller, sophomore end, recovered for Ross on the 16-yard line.

Black and Whitcomb gained a total of seven yards and Asperger drove for a first down on the Sandusky five. Black added about three yards. On the next play, the ball was fumbled as Whitcomb took the snap from center and Taylor pounced on the pigskin for

The Giants were given one more good chance when Theibert's punt was downed on the Ross 10 with about 30 seconds left. Franks gained four yards, a pass to Whitcomb fell incomplete, Black gained one and on the last play of the game, Whitcomb was trapped while trying to pass and was spilled on the Sandusky 41.

Most of the fans seemed happy to accept the stand-off, as did Mackey, the Ross mentor. However, Jeff Delfaven, the S. H. S. mentor, felt otherwise. "We should have won the game in the first half," he commented.

The first downs were even, nine each. Ross held a net yardage edge of 249 to 195. The Giants tried only 11 passes, one of which was intercepted.

Whitcomb operated from half-back and quarterback. He reeled off a 45-yard gain in the first period to pull Ross out of one jam. He went back to his old quarterback spot in the second quarter.

Black Nets 141 Yards

Black was the work-horse for Fremont. He gained 141 yards in 22 plays. Franks lugged the ball 12 times for 44 yards and Whitcomb gained 56 in 13. Acierto netted 75 in 20 cracks at the line for Sandusky.

Sandusky's defense was led by sophomore end, Eddie Kelly, Lewis, Ed Whinnery, Leonard Taylor and a couple of capable ends, Mallory and Alphius White.

Bill Amor, spirited Ross guard, was idled by a knee injury, as was big Charlie Jones, who hasn't played since the Lorain game. Hoagland was hampered by a severe cold that might have kept a less determined youngster home in bed.

Next week, Ross entertains Tiffin Columbian and will bid for its third Buckeye League victory.

Franks Tallys 3 T.D.'s; Cooper Stars On Defense

By AL COXON

Ross high school's power overcame a surprisingly stubborn Tiffin Columbian football team 13-6 here last night before about 4,000 home fans.

Columbian sprung a 44-24 defense to make Ross battle for every yard, but there was never any doubt as to the outcome. In the final period, there was the scoring of Lester Franks, 154-pound sophomore halfback, that broke the Tiffin team's sticky effort to score.

Ross had two touchdowns nullified by penalties and another sure-fire bid was nipped in the bud by a fumble.

With Ross the scoring was going on, a junior Ross lineman, Tom Cooper, stood out as the best defensive player on the field, making several skillful tackles. Next in line was a bounding all-around star, Henry Tiller, a sophomore. He made more than his share of tackles, caught a pass for a touchdown and had another scoring catch ruled out by a penalty.

Franks scored three touchdowns one on a 52-yard punt return.

yard line and Franks scored from there on a wide end sweep. Ron Whitcomb, who didn't start because of a cold, came in at the instant in, apparently to place kick the point. He failed a placement and passed incomplete. He was hit at the play and the returner, however, bolted off the line.

Shortly afterwards, Louis J. Lorenzen, who played his usual good defensive game before going injury in the second half, intercepted a pass on the Tiffin 38 and carried to the two-yard line. Black added by a crunching hit in the East. Asperger then zoomed into the end zone but a 15-yard penalty was called for clipping and there was no further gain. The ball was on the 40 in the third quarter. Ross marched 39 yards after a short Tiffin punt went out of bounds. Asperger, Black and Franks then drove the ball to the four-yard line, and Black drove over. Black then plunged for the extra point. There were still 11 minutes left in the game, but the Giants had tallied. The closest they got was the Tiffin 23 after a 14-yard run by Black.

Tiffin didn't reach Ross territory in the first half and made only one first down in that time.

52-Yard Punt Returns

East Tiffin, in the second half, Franks grabbed a punt on his own 48-yard line and behind effective blocking turned on the speedster and ran the side lines to the north goal. A place kick for the extra point was short, making the score 19-0. Late in the third quarter Franks and Black punched out first down to reach the Tiffin 40. The quarterback Dick Hough, taking a passing drive, had duty for his first time this season, dropped back and fired an accurate pass to Tiller, who made the catch on the 25-yard line and outran the secondary. Hough, however, promptly passed to Asperger for the extra point and a 26-0 lead.

A 51-yard scoring pass Hough to Tiller, did not count when Tiller charged off sides. However, Ross received possession and ran 10 yards to yards to score. Franks hustling around right end from 11 yards out. Lorenzen was hurt in the play, which ended with 7:58 remaining in the last period, when Charles Jones, 245-pounder who was hurt in the Lorain game, made his return to the team in four weeks. Asperger cracked center for the 33rd point.

Ron Shumaker, showing exceptional skill, then took the ball and led a Ross march that reached the Ross 10 and on fourth down with five seconds to play, Ross Cooper, who had to Warren Reinholz, who eluded a lunge by Frank Lenhart and went into the end zone. Kenny Egbert's extra point was good. Ross tossed seven passes, completed three for 49 yards, 40 of them

St. Mary's Thumps

CLAUDE — A sophomore halfback, 140-pound Boy Metzgar, became a ball of fire on the opening kickoff here last night and distinguished the Flyers by bouncing back from two straight defeats to trounce Lakeside, 33-21.

The game was not as close as the score indicates. Clyde held a 33-7 lead when Lakeside tallied late in the fourth quarter and then had second and third stringers.

Metzgar, given a couple of key blocks, sped 90 yards for the first touchdown and Lamar Wott converted for a 7-0 lead. A short on one play, Ross held a 13-7 first down edge.

Cooper was immovable in the center of the line and he and his bold directions made solidary tackles. Tiller defended his flank exceptionally well.

One of Shumaker's runs,

one of which Ross had only

10 men on the field.

Black returned the second half kickoff 67-yards to the Tiffin 17-yard line, while Black netted 108 yards, and six. Hough tallied from the 10 and the threat was halted.

Franks netted 133 yards in 16 tries, while Black had 108 yards, while Black netted 108 yards in 17 attempts. Asperger gained 13 in 11 and Sewell eight in five.

Shumaker ran the ball 15 times, gained 60 yards and lost 19 for a net of 41.

Ross will be in action again next Thursday at home against Green field, friend and foe of the season.

The Giants wind up their season at home against Ham-

mont, Bishop Noll, Toledo Scott and Marion.

Ross At B.G. For Buckeye Laurels

Ross high, champion or co-champion of the Buckeye League for six straight seasons, can assure continued domination tonight when the Giants visit Bowling Green.

A victory for Ross will clinch a tie for the title. If the Fremonters win as expected, they can sew up an outright claim by defeating Marion Harding here in the final game of the season on November 14.

Ross enters the game with a record of four wins, one loss and one tie, while Bowling Green has won four and lost two. Ross was defeated by Lorain, 21-13, and tied by Sandusky, 7-7 in non-league games. B. G. was defeated by Marion and Findlay, both Buckeye League rivals.

Mackey Worried

Coach Mal Mackey of Ross said that he was uneasy about the contest. "I don't know if our boys will be up," he said, and added the warning that if they are not, Bowling Green has enough break-away power to spring an upset.

"We weren't up for Tiffin, but they didn't have a runner like Emmy George or Joe Presti," Mackey pointed out. George and Presti are veteran Bobcat backs who usually turn in a long run or two a game.

Tonight will mark the final game away from Harmon Field for Ross this year. The Giants take on Hammond Bishop Noll, Toledo Scott and Marion in that order to wind up their season.

Mackey said this morning that it appears that Ted Houghtaling will get the starting nod at quarterback. Ron Whitcomb, veteran quarterback, is hampered by a bruised hip as well as a knee injury. Louis Lorenzen's status was uncertain. He was injured against Tiffin. There's a chance Lorenzen will see defensive action, yielding the center job on offense to Charlie Jones.

Easter Selling Pork This Winter

CLEVELAND — AP — Slugger Luke Easter of the Indians was singing the glories of pork sausage today. He's selling meat during the off season. Luke is in business with his brother-in-law, Ray Cash. Luke is general manager. Ray is president and chief sausage maker.

Unlike last year, Luke refused this time to go baseball barnstorming. He said that cost him about $6,000.

"Now I'm taking no chances," he told a reporter. "My legs will be ready when the season starts." This season he had knee trouble, per usual. "This winter I'll do nothing but make sausage."

Luke wants it known that "even if our sausage makes a million dollars I won't quit baseball." In fact, he dropped in

OSU Kicker Averaging Five Points Per Second

COLUMBUS, O.—AP—Little Thurlow (Tad) Weed, Ohio State's 5 foot 5, 128-pound placekicker, probably has the highest point-per-second average in big league college football today.

Tad kicked three points after touchdowns against Indiana, and two each against Purdue and Wisconsin. He also credited with an 11-yard field goal against the Badgers.

Against Washington State he toed five straight conversions to bring his total points to 15. OSU timers figure Tad has been in the game officially about three seconds. So Tad's point-per-second average is five!

Time is not in when conversions are attempted. Time was in during Tad's lone place-kick only from the time the center passed the ball until it soared over the cross bar, about three seconds.

Gordon, Fain Lead Arc-Light Hitters

NEW YORK—AP—From a batting viewpoint Boston's Sid Gordon wouldn't mind if the Braves played all their games at night. The husky outfielder, who hit only .289 during the entire National League season, managed to belt the ball at .331 clip at night to pace his league in arc light hitting.

It didn't matter whether Ferris Fain of the Philadelphia A's did his playing at night or during the day. The fiery first sacker, who topped the American League in batting with a .327 mark, also was his circuit's leading night game hitter with a .369 average. Fain appeared in 48 arc light games.

Young Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees was runner-up to Fain in the American League after-dark standings with a .353 mark, 42-point improvement over his final average.

Walt Dropo, who divided the season between Boston and Detroit is another advocate of night ball. Dropo, in third place, hit .340 under the lights as compared to his final season average of .276.

Cleveland's Bob Avila held down fourth place with .332 and Sam Mele, who played with both Washington and Chicago, fifth at .317.

BOWLING GREEN—Little Lester Franks got loose twice here last night to thwart the efforts of a fired-up Bowling Green high school team to pull a gridiron upset and Ross took a 17-0 victory. The win assured Ross of at least a tie for the Buckeye League championship.

Franks and Ronnie Whitcomb took care of all the scoring and sophomore Henry Tiller played a defensive game the likes of which this writer has never seen by an end in four years of covering the Giants.

The game had its share of thrills, and 80 and 67-yard runs by Franks were the big blows that subdued the Bobcats but as the capacity crowd of 3,000 made its way out of Bud Gallier Field, most of 'em were talking about the last play.

That was a field goal by Whitcomb, who booted as perfect a three-pointer as you would ever want to see in high school or college. The ball was on the 21-yard line with a second or two to play when Ross signalled for a time out. Whitcomb came dashing in from the bench with his kicking tee and tape.

Just Like Groza

With Charles Black ready to hold on the 30-yard line, Billy Amor centered a perfect pass. Black placed the ball in the tee and Whitcomb booted a straight end-over-end placement that was still on the rise as it sailed over the goal post. By professional measurements, it was a 40-yarder, counting the spot of the kick and the 10 yards between the goal line and the posts.

It was the first Ross field goal since James (Pete) Michaels kicked one against Tiffin in 1941 in a 10-0 victory. That one came with the line of scrimmage on the 12-yard line.

Bowling Green put up a battle of a battle and the issue was in doubt until the first six minutes of the final period. The Bobcats dominated the first quarter, reeling off two first downs on power plays featuring Joe Presti and Emmanuel George the first time they got a chance to run. The attack stalled on the Ross 37 and Presti punted over the goal line.

Whitcomb and Presti waged a punting duel in the first half that saw the Ross kicker having the edge. His average for five punts was 35 yards, none of which could be returned by the B. G. secondary, and only a powerful kick that rolled into the end zone, forcing the ball to be put in play on the 20, kept him from a 40-plus average.

Lester Goes 80 Yards

One of Presti's punts was turned into a touchdown in the second quarter, but it was a heady block by Black as well as Franks' fleetness that made it possible. The ball was rolling slowly toward Franks, who was standing on the Ross 20. A B. G. player was about three yards away, watching the pigskin roll, when Black came up and threw a perfect block. Franks quickly scooped up the ball and ran down the sidelines without a hand being laid on him. His teammates cleared the path with some blocks near midfield. Whitcomb's placement made the score 7-0.

Bowling Green threatened several times in the second half, getting the first opportunity when a pass from Ted Houghtaling, who went all the way at quarterback except when Whitcomb went in to kick, was intercepted at the ROSS 36 by linebacker Bob Stellar, who, like his last name suggests, was an outstanding defensive player for the Cats. Bowling Green could get no closer than the 34 and Presti punted out of bounds on the five-yard line. However, Franks and fullback Earl Asperger led Ross to three first downs and the Giants weren't stalled until they reached their own 45. Whitcomb punted on fourth down to the B. G. 14.

At that point, early in the fourth quarter, the Bobcats ground out yardage consistently, with two passes, one from Jack Whitaker to Jim Putnam and another from Presti to George, the biggest blow and moved to the Ross 32. Again the well-tested Ross defense rose to the occasion and stopped two running plays and two passes and Fremont took over on the 30. Two plays later, Black fumbled and Marion Shaw recovered for B. G. on the 34. The Bobcats moved to the 20 in five plays, but could go no further, thanks to tackles by Mert Hoagland, continuing to play an all-league brand of football, and freshman Haldon Black, line-backing in the place of injured Louis Lorenzen.

He's Gone Again

After Ross took over on its 20, Asperger gained two yards and Franks added 11 to the 33. On the next play, Franks shot over right tackle, moved to the outside and was gone like a flash. He had three blockers at the B. G. 40, was forced to leave them at the 15 as two Bobcats closed in, and streaked into the end zone. Whitcomb's kick was perfect.

Doug Frazier, another good boy on defense, recovered a fumble by Presti on the five-yard line late in the last period, but Ross reciprocated one play later when Franks lost the ball on the one after a four-yard advance.

Franks returned a punt 36 yards to the B. G. 20 to set up the field goal. The clock was running out as the ball was snapped and the gun ending the game sounded as the pigskin soared towards the goal posts.

Tiller bottled up all outside plays in his direction and made numerous stops on plays directed at guard and tackle. Observers from both sides were unanimous in the opinion that it was the finest defensive end play that has been seen in some time in the Buckeye League. Frazier, Tom Cooper, Keith Hull, Asperger and Hoagland, abetted at times by Julius Sims, yielded ground grudgingly.

Franks netted 121 of Fremont's 200 yards gained rushing. Presti netted 50 for the Bobcats and his highly-touted running mate, George, an All-League back for two seasons, netted only 23.

Ross plays Hammond (Ind.) Bishop Noll next Friday in Fremont.

Lorenzen Latest Blow For Ross

Ross high's battered gridiron forces face a challenge to the caliber of Ohio football tonight when they meet Bishop Noll of Hammond, Indiana, a team that potentially is much better than its record.

It will be nothing short of embarrassing if the Giants fail to defeat the invaders, who, after sharing the Indiana championship a year ago, have lost five games while winning two this season.

Ross was dealt another stunning blow this week when x-rays revealed that Louis Lorenzen, one of the star members of the rugged defensive crew and a regular offensive center for five games while Charlie Jones was on the mend, will miss the remainder of the games on the schedule due to a cracked vertebrae.

The injury came to light Wednesday. The injury occurred against Tiffin Columbian two weeks ago in the latter part of the game.

Others Ailing

In addition to Lorenzen, Charles Black, hard-running half-back, is below par from a sore leg received last week and Ron Whitcomb, hounded all season by injuries, is still limping. Jones isn't 100 per cent, the 245-pound center still bothered from a leg injury given him by Lorain.

Mal Mackey, disturbed over the news that Lorenzen is lost for the season, sighed: "Outside of the opener, we have never had the same team we planned at the start of the season."

Despite injuries which sidelined some and retarded the play of others, the Giants have moved through a strong schedule in good shape. They thumped Cambridge, currently the leader of the Central Ohio League, 47-20, while at full strength in the opener, lost to Lorain in a heartbreaker, 21-13, spanked Fostoria, 58-20, edged Findlay, 13-12, tied Sandusky, 7-7, whipped Tiffin, 33-6, and overpowered Bowling Green 17-0.

Bishop Noll is not the biggest team Fremont has met this season, but the invaders are not small and they have well-built boys ranged from 170 to 190 dominating the line. The heaviest is 190-pound Bob Stupek, junior tackle, while the smallest is guard Bill Miesch, 155.

Noll Captain Is Out

The Warriors will be without their captain and fullback, Walter Mauch, according to Coach Karl Huffine.

Huffine is in his fourth season at Bishop Noll after returning to the head coaching ranks. He was football coach at Hammond High for 20 years. From 1937 to 1945, he was director of physical education and athletics in Hammond public schools.

The school has an enrollment of 550 boys and 650 girls. The school colors are royal blue and gold.

Ross will be wearing its dark uniforms tonight instead of white, traditional attire for home games.

IT'S THE TIME OF WEEK WE PLAY OUR LITTLE GAME entitled "foolhardy football prognostications," or, "how to lose friends overnight." Here goes with Session No. 8:

Ross 20, Hammond Bishop Noll 6. This is hard one to figure. We feel that it is going to be a tough football game, although Bishop Noll's record doesn't show it. Ross is below par physically, both on the line and in the backfield. It would be mighty embarrassing for a good Ohio team to lose to an Indiana team that doesn't rank high in its own back yard.

St. Joe 27, Gibsonsburg 7. The Crimson Streaks didn't have any trouble with Oak Harbor, and they are hungry for Sandusky Bay Conference honors. This is the last major obstacle for St. Joe, and the Streaks have been able to get "up" for their other big ones.

Bowling Green 20, Fostoria 13. Picking the Bobcats to wind up their season with a victory, which would give Ross the Buckeye League championship.

Sandusky 20, Findlay 7. The Blue Streaks' forward wall too much for the spunky Trojans.

Sandusky St. Mary's 20, Clyde 7. The Panthers notch their fourth straight win after a faltering start.

Oak Harbor 26, Elmore 13. The slippery Elmore backs, Norm Semrock and Dick Dolph, may give the Rockets some anxious moments.

Port Clinton 20, Lakeside 0. Neither team has won a game. The Redskins have met the toughest opponents.

Massillon 40, Toledo Waite 13. The Tigers aren't going to be stopped by Waite or anyone else this season, but Chuck Mather may take it easy on the Indians since Les Binkley's been having so much alumni trouble as well as difficulty in crashing the win column.

Lakewood 14, Toledo DeVilbiss 7. Lakewood wins a bruising contest.

Springfield 27, Lima Central 6. The down-staters are still in the running for the Ohio championship.

Ohio State 14, Northwestern 13. Little Tad Weed decides one with his talented toe.

Purdue 21, Michigan State 14. The upset Special. The Boilermakers might have their sights set on the Rose Bowl, and this game doesn't mean a thing as far as Pasadena is concerned, but they likely will go all-out to knock off the nation's No. 1 team.

Minnesota 20, Iowa 7. The Hawkeyes aren't likely to be as high for the Gophers as they were for the Buckeyes.

Michigan 27, Illinois 14. The Wolverines are getting stronger as the season rolls on.

Notre Dame 20, Navy 13. The Irish and Middies wage an exciting battle before 80,000.

JUST PICKING the winners: Tiffin Columbian over Kenton, Fostoria St. Werhelin's over Genoa, Toledo Central over Toledo Woodward, Defiance over Toledo Macomber, Canton McKinley to surprise Mansfield, Shelby over Upper Sandusky, Alliance over Canton Lincoln, Barberton over Cuyahoga Falls, Bellevue over Cyrus, Tiffin Calvert over Perryburg, East Liverpool over Salem, Middletown over Dayton Fairview, Columbia over Cornell, Indiana over Pitt, Holy Cross over Marquette, UCLA over California.

OHIOANS HOLD PROMINENT ROLES

80,000 To Witness N. Dame-Navy Game

CLEVELAND—A full house of 80,000 is expected at Municipal Stadium Saturday for favored Notre Dame's joust with Navy, the first major college game here in two years.

Notre Dame—building towards the day when the Irish again will be a gridiron terror—brings in a young club sparked by two stand-out backs, quarterback Ralph Guglielmi of Columbus, O., and half-back John Lattner, from Pennsylvania.

Franks Nets 236 Yards, Scores Four Touchdowns; 'I' Formation Springs Two T.D.'s For Giants

By Al Coxon

Two injury-riddled teams, Fremont Ross and Bishop O'Driscoll, put on a thrilling football game before 4,000 fans here last night and it took a great running performance by Sophomore Lester Franks to give highly favored Ross a 33-26 victory.

The Warriors took to the air to give the partisan crowd many anxious moments, but little Lester, playing with a broken foot, was in the first moments of the game, dazzling the crowd and damaged the Hammond team with his lightning-fast sprints to rack up four touchdowns.

Franks netted 236 yards in 25 running attempts, and his half-back running mate, Charlie Black added 88 in 10 attempts before he was injured early in the fourth period.

Line Blocking Good

Hammond twice held the lead, the second time in the third period, but each time Ross group would return to the occasion, thanks to the running of Franks and Black and some excellent line blocking, especially by right end Cyril Kline, tackle Mert Hoagland and guard Billy Taborn.

Coach Mal Mackey's charges had to be content to settle for two touchdowns in the first half, then went back to their split T in the second half.

Bishop Noll passed 23 times and had 11 completions for 200 yards. Two of the have went for touchdowns.

Hammond scored first, racing 48 yards after Penney's fumbled handoff. Steve Penney,

Franks Dashes 23

Ross still holding the T, split after taking the next kick-off and after an exchange of punts, shifted into the "I" formation to march 64 yards, the last 10 yards being covered by Franks following a 15-yard gain by Black. Ron Whitcomb, still not able to run on his injured leg, had an extra point for a 7-6 Ross lead.

One play later Ross was in the end zone again after a Hull covered 20 yards by O'Driscoll on the Hammond 31. Franks, taking a handoff from quarterback T. H. Hontz in the "I" formation, scored off the right side of the line and followed his interference to go all the way. While the ball was wide, he was wide with only two more yards to go.

With only two more yards to go seconds left in the second period, Hammond bombarded the Ross secondary with passes and moved 80 yards with the play off the right side of the line and followed his interference to go all the way. While the ball was wide, he was wide with only two more yards to go.

O'Driscoll put Hammond in the lead early in the third period when he took a handoff from Hontz and out and Kolek's kick's ran the count to 20-13.

But the lead didn't last long. Franks, who had been held to 14 and dashed to the Ross 41, Black reeled off an 11-yard gain, Franks added five, then came back for 10 to Hammond. Houghtaling plunged to the 17, Franks gained to the nine, then Franks went around end to score. Whitcomb's toe tied the score at 20-20.

O'Driscoll's replacement, Ed Gandy, got a short punt that carried out to the 28 and Black took charge. He covered the distance in three plays, scoring from the four yard line. Whitcomb's replacement was off to the right for a 26-20 count with 11:35 left in the game.

Black, recovering from the T again in the second half, continued to gain yardage easily on the ground. Black and Franks led another four-quarter march that saw Franks spinning away from several tacklers to score from 28 yards out. Whitcomb's replacement made the score 33-20. Noll's final touchdown came

Clyde Bows To Panthers Despite Long Runs, 21-19

SANDUSKY — Sandusky St. Mary's nipped Clyde 21-19 in a thrilling football game here last night.

The Panthers scored their touchdowns after long marches, but the Fliers used three explosive plays to make it a hair-raising contest. First downs favored Sandusky 15-13.

Jim Manner, Jerry Keegan and Bob Metzgar, season-long stars for Bob Miller's aggregation made the long journey.

Manner had 76 yards to put the ball on the St. Mary's 25 in the first quarter and John Jackson scored from the 25. The runs came and Clyde had backed to the 15, but Manner had 13 yards to go ahead 7-6 in the first period. Jim Manner's 13-yard dash, ending a Manner march, Joe Jackson's 10-yard run and Manner's 10-yard run.

Manner made a sensational catch of a pass from Sonny Herzog, a 25-yard play in the second period, to end a 75-yard march.

The catch was made as the player was falling down. Observers said he caught the ball between his knees as he grabbed it before it hit the ground.

In the third period, Jim Blackwood's punt pushed Clyde back to the one-foot line, but Jerry Keegan had 10 yards to put the ball on the 15 and Floyd Thornton uncorked a scoring pass to Manner.

St. Mary's registered after an 11-yard sustained march in the fourth period, Herzog passing to Chuck Locooc 20 yards for a touchdown, only to have the referee say that Locooc was in. With five minutes left, Metzgar intercepted a pass and sprinted 80 yards to pull Clyde within two yards of a tie.

St. Mary's 7 7 0 7-21
Clyde 6 7 7 19

St. Mary's scoring: Touchdowns, Manner 2, Locooc; extra points, Lang 3 (place kicks).

Clyde scoring: Touchdowns, Jackson, Mitchell, Metzgar; extra points, Watt (place kick).

Green Springs Defeats Jackson

CLYDE — Green Springs and Jackson, two of the best football squads, after playing a 12-12 tie the earlier in the season, tried again here last night and this time Jackson won 19-12.

Jackson grabbed a 120-yard time lead on touchdowns by Don Hauert, but Gerald Robinson and Mark Turner dashed 13 after catching a pass in the fourth and Hayes plunked over for the extra point to turn the tie.

It was the final game for both teams. Green Springs won three, lost four and tied one.

MERCHEWS AT HOME

TOKYO — With the exception of Capt. Johnny McGrath, who still is nursing a badly sprained ankle, the championship Toledo team will be at full strength for their opening home hockey game against the Troy Bruins at the Sports Arena tonight.

LAKESIDE

Giants Have Won Four Straight Over Toledoans

Ross and Toledo Scott, a couple of eager-beaver football teams, will square off tonight at Harmon Field in what should be another close, hard-hitting game.

Scott's won-lost record isn't impressive, but Artie Brighton's Bulldogs are better than the record indicates and the Ross mentors are fearful of the worst.

The Giants have won six games, lost one and tied one and have lost only one of their last 22 games. In addition, they have won their last four meetings with Scott. The series between the schools has resulted in six wins for Ross, five for Scott and there has been one tie, so a victory for Scott tonight will even the score.

As usual, Ross comes up to the game below physical par. Louis Lorenzen will be missing from his linebacker post. He is the only regular who is certain to miss action, but there are plenty of others ailing, including Ron Whitcomb, Keith Hull, Charles Black and Mert Hoagland.

The game looms as a battle between the Ross running attack and the Scott passing. Bobby Perez, quarterback, is the sparkplug. He is an excellent thrower and can also run. Don Mouch, left half; Bill Hogan and Clarence Williams likely will cause Ross trouble.

Brighton will send eight juniors and three seniors into the fray on offense. Defensively, Scott has only five seniors, five juniors and one sophomore.

201-lb. Defensive Line

Scott has a five-man defensive line that averages 201 pounds, the personnel consisting of Charles Vaughn, 218, a junior; Bill White, 190, senior; Jim Parker, 215, senior; Dick Kelly, 215, junior, and Bill Lester, 170, a junior. Linebackers are Dick Hawkins, 155, a junior; Buddy Daniels, 165, senior, and Curt Mathews, 190, sophomore.

Both Ross and Scott average 178 on the line offensively, but that's a trifle misleading because Charles Jones, 245-pound center, boosts the average considerably.

The Giants will depend on the scooting of little Lester Franks to keep the Scott defense spread. Franks, improving with each game, has netted 988 yards this season. If Scott fans out to meet Franks' threat, Black's cutbacks and Asperger's line smashes should be effective.

Last week, Ross used the T formation to get rolling after Hammond Bishop Noll slowed the split T attack. Coach Mal Mackey will trot it out again tonight if the Scott defense proves tough.

Brighton installed the split T at Scott when he took over last spring, succeeding Ralph Mericle. Brighton graduated from Toledo DeVilbiss high and Toledo University and was an assistant at Whitmer and Scott.

THIS IS THE NINTH IN A SERIES OF 10 FEARLESS FOOTBALL forecasts, and it's just as hard to pick 'em now as it was in September:

Ross 20, Toledo Scott 13. The Bulldogs and Giants wage a thriller at Harmon Field. Scott brings a big line and a fast backfield.

St. Joe 34, Lakeside 6. The Crimson Streaks wind up their season by winning the S.B.C.

Findlay 13, Findlay 7. Ross will be Buckeye League champ if his comes out the other way.

Elmore 26, Elmore 7. Fliers win their sixth victory of the season. Sandusky 33, Marion 7. The Prexies learn that the Blue Streaks are plenty rugged.

Tiffin Columbian 20, Tiffin Calvert 6. This is the kind of game in which there is no underdog, but Columbian is improving fast and as met tougher opposition.

Sandusky St. Mary's 20, Gibsonburg 7. The Panthers picked to win their fifth straight.

Oak Harbor 26, Genoa 13. The Rockets have several injuries, but shouldn't lose this one.

Bellevue 14, Port Clinton 0. Bellevue to hand Port Clinton its ninth straight defeat.

Lorain 20, Elyria 13. The Steelers and Pioneers give the fans a how.

Ohio State 27, Pitt 7. A little too high on the Buckeyes, did you say? Could be, but we have a hunch they will have one of their ood days.

Ohio State 20, Notre Dame 14. We'll sit back and watch this one in front of the television set and have a better seat than several thousands who'll travel hundreds of miles. Don't know why we would pick the Sooners, but somehow they always seem to win their important games.

Michigan State 34, Indiana 7. The talent-laden Spartans, who have three best teams in the midwest, counting two on the bench, continue to impress the pollsters.

Purdue 20, Minnesota 0. The Boilermakers smell roses, the kind that are found in Pasadena on New Year's Day.

Wisconsin 21, Northwestern 7. The Badgers have too much class.

JUST PICKING the winners: Toledo DeVilbiss over Toledo Woodard, Toledo Libbey over Hamilton, Mansfield over Toledo Waite, Toledo Macomber over Whitmer, Clay over Holland, Rossford over Ilyana, Lima Central over Lima South, East Liverpool over Ashville, Dayton Champlain over Chicago Mount Carmel, Cincinnati Urceill over Cincinnati Elder, Middletown over Akron North, Alliance over Steubenville Central, Washington Court House over Irville, Cleveland Benedictine over Cleveland East, Youngstown Ursuline over Youngstown Chaney, Massillon over Youngstown South, Springfield over Cleveland Heights, Cambridge over Dover, Amesville over Marietta, Warren over Steubenville, Penn over Georgia, Georgia Tech over Army, Duke over Navy, Illinois over Iowa, Michigan to blast Cornell, Missouri over Colorado, Villanova over Tulsa, Texas over Baylor, California over Washington, Southern California over Stanford.

Mouch Directs Upset; Black Scores For Ross

By AL CONON
News-Messenger Sports Editor
Ross high domination of the Toledo Scott Bulldogs came to an end at Harmon Field last night as two potentially good teams waged a heated scrap that appeared to be out of control of the officials.

It was a well-built battering ram, Don Mouch, the Bulldogs scored one touchdown in every quarter to win, 26-12, deadlock the series between the two rivals. Each has won six and there has been one tie.

Both teams have been arm-weary from dropping penalty flags and the amount of yardage marked off against both teams does not indicate the number of penalties that were actually called. Many were refused and others were ignored.

It was a nightmare contest for the fans, especially in the second half when the penalty wave was at its peak. There were 64 yards assessed during a 67-yard Scott touchdown march in the third period. Two Ross linemen, Merton Hoagland and Julian Sime, were ejected for unsportsmanlike conduct, with Charles Vaughn of Scott also being tossed out for starting a fight with Hoagland.

As far as the game proper was concerned, it was Scott's passing that turned the trick. Mouch and his receivers were brilliant and the Ross pass pattern deceptive.

Scott Wins on Penalties
Scott completed 11 of 18 throws, while Ross could complete only two of 11. However, in fairness to quarterback Ted Houghtaling it should be pointed out that several passes were juggled, two by Lester Franks when he had a touchdown in front of the end zone.

Franks, with Clyde Michaels making a nice catch of a 27-yard pass from Houghtaling, moved to the Scott 18-yard line in the first quarter, only to be stopped by a fumble. The Bulldogs roared 82 yards to get their first touchdown. The advance was not stopped before it began, but a pass interception by Tom Cooper at the Scott 30 was nullified by an offside penalty. The fans let out a roar when an offside was called on Ross at mid-field when it appeared that a Scott end was the offside. Both by Ross' desperation, from the quarterback's spot, tossed an eighty-yard pass to Dick Kelly, 6-5 end, and Mouch pitched 16 to Perez for the big gains as Scott reached the 17. Mouch then made three hard-running. Dan Jackson fought his way to the eight and Mouch banged out one more. Dan Jackson scored from there. Clarence Williams got two tries for the extra point when Ross was offside, but both were good.

Franks quickly put Ross in a threatening position with a fancy 35-yard run to the Scott 16. The Ross defense held the quarter, but the drive got no further. The Bulldogs held at the 16, then marched 84 yards to take a 12-0 lead. Mouch, on an optional pass-run series, was the sparkplug. He completed two passes as the Scotters went to the Ross 20. At that point, Vaughn, who failed to the backfield to punch out 11 yards in two plays and Perez collected six yards. Jackson scored from the three-yard line with 5:36 left in the half.

A hard tackle by Earl Asperger, Ross fullback who didn't carry the ball a single time, jarred the Ross offensive from Jackson on the Ross 46 near the end of the half. Hoagland recovering. An 18-yard run by Ron Whitcomb put Ross on the Scott 50 as the half ended.

Ross got back into the thick of the battle, which was reaching heated proportions, in the FINDLAY—The Findlay Trojans took to the air to roar from behind in the final quarter and defeat Fostoria here last night, 19-12.

Bob August was on the throwing end as the Trojans swept away the Redmen's hopes of a win with Fremont Ross for the championship. *

The Fremonters now have the Buckeye League title sewed up, the seventh straight year they have won or shared the title.

Redmen Lead, 12-0

Fostoria took a 6-0 lead in the first half when Lacy Lawson passed 11 yards to Duane Miller. The Trojans forged to a 12-0 edge when Hubert located Jim Tucker on a 23-yard pass play. Findlay bounced back to reduce the lead to 12-6 in the second quarter as Leslie Tate bucked across from the one-yard line.

The third quarter was scoreless. In a 15-yard pass interference ruling gave the Trojans a 31-yard gain. August attempting to pass to Billy Creighton on the three. August scored in two plays. The final touchdown was a 58-yard pass from August to Duane Miller, who normally plays tackle. Findlay 0 6 0 13-19 early part of the third period. Charley Jones had recorded a 15-yard run at mid-field eight after the second half started. Two plays later, Franks dropped Houghtaling's heave at the Scott 15 with a clear field ahead and that chance went out the window, but Ross regained possession on its own 47 after a punt by Mouch.

Black Ramblies 25

A 15-yard roughness penalty on Scott and 13 yards in two plays by Franks found Ross on the Scott 25 and Charles Black cut off left tackle, eluded one tackler and outran two more for touchdown. Whitcomb's extra point attempt was no good and it was 12-6 with 7:15 left in the period.

What followed was constant confusion. Scott ran the ball back to its 33 on the kickoff, then started what could be the longest 67-yard march on record. The team was getting tired, but got the best of them and the officials, who waited too long to get strict, marked off three major penalties, two against Ross, plus 19 more yards on five yard infractions. One of the penalties measured only four and it came when a Ross player encroached the end zone while the clock was running. Scott had the ball on the four-yard line at the time. The penalty put them on the one-yard line and Jackson scored. Williams' placement was good and the score was 19-6.

Hopes of the Ross fans were dashed when Ron Karle recovered a fumble at Scott's 10. Franks made two yards. Black sped to the 15 and Franks got to the five in two plays as the third quarter ended. Black scored on the first play of the fourth quarter, but Whitcomb's placement for the important extra point was knocked by its own.

Three plays later, Hill pounced on a fumble by Dick Hawkins on the Scott 41, but three running plays and a pass failed and Scott took over on its 38.

Mouch At Tailback

Mouch, playing in the deep position with Ross, was forced to operate from a short punt formation after quarterback Perez was hurt in the latter part of the second quarter, passed twice to end Guy Hartman and the Trojans were down on the Ross 30.

Ross high's 1952 football season comes to an end on the Harmon Field turf tonight, with the Giants striving to chalk up their seventh victory of the season and their fifth straight in the Buckeye League at the expense of Marion Harding.

William A. (Pete) Howison's Prexies have won only two games and tied one, but they come here with high hopes of rounding out the season with a victory over Ross.

"We are a lot better than our record shows," said Howison last night. "We have gained all kinds of yardage, but we have had things happen when we get close to the goal line.

Points To Tough Breaks

Howison pointed out that two touchdowns were called back in the 20-20 tie with Findlay and that another was recalled in the 13-6 loss to Ashland. "We averaged about 300 yards on the ground and 15 to 20 first downs rushing for seven games, but something always happened when we got in scoring position," moaned Howison.

The Prexies will not have the services of their regular center, Jack Fees. He was hurt two weeks ago. In his place will be a sophomore, Bob Caldwell, 165-pounder. Another sophomore in the Harding starting lineup is Don Schweinfurth, 140-pound quarterback. His passing the last three weeks has made the Harding attack more potent.

The game will likely be a duel between the Ross ground attack and the Prexies' diversified offense. Ross downed the Prexies 32-19 last season, with Marion scoring all its touchdowns as the result of passes. However, Tom McClain, southpaw passer, has graduated. Jack McKinstry and Chris Brady are the Prexies' standouts.

Coach Mal Mackey of Ross said this morning that halfback Charles Black has returned to school after an influenza siege. It is doubtful if the aggressive athlete will be up to par, as he has not been in school for three days because of the illness. Tom Cooper, defensive specialist who received a shoulder separation in practice Monday, is also on the doubtful list.

Marion can finish in a second place tie in the Buckeye League by defeating Fremont. The Giants have the championship sewed up.

This is the final game for these 12 Ross seniors: Ron Karle, Clyde Michaels, Julius Sims, Mert Hoagland, Keith Hull, Doug Frazier, Bill McCord, Earl Asperger, Dick Wolf, Bill Taborn, Charles Jones, Louis Lorenzen. Lorenzen has been idle for two weeks because of a back injury. Marion has 14 seniors, Jim Arnold, Ed Morse, Bill Smiley, Tony D'Eramo, Bill Bailey, Chris Brady, Jack McKinstry, Dick Burtsch, Jim Chapman, Bill Winters, Ted Williams, Jack Boxwell, Paul Rinnert and Jack Fees.

Asperger Goes 74, Franks 60; 57 As Giants Sweep Buckeye League With Seventh Victory Of Season

By Al Coxon

News-Messenger Sports Editor

An explosive backfield and good defensive line played Ross high school to a clean sweep of Buckeye League opponents last night as the Giants put the lid on another successful season by whipping Marion, 24-12.

The pattern was set after Ross grabbed an early lead on a 74-yard run by fullback Earl Asperger, hard-hitting fullback playing his final game for the Purple and White. Ross took a 12-0 lead in the second period on an eight-yard pass from Ted Houghaling to Clyde Michaels, then turned the game into a rout in the second half on 60 and 57-yard scamper by little Lester Franks, a sophomore.

Meanwhile, Pete Howisow's Prexies found the center of the Ross defensive line too tough to crack as Keith Hull, Doug Frazier and Charles Jones piled up the ball carries and Ron Karle guarded his flank exceptionally well. Linchakers Meri Haugland and Asperger also accounted for several touches.

Ross completed the season with seven wins, two defeats and one tie. Coach MacL Mackey's record in three years at Ross shows 22 wins, five defeats and three ties.

Sims' Block Clears Way

As pretty a down-field block as you will ever see helped Asperger to a safe journey on his 74-yard gain, the longest run of his career, carried with four minutes gone in the first period. Asperger burst through a hole at right guard, cut to his left and raced down the west sidelines. Three Harding men converged on him at the 25-yard line, but Julius Sims, with a burst of speed, came up to take out the tacklers.

Prexy closest to Asperger, forcing the others to take a detour, and Asperger went over untouched.

The startling run came shortly after a 44-yard touchdown run on an interception by Franks was nullified by an offside penalty.

Marion threatened to tie the score in the first quarter, thanks to a 25-yard run by Jack McKinstry, a pass from Don Schwendt to Chris Brady. However, the marauded stalled on the 11 and the Giants stormed 89 yards in 10 plays, scoring on the first play of the second period when Ted Houghaling fired a bullet pass to senior end Clyde Michaels in the end zone, good for eight yards. A run of 23 yards with those of baseball players, slightly below those of track and basketball squads. Compared with the total male student body at U.S.C., the gridlers do very well indeed. Their average is 1,434, a shade over 1,434 for all male students. The gridlers don't match the rods, indicating that the males, collectively, are smarter than the females. On the other hand, the gridlers' average is higher than that of all fraternity men.

All of which is supposed to have caused an east coast sports editor to remark: "There ought to be a 15-yard penalty for illegal use of the head."

HERE'S A LETTER sent Gibsonburg high school by the Oak Harbor Boosters following the game at Gibsonburg the golden Bears and Rockets:

Dear Sirs:

You have a fine football team, well equipped and fine sports. It was a close contest which we enjoyed very much. We congratulate you. Your marching band was outstanding. Please extend congratulations to your music instructor.

Many thanks for the treats for our boys after the game. They enjoyed it very much. This is something rather new to us and we think it should be done in our school. Thanks again.

Four-Year Old Son Of Billy Direct Sells For $11,000

HARRISBURG, Pa.—A Standardbred Sire, 60, which later rang to the tune of $1,152,075 during the annual five-day sale of trotters and pacers which wound up Friday. The final session saw 160 head sell for $118,950. During the week 1,088 horses found new owners.

Top price at the final session was the $11,000 which Ben F. Sun, Omaha, paid for Direct Sun, a four-year-old son of the world's champion pacer Billy Direct.

Friday's top yearling consignment was that of the Sycamore Farm, Mount Vernon, O., with five head bringing $12,100, an average of $2,420. Topping the consignment was the pacing filly Bay Goose, by Goose Bay, purchased for $3,900 by George R. Norris, Indianapolis, Md.

The Valley Farm, Ringtown, Pa., paid $5,000 for the 3-year-old trotting filly Kaka Hoover and K. E. Scruggs, Batavia, N.Y., went to $5,000 to get Earl's Mary Jane, a trotting mare.

Marion used a pass interception to launch a touchdown drive of 32 yards in the third quarter. Brady hauled in a toss by Houghaling to set the machinery in motion. Ballenger ripped off nine yards and Brady 22 as the Prexies moved to the Ross four. Ballenger, with some day should be making things real tough for Marion opponents, cut off left tackle to score.

Then came a play that took Marion out of the contest for good. After Ballenger's touch down, Michaels returned a short kickoff 14 yards to the Prexy 15, only to learn that his run was in vain because of an offside penalty. Late Whitcomb, leading the right end, spearred an enemy pass on the Ross 25 and went to the Marion 41. Again, the Fremonters were called for being offside.

That gave the ball back to Marion and Brady, starting from the Ross 45, gained to the Ross 30. After the Giants were penalized for a false start, the clock was running. McKinstry, with a horde of blockers clearing his path, went around right end to score with 15 seconds remaining.

Ross Draws 14 Penalties

Play was exceptionally clean and the officiating was as good as could be expected, all infractions being called quickly, much in contrast to last week's nightmare with Scott. Ross was assessed 80 yards on 14 infractions, 12 of them for offside. Marion was penalized four times for 40 yards, two being of the 15-yard variety for offensive holding. Marion held a 13-9 first down edge, but made his lowest yardage on the ground this season, 156.

Franks was the leading gainer with 159 yards, running 11: total for the season to 1,243.

Eight members of the championship Ross high school football team have been selected by coaches for All-Buckeye League honors.

It is believed to be the greatest representation of one school in the history of the league. Four Fremonters were named on the offensive platoon, four on defense.

Two others received honorable mention, which is equal to the second team as only a first team and honorable mention were picked.

Making the offensive team were halfback Lester Franks, tackle Julius Sims, guard Merton Hoagland and end Clyde Michaels. On defense are tackle Keith Hull, center Louis Lorenzen and backs Charles Black and Earl Asperger. Six of the eight are seniors, Sims, Hoagland, Michaels, Hull, Lorenzen and Asperger. Black is a junior and Franks a sophomore.

Taborn, Jones Mentioned

Fremonters on honorable mention are guard Billy Taborn and center Charlie Jones. The latter was selected on the second team last year but an injury forced him out of three games, two in the league, this season.

Three on the first team are repeaters from last year. They are tackle Mike Essex and halfback Emmanuel George, of Bowling Green, and Fostoria's Jimmy Johnson, a halfback. George and Johnson made the first team as sophomore, so this is the third time they have been chosen.

The entire first offensive team is made up of seniors with the exception of Franks, the league's second leading ground-gainer. He netted 1,243 yards and scored 15 touchdowns. George gained a few less yards, 1,227, but his Bobcats played only an eight-game schedule.

Michaels was recognized for his blocking ability, responsible for getting Ross backs into the secondary. Another thing in his favor was his flaming spirit and determination to play football. His coach, Mal Mackey, rates him as one of the best boys he has ever handled in that respect.

Sims, who made the second team last season, is a three-year team in the nation, goes after its 14th straight victory against Marquette. Last season Marquette proved a stubborn foe before succumbing 20-14.

Georgia Tech, the No. 2 team which opposes Mississippi in the Sugar Bowl, should maintain its unblemished slate against Florida State. Mississippi is idle.
