Sheets Only Grappler To Survive State Meet

Virgle Sheets, 145 pounds, is the only one of five Ross high wrestlers who qualified for this afternoon's session in the championship bracket of the State Wrestling meet at Lakewood.

Sheets is unbeaten in two matches and needs a win this afternoon and Saturday night to win the 145-pound state championship.

Dick Swedersky, won one, lost one has a chance for consolation honors in the heavyweight division. Ousted Friday were Jim Otermat, Russ Nitschke and Neil Schneider.

Clyde wrestlers, Jay Pump, Luther Long and Dick Kuns, were eliminated Friday.
