

1963 Buckeye Conference – 3rd place

Ross Seeks Buckeye Loop Wrestling Title

Fremont Ross' wrestling squad will go after the Buckeye Conference mat crown Saturday in Elyria, starting at 2 p.m. Ross finished second a year ago to the Pioneers.

Teams in the BC with wrestling squads are Fremont, Elyria, Findlay, Sandusky and Mansfield. Elyria is the team to beat but Coaches Mal Mackey and Pete Michaels rate Findlay and Mansfield tough in various weights.

Fremont will be minus one of its veteran wrestlers as Ralph

Starr, 112-pounder, had to give up the sport because of a congenital vertebra defect. The diagnosis was only recently discovered.

Curt Joseph is Ross' returning winner of a conference title, having won the 103-pound championship last season. This year, however, Joseph is vying in the 120-pound weight.

Mackey welcomes the return to form of Felix Palomo, who, although working out all year, has been kept out of meet action because of a shoulder injury. Palomo probably will go in the 165-pound division if he can make the weight.

Ross' lineup Saturday will be as follows:

103: Gary Meggitt; 112: Leon Lomax; 120: Curt Joseph; 127: Larry Kelly; 133: Mike Frantz; 138: Glenn Haas; 145: Montee Eaton or Bob Bundshuh; 154: Ed Smith, Jim Haas or Dennis Keyes; 165: Felix Palomo; 175: Bill Wagner; Heavyweight: Dennis Kreilick or Jack Pfefferle.
