

Ross finishes 2nd in triangular meet

News-Messenger Reports

Ross finished in the middle of a triangular meet and Old Fort won its first dual meet to highlight high school golf matches Wednesday.

Bowling Green shot a 156 at the Bowling Green State University course to finish six strokes ahead of the Little Giants. Finishing third was Otsego with 174.

Golf

shot a 43 over the back nine to pace Old Fort to the win in its first dual match for both teams. Kevin Guth was second low for Old Fort with a 45.

John Garcia had a 45 and Mintz 47 for Lakota.

Rick Bastien shot a 42 to pace Edison to the win over Clyde. Waverly shot a 44 to pace Sandusky.

Sandusky 183, Ross 187

At Sawmill Creek, swirling wind conditions made things tough for both teams, but the Blue Streaks handled things better.

Shawn Ramirez had 44 to lead the Little Giants and Andy Peterson added 45.

Sandusky's Shayne Fisher shot 41 to earn medalist honors.

News-Messenger Reports

Clyde golf coach Ralph Hohenstein had been waiting for his squad to put together a complete round. The waiting ended Tuesday.

With three players shooting sub-40 rounds, the Fliers scorched both the Green Hills Golf Course and visiting Oak Harbor 160-174 to highlight area high school golf action.

The Fliers are now 3-4 overall, 2-3 in the Sandusky Bay Conference. Oak Harbor fell to 5-4 overall, 2-3 in the conference.

"That was really our first good match," said Hohenstein. "We had three good scores and I've been waiting all year for them to put a good round of golf together all at once."

Brad Bogner and Ron Ritzman shared meet medalist honors for the Fliers as each carded a one-over-par 37. Kevin Stallard pitched in with a 39.

Oak Harbor, meanwhile, was paced by Bob Wolf and Robb Irvin with 43s.

In other golf action Tuesday, Ross fell to Findlay 162-170, Perkins dumped Port Clinton 166-183, Bettsville toppled Old Fort 162-169, Lakota beat Hopewell-Loudon 179-210, and Tiffin Columbian beat Bellevue 179-187.

The Little Giants got strong efforts from their top two golfers, but it wasn't enough to overcome the powerful Trojans at the Fremont Country Club.

Golf

Ross' record is now 3-3. Findlay is 3-0.

Andy Peterson took meet medalist honors with a 37 to lead the Little Giants and Rob Beck added a 40, but a steady overall effort by Findlay made the difference.

At Sun Valley, the Redskins dropped to 2-4 overall and 2-3 in the SBC after the loss to Perkins, while the Pirates are now 4-2, 3-2 in the conference.

Chris Brook of Perkins was meet medalist with a 39. Port Clinton's lowest score was a 44 by Aaron Buxton.

Greg Williamson fired a 38 to lead Bettsville over the Stockaders at Nature Trails. Eric McNutt and Jim Wohlgamuth each added 41 for the winners, who raised their record to 2-4.

Darren Critchett shot 41 for Old Fort.

John Garcia and Wendy Krupp both shot 41 to lead the Raiders past the lackluster Chieftains. Lakota is now 3-6 for the season.

Tony Thallman had a 44 to lead Hopewell.

At the Mohawk Country Club in Tiffin, Columbian's Chris Cook fired a 41 to lead all golfers in the match. Martin Reed posted the low round for the Redmen, getting a 43.
