

Galion stops Ross girls 11-6

ASHLAND — A terrible sixth inning put the Ross girls softball team out of the district tournament here Saturday and advanced Galion.

The Lady Tigers struck for six runs in the sixth to turn a one-run game into a rout and hand Ross a 11-6 loss.

"We were in real good shape until the sixth," Ross Coach Christy Holland said. "We blew the sixth inning."

In the inning, the Lady Little Giants surrendered six runs on only one hit. Four walks, four errors and a single accounted for Galion's runs.

Ross had the lead twice during the game. The Lady Little Giants took a 2-0 lead after the second inning and had a 3-2 advantage after three going into the sixth, Ross trailed 5-4.

Diane Borys, Sue Yingling, Lisa Pfeiffer, Lori Shoemaker and Amy Woessner each had one hit to account for the five Ross hits.

The Lady Little Giants

are back in action today with a 4 p.m. game against Elyria at Rodger Young Park.
