

Ross netters in sectional

Area tennis results

The Clyde doubles team of Tim Biddle and Jerry Garcia is the only chance this area has of having a representative in high school tennis district action next week.

That fact comes as a result of sectional action Friday at two locations.

First, at the Class AAA tournament at Toledo Start, Ross was shutout yesterday.

The only Little Giant representative to come close to making it was the doubles team of Chris Shirvis and Jon Ickes.

The Shirvis-Ickes duo won both its first and second-round matches before falling 6-3, 6-3 to Sylvania Southview's Marlen twins, Jim and Andy, in the decisive third round. The winner of that match qualified for district.

At the Class AA-A tourney at Sandusky High School, St. Joe was blanked, but Clyde's Biddle-Garcia tandem has a chance.

The Clyde aces got a bye in the first round, beat St. Joe's Steve Guyer and Steve Spieldenner 6-2, 6-4 in the second round and then downed Bellevue's Jeff Risner and John Fedyna 6-2, 7-5 in the third round.

There are four doubles teams left; three will make it to district. Play begins today at Sandusky High School (Southwood Racquet Club if it rains) at 9 a.m.
