

Ross tennis season ends at district

News-Messenger reports

BOWLING GREEN — The season ended for four Fremont Ross tennis players Friday in the district tournament at Bowling Green State University.

Singles players Rob Myers and Wilhelm Kling were eliminated as was the doubles team of Mark Schwartz and Justin Oxley.

Myers lost to Perrysburg's Graham Weaver 6-3, 6-7 (4-7), 6-3.

Kling defeated David Sturgeon of Anthony Wayne 6-4, 6-0 in the first round before losing 6-2, 6-0 to three-time Buckeye Central Conference champ Jack Adams of Findlay 6-2, 6-0.