FINDLAY — Fremont Ross will be sending two doubles teams to the Perryburg Class AAA regional tennis tournament this Friday and Saturday after Sarah Hull and Kim White captured third place Saturday at the Findlay district tournament.

Jennifer Miesle and Julie Young had already qualified on Friday when they reached the semifinals.

Hull and White then followed their teammates path to the regionals by winning thier first match Saturday over Elida's Schiffike and Treglia 6-1, 6-1 in the quarterfinals.

They lost in the semifinals to the top-seeded team of Rekha Pudupakkam and Rupa Pudupakkam from Lima Shawnee 6-0, 6-2, but bounced back to win the consolation match over Courtney Wiesenmayer and Kelly Cole of Wapakoneta 6-3, 4-6, 7-5.

Miesle and Young also lost to the Shawnee duo in the finals to get second overall.

In singles action, Dian Schepflin fell short in her bid to become the fifth Ross player to advance. Schepflin, after two victories Friday, fell in her first match Saturday to Tracy Fanning of Celina 6-2, 6-0.
