Quality, not quantity for Ross

"Don't go near the water" is not the phrase to adopt when you coach a swim team.

Art Bucci, the new head coach of the Ross Little Giants tankers, may feel that way when his team has to venture outside of the comfy confines of the Fremont Junior High pool which serves as the Ross watery home.

With only a 13-member squad, Bucci will be lucky to escape with a win in the large pools. In the larger pools, the Ross mentor may wish his team did not have to "go near the water."

"We do have quality but not quantity," Bucci pointed out. "The way the scoring is set up, we should do alright in a four-lane pool but in a six-lane pool, our shortage on bodies will hurt us."

The scoring for a four-lane pool is 4-2-1 for individual events and 6-3-1 in relays. For a six-lane pool, it is 6-4-3-2-1 on individuals and 8-4-2 in relays. The added scoring spots, especially in the individuals will crop up against Ross.

Bucci can smile a little, seven of the 13 dual meets for Ross are at home.

The Little Giants finished second in the Buckeye Conference last season but gone from the squad are standouts Kirk Hess, Marty Mason, and Mike Keller. One BC champ, junior Hal Hawk is set to defend his backstroke title.

Bucci feels that going for the win in the larger pools may not be all that important (because of the numbers shortage). Instead, "Improvement will be the big thing and that is what we will work on," he said.

As far as strong points on this year's squad, Bucci says, "The backstroke, breaststroke, and the sprints in freestyle should be pretty good. Where we have to build is in the distance (500) freestyle . . . we have some young kids working hard in this area."

In the medley relay, Bucci listed a combination of any four swimmers: senior Pat Casey, backstroke, Tom Messina and Kevin Casey, junior breaststrokers, senior Terry Nitschke or Hawk at butterfly with freestylers Brett McKitrick, senior, and sophomores Charlie Lease and Doug Ackerman.

"Depending on who I put in the medley, I think it has the possibility to qualify for the state," Bucci said.

In other events, Bucci listed his swimmers who could be swimming in the events.

McKitrick, Ackerman, Mark Porzak (sophomore), and Lease will swim the freestyles. Porzak and Lease will probably handle the 500-yard event.

In the breaststroke, Nitschke, Kevin Casey, and Messina will compete. Hawk, Brian Koenig (sophomore), Pat Casey, and Porzak will be in the backstroke while in the butterfly, Hawk, McKitrick, and Nitschke all could be in the event at some point in the season.

Scott Heschel, third in the BC in diving a year ago, will be the top returnee along with junior Carol Gottron.

Ross will open Saturday with a trip to Upper Arlington. Findlay will also be in the 2 p.m. meet.

The first home meet for the Little Giants will be Wednesday, Dec. 10 at 4 p.m. with Port Clinton.

Messina's victory highlights Ross swim team debut

UPPER ARLINGTON — Ross came in third in a three-team swim meet but first year coach Art Bucci was happy.

"We had several swimmers better their times and the medley relay team really had a good time for this early in the season," he said.

Upper Arlington, an annual state powerhouse in the water world, dominated the meet with 142 points to make the meet a two-way battle between Buckeye Conference schools Ross and Findlay.

The Trojans won that battle but by only a 69-66 margin.

"Tom Messina did a heck of a job for us," Bucci pointed out. "He bettered his time by over five seconds."

Messina, a junior, led a Ross one-two finish in the breaststroke, nipping teammate Kevin Casey by a little over a tenth of a second. Messina, whose best time had been a 1:15-plus in the event splashed to a 1:10.535 to Casey's 1:10.677.

That race was the best showing that the Little Giants tankers had during the afternoon. Upper Arlington won nine of the 11 events including both relays. Findlay's Todd Worthington glided to a 53.734 to win the butterfly and give the Trojans their only win of the day.

Bucci's medley relay paddled to a 1:53.975 for second spot behind Upper Arlington. Brian Koenig swam the first backstroke leg in 28.8 and Kevin Casey posted a 31.2 split in the breaststroke. Terry Nitschke recorded a 25.6 butterfly split and Charlie Lease closed out the medley with a 27.6 freestyle leg.

Messina was named the Little Giant's "swimmer of the week" for his efforts.

Ross will host Port Clinton at 4 p.m. Wednesday at the junior high pool in its first home encounter.

"In fact," Gregg said, "most of our older players are really looking forward to coming back next year. I've already talked to Walter Johnson. I feel he's played very well this season and he's got a number of good years left in him."

The big defensive tackle is the older statesman of the Browns, playing in his 11th season since coming out of California State at Los Angeles.

Tight end Milt Morin, a product of the University of Massachusetts, is right behind with 10 years in the National Football League. Gregg indicated that Morin is expected to remain in a Cleveland uniform in 1976, although he has seen little action this season because of the sparkling play of rookie Oscar Roan.

Juggling act gives Ross win over Port Clinton

By BOB MARKER
N-M Sports Editor

By profession, Art Bucci is a teacher and secondarily, a swimming coach. Wednesday, he took a third profession that usually goes hand in hand with a swim coach's job: juggling.

Bucci played the percentages and jugged his lineup against Port Clinton in the first home meet of the young season for the Little Giants and it paid off with a 43-40 victory.

One of Bucci's juggling tricks was moving top backstroker Hal Hawk out of his specialty and into the butterfly.

"I did that because I felt that we could 'one-two'em,'" the Ross coach referring to what swimmers refer to as taking the top two spots in an event.

"Of course," Bucci continued, "We had to have at least a third from Pat Casey in the backstroke. I was pretty sure that Brian Koenig could win the back."

Bucci's tricks could not have worked any better had he invented juggling. Hawk was second behind Little Giant Terry Nitschke's 58.6 in the butterfly with a 1:03.4. Casey responded with what Bucci wanted with a third by less than a half length over Port Clinton's Frank Savage in the backstroke.

With Casey's part in Bucci's act completed, Ross set themselves up for the final event, the 400-yard freestyle relay, with a clean sweep of the top two spots in the breaststroke. Tom Messina won his second straight race in that event with a 1:10.8, shading teammate Kevin Casey's 1:11.2.

"If we had not gotten all those points in the back and the breaststroke, then we would have gone into the freestyle relay knowing that we would have to win it,"

Bucci explained. "Instead all we needed was a second."

Brett McKittrick, who won the 200 free but tied with Port Clinton's Rick Enderle in 100-yard freestyle sprint, swam the first leg of the final relay event and built up a two length lead. Even though Ross lost the lead on the next leg of the race, McKittrick's fast start assured the Little Giants of the second spot.

"We are coming right along," Bucci said while toweling off from a trip into the pool sponsored by his team after the win. "I believe everyone of the kids bettered their time."

Ross' next meet is Saturday in the Upper Arlington Invitational.

Ross 43, Port Clinton 40.

FREESTYLER BRETT MCKITTRICK WON THE 200 AND TIED FOR THE TOP SPOT IN THE 100 FREESTYLE -

Ross ties for 6th at U. Arlington

UPPER ARLINGTON — Ross finished in a tie with Lima Shawnee for sixth spot in the Seventh Upper Arlington Swimming Relays Saturday.

The Little Giants tallied 30 points while host school Upper Arlington won the meet with 108. Glenoak was second with 84 and Worthington finished third with 82.

Ross' best finish was a fourth in the 400-yard individual medley relay. With Kevin Casey turning in a 1:05.6 for one leg of the race, the Little Giants' team of Casey, Brett McKittrick, Terry Nitschke and Hal Hawk recorded a 4:11.966.

Ross won one event, a "wild card" relay which was added to the meet for the first time. No points were given in the race but Hawk, Brian Koenig, McKittrick, and Nitschke were on the team.

Other Ross finishes included a fifth in the 400-yard medley relay in 4:04.037. Hawk, Tom Messina, Nitschke and McKittrick were on the team.

In the 400-yard backstroke, Mark Porczak, Charlie Lease, Koenig and Pat Casey placed fifth in 4:39.585. Messina, Kevin Casey, Koenig and Porczak breaststroked their way to a 4:52.723 for fifth.

In the 400-yard freestyle relay, Doug Ackerman, Pat Casey, Lease and Carol Gottron recorded a 4:14.5, good enough for fifth.

Ross coach Art Bucci pointed to the time improvements and said that he was happy with the performance of his team.

Hawk lowered his seasonal best in the backstroke to 1:02.3 and Nitschke was timed in 58.0 for his butterfly low this season. Nitschke also recorded his best time to date in the breaststroke with a 1:07.9.

Messina paddled to a 1:09.6 in the breaststroke for his best time and Pat Casey was caught in 1:10.9 in the backstroke for her best.

In other Ross swimming news, Koenig was named as the team's "swimmer of the week." Koenig was first in the backstroke against Port Clinton last Wednesday in 1:02.6 and was timed in 1:12.6 in the breaststroke at the Upper Arlington relays.

Ross will travel to Findlay next Saturday in its next appearance.

Trojan tankers slip by Ross

The Ross High School swimming team dropped a 47-36 meet to Buckeye Conference rival Findlay Saturday at the YMCA.

Little Giant coach Art Bucci said not enough depth kept the Giants from winning the meet.

Brett McKittrick, named "swimmer of the week," was beaten in both the 200-yard freestyle and 100-yard freestyle by less than a second, losing the 100-yard by four-tenths of a second and the 200-yard freestyle by one-tenth of a second.

Brian Koenig, of Ross, winning the 100-yard backstroke with a time of 1:03.6, had his best time in the 200-yard individual medley with a time of 2:18.2.

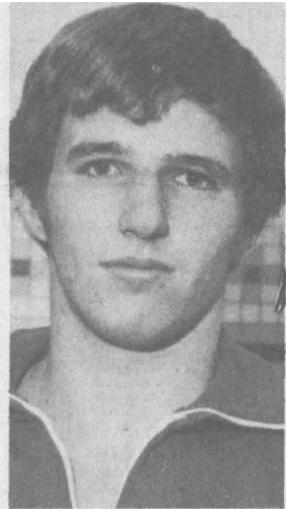

Charlie Lease of Ross improved from a 1:02.3 to a 1:00.1 in the 100 free.

The Ross 200-yard medley relay team of Koenig, Tom Messina, Terry Nitschke and Lease defeated the Findlay team by more than seven seconds, finishing with a time of 1:53.1.

Nitschke scored a victory in the 50-yard freestyle with a time of 24.9 seconds, defeating teammate Hal Hawk by six-tenths of a second.

Scott Heschel, recovering from a broken hand, dived for Ross for the first time this season and finished second with 179 points.

Among Findlay winners were Todd Worthington in the 100-yard fly and breaststroke and Dave Arneson in the 200-yard individual medley and 100-yard freestyle.

Ross dominates Colonel Crawford

Terry Nitschke, Hal Hawk, and Brett McKittrick were triple winners as Ross paddled past Colonel Crawford 52-31 Tuesday afternoon at the Fremont Junior High School natatorium.

"I thought the meet would be much closer than this," Ross Coach Art Bucci said. "But we picked up some points in events that I did not expect."

The Ross coach proceeded to name several swimmers who responded with the points that turned the meet into a runaway and upped Ross' dual meet record to 2-1.

"Koenig (Brian) in the individual medley (third), Nitschke winning that event, and Porczak (Mark) in the 200 free, were points I did not expect," Bucci said. "Nitschke had swum only a 2:16 going into the IM while Doug Rank (Colonel Crawford) had a 2:14 and I was not sure of first place points in that event."

Nitschke responded with a 2:13.5 to win the IM and added the 100-yard butterfly later in the meet to go along with a leg on the medley relay for his three first places. For his efforts, the Ross senior was tabbed as the "swimmer of the week."

"Carol Gottron got us a third in diving and I did not expect that either," Bucci added.

Hawk swam the opening leg on Ross' winning freestyle relay after winning the 200 free and the backstroke, the latter in 1:02.6, his best mark this season.

McKittrick won the 50 and 100-yard freestyle sprints and anchored the freestyle relay for his three wins.

Scott Heschel won the diving with 201.10 points for Ross but has still not reached top form after missing the first few weeks of the season because of a broken hand. Gottron recorded 143.40 points for her third place finish.

The other first place for Ross was Tom Messina in the breaststroke with a 1:10.2, his best time in that event to date.

Ross will compete in the Bowling Green State University High School Relays Saturday, Jan. 3 in its next outing.

Hawk paces Little Giants

BOWLING GREEN — Hal Hawk bolstered Ross to a surprising third place finish in the Bowling Green State University High School Swim Relays Saturday.

The nine-team meet was won handily by Toledo St. Francis as the Knights swept to the top spot in all nine events. Sandusky was a distant second (119-61) and Ross chalked up 44 points.

Hawk was only two-tenths of a second off the Ross school record for the backstroke while leading off in that stroke in the 400-yard medley race. Hawk was caught in 1:00.9 as he zeroed in on the school mark.

The medley relay finished second in 4:00.3 with St. Francis in front with a 3:56.4. Joining Hawk on the medley was Ross recorded seconds in the 200 breaststroke relay and the 400-yard individual medley, in addition to the medley relay finish.

Hawk was named as the Little Giant's "swimmer of the week" by Bucci. The Ross junior also led off in the individual medley to round out his afternoon of swimming.

Ross swimmers set three records in third win

Ross swimmers set two pool and one school record Saturday while defeating Margaretta 45-38.

The medley relay team of Hal Hawk, Tom Messina, Terry Nitschke, and Brett McKittrick lowered both the school and pool records for that event with a 1:47.8 timing. The previous school mark of 1:47.9 was posted in 1965 by the team of Mike Wise, Dan Kohr, Ron George, and Ron Roberts.

The medley pool record was set in 1965 by the Ross team of Kidney, Miller, Kohr, and Taylor with a 1:48.2.

Nitschke claimed the other pool record with a 1:06.7 in the 100-yard breaststroke. The old mark was held by Pat Aten of Ross and Bill Coyle of Sandusky set in 1965 which two-tenths of a second slower than Nitschke's new mark.

"I switched a lot of people around for this meet," said Ross Coach Art Bucci after his team has won its third dual meet of the season. "It worked out pretty well for us."

Nitschke was a triple winner along with McKittrick. In addition to his leg on the medley relay and his record breaststroke swim, Nitschke claimed the top spot in the 200-yard individual medley with a 2:16.5.

McKittrick added the 50-yard freestyle sprint and came back to take the butterfly in his first try at that event this season. The Ross co-captain was caught in 23.8 in the free sprint and splashed his way to a 1:02.1 in the butterfly.

Scott Heschel claimed the diving top spot with 224.65 points while Hal Hawk claimed the other first spot for Ross with a first in his specialty, the backstroke in 1:02.7.

Bucci named co-captain Kevin Casey as the Ross "swimmer of the week."

The next meeting for Ross will be Wednesday when the Little Giants will

Ross girls host Sylvania

The Ross High School girls basketball team will play in its home opener tonight against Sylvania, with the junior varsity game scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. *

Sandusky swimmers too strong for Ross

SANDUSKY—Ross met with the inevitable Wednesday at the watery home of the Sandusky Blue Streaks.

The Little Giants, with only 12 swimmers, resigned themselves to the fact that they did not have enough "bodies" to win in the six-lane pool. The thinking was correct as the Blue Streaks posted a 103-68 triumph.

"Overall," Ross Coach Art Bucci said as he began to explain the meet, "it was just a meet that we swam through — we knew we could not win in the six-lane pool so we just decided to try to have enough good swims to get us ready for Findlay Saturday."

The Little Giants will be back in the friendly steamy climate of the Fremont Junior High School four-lane natatorium pool on Saturday to face the Trojans.

Bucci pointed out that one of the better races of the dual meet was in the very first race: the medley relay. Ross lost the race by nearly four seconds but there was a reason to the showing.

"We missed two turns completely," he said. "If that had not have happened, I think we could have won the race."

Brett McKittrick, Terry Nitschke, and Hal Hawk chalked up the only first places for Ross. McKittrick, who Bucci felt had one of his more outstanding efforts in the 100-yard free, won that event with a 52.2 clocking.

Nitschke won the butterfly by nearly two seconds with a 58-flat and Hawk took the backstroke in 1:01.1.

Bucci also felt that Mark Porczak turned in one of his better efforts in the 500 free with a second place time in 6:10.7.

The meet with Findlay Saturday will begin at 2 p.m.

Worthington's pool record leads Findlay

The Ross High School swimming team dropped a 47-36 decision to the Findlay Trojans Saturday afternoon at the junior high natatorium pool.

The key event of the meet was the 200-yard medley relay, which saw Findlay edge Ross by one-tenth of a second with a time of 1:53.8. Todd Worthington of Findlay set a new pool record in the 50-yard freestyle with a time of 22.7.

For Ross, Hal Hawk tied the school record in the 100-yard backstroke with a time of 1:00.7. Brett McKittrick had his best time in the 100-yard freestyle, which he won with a time of 52.0. Terry Nitschke had his best time in the 200-yard individual medley, which he won with a time of 2:12.7.

Doug Ackerman was named swimmer of the week by coach Art Bucci. Ackerman improved his time by nine seconds in the 500-yard freestyle with a time of 6:25. Mark Porszak improved by two seconds in the 500-yard freestyle from 6:10 to 6:08.

Brian Koenig had his best time in the 200-yard freestyle, improving his time from 2:05 to 2:01 and Scott Heschel was nine points off the school record in diving with 225 points. Gary Bender of Findlay set a school record in diving with 234.25.

Charlie Lease of Ross had his best time in the 100-yard freestyle with 59.3 and Pat Casey had her best time with 1:05.5 in her part of the 400-yard freestyle relay.

Bucci said he felt the team swam well and he is hopeful the Giants can pass the Trojans in the Buckeye Conference meet.

"We need a little bit more improvements in some times," he said. "I thought we worked pretty hard."

Ross romps but times slip

The Ross High School swimming team defeated Buckeye Conference foe Marion Harding 52-30 Saturday afternoon at the junior high school natatorium.

Pacing the Giant tankers were Hal Hawk, who barely missed a school record in the 100-yard backstroke, and Pat Casey, named swimmer of the week by Giant coach Art Bucci.

Casey improved her time in the 100-yard backstroke by 1.9 seconds and finished second to Hawk. Hawk finished with a time of 1:00.8, one-tenth of a second off the school record.

Other accomplishments cited by Bucci in the meet were Doug Ackerman's 100-yard freestyle time of 1:04.8. Ackerman finished third in the event and improved his time by five seconds.

Kevin Casey in the 100-yard breaststroke finished first with a time of 1:10.1, a half second off his best time. Craig Messina just missed a second place finish in the 100-yard breaststroke with a time of 1:11.6, one-tenth of a second behind the Marion swimmer.

Although the final score was about what Bucci expected, the coach was not pleased with some of the times turned in by the Ross swimmers.

"I'm more interested in times than the score," Bucci said. "Today we just couldn't do it." He said the 200-yard medley relay team, which finished first at 1:48.8 could have turned in a better time, and he was disappointed in the times of Brian Koenig and Terry Nitschke in the 500-yard freestyle. Koenig finished first and Nitschke second with times of 5:44.4 and 5:55.1.

The Little Giant swimmers resume action Friday when they host powerful Sandusky and travel to Toledo Saturday for the tough St. Francis Invitational. Bucci, who does not expect Ross to beat Sandusky, is hoping to finish among the top five at Toledo.

Calvert clobbers St. Joe 71-41

By BILL STEWART
N-M Sports Writer

THURSDAY. The Calvert Seneca "beat them to the punch" in the words of Calvert coach Mike Ingram and walked to a 71-41 basketball victory over the St. Joe Crimson Streaks Friday night.

"We got them down in the first quarter and I think that was it," explained Ingram. "I think we beat them to the punch tonight."

The Senecas grabbed a 22-13 lead at the end of the first quarter and were never threatened at all by the Streaks, who for the third time in four weeks had the Friday night blues. The victory raised the Senecas' record to 5-2 and 6-2 in the Sandusky Bay Conference. St. Joe drops to 3-10 and 1-7 in the SBC.

Calvert's attack featured a well-balanced scoring as forwards Randy Wunn and Joe Williams and guard Tim Altwies all had 15 points to lead scoring. Pivot Jim Chambers had 12 and Marvin Wernerman added nine points, which was more than anyone could muster for St. Joe. Greg Kuns and substitute Mike Oprile led the Streaks with 11.

Calvert led 40-34 at halftime and upped it to 70-37 for its biggest lead of the game. Pressure man-to-man and a trap defense enabled the Senecas to force 29 St. Joe turnovers and enabled Calvert to score many uncontested baskets before the Streaks could get back on defense.

"We were very uncharitable," observed St. Joe coach Carroll Cooley, who was at a loss to explain St. Joe's performance. "We were just doing a lot of things we weren't supposed to do," he observed.

Besides Chambers, Joel Shivak and Dave

not let it drop there, though. The chipped in and finally pulling into a tie with two minutes left in the game.

After finishing the regulation tied at 63, Woodmore took charge in overtime and never trailed.

Besides Chambers, Joel

Shivak and Dave

from the field, 12 of 23 from the line, grabbed 34 rebounds and committed 15 turnovers. Shivak had 11 rebounds.

The Eagles hit 27 of 69 from the floor, 14 of 22 from the line, had 45 rebounds and 16 turnovers. Speck had 17 rebounds for Woodmore.

Sandusky wins; records broken

Four records went by way of the deep six Friday night at the Fremont Junior High School natatorium. Jack Waldock of Sandusky broke two pool records and Hal Hawk of Ross set another to go along with a record performance by the Little Giants' medley relay team.

Waldock's record in the 200 and 100-yard freestyles paced the Blue Streaks to a 45-31 win over Ross. The Blue Streaks' flash cracked off a 50.6 in the 200 and a 50.1 in the 50 freestyle sprint for the new pool standards.

Hawk backed his way to a 1:00.4, clocking in the backstroke, three-tenths of a second better than his own old mark set just this season. Hawk joined Kevin Casey, Terry

Nitschke and Bret McKittrick in Ross's medley for new school and pool records. The Little Giants' four-time turnover in a 1:38.4

Waldock, only a junior, was also a member of the Blue Streaks' winning freestyle relay team. The Sandusky flash anchored the team to a 1:38.4 as the Blue Streaks swept the top two spots.

McKittrick, Nitschke and Hawk, along with the medley relay, picked up the only first places for Ross. McKittrick captured the 50-yard freestyle sprint in 23.7. Nitschke turned in his best time of the season to win the butterfly in 57.4.

Best times of the season for Ross were turned in by Casey in the backstroke with a 1:06.6 and Doug Ackerman and Mark Porcak in the 500.

Nitschke in the 500 freestyle with 6:14.4 and 6:05.5 respectively.

Woodmore stuns Eagles

PEMBERVILLE The Woodmore Woodcats squared an early lead and then had to play an overtime before dropping the Eastwood Eagles, 70-68, in Suburban Lakes League basketball action Friday night.

Scott Chambers canned

20 points in leading a Woodmore attack that not let it drop there, though. The chipped in and finally pulling into a tie with two minutes left in the game.

After finishing the regulation tied at 63, Woodmore took charge in overtime and never trailed.

Speck had 17 rebounds for Eastwood.

Besides Chambers, Joel

Shivak and Dave

had 15 points to lead scoring. Pivot Jim Chambers had 12 and Marvin Wernerman added nine points, which was more than anyone could muster for St. Joe. Greg Kuns and substitute Mike Oprile led the Streaks with 11.

Calvert hit on 29 of its 67

shots from the field for 43 percent, compared to only

36 of 45 for the Streaks for 36 percent.

"They played good defense," Cooley commented. He said St. Joe should be getting used to the half-court trap press

used by Calvert at times during the game.

"We were very uncharitable," observed St. Joe coach Carroll Cooley, who was at a loss to explain St.

Joe's performance. "We were just doing a lot of things we weren't supposed to do," he observed.

"But we're seeing it a lot so it shouldn't be anything new to us."

Ross 4th at Toledo meet

TOLEDO — Fremont Ross finished fourth in the St. Francis Invitational Swim Meet Saturday.

"St. Francis beat St. Xavier," Ross Coach Art Bucci said, "but there was a mixup in the points and nothing was really official."

St. Francis was first followed by state powerhouse St. Xavier and Findlay in third followed by Ross. There were eight of 15 invited teams in the meet.

"All the times were bad," Bucci pointed out. "I think most of the coaches there were tapering their kids off and getting them ready to peak for the districts. The only good swim was in the breaststroke."

Mark Schlatter of St. Francis was two-tenths of a second off the state record in that 100-yard event with a 59.2.

The Ross coach said that his team did not swim well. "Our kids were coming off the Friday night meet with Sandusky and may have been tired."

Brett McKittrick finished second in the 50-yard free-style sprint in 24.5 for the best Little Giants finish. He was also fifth in the 100 free.

Kevin Nitschke was sixth in both the butterfly and the breaststroke and Hal Hawk finished sixth in the backstroke.

The medley relay team of Hawk, Tom Messina, Nitschke, and McKittrick was fourth in 1:49.9, nearly three seconds slower than the pace it set on Friday night.

Bucci named three swimmers as his "swimmers of the week." Hawk and Kevin Casey won the award for the second time this season with Mark Porczak being named for the first time.

Ross's next meet will be at the junior high natatorium against Lorain Catholic at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Ross tankers in deadlock

A first and third place finish in the 400-yard freestyle relay helped Lorain Catholic salvage a 41-41 tie with the Ross High School Little Giants in a dual swimming meet Saturday at Fremont Junior High School.

The Giants were holding a 38-34 lead until the relay team of Paul Costin, Kirk Knisely, Tim Dombrowski and Paul Vasiloff defeated the Giant team of Charlie Lease, Brian Koenig, Kevin Casey and Brett McKittrick by more than 15 seconds with a time of 3:44.3.

Earning first place finishes for Ross were Terry Nitschke in the 200 individual medley at 2:14.3; McKittrick in the 50-yard freestyle at 23.9; Scott Heschel in diving; Nitschke in the 100-yard butterfly at 57.9, and Hal Hawk in the 100-yard backstroke at 1:00.8.

The 200-yard medley relay team of Hawk, Kevin Casey, Nitschke and Lease also finished first with a time of 1:50.6, 13 seconds ahead of the Lorain quartet.

Lease was named swimmer of the week by Ross coach Art Bucci. In addition to anchoring the 200-yard medley relay team to victory, Lease had a third place finish in the 50-yard freestyle and helped lead the 400 freestyle relay team to second.

Bucci was disappointed in the meet outcome.

"I thought we would be able to win," he said. "There were no time improvements. We trained hard this week, but I guess we need more hard work."

Bucci said the extra work may have been the reason for the times not being any better. He said he felt Ross lost some points in the 200-yard freestyle when Koenig was beaten for second by seven-tenths of a second, and in the 100-yard freestyle, which saw McKittrick edged for first by Vasiloff by four-tenths of a second.

The next activity for the Ross tankers will be next Saturday at Sandusky in the Buckeye Conference meet. Bucci said the Giants will be shooting for a second place finish, while conceding that Sandusky will be too tough to beat out for the conference title.

Cavs could drop magic number to one

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Cavaliers polished off the Houston Rockets five weeks ago in their last meeting here, but guard Mike Newlin wasn't convinced the Cavs were for real.

After the 107-103 defeat which plunged the Rockets six games behind then-division-leading Cleveland, Newlin said, "I'm just not a believer in the Cavaliers. I think we'll catch them."

Just like the rest of the doubters throughout the National Basketball Association, though, Newlin may soon have to accept Cleveland as a real contender.

Since that meeting on February 22, the Cavaliers have slipped from  $1\frac{1}{2}$  games ahead of Washington in the Central Division to  $1\frac{1}{2}$  games behind the Bullets. But they continue to lead the Rockets by six games in the chase for second place and an automatic playoff berth.

The two teams meet here again tonight and a victory by the Cavaliers would lower their "magic number" for their first ever postseason spot to one.

Going into the contest with the Rockets, any combination of three Cleveland victories or Houston losses totalling three will clinch at least second place in the division.

The Rockets, owners of a 4-1 edge over the Cavaliers this season, come into the contest with a 38-37 overall mark, compared to 43-30 for the Cavaliers.

"This is a real big game for us," said Cleveland forward Bingo Smith. "We need to eliminate Houston first."

The only original Cavalier still with the expansion-born club added, "We've had a good series (with Houston). The games have been close, but I think they've been getting the right play or break at the right time."

"They have a young club like we do and it seems we always have good games," he added.

The Cavaliers, who finished a stretch of seven games in 10 days just last Saturday, now play five games in six days with only Friday an off day this week.

They play at New Orleans Wednesday night and back here against Boston Thursday night.
