

Ross stays alive

ASHLAND — Ross' two doubles teams came through in a pinch last night to keep the Little Giants' hopes alive in the State Girls' Team Tennis Tournament.

Playing against Ashland in the third round of the tourney, Ross nipped their hosts 3-2.

Jenny Goszyk of Ross remained unbeaten in singles play this season by dumping Nancy Nobel 6-1 and 6-0 but Ross' second and third singles players, Mara Tolhurst and Debbie Dierkschiede were beaten.

Tolhurst lost to Joya Mathews 7-6, 4-6, and 3-6. Dierkschiede was felled 3-6 and 4-6 by Tina Petry.

Karen Shurmer and Diane Flickinger, Ross' first doubles team, along with the second doubles team of Lisa Meek and Amy Miller came through in the clutch to give the Little Giants the win.

The Shurmer-Flickinger duo bested Penny Perez and Tammy Smith in three sets 4-6, 6-1, and 6-4. Meek and Miller turned back Debbie Harper and Lynette Schad in straight 6-2 sets for the match.

Ross reaches team tennis finals

Ross squeezed into the finals of the Northwestern Ohio portion of the Ohio High School Tennis Coaches'/Team Tennis Tournament for Girls by nipping Mansfield Malabar 3-2.

The Little Giants' girls swept the singles matches for all of the match points.

All three came with relative ease.

Jenny Goszyk posted a 6-1, 6-3, win over Malabar's Darcy Bur while number two singles player Mara Tolhurst turned back Malabar's Jane Neuman in straight 6-2 sets. Debbie Dierkschiede of Ross took Andi Nowak 6-2, 6-3, for the win in the third singles court.

In doubles play, the Malabar team of Carol Burr and Kristie Robinson defeated Ross' Karen Shurmer and Diane Flickinger 6-4, 6-2. The second doubles match was a little tougher for the visitors to Rodger Young Park.

Lisa Meek and Leslie Michaels, Ross' duo, won the first set from Laura Romano and Karla Day of Malabar 7-6 but lost the second set 6-3. In the final set, the Malabar team reversed the first set loss by taking a 7-6 win for the match point.

Ross will play Sylvania today at Rodger Young Park in a 4 p.m. match.

Sylvania gals beat Ross

Sylvania blanked Ross in the finals of the Northwestern District of the Ohio Coaches Girls Team Tennis Tournament.

The Sylvania team had few problems in downing the Little Giants netters. The most trouble experienced by the visitors to Rodger Young Park came in the second court singles and the first doubles matches.

Mara Tolhurst of Ross lost in the second singles battle to Denise Haigh in a hard fought 6-4, 6-3 match. Wind hampered both girls in the match.

The wind took its toll on both doubles teams as the first doubles duos battled to three sets before Sylvania's Kris Kanios and Joan Jacobson pulled off the win.

The Sylvania team lost the first set to Ross' Karen Shurmer and Diane Flickinger 6-2 but battled back to take the final two sets by identical 6-4 tallies.
