News-Messenger Reports

FINDLAY — Four area Class AAA wrestlers advanced to the regional meet this weekend at Bowling Green after placing in the top four at the district meet at Findlay College Saturday.

Matt Marinis, Mike Mezinger and Matt Smith of Fremont Ross along with Steve Smith of Port Clinton will be competing in the regional at Anderson Arena on the Bowling Green State University campus. Marinis and Mezinger were district champions while the Smiths brought home third places.

"It was a little disappointing," Ross Coach Al Voggenthaler said about getting only three wrestlers qualified for the district. "But if it had to be only three, those are the three I'd want."

The Ross coach said prior to the tournament that he felt that seven or eight Little Giants could reach the regional tournament but that feeling changed Friday.

"When I saw the draws on Friday," he said, "I knew we were in trouble, especially since this was a single-elimination tournament."

Voggenthaler said that he thought that his wrestlers in the 145, 155, 175 and 185 divisions would qualify for the regional but that did not work out.

"They lost matches by one or two points and then the guys they lost to, would lose by a point or two or in overtime and that would knock us out of the tournament," the Ross coach pointed out about the members of his team who were hoping to get "pulled back into" the tournament during the semifinal round Saturday afternoon.

To get pulled back in, wrestlers who the Little Giants had lost to, had to win semifinal matches.

In the semis, Ross had only Marinis, Mezinger and Smith going for a spot in the finals.

Marinis, a freshman, defeated Dan Croft of Lima Shawnee 2-0 in the 98-pound division championship finals. Croft had pinned top-seeded Matt Schaub of Ashland in the semifinals. Marinis, seeded third in the division, scored the only match points on a takedown in the first period.

Mezinger, a senior, and seeded second in the 119-pound division, stopped top-seeded Greg Bish of Tiffin Columbian 7-5 in the finals. He had to do that while hampered in the late stages of the match by a bad knee.

"He reinjured it when they went off the mat with several seconds left in the match," Voggenthaler described, "so he had to protect that lead while standing on one bad knee."

"I began to see a lot of bad things in my mind before the match was over."

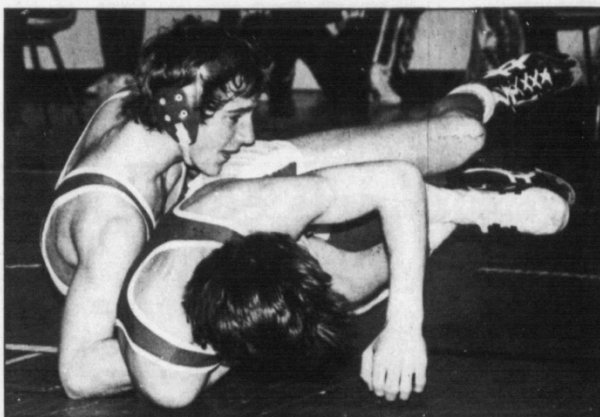

Smith, Ross heavyweight, lost to top-seeded Dan Cliffe of Defiance 4-0 in the semifinals. Cliffe, a 6-foot-7, 235-pound giant, went on to win the championship. He is 25-0 for the season.

Smith came back with a pin in the consolation semifinals before stopping Ozzie Williams, of Mansfield 6-2 in the consolation finals for third place.

Ross also had a fifth place from 112-pounder Todd Scherer and a sixth by Dave Middleton at 138.

Steve Smith of Port Clinton defeated Thad Rosenberger of Mansfield 5-0 to take third in the 145-pound division.

Gallion won the team title with 175 points with Ashland second at 127 and Vermillion third with 121. Ross was sixth with 98; and Port Clinton finished 16th with 34 points.
