The Curtain Hoister

Prior to the unbuttoning of the big bout of the evening, the Norwalk girls mingled with the Fremont girls and here is located another sad tale of woe. Coming events always cast their shadows, witness groundhog day, the shade of the old apple tree and a western cyclone. The collection of lassies from the region of the Maple City, won 21 to 10 and held the local team to no field goals, the points being collected via the field goal route. Misses Naomi Bogart and Kathryn Horn, the latter being a former Fremonter and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Horn of Norwalk, were the star performers for the visitors. The entire Fremont team played hard and fast but they had no luck when they came within range of the hoop.

Five Local Fives Take Beating Last Night

Each and every Fremont basketball team that went out to try conclusions with selected athletic enemies fell by the wayside and took a pasting by various scores. Fremont high went to Oberlin to beard the high school lion of that city in its den, and it lost 25 to 11 in a fairly fast game of ball, in which Fitzgerald, center for the college town heroes, shone like a clean heel through a hole in a sock. The F. H. S. outfit worked right well and did a good chore in holding the Oberlin crew down to a low score on its own floor.

The Fremont girls lost to Castalia 27 to 8 and the Y. M. S. fell before the sway of Willard, 32 to 19.

In the curtain raiser last night, the Fremont Hi girls won from the Woodville girls 35 to 4. Miss Ruth Dosh of F. H. S., was star of this go with 12 fielders to her credit.

Fremont High Girls Lose

The F. H. S. girls' basketball team lost a hard fought game to Castalia high by the score of 14 to 7. The game was refereed by Mrs. Earl Smarriage who handled the difficult role in a fine manner. The Fremont girls fought hard but were unable to hold the Castalia girls.

The lineup was as follows:
