Anything that the Ross High School golf team accomplishes this season could be an anti-climax compared to what the team did last season. All that 1973 team accomplished was (in order): an undefeated season, 18-0; win the Buckeye Conference; take the district title; and topped it all off by winning the "AAA" state championship.

What does coach Charlie Baker and his squad do for an encore?

Simple says Charlie.

"Our first goal is to win the Buckeye Conference and then do the best we can from that point."

What team will give the Little Giants the stiffest test in winning that title? "Marion Harding," Baker says without hesitation.

"Last year we won the Conference title by breaking the old record by six strokes. Marion was right behind us; they beat the old record by four strokes and they have practically that whole team back."

Baker isn't quite at a loss for members of that state champ team from a year ago. He has three of them back.

Gone are Jim Decker, the state's "AAA" champ of a year ago, and long hitter Bob Moll. However, still tooling around the links for the Little Giants are the likes of Buck Baumann, Scott Young, and Rob Hall. All three of them lettered for the state champs.

And Baker does not stop there. The man who has guided the fortunes of the Little Giants linksters the past seven seasons has three players battling it out for the remaining two spots on the five man first team.

Five men instead of four this year because all play will be decided by total team stroke play. The top four scores will be counted with the fifth best score being dropped from the stroke total.

With Baumann, Hall, and Young assured of a spot on the top five, Jim Nicholas, a senior, and junior Pat Brady along with sophomore Alex Garcia are battling for the remaining two spots.

Other members of the team that will be in the running for the fourth and fifth spots are seniors Larry Rottmeyer and Bill Stokes; juniors Bob Bartley, Kevin Kehn, and Mark Muholland; and sophomore Rick Shurmer.

The Little Giants open the season Monday night against Tiffin Columbian with another trip to Sandusky on Tuesday. Thursday the Ross contingent will host Clyde at the Fremont Country Club.

Clyde golfers upset Ross

Clyde High School's golf team stopped Fremont Ross' 18-match win streak by defeating the defending "AAA" state champions by seven strokes in a match at the Fremont Country Club. The Fliers recorded a 329 in the 18-hole match while Ross came home with a 336.

Freshman Tim Hirt shot a 39-42 for an 81 to lead the Fliers. Hirt's total matched that of Ross' top player Buck Baumann who shot a 42-39 over the rolling course.

"We had a few bad holes," Ross coach Charlie Baker pointed out, "but Clyde has a fine young team."

Experiencing what Baker termed "first match jitters," the Ross contingent had its problems during the sunny afternoon of play.

Rob Hall fired an 83 but dropped two strokes to Jack Cooper's 81 for Clyde. Scott Young matched Clyde's Mark Crocket at 84 but Jim Nicklaus, who was playing in his first varsity match, skied to an 88 while veteran Clyde golfer Kim Kinnear, shot an 83.

"We had a little meeting after the match," Baker said, "to talk things over. I don't think this is an indication of how we will do this year . . . we'll be back."

Ross traveled to Sandusky today to take on Sandusky Perkins in a 10 a.m. match.

Bettsville opened its golfing season on a winning note by thrashing Seneca East, 173-197. Kim Steffanni fired a 39 to lead the Bobcats to the win.

Randy Bramel and Kirk Steffanni registered 43's for second honors for the Bettsville crew. Jerry Cupp was the best that Seneca East has to offer with a 45. Don Cool was next in line with a 48.

Ross defeats Perkins golfers

SANDUSKY — Ross rebounded from only its fourth loss in the last three seasons on Monday night to Clyde to whip Sandusky Perkins by 15 strokes Friday morning at the Key Golf Course in Sandusky.

Buck Baumann, Rob Hall, and Scott Young all fired 41s to lead Ross to the 167-182 victory. Baumann's round was highlighted by an eagle on the par-5, 485 yard, fifth hole. The senior Little Giant holed an eight-iron for the eagle.

Ironically, Baumann's eagle came after he triple-bogied the 542-yard, fourth hole.

"I was satisfied with the way the boys played today," Ross coach Charlie Baker commented. "Considering the conditions that we played in, they did very well."

The match started in the rain and a strong wind and continued in that condition until the halfway mark of the match.

Rex Cole and Jeff Skaggs led the Pirates with 44s in the medal play match. The next best in the Perkins' lineup was a pair of 47s.

Jim Nicklaus rounded out the top four for Ross with a 44.

Rose to WBL?

ATLANTA (AP) — Cincinnati Reds outfielder Pete Rose, 1973 National League Most Valuable Player, said he has been contacted about playing in the proposed World Baseball League.

Rose said he heard from the league through Washington D.C. attorney Jerry Kapstein, an agent for professional athletes.

Rose said he was vague about the details but said Kapstein had been contacted "by a guy named Downey."

Larry Rottmyer shot a 44 to lead the Ross reserve team to a win over the Perkins' reserve. The reserve match was only a three-man match. Ross won, 132-158.

Ross was scheduled to play in the Galion Tournament today but officials in Galion rescheduled the event for next Saturday, April 20. Ross' next encounter will be at Sandusky on Monday. This match was rescheduled from last Tuesday.

Ross golf team wins in match at Sandusky

SANDUSKY — Ross golf coach Charlie Baker can breathe a little easier now. The seven-year coach of Ross has finally won at Mill's Creek Municipal Golf Course in Sandusky after suffering through five losses.

The Little Giants won their second match in a row, 162-172, over Sandusky after losing the season opener.

"I've never coached a winning team there," Baker recalled. "Every time we went there, something always seemed to happen."

Nothing happened last night that could cause Baker to grimace. The one thing that did happen brought a smile to his face.

"We dropped five strokes from the last match we played. I figure if we can get down to 155-156, we'll be doing alright."

Scott Young took medalist honors for the first time this season for Ross by firing a 38. Buck Baumann and Jim Nicklas were next at 41 while Rob Hall rounded out the top four with a 42. Scott Boissoneault was low man for Sandusky with a 42.

Alex Garcia led the Ross reserve team with a 41 but the Sandusky reserves nipped the Little Giants, 135-137 in a three-man match. Garcia's effort earned him a spot on the top five with the varsity tonight in the match with Findlay at the Findlay Country Club, Baker said.

Little Giant teams split with Findlay

FINDLAY — Fremont Ross split a pair of spring sports events with the Trojans of Findlay last night. Ross edged the Trojans in golf 336-337 but dropped, 89-37, in track.

Buck Baumann fired a 38-39-77 for medalist honors for the golfers. Baumann was hampered by an out-of-bounds on the back nine that cost him two strokes.

The nearest Trojan to Baumann was Mark Purcell with a 39-40-79. Rob Hall of Ross shot an 80 while the last two Little Giant golfers had their problems.

Scott Young, coming off a 37 at Sandusky Monday, skied to a 46 on the front nine at the Findlay Country Club and followed that with a 44 for a 90.

"He won't play that way again all season," predicted Ross coach Charlie Baker.

Jim Nicholas was the fourth man for Ross with an 89.

The match was to have been a "best four scores out of five" but the varsity match was cut to only four against four as requested by Findlay.

domination. Mike Pendleton won the event with a 137-6 while teammate Gary Nighswander was second with a 133-10 heave.

Larry Liggins of Ross won the 180-yard low hurdles in 21.0 and the Ross mile relay team remained unbeaten by edging the Trojans by three-tenths of a second.

Ross tunes up for Galion

Ross warmed up for the Galion Invitational Golf Tournament on Saturday by carving out a 164-173 win over Marion Harding's golfers. The win was the fourth in a row for the Little Giants links team.

On Saturday the Little Giants will be going up against a four team field that features Ross as the defending "AA" state champions and runnerup in the "AAA" state meet, Upper Arlington. Also in that field is the state's defending "AA" champ, Columbus Waterson, along with Galion.

In last night's match at the Fremont Country Club, Buck Baumann and Rob Hall shared medalist honors with 40s but it was the play of Scott Young and sophomore Alex Garcia that stood out in the Ross lineup.

Young and Garcia both shot 42s for the nine holes but both overcame troubles that could have caused their scores to soar. Young ran into a triple-bogie on the par-four fourth hole while Garcia double bogied the par-three eighth.

"I was very pleased with the way they came back after that," Charlie Baker, Ross golf coach pointed out.

To top it all off, Garcia was playing in his very first varsity match. Jim Nicholas was in the number five slot for Ross and finished with a 44.

Jim Conkle and Brad

Reichard led Mansfield with 41s.

Don't get Chris mad

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Future opponents might do well to insure that Fort Lauderdale's Chris Evert doesn't get mad.

The 19-year-old tennis star said that she became angry Thursday after losing a tiebreaker in the first set of a quarterfinal match in a $50,000 women's tennis match here.

So the No. 1 seed went on to blitz Karen Karntzke 6-7, 6-0, 6-0.

"After I lost the tiebreaker, I was so mad I was concentrating better," said Miss Evert. "I really needed a match like that because nobody has pushed me."

The semifinals will be held Saturday, with the championship match set for Sunday.

Baumann sets school mark at Galion

GALION — "Usually I'm not the type of coach who is happy over not winning," Ross golf coach Charlie Baker said, "but this time I really don't mind because I think we did alright."

Baker took his team of Little Giant golfers to Galion Saturday to compete in the flashy Galion Inquirer Invitational Golf Tournament. The meet featured Ross and Columbus Waterson, the state's "AAA" and "AA" golf champions from a year ago. Also in the tourney was Upper Arlington, runnerup to Ross in the state tourney a year ago, and host Galion.

Upper Arlington won the tourney with a 305, edging Waterson's 307. Ross was third at 311 while Galion was a distant fourth at 322.

The story for Ross was Buck Baumann who had waited a year for this tourney.

"All year," Baker pointed out, "Buck had been telling me that he wanted a chance to play Ralph Guarasci. Well, he got that chance; he was in the same foursome as Guarasci."

Guarasci, a Columbus Waterson senior, was the medalist for all schools in the state tournament last spring, finishing ahead of Ross' Jim Decker for that singular honor. Baumann wanted the chance to play that type of golfer who Baker described as "one of the five best amateurs in the state of Ohio."

Was Baumann ready for the match? No doubt about it. All Baumann, a Ross senior, did was fire a 69, breaking the existing Ross record set by Decker at Green Hills last spring by two strokes. His effort beat Guarasci by four strokes in the competition at the Galion Country Club.

Bauman shot a 32 on the front nine, four under par, and 37, two over, on the back nine. His round featured 12 pars, four birdies, and two bogies. His effort earned him the tournament's medalist honors.

Baker, however, was pleased not only with Baumann's outstanding performance but with the players he had in the number four and five slots, Alex Garcia and Jim Nicholas.

"I could not have asked them for 'one inch' more," Baker said. "They did everything that was asked of them."

Garcia, only a sophomore, fired an 82 while Nicholas, a junior, fashioned a 79, by far his best round of the season.

Ross conquers problems, Bellevue

When you are having problems on the golf course, there is only one hope for you to win and that is the person or team you are playing against has more problems than you. That is what happened to Ross last night.

The Little Giant linksters shot a 335 over the Fremont Country Club Course while Bellevue recorded a 347. Two golfers carded 90-plus scores while one soared into the 100-plus figures.

Medalist honors for the match went to Ross' Buck Baumann, who experienced putting problems on the slick greens, but still had an 80. Mike Ball of Bellevue and Rob Hall of Ross fired 83s.

Hall's round included a 10

on the par-5, 470-yard, 6th hole. The Ross senior finished the front nine with a 44, including the 10 and then staged a strong comeback to finish with a 39 for his 83.

Scott Young, Ross' third man, continued to have his problems, firing a 91, the second time in a row that he has been in the 90s at the Little Giants' home course.

Alex Garcia with an 87 and Jim Nicholas with an 85 rounded out the top four scores for Ross while Ben Ball, 84, and Craig Soule, 85, and Bob Leatherman, 96, rounded out the Bellevue scoring.

Ross will entertain Sandusky tonight at the Country Club while Port Clinton comes to town on Friday night.

Ross golfers score easy victory

Bob Hall shot the lowest competitive round in his Ross High School career as the Little Giants posted an easy 314-350 win over Sandusky at the Fremont Country Club.

Hall, a senior, shot a 37, one over par on the front nine and then put back to back birdies together on the 12th and 13th holes on the back nine while on his way to a 35 for a 72. The 72 was one stroke less than Buck Baumann of Ross.

"Everybody was delighted," Ross coach Charlie Baker said as he talked about Hall. "He was happy to see his game fall into place."

Hall and Baumann led the Ross charge that clipped 21 strokes off the 18-hole total that the team had posted on Wednesday night in winning effort against Bellevue. Jim Nicholas, elevated to the number three slot in the Ross lineup, shot an 84 while Alex Garcia had an 85 to round out the top four for Ross.

Monte Wagnener of Sandusky shot a 79 to take Blue Streak medalist honors. Ross will host Port Clinton tonight in a final tuneup for the Buckeye Conference Tournament on Monday.

The Buckeye Conference will be hosted by the Little Giants and the Fremont Country Club. Tee off time for the first foursome of the eight-team tourney is at 10 p.m.

The tourney will be an 18-hole medal play with any playoffs being between the low four players of each tying school in sudden death extra hole play.

Ross will be shooting for its third straight Conference Crown. Last year the Little Giants shot a record 302 at the Marion Country Club in edging Marion by four strokes.

Baumann's 36 and Young's return to form leads Ross

An "old" steady player and a revitalized "old" player led Ross to a 154-158 win over the Port Clinton Redskin golf team. The two "old" players added a touch of the "young" to the Ross total as the Little Giants got their final licks in before setting out to defend the Buckeye Conference crown Monday.

Buck Baumann, one of the "old," shot an even par 36 at the Fremont Country Club, while Scott Young, a veteran player for the Little Giants, returned to form and shot a 38. Jim Nicholas, the "young" ingredient, turned in a 39 while Rob Hall shot a 41 for the top four of the Little Giants.

The win boosted the Little Giants to a 7-1 mark.

Bob Cedoz with a 38 and Dave Belden with a 39, led the Redskins. Port Clinton's top player, John Gill, had his problems and skied to a 47.

Ross won the reserve match by two strokes, 180-182, as Bill Stokes' 42 took medalist honors.

Clyde golfers stun Ross

CLYDE — "Very pleased." That was the calm statement of Glen Shellhammer after watching his Clyde Flier golf team trip Fremont Ross for the second time this season. To pull off the trick against the defending state "AAA" golf champs, Clyde had to set a new 18-hole school standard on their home course, Green Hills Golf Course.

The Fliers, paced by the red hot 69 of Jack Cooper, shot a 298 over the soggy course to down Ross, who had its best score of the season, by seven strokes.

The match started in the rain and ended in the rain for the two schools.

Cooper, a senior, turned the front nine in 35 and burned the back nine for a 34 for his 69 and medalist honors. The nearest player to him was Ross' Buck Baumann with a 71.

Shellhammer praised Cooper and the play of his number five man, Mike Zimmerman.

"I knew Cooper was capable of this type of golf. He started out a little rough this season but now he seems to be right at the level that he can play.

"I am exceedingly happy about Zimmerman, however. He's only a sophomore but he really played quite a round of golf for us."

Zimmerman shot a 36-40 for a 76 and was the third best scorer on the Clyde team.

Ross coach Charlie Baker had nothing but praise for the Flier team. "The first time we played them I thought we played poorly but this time we played very well and they still beat us. They've rolled us twice now and I've said it before that they have a very fine team."

Baker went on to clarify that last statement.

"As far as 'AA' schools go . . . head to head I think Clyde is about the best that I have seen. I'd say they could go right with Columbus Watterson. As young as they are they have to be one of the best teams in the state."

Shellhammer was a bit reserved about his team but did say, "I knew they could shoot that type of golf."

The first year Clyde mentor defended his team's home course by saying, "We do play on a short course but it is tricky . . . the greens especially. You have to know what you are doing to score well on it."

As far as the record for Clyde, the Fliers lowered the standard by five strokes. They had set the record earlier this season.

Besides Cooper's 69, freshman Tim Hirt fired a 75 while Kim Kinnear shot a 78 with Zimmerman's score rounding out the four "countable scores."

Rob Hall was Ross' second man with a 74 in addition to Baumann's 71. Scott Young had a 76 and Alex Garcia shot an 84.

Doug Perkins hurls no-hitter

WOODVILLE — Doug Perkins hurled a six-inning no-hitter for Woodmore as the Wildcats shut out the Otsego Knights, 9-0. The game was called with one out in the seventh inning because of rain.

Perkins, a junior righthander, walked seven batters, and struck out 15. No Otsego batters hit the ball out of the infield against the Wildcat hurler.

Battling through a scoreless tie for the first two innings, Woodmore nicked starting Otsego hurler, Stan Bucksky, for a run in the bottom of the third. Jim Kroos' single and a double by Mitch Bowen accounted for the run.

The Wildcats scored another run in the fourth on back to back singles by Blake Witker and Dave Bloom and two Otsego passed balls.

Woodmore salted away the win with a seven-run outburst in the fifth. Kevin Owen doubled and singled in the inning for two runs-batted-in and Witker slammed a single for two more runs.

The win was Woodmore's seventh against one loss and one tie for the season and 4-1-1 in the Suburban Lakes League.

MARION — Ross bounced back to the winning trail against fellow Buckeye Conference rival, Marion Harding, with a 165-168 golfing victory.

Jim Conkle of Harding took medalist honors for the match with a 36, one over par, but the Ross depth dropped the Prexies. Buck Baumann shot a 38 and Scott Young 39 at the Marion Country Club to lead Ross.

Rob Hall shot a 43 and Alex Garcia turned in a 45 to round out the top four for Ross.

The match was played in the rain which was accompanied by a slight wind that made play over the par 35, 3,150 yard course difficult at times.

Ross will host Fostoria tonight at the Fremont Country Club in gunning for its ninth win in 11 matches.

Fostoria is Ross' 9th golf victim

Ross tuned up for the eight-team Sylvania Invitational Golf Tournament today by easing by Fostoria, 168-176, at the Fremont Country Club.

No one broke 40 for either team but Ross' Buck Baumann reached that figure for the matches' medalist honors. Rob Hall of Ross was next in line with a 41.

Fostoria's medalist was Warren McGee with a 42. Scott Young of Ross shot a 43 to match Larry Green of Fostoria.

Pat Brady of Ross rounded out the top four scores. Brady was added to the varsity lineup just last night.

Today the Little Giants are at Spuyten Duyval Golf Club for the Sylvania tourney.

Bryan, Napoleon, Ottawa Hills, St. Francis, St. John, Worthington, Ross, and host, Sylvania make up the field of teams.

Tee time is 2 p.m. for the tourney.

Hall is medalist as Ross is second at Sylvania

SYLVANIA — Fremont Ross took the top two individual medalist honors at the Sylvania Invitational Golf Tournament but did not win the top spot. Host Sylvania edged the Little Giants, 308-309, at Spuyten Duyval Golf Course.

"There were four pieces of hardware up there," mused Ross coach Charlie Baker, "and we came back with three of them."

Besides the second place trophy, Rob Hall won the top medalist spot by downing three other players in a sudden death playoff. The final golfer he beat was teammate Buck Baumann on the second hole of the playoffs.

Hall, Baumann, Steve Schaff of Sylvania, and Mark Stockwell of Bryan tied at the end of 18-holes with 75s to push the medalist chase into the sudden death.

On the first extra hole, Schaff and Stockwell bogied while Bauman and Hall parred the hole. On the second hole, a par three, Baumann was on the front edge of the green on his tee shot but three-putted for a bogey. Hall hit short of the green but chipped to within four feet of the cup and sank the putt for the par and the top medalist prize.

Baker switched his lineup around for the tournament. Alex Garcia was dropped off the first five and replaced by Jim Nicholas who had been dropped the night before with the match with Fostoria. Pat Brady played in his second straight match for Ross with Nicholas again back on the first five for Ross.

With Hall and Baumann leading the team with 75s, Scott Young shot a 78 while Brady had an 81 and Nicholas, an 85. The low four scores were counted in the team total.

Little Giant golfers fire 149 for new school record

Ross set a new team record for nine holes with a 149 in easily defeating Findlay in a dual golf match at the Fremont Country Club. The Trojans finished with a 162.

Rob Hall and Scott Young fired their Ross High career lows with 34 and 35, respectively. Hall's round included an eagle on the par 4, 358-yard fourth hole. The Ross senior used a driver and a wedge to get the eagle.

Hall was cruising along four-under par going to the eighth hole when he took a double bogie on the par-three hole. The round also included birdies at the third and sixth holes.

Young's round included two birdies and a bogey.

With Young and Hall in the mid-30s, Buck Baumann of Ross fired a 38 and Alex Garcia had a 42 for the record setting performance. The previous nine-hole record for Ross was a 153 in 1972.

John Zitkovic of Findlay shot a 38 and Tom Flavel, 39, to lead the Trojans.

Ross is now 10-2 in dual meets this season and will not see action until the sectional meet at the Country Club this Friday.

BG golfers defeat Ross

Bowling Green ended Ross' golfing season on a sour note by handing the Little Giants a five-stroke loss on the Ross home course, the Fremont Country Club.

Bowling Green had a 332 for the 18 holes while Ross finished with a 337.

Par Ricketts of Bowling Green and Rob Hall of Ross fired 79s to share match medalist honors. Scott Young had an 80 for the Little Giants who are still without the services of Buck Baumann who is out with an injured arm.

Dan Beattie had an 82 for Bowling Green while teammate Kevin McDermott matched that total. Jim Nicholas with an 88 and Bill Stokes, making his first appearance in the Ross varsity lineup, shot an 89.

Ross will travel to Glengary Country Club in Toledo tomorrow to defend its district golf title.
