Coach: Chuck Lindsey

Key graduation losses: P/3B Aaron Coonrod; P/1B Dan Cobb; 3B Kyle Gegorski; OF Spencer Root; OF Pryde Yost

Top hitters: C Josh Lozano; SS John Meggitt; 2B Dustin Shively; 1B Jered Kingsborough; 1B Jeremy Fitzgerald; 3B Adam Garcia; 3B Nick Lance, OF Pete Goetz, OF T.J. Hammer, Jamin Lozano, OF Aaron Hines, IF Gabe Sanchez, IF Dash Yost.

Pitching staff: Kyle Myers, Aaron Bates, Adam Garcia, Tony Aldrich.

Outlook: The Little Giants will rely heavily on senior Josh Lozano, a third-year starter, to provide both offense and leadership to a young pitching staff. The loss of Coonrod and Cobb, two of the better pitchers Ross has seen in awhile, will be felt. But Lindsey said his team should have more depth on the mound. "Obviously you don't replace guys like that," Lindsey said of Coonrod and Cobb. "But we should be deeper, we have some guys that had good summers, and we're looking forward to seeing what they can do." The Little Giants infield will be led by Shively and Meggitt at second and shortstop respectively. Garcia will be the starting third baseman, Kingsborough and Fitzgerald will battle for time at first base. Lance will play some at third base and will catch when Lozano needs a breather; Yost and Gabe Sanchez will be reserve infielders. The biggest question is in the outfield, as Hammer, last year's starting left fielder may miss the season because of a ankle injury suffered in the basketball sectional final. Lindsey said Hammer's status will be known Wednesday. The rest of the outfield should provide some power, led by Jamin Lozano, Josh's younger brother, Hines and Goetz. Offensively, the Little Giants bats should have some pop, led by Josh Lozano, a two-time All-GLL pick. Lindsay also expects some power out of Hines, Goetz and Kingsborough. Lindsey said the main offensive weakness may be the lack of overall team speed.

ST. JOE

Coach: Rick Barbour

Key graduation losses: OF Nick Hasselbach, OF Tony Lenhart, 3B Greg Wagner

Pitching staff: Gabel, O'Neal, Reineck, Zack Sanchez, Ruppert, Dan Licursi, Dan Sanchez

Outlook: St. Joe was picked sixth in the Midland Athletic League coaches poll, but that is more an indication of the league's toughness than it is of SJCC's abilities. Seneca East, with All-Ohio player Mike Breyman, should be one of the better Division IV teams in the state, and Tiffin Calvert will be led by many of the same athletes that have dominated the MAL on football and boys basketball over the last two years. So Barbour said third is a realistic goal for the Crimson Streaks. "We've got an awful lot of kids back with experience," said Barbour. "I'm pleased with that. We should have a solid starting team, I'm not sure how our depth is going to be. Offensively, SJCC will be led by O'Neal, a first team All-MAL pick last season. He will likely bat third in the order, but that's the only spot that has been solidified. Although the order is not set, several players are assured of a spot somewhere. Burroughs had a good 1999 as SJCC's starting catcher.

Ross drops baseball opener

Bellevue holds on after fast start

By TIMOTHY R. WOLFRUM
Sports editor

The Fremont Ross baseball team started its season a week later than most teams around the state.

That didn't prevent the Little Giants from showing up about two hours late for their opener Monday.

Bellevue jumped ahead 12-0 in the first three innings then held off the charging Little Giants 14-12 in a three-hour contest at Joe Lotycz Field.

Ross sent 14 batters to the plate and scored eight times in the fifth inning to get back in the game. The Little Giants brought the go-ahead batter to the plate on two occasions, and ended the game with the potential tying run, ninth-hitter John Meggitt, flying to deep right-center field for the final out.

"Our kids battled back. I'm just glad they didn't lie down," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "I saw some fight in them. That's the positive thing. The negative thing is we saw some mental mistakes. We've just got to play. The more games you play, the better you get."

Monday's game was Bellevue's fourth. Lindsey said he didn't schedule any games last week because the first week of the season is usually rained out.

At the start, the Redmen (3-1) looked like a team with an advantage.

Sam Fisher highlighted a four-run first inning with a towering home run over the 375-foot sign in center field. In the second, the Redmen exploded for six more runs. Chad Dearth had a two-run single, and Justin Journay blasted a two-run homer to straightaway left field.

Ross starter Kyle Myers, the team's projected ace, lasted just two innings and gave up 10 earned runs. The Redmen reached sophomore reliever Adam Garcia for two more runs in the third inning and appeared destined for a run-rule victory.

"We came ready to play and hit the ball," Bellevue coach Todd Brown said. "I'm very happy with that. That's something we can count on. Coming into the season, we thought we would hit the ball."

Said Lindsey: "Everybody we've faced in scrimmages has hit the ball like crazy. We must be throwing it right down the middle with not much movement."

Ross found an answer on the mound, though, in senior Tony Aldrich, who fanned the first four batters he faced and held the Redmen to two runs over the final three innings. He struck out six in his stint.

Of course, it helped that Brown pulled most of his starters, including ace hurler Brad Snyder, after two innings. But they would return for the final two innings after the Little Giants came up with a run in the fourth and eight more in the fifth.

"Our intensity went way down," Brown said. "I give credit to Fremont."

Ross designated hitter Pete Goetz doubled in two runs to get the fifth-inning rally under way. Nick Lance doubled in another run and Jeremy Fitzgerald scored him with a single. Fitzgerald later scored on a wild pitch, Meggitt walked and Gabe Sanchez doubled him home. After the Giants loaded the bases, Aaron Hines and Goetz earned RBI walks.

All of a sudden, it was 12-9.

"I tell the kids to stay close because you never know what's going to happen," Lindsey said.

In the top of the sixth, Tony Fisher gave the Redmen some breathing room with a two-run single.

But Ross answered with three more runs in its half of the sixth and had clean-up hitter Hines and fifth-man Goetz up with two runners on base. But Hines flew to deep left, and Goetz popped to first.

In the bottom of the seventh, Bellevue's Ben Falknor came on to close the door. He surrendered a one-out double to Lance, but struck out Fitzgerald and got Meggitt on a long drive to right-center, which the rangy Snyder ran down for the final out.

Lance, a junior shortstop, led the 11-hit Little Giant attack by going 3-for-4 with two doubles and three runs scored. Sanchez, Fitzgerald, Dustin Shively and Josh Lozano added two hits apiece.

Tony Fisher went 4-for-4 to pace Bellevue's 14-hit output.

Ross falls behind, can't catch Perkins

By MICHAEL PIDANICK

Just like after every game, several Fremont Ross baseball players swept the field and handled some routine maintenance at Joe Lotycz Field following Thursday's contest with Sandusky Perkins.

Unfortunately, there was no rake big enough to patch up the biggest hole of the night, the 11-run lead the Little Giants spotted the Pirates en route to a 12-5 loss in a non-league game.

"We're inconsistent pitching," said Ross coach Chuck Lindsey, whose team fell behind 12-0 Monday before falling 14-12 to Bellevue. "We make a mistake in the field here and there; we give up a run here and there; we dig ourselves big holes.

"And they're tough holes to come out of."

For the second time in four days, Ross had to rally offensively to avoid being run-ruled. The Pirates sent 11 batters to the plate and scored seven runs — on just three hits — in the third inning and then tacked on three more in the fourth to take a commanding 11-0 lead.

The Little Giants made just three errors, but they helped Perkins score five unearned runs.

"We're making mental mistakes," said Lindsey. "We have to go back and correct our mental mistakes. The physical ones will take care of themselves by playing more games, but I think mental mistakes are hard to take, because I'm a disciplinarian and I want kids to understand that you have to be mental to play the game of baseball."

Ross starting pitcher Adam Garcia lasted 3-plus innings. He gave up 10 runs — six earned — on five hits. The sophomore right-hander struck out four and walked six batters — four of which came around to score. Tony Aldrich pitched one inning and gave up a run on three hits. He struck out one and walked another. Gabe Sanchez pitched three solid innings to close it out for Ross.

"Adam didn't do bad; they didn't hit Adam hard," Lindsey said. "I thought Gabe Sanchez came in and did a real nice job, when you think of the score being 12-5, you just can't give up that many runs."

Garcia hit Brian Bixler to start the third. Three straight singles by Jay Niell, Brian Printy and Chad Roll resulted in two more runs and two walks and a wild pitch scored Perkins' fifth run. It looked like Ross was going to escape when Bixler's two-out grounder was fielded by Ross third baseman Nick Lance, who threw wildly to first, allowing three runs to score.

The Pirates plated four more runs against two Ross pitchers in the fourth to take an 11-0 lead.

Perkins starter Chad Reel started out effectively. He retired 12 of the first 14 batters he faced, before the Little Giants finally got to him with two outs in the fourth.

Back-to-back doubles by Pete Goetz and Lance resulted in Ross's first run. Jeremy Fitzgerald followed with an infield single and Lance came around to score when Perkins shortstop Brian Bixler's ill-advised throw to first sailed away. After an opposite field single by Kyle Hintze, John Meggett delivered a two-run double that cut the gap to 11-4.

Ross tacked on another run in the fifth when Garcia walked and scored on a groundout.

"We scored some runs early and we got the big lead early," Perkins coach Ray Neill said. "After that, we didn't stay focused out on the mound, and Fremont started hitting the ball a lot better. I commend them for that. They got down 11-0 but they didn't give up. They came back and made it a good baseball game."

Reel pitched four-plus innings and gave up five earned runs and five hits. He fanned four and walked one.

Lance and Meggett had two hits and two RBI apiece for the Little Giants. Printy and Roll were each 2-for-3 for the Pirates.

Ross will travel to Anthony Wayne for a doubleheader at 10 a.m. Saturday before opening up Great Lakes League play at home on Monday against Fostoria.

Fostoria keeps Giants winless

Fremont Ross left 12 runners on base and committed four errors in a 4-3 loss to Fostoria on Monday in its Great Lakes League opener at Joe Lotycz Field.

"We just can't come up with that key hit," said Little Giants coach Chuck Lindsey, whose team fell to 0-3. "Over the last three games, we've left over 30 runners on base. We're making mental mistakes in the field and running the bases."

Cory Magg was the winner for the Redmen, who also got a double from Alan Holman. Aaron Bates took the loss for Ross. He gave up four hits and one earned run and struck out four.

John Meggitt, Jeremy Fitzgerald and Aaron Hines were all 2-for-4 with a double for the Little Giants.

Fremont Ross lost its fourth straight game to start the season, falling 12-3 to Toledo Whitmer in the Great Lakes League game at Joe Lotycz Field.

The Panthers (4-3, 1-2) used a six-run fifth inning to blow the game open. Whitmer collected 17 hits in the win.

Fremont Ross pitcher Aaron Bates was cruising along until the fifth, when Whitmer used five hits to blow the game open.

“Aaron, for the first four innings, was outstanding,” said Ross coach Chuck Lindsey. “Then one bad pitch does it.”

The Little Giants, normally a contender for the GLL race, fell to 0-4, 0-2.

“The kids have to understand that it all comes to the fundamentals,” Lindsey said. “I still think we’re a good team, but it’s important that all of understand what has to be accomplished. Adversity is life, but we can still build this back up.”

Aaron Hines was 3-for-3 with OLD FORT — St. Joseph Central Catholic bounced back from Monday's loss to Seneca East with an 18-0 thumping of Old Fort on Wednesday, in a five-inning game.

The Crimson Streaks scored at least three runs in every inning. Jake Burroughs was 3-for-3 with three RBI and a solo home run and A.J. O'Neal was 2-for-3 with a two-run home run. Roman Ruppert, Jimmy Haas and Zack Sanchez also had two hits for SJCC (6-5, 4-1).

O'Neal pitched all five innings for the win. He gave up three hits and fanned eight. Nate Cleveland took the loss for Old Fort (4-6, 3-3).

SJCC will host Bettsville next Wednesday. Old Fort is at Gibsonburg on Saturday.

Findlay 6, Ross 3

FINDLAY — J.P. Preston held Fremont Ross to four hits, as Findlay handed the Little Giants a 6-3 Great Lakes League loss.

John Meggitt was 2-for-3 to lead the Little Giants (2-6, 1-3). Josh Lozano had a hit and an RBI and Dusty Shively had the other base hit for the Giants.

Findlay is 4-0 in the league.

Clyde 4, Edison 3

MILAN — Mike Nieset pitched seven strong innings and led the offensive assault as Clyde posted a 4-3 Sandusky Bay Conference win over Edison.

Nieset pitched seven innings and gave up one earned run, four hits and one walk. He struck out 12 and improved to 2-1 on the year.

At the plate, Nieset was 3-for-3. Brandon Bulkowski and Lyle Brown were both 2-for-3 and Tom Conley and Bulkowski cracked doubles for Clyde.

No. 1 Madison scores 3 in 7th

MANSFIELD — The Ross baseball team got its biggest win of the season earlier this week when it upset rival Sandusky.

But the Little Giants nearly pulled off a more eye-popping victory Thursday against Mansfield Madison, the state's top-ranked Division I team.

Madison came off the mat to score three unearned runs in the bottom of the seventh inning and beat Ross 4-3.

The defeat ruined a well-pitched game by Ross hurler Aaron Bates, who went the distance and surrendered no earned runs. He allowed seven hits and struck out eight.

Ross is 2-7, Madison 9-1.

"Aaron Bates pitched an outstanding game," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "What an outstanding game it was. It was a tough one to lose.

"They had a great crowd, and we had some people down there with us. People couldn't believe our record with how hard we played."

Dustin Shively led the five-hit Ross attack by going 3-for-4 with a run batted in. Jared Kingsborough and Nick Lance had the other hits for the Little Giants.

Ross scored single runs in the third, fourth and fifth innings to grab a 3-0 lead. The Rams answered with a run in their half of the fifth.

It stayed that way until the bottom of the seventh. Bates retired the first batter on a grounder to first, but the Rams loaded the bases on a double, a walk and an error on the infield. A two-run single tied the game and a later sacrifice fly won it for Madison.

"I'm encouraged, but it was one little inning that did us in. I was very proud of the way our kids played for 6 1/2 innings. But I think we got tight in the bottom of the seventh," Lindsey said.

Little Giants break 4-game losing skid by beating Clay 5-4

A clutch double, a spectacular catch and more solid pitching propelled Fremont Ross to a thrilling 5-4 Great Lakes League win over Oregon Clay on Monday at Joe Lotycz Field.

"We fought back," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "We didn't give up. We had talked about a lot of things and we visualized it tonight.

We were really excited. Some people might have been upset with how excited we got. But we haven't been winning and beating a good team like that, it's really exciting for us."

John Meggett had two doubles for the Little Giants (3-9, 2-3), including a three-run drive with two-outs in the bottom of the sixth to give the Little Giants a 5-4 lead.

"There was a lot of pressure on him lately," Lindsey said of Meggett, "and he really came through. That was a huge hit."

Ross pitcher Aaron Bates retired the first two Eagles routinely in the top of the seventh. Then Gabe Sanchez made a diving catch in center field to end the game.

"That was an unbelievable catch," Lindsey said. "He saved a double, and they had their best hitter coming up next."

Bates pitched all seven innings for the win. He struck out four and yielded just four hits. His defense helped out, playing error-free ball.

"Aaron did a real nice job," Lindsey said. "That's a real good hitting team, and to hold them to four hits is real nice."

On Monday, the Ross baseball team appeared to turn around a season of missed opportunities with a come-from-behind victory over Clay.

On Tuesday, the Little Giants regressed.

Bowling Green scored five runs in its final two at-bats to erase a three-run deficit and defeat Ross 5-4 at Joe Lotycz Field.

The Bobcats (11-3) are the third winning team in less than a week to beat the Little Giants (3-10) with late-inning runs. Top-ranked Madison scored three times in the bottom of the seventh to beat Ross 4-3 on Thursday, and third-ranked Bryan completed a doubleheader sweep of the Giants by scoring a run in the bottom of the seventh for a 5-4 win on Saturday.

"We just battle everybody, but we're not making the plays at the time that we have to," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said.

Ross had the Bobcats on the ropes after five innings, leading 3-0 thanks to the pitching of Adam Garcia and the power of Josh Lozano. Garcia held Bowling Green scoreless on three hits through five, and Lozano accounted for all of the runs with a three-run home run, his second of the season.

But BG erupted for four unearned runs off Garcia in the top of the sixth with the help of the Ross defense.

Spencer Schmitz and Tim Campisi reached on errors to open the inning, Nate Henschen walked and Drew Cheetwood followed with a two-run single. Mark Wolford sacrificed Henschen and Cheetwood into scoring position. Henschen later scored on a wild pitch, Cheetwood on a sacrifice fly by Tyler Dohoney.

Just like that, Ross trailed 4-3.

"I feel for Chuck because they actually were outplaying us," Bowling Green coach Mike Lanseer said. "The kid (Garcia) pitched very well. The inning before we scored, we hit the ball pretty well, but they caught the balls in the gap. Once we got a couple of guys on, we were able to do some things. Coach said they hadn't been fielding the ball well, and it kinda showed."

Ross rebounded to tie the game in the bottom of the sixth. Kyle Hintze singled with one out, stole second and scored on a single by Dusty Shively.

In the top of the seventh, Tony Aldrich relieved Garcia for Ross. He struck out the first batter, but the next four Bobcats reached base. Eric Curtiss singled, Schmitz was hit by a pitch and Campisi singled to right to load the bases. A bloop single by Henschen gave Bowling Green the lead for good.

Ross left the tying run on third in the bottom half of the seventh. Aaron Hines reached on an error by the BG right fielder and stole second and third. But Gabe Sanchez grounded to pitcher Nick Marten to end the game.

Marten went the distance for Bowling Green to pick up the victory. Aldrich was saddled with the loss.

Hintze and Shively led the six-hit Ross attack with two hits apiece.

CASTALIA — Mike Nieset pitched seven strong innings as Clyde beat Margaretta 5-3 in a Sandusky Bay Conference game.

Nieset fanned five and did not give up an earned run, as the Fliers remained atop the SBC at 11-4, 6-1.

Derek Schneider was 2-for-3 with two RBI. Jason Beard doubled, singled and drove in a run and Richie Funk tagged a solo home run for Clyde.

Clyde will host Port Clinton today in a make-up game.

St. Joe 12, Bettsville 8

Freshman Jimmy Haas homered twice and drove in eight runs as St. Joe outslugged Bettsville 12-8 in a Midland Athletic League game Wednesday at Conner Park.

Haas hit a two-run shot in the fourth and then highlighted a seven-run sixth inning with a grand slam for the Crimson Streaks (7-5, 5-1).

"He's really been playing well," SJCC coach Rick Barbour said of Haas. "He sure saved us tonight."

Brian Lenhart was 2-for-4 and Jake Burroughs doubled for SJCC, in support of winning pitcher Matt Gabel.

Nick Baker was 2-for-3 with a three-run home run that gave the Bobcats the lead in the sixth. Josh Schumm added a two-run homer and Eddie Sisco and Joe Kizer were both 2-for-4 for Bettsville. Jason Lee took the loss on the mound.

"We lucked out, they outplayed us," said Barbour. "But sometimes you have to get wins like that."

The Crimson Streaks will play Tiffin Calvert on Monday. The game against Port Clinton, scheduled for Saturday, has been canceled because the Redskins have a tournament game.

Bedford 2, Ross 1

BEDFORD — Fremont Ross suffered yet another close loss, dropping a 2-1 decision to Bedford in the Great Lakes League.

The Kicking Mules scored on a pinch-hit double in the bottom of the seventh to win the game. The Little Giants had tied it in the top of the sixth when Pete Goetz sin-

Clay drops Giants

News-Messenger reports

OREGON — A Clay grand slam with two outs in the bottom of the seventh inning Wednesday eliminated Ross from the Great Lakes League baseball title chase.

The Little Giants, who finished the season at 7-14 and 6-6 in the Baseball

7-2 after two innings but fell 11-7.

Clay earned a tie for the GLL championship with Sandusky. Both teams had 7-5 league marks.

"We just didn't keep scoring," said Ross coach Chuck Lindsey, whose team missed out on a title chance for the third year in a row.

Dustin Shively led the 10-hit Ross attack by going 3-for-4 with a double. T.J. Hammer went 2-for-4, including a two out single that scored two runs in the second inning. Nick Lance also had two hits and a double.

Kyle Myers gave up Branyan's home run and took the loss in relief of starter Aaron Bates. It was Myers's first loss in the GLL. He finished 5-1 in the league and 5-3 overall.

Ross center fielder Gabe Sanchez saved the game momentarily in the sixth inning when, with the bases loaded, he threw a runner out at the plate on a bloop single.

Lindsey praised the contributions of his seven seniors.

"I thought the leadership was outstanding," he said. "We might not have won many games, but I'm proud to have them on my team. They left a lot for the program to build on."
