

Four-horse race expected in BC track meet

The race for the roses in the Buckeye Conference boys track meet Saturday is not going to be as crowded as it was in the Kentucky Derby.

Ross Coach Norm Bray calls it a four-horse race.

Sandusky, according to Bray, has the inside starting position in the 10:30 a.m. field event start in Elyria.

"They (Sandusky) are so strong in the field events," Bray pointed out but added, "but Marion is strong enough to be a factor."

And the BC chase has a dark horse.

"Admiral King, I think," Bray said, "is the dark horse. They turned in a 43.1 in the 400 meters relay."

That is one of Ross's strong points.

The Ross coach listed the events he figures his team will win or place high in, and the 400 relay was one.

"The long jump, both hurdles, the 400 relay, and I think Ollie (Zimmerman) and Fred (Hepp) will get us points in the 1600 and 320," Bray said. "The mile relay should also get us some points."

Bray also said that the shot putters, if they have a good day, could pick up points for the Little Giants.

Gant, back in stride after nursing a knee injury until the beginning of this month, is Bray's hopes in the long jump. Pendrey will be strong in the hurdles events.

"There were a lot of exceptionally fast times turned in (during the seeding meeting)," Bray disclosed, "but I think it will be a four-team go."

Ross is the fourth with Sandusky, Marion and Admiral King.

"Looking at everything," he concluded, "but after looking at everything, because of field events, Sandusky has to be the edge but I feel it will be a toss-up."

Field events for both the boys and girls will begin at 10:30 with the running preliminaries at 11 a.m. and the finals in running at approximately 12:30 p.m.

Ross's girls, hit hard by injuries and other difficulties, will be hard pressed to finished high. The 3200 relay and Tammy Haas in the hurdles and 800 meters are the Lady Little Giants' best bets in running events while Laurie Smith is expected to finish high in the shot put and the discus.

In the boys meet, Tony Gant grabbed Ross's only first place, taking his specialty, the long jump with a lead of 21 feet, seven inches. That was five and one-half inches better than the runnerup.

Hurdler Tom Pendrey grabbed a second in the 300 meter lows and took third in the 110 highs. In the lows, the Ross senior recorded a 37.55, his best of the season, while in the highs he had a 15.19.
