Miller low but Little Giants finish high in Findlay match

The Ross High golf team got a 71 from Dave Miller, but it wasn't enough to keep the Little Giants from finishing last in a quadrangular match with Findlay, Kenton and Toledo Bowsher at the Findlay Country Club Tuesday.

The host school won the match with 313 strokes. Bowsher was second with 329, followed by Kenton with 346 and Ross with 350.

Besides Miller, the only other Ross golfer to break 90 was Brian Farr, who shot an 87.

The three defeats sent the previously undefeated Little Giants' record to 4-3.

In other local and area golf matches Tuesday, St. Joe downed Oak Harbor, 167-204, St. Mary's edged Clyde 155-161, Gibsonburg lost to Hopewell 179-182 and Lakota finished last in a triangular match with winner Sylvania Northview and Fostoria.

scores were St. Mary's 167, St. Joe 171 and Gibsonburg 180.

The Panthers' David Veith took medalist honors with a 39. Jeff Decker paced the Streaks, now 3-4, with a 41.

The Clyde Fliers upped their mark to 4-2 with a 162-163 squeaker over Sandusky. Sixth-man Troy Gooding sparked the Fliers with a 38 over the Green Hills back side. Jody Logan, of Sandusky shared medalist honors with Gooding.

The Woodmore Wildcats remained undefeated Wednesday with a 323-330 victory over Ottawa Hills at Glengarry. Sophomore Steve Korn, of Woodmore, burned the back side by firing a two-under 33 to give him an 18-hole total of two-over 73. The Wildcats are now 6-0.

Miller brothers pace Ross to sixth win

The Miller brothers once again held the hot hands Thursday evening leading the Ross golf team to its sixth victory in nine matches this season, a 163-170 win over host Sandusky.

Older brother Dave led the way with a 36 while younger brother Matt finished two strokes behind at 38. Tony Michael added a 42 to the Little Giants' cause. Jim Mazza had a 38 for the Blue Streaks.

BC golf tourney Monday

Miller, Kevin Russell, Rick Fawlev and Brian Barr. Coach Dave Fleming is kneeling in front. Miller will take a nine-hole average of 37 strokes into the BC 18-hole tourney.

Fremont finishes 1 for 2

Both Fremont high school golf teams were at their respective home courses Tuesday, but only one of them sent its guests home mad.

That team was St. Joe, which defeated Margareta 166-175 at Sycamore Hills. Ross, however, fell victim to a well-balanced Bowling

For the fourth consecutive year, the Woodmore Wildcats are the top golfing high school in Ottawa County by virtue of their victory in that county's tournament with Port Clinton, Oak Harbor and Genoa yesterday at Sugar Creek.

The Wildcats scored 328 points compared to Port Clinton's 351, Oak Harbor's 392 and Genoa's 461. The three wins upped their record to 12-0.

Medalist honors, however, went to a Port Clinton golfer, John Delhees, who defeated Woodmore's Steve Korn in a sudden-death playoff. Both players shot 80 in regulation and Delhees won the individual crown on the first playoff hole.

Fleming gets a first

The Ross golf team defeated Marion Harding 167-177 Thursday at the Marion Country Club. It was the first time in six years a Dave Fleming-coached Little Giant golf team has won a match with the Prexies on their home course.

Dave Miller shot a 39 to lead Ross to its 10th win in 16 matches with one tie this season.

Tony Michael added a 41 and Matt Miller shot a 42.

The Woodmore Wildcats suffered their first loss of 1981 as the Huron Tigers, always tough on their Thunderbird Hills home course, proved it again

Thursday by whipping both Woodmore and Sandusky, 152-158-160, respectively.

Brad Winans and Pat Hannah paced Huron with 36's.

Streak boy

Both the St. Joe boys and girls cross country teams were victorious Thursday evening at East Side Park, but the Ross boys did not fare so well there.

The St. Joe boys downed Mohawk 26-29 to put them above .500 for the season at 5-4. Jeff Lytle, of Mohawk, won the race in 13 minutes and 20 seconds. He was

Ross's best round stops Port Clinton

Ross turned in its best round of the season and Eastwood warmed up for Wednesday's Suburban Lakes League Golf Tournament to highlight high school golf Monday.

Ross, with Dave Miller and Kurt Nitschke firing 38 and 39, respectively, carded a 158, nine shots better than Port Clinton at Sun Valley. Terry Gaway had a 38 for Port Clinton.

Eastwood, 23-3 for the season, won a quadrangular at Nature Trails. The Eagles had a 170 to Mohawk's 174, Lakota at 176 and Woodmore 177.

Woodmore, the preseason favorite to win the SLL, was playing with its second team.

Rusty Waters had a 38 to pace Eastwood. Matt Miller and Tim Weininger shot 43s for Mohawk, 14-2. Jim Short's 42 was low for Lakota, 14-8, and Scott Rarig had a 42 for Woodmore, 12-4.

The SLL tourney is at Bowling State University.

Clyde defeated Perkins 160-167 for its 11th win in 15 matches and its seventh in nine Sandusky Bay Conference matches. Mike Whitaker shot a 39 with Bob Hohenstein and Eric Crockett carding 40s for the Fliers. Ray Whittaker had a 40 for Perkins.

Elmwood, with Howard Boxley shooting a 39, defeated Gibsonburg 174-197 at Sycamore Hills Golf Club. Terri Gruner's 37 for Gibsonburg took match medalist honors.

Miller's 38 not good enough

Dave Miller shot a two-over 38 to win medalist honors, but it wasn't enough to lead Ross to victory, as the Little Giants' golf team fell to Buckeye Conference champion Findlay 166-171 at the Fremont Country Club Tuesday.

The Giants, now 11-6-1, also got a good score from Tony Michael, who shot a 41, but their other players' rounds couldn't counteract those of the Trojans. Jerry Dannemiler led the winners with a 39. They also had two 42's and a 43 to round out the scoring.

In one other golf match in the area. Gibsonburg won its second of the season out of 11 with a 183-190 win over Old Fort at Nature Trails.

Terri Gruner paced the Bears with a 41. She shared medalist honors with Old Fort's Todd Groves.
