Bob Knapp walked to lead off, Mike Kledzik followed with a single. Knapp scored when Griffin was safe at first on an error by shortstop Russ Hager-ty.

Steve Decker's single, a fielder's choice out and a walk to Irish loaded the bases. Al O'Neal then hit a single to drive in Griffin and Decker.

Hagerty had been having a strong day in the field. He made seven assists and made several spectacular plays, but the one that opened the gate got away. O'Neal had a strong day in the field for St. Joseph.

Only extra base hit of the contest came off the bat of Ken Pasch for Ross. Two of the three Ross hits were by pinch-hitters.
