

2016 TRAC

LIMA — Clay won its fifth consecutive Three Rivers Athletic Conference wrestling championship Saturday at Lima Senior behind six individual winners.

Clay scored 235.5 points to finish ahead of Findlay (162) and Fremont Ross (148.5).

Matt Stencil won at 220 pounds to earn his fourth league title at four different weights.

The Eagles extended their conference championship streak to eight with three City League titles prior to joining the TRAC.

Other Clay winners were Mike Handy (106), Nick Hannerman (120), Garrett Anderson (132), Calixtro Mondragon (138), and Zach Brown (170).

Josh Venia of Central Catholic won at 113 and teammates Rosendo Beltran (126) and Richard Jackson (160) also earned titles.

Other winners were Christian Sanchez of Findlay (145), Tyler Grine (152) and Kieler Foster (195) of Fremont Ross, Alex Shubert of St. Francis (182), and Brett Seymour of Whitmer (285).