

Purvises Leave Ross High Jobs, Go To Michigan

Resignation of Don Purvis, head basketball and baseball coach at Fremont Ross high school, was announced Tuesday.

Purvis has accepted a coaching position in baseball and basketball at Aquinas college at Grand Rapids, Mich., according to Supt. George Conti. He had previously resigned the baseball job. His baseball team won 100 games and lost 41 in eight years.

Mrs. Purvis, teaching business and commercial subjects here for five years, also is resigning. She has also coached cheerleaders.

Purvis has been here eight years. He teaches physical education and driver training.

Dr. Conti said he will recommend that the resignations be accepted when the Fremont board of education meets Thursday, August 21.
