

DRIFTMYER IN DISTRICT PLAY

William (Biz) Driftmyer, Ross high tennis player, reached the semi-finals of the Northwest Ohio district tennis tournament at Toledo Friday, and will meet Wilkie, of Bowling Green, Saturday.

The doubles team of Driftmyer and Jack Deemer was eliminated early in the tournament, according to Coach Eddie Gabel.

First-round matches in the singles found Mickels of Maumee beating Wilder of Libbey, 6-1, 6-3; Coss of Woodward winning over Vorraber of Vocational, 5-7, 6-3, 8-6; Wilkie of Bowling Green whipped Fox of DeVilbiss, 6-2, 6-1; Driftmyer of Fremont downing Sess of Scott, 6-0, 6-4. In the second round Mickels defeated Coss and Hahn advanced by forfeit.

Today's singles matches will find Hahn playing Mickels while Wilkie meets Driftmyer. The victors in these two matches will play for the title. Results of the doubles division found Bowling Green beating Vocational, Woodward downing Waite, West Unity winning over Norwalk by default, Libbey downing DeVilbiss, Scott upsetting Fremont and Libbey defeating West Unity.

The doubles pairings will find Bowling Green facing Woodward and Libbey playing Scott. The winners and runners-up in both divisions are eligible for the state tournament in Columbus.
