BLOOMVILLE IS EASY PREY FOR LOCAL LASSIES

Moore and Althoff Stage Bit of Runaway Cage Shooting Duel

Fremont 42, Bloomville 24.

The Fremont high girls' basketball team did its bit in fittingly dedicating the new Ross auditorium gym last evening, when they defeated the celebrated young ladies' team from Bloomville by a decisive score. The issue in this contest was never in doubt from the opening whistle. Captain Jane Moore and Althoff started to hit the target right off the reel and, between the two of them, they made ample points to have beaten the visitors alone, as far as point making was concerned. D. Mooney and Stull, however, lent a hearty hand to the proceedings.

Captain Moore made the first basket, first two-pointer ever scored in the new gym in a regular scheduled game, and after that it was just too bad. It was near the fag end of the first quarter when Bloomville counted, Walter throwing one in. The count at the quarter was 15 to 4 in favor of Fremont. The half was 21 to 12 and the three quarters 34 to 18.

Aside from the scoring of the Fremont point getters and some neat team play on the part of the locals, the work of Ann Rimelspach, Fremont guard, who held Miksel, clever Bloomville forward to two baskets, was the feature.

LIBERTY GIRLS DEFEAT FREMONT

A team of girls from Liberty school, Seneca county, invaded the precincts of Ross Gym last evening and defeated the F. H. S. lassies in the curtain raiser for the main go, Fremont-Norwalk, 33 to 25. The game lagged until the final quarter with the Liberty folks in a commanding position. With the count considerably against them, the purple and white staged a last quarter rally that was sort of a sizzler. Jane Moore, captain of the Fremonters, lead the attack with three slick baskets in a row. Liberty, however, retained enough of an edge to hold out to the finish. The score at the half was 15 to 14 in favor of Fremont. Althoff was big scorer for Fremont while a nimble lass named Schoonover piled in many points for the visitors.

Fremont's Huskies played and defeated Clyde lassies last night in the new gym. The Huskies will journey from home Friday night to play Medina girls in their last game.
