Ross Tank Squad Pressed Closely By Sandusky, But Manages Victory 56 To 53

Swimmers of Ross high school, handicapped by illness of Louis Appell and Bill Kirsch, two varsity performers, came through at Bowling Green State university's tank Monday night to retain their district title.

But there were a lot of anxious moments for Coach George Gruse and his boys.

Sandusky's squad, always a tough one in competition, pressed the Little Giants all the way, failing by only three points in an effort to overtake the local crew.

Final scores were:

Fremont Ross 56
Sandusky 53
Toledo Devilbiss 20
Toledo Waite 16
Toledo Scott 10
Toledo Libbey 7

New Record Scored

Bowl Movies Due March 17

A joint Ohio State Alumni association and Fremont Ross high F club project is being planned for March 17 in which the complete movie of the Rose Bowl game January 2 will be shown and tribute will be paid to Bill Miller and Bob Heid, two Fremont lads who played in the game.

Plans are being made for the event by Dr. John W. Baxter, head of the alumni group, and George Demmel, president of the F club.

The program will start at 3 o'clock, the public to be invited. More details will be announced later.

BRADLEY ON TOP AGAIN

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—P—No. 1 in the weekly Associated Press basketball poll for the second straight week . . . Missouri Valley conference champion . . . a bid to the National Invitation tournament next month . . . that's Bradley university.

All three honors came to the quintet from Peoria, Ill., yesterday. First the invitation to participate in the big post-season extravaganza, then the top-rating, and just to show nothing succeeds like success, a 57-56 triumph over Tulsa university to clinch the M. V. C. title.

In second place was the Western Conference champion, Ohio State, and in third was Holy Cross, the sole remaining major unbeaten team in the country. Rounding out the first five were Kentucky, with a record of 22-4, fourth, and Duquesne, 22-1, fifth.

GRAZIANA FOE FOR LA MOTTA?

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 28.—P—Fight Promoter Sam Becker of Cincinnati is working on another championship match for Crosley field this summer.

Becker, a wealthy clothing manufacturer, told newsmen yesterday he had offered Middleweight Champ Jake LaMotta $50,000 to defend his title against Rocky Graziano at Crosley field on June 20.

He said he had discussed the proposition with Joe LaMotta.
