BOWLING GREEN — Fremont Ross divers finished first and second Thursday in the Northwest Ohio District Swimming and Diving Meet at Bowling Green State University.

Ross senior Leslie Hasselbach was the district champ with 451.2 points and junior teammate Jennifer Newman used a strong final dive to tally a personal high 409.75.

Calli Bodnar, an Oak Harbor senior, was third with 404.9. Courtney Skapik of Sylvania Northview was fourth with 397.75.

The top four divers will compete in the state meet at Branin Natatorium in Canton. The first round Friday, consisting of five dives, begins at 1 p.m. The top 20 in the 32-diver field will compete in the semifinals and finals at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

For Fremont Ross, a pair freshmen, Mindy Ickes and Annie Mears, finished eighth in their events.

Ickes swam the 200-meter individual medley in 2:19.33 and Mears completed the 50 freestyle in 25.34.

They were the only Ross swimmers in either the boys or girls meets to finish in the top eight.

Swimming resumes today at noon.

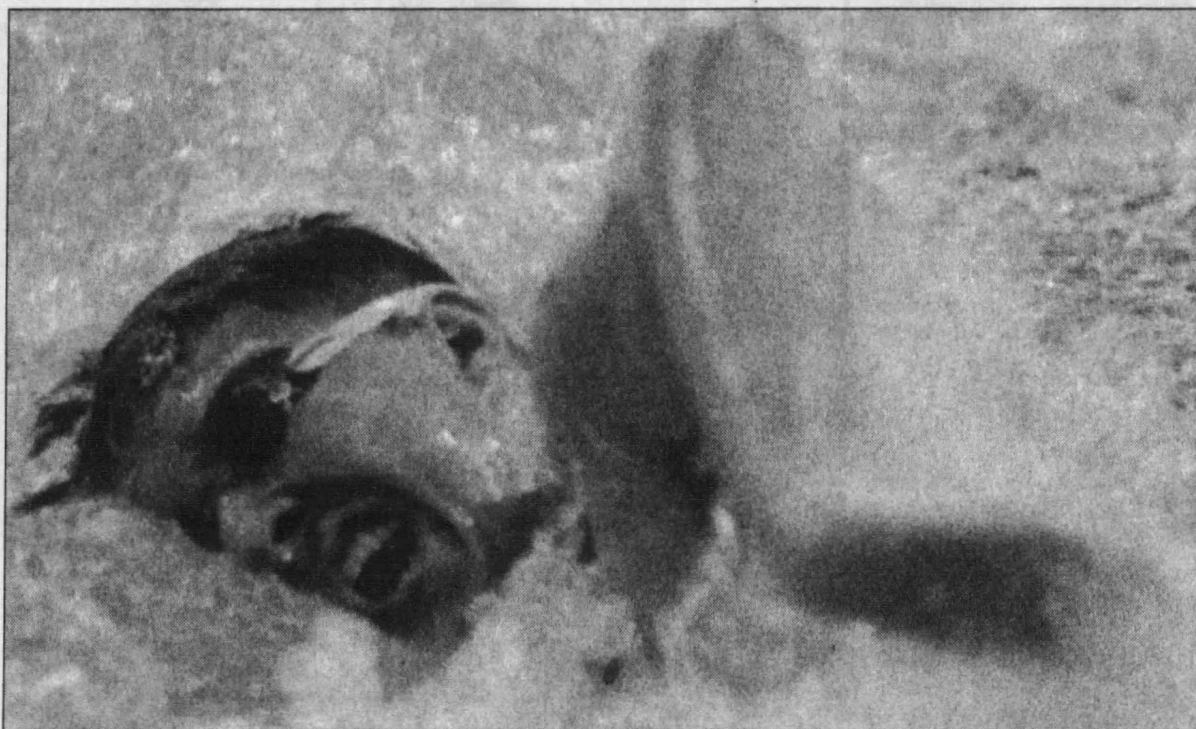

At-large district berths will be announced Sunday. The state meet begins Friday.

RYAN WING of Fremont Ross swims to a 14th place finish in the 200-meter freestyle at the district meet Friday.

For Fremont Ross swimmers, meanwhile, the season ended, The Aqua Giants had no qualifiers and received no at-large berths Sunday.

Most of the at-large berths went to swimmers from the Cincinnati district, according to Oak Harbor coach Bob Van Horn.
