Siegferth, Harris top AAA all-state

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bobby Harris of Columbus South and Coach Joe Siegferth of Akron Central-Hower have won The Associated Press' major awards this season in Ohio Class AAA high school boys basketball.

Harris, a swift, high-leaping senior, has earned the Class AAA Player of the Year laurels. The 5-foot-9 guard averaged more than 25 points and his deft passing helped the Bulldogs to a 16-2 regular season record and the state's No. 8 ranking.

The veteran Siegferth, 433-185 in 25 seasons, led Central-Ohio to the AP state poll championship with 20 straight victories that included another Akron City Series title.

Harris paced an eight-player first-team All-Ohio squad, selected with the recommendations of a statewide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Also named to the all-senior unit were Joe Jakubick of Mansfield Madison, Dan Federman of Cincinnati Elder, Jimmy Gooden of Central-Hower, John Shimko of Cleveland St. Ignatius, Rick Acord of Findlay and Dave Jenkins of Warren Western Reserve.

They range in size from Gooden's swift 5-8 frame to the 6-10 Federman and in scoring averages from

Mike Held of Fremont Ross received an honorable mention on the AP All-Ohio Class AAA team.

Gooden's 17.8 points to Harris' team-leading mark. All of the first-team selections carried 20-point or higher averages except Gooden and Acord.

The second team all-state squad consisted of Al Robertson of Barberton, Guy Dedo of Parma Senior, Hank Cornley of Columbus Mifflin, Neal Browning of Springfield South, Don Daily of Wintersville, Herb Lake of Youngstown Chaney, Sam Cherry of Columbus Brookhaven and Eric Harris of Chillicothe.

Making up the all-state third team were Ed Washington of Cleveland St. Joseph, Alvin Garmon of Toledo Libbey, Troy Taylor of Canton McKinley, Jim Pilewski of
