Ross

Coach: Chuck Lindsey, 4th year.

2000 record: 7-14 (6-6 GLL).

2000 tournament: Lost sectional semifinal to Mansfield Senior.

Key losses: C Josh Lozano, OF Pete Goetz, SS Josh Meggitt (transferred to Clyde), 2B Dusty Shively, 1B Jeremy Fitzgerald.

Key returnees: Seniors — OF T.J. Hammer, C Nick Lance, OF Aaron Hines. Juniors — P/SS Adam Garcia, 2B Dash Yost, 1B/C Jered Kingsborough; P/CF Gabe Sanchez. Sophomore — SS Kyle Hintze.

Key newcomers: Juniors — P/OF Mike Davis, P Clint Coonrod, P Josh Harnish, OF Nick Opie. Freshmen 3B Jonathan Franks.

Outlook: The faster their young pitchers develop, the faster the Little Giants will be a major player in the Great Lakes League race. As of right now, Garcia is penciled as the team ace. Davis and Coonrod, younger brother of former Ross standout Aaron Coonrod, are the second and third men in the rotation. Offensively, Ross will turn to its outfield, where returnees Hammer (center), Sanchez (left) and Hines (right) will lead the team. Nick Lance will move to catcher, replacing two-time all-league player Josh Lozano. The infield will see Franks at third, Hintze at short, Yost at second and Kingsborough at first.

Coach's quote: "Pitching is our biggest concern. If we can get the ball across the plate, our defense is solid. Our infield is solid. For so long we've been hearing about next year. I told the kids it's right now. We're going to play hard, have fun and see what happens."

Timely hitting a good sign for Little Giants

News-Messenger reports

Maybe this will be the season Fremont Ross comes up with timely hits.

Aaron Hines ripped a three-run double to tie the game, and Nick Lance followed with the go-ahead single as the Little Giants came from behind to beat Tiffin Columbian 6-5 Wednesday at Joe Lotycz Field.

The two seniors keyed a six-run fourth inning and provided the clutch offense Ross sorely missed during a 7-14 campaign in 2000.

"A couple of times early in the game, we had runners on with the guys up who I expect to be our leaders and we didn't get it done. I started thinking about last year a little bit," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "But we just told them to keep swinging.

Aaron Hines came up with a big hit, and T.J. Hammer and Nick Lance hit the ball hard. I expect the three seniors to be our leaders."

The Tornadoes scored five runs off Ross starter Adam Garcia in the first inning. Garcia went three innings, allowing four hits and walking eight.

But reliever Mike Davis came on to pick up the victory for the Little Giants. He pitched four scoreless innings, allowing five hits while striking out three.

All six Ross runs in the fourth came after there were two outs. Kyle Hintze singled in the first run, and Hammer reached on an error to load the bases for Hines. Hines's double cleared the bases, and Lance followed with a single to plate the eventual game-winner.

Hines went 2-for-3, Hintze 2-for-4 and Davis 2-for-4.

GENOA — The Comets needed only one hit to score six runs in the first inning and cruise to a non-league victory in a game shortened to five innings by the run rule.

The Crimson Streaks committed five errors in their opener. Coach Rick Barbour was surprised by the poor defense, especially on Genoa's well-manicured field.

BELLEVUE — Tom Artino's two-run single in the bottom of the seventh inning gave Bellevue a come-from-behind 4-3 victory over Fremont Ross on Monday.

The Redmen scored four runs in the seventh off Ross pitcher Mike Davis. Davis relieved junior Clint Coonrod, who pitched 5½ scoreless innings.

"Clint Coonrod pitching an outstanding game," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "We made the change because his pitch count got up there and he ran into some trouble in the sixth."

Bellevue (3-1) got five of its eight hits in the final at-bat. Justin Journay picked up the victory for the Redmen.

Adam Garcia went 2-for-3 with a run batted in for the Little Giants (1-1). Davis had knocked in a run as well.

Comeback sends Giants to GLL sweep

Streaks get first victories of year

News-Messenger reports

FOSTORIA — Dash Yost's two-run single in the top of the seventh inning handed Fremont Ross a comeback victory in the first game and propelled the Little Giants to a doubleheader sweep over Fostoria on Saturday.

Ross won the opener 12-11 and the nightcap 12-3 to begin the Great Lakes League campaign.

The Little Giants (4-1, 2-0 GLL) trailed 6-0 but battled back.

T.J. Hammer's two-run homer in the fifth inning got Ross within striking distance.

Gabe Sanchez got the victory in relief of Adam Garcia.

"Our kids didn't quit," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "I was real happy with the way the guys hit the ball and hung together as a team."

Jered Kingsborough and Nick Lance also homered for Ross in the first game. Kingsborough went 2-for-4 with four RBI. Lance went 3-for-4 with a pair of RBI. Garcia and Hammer each went 2-for-4.

In the second game, Ross leapt ahead with two three-run innings and never looked back. Mike Davis got the win in relief of Clint Coonrod, who left the game with a minor knee injury.

Davis helped his own cause with a grand slam. He went 2-for-5 with 5 RBI. Yost went 3-for-4, Aaron Hines was 2-for-4 with four RBI, Garcia went 2-for-3 with a homer and Nick Lance was 2-for-2.

Fostoria got its only two hits in the opener after Zuniga left the game. She went the distance in the second game, allowing two runs and seven hits while striking out three.

The Little Giants (7-1, 2-0 GLL) used a six-run fourth inning to win the first game and erased all doubt with a seven-run first inning in the nightcap.

Amy Reiter went 2-for-3 with a pair of RBI in the first game and stole three bases in the second game. Emily Bibler had two hits and scored twice in the first contest. Kristy Gabel connected for two hits in the second game and scored twice.

"It's the oldest bat we have," St. Joe coach Bill Bork said. "She uses it all the time. It's probably a $20 bat, compared to all the $100 bats we have."

Aptly named Dash Yost has a simple directive at the top of the Fremont Ross batting order: Get on base and find the quickest route to home plate.

But with the game on the line Monday against Lorain Southview, Yost chose power over pluck.

The junior second baseman convinced coach Chuck Lindsey to disdain the squeeze bunt and let him hit away with the bases loaded and one out in the bottom of the seventh inning of a 5-all game.

Yost delivered. His sacrifice fly to medium right field scored pinch-runner Nick Orie with the winning run in the Little Giants' 6-5 Great Lakes League victory.

"I knew I was going to drive it in," Yost said. "If he threw me a strike, I was going to hit it. I'm kind of mad. I didn't get all of it."

"You can't say I won't run through a fence for you, coach."

chia chugged into third with a triple.

Hines cut his lip on the play and was forced to leave the game.

"That's what we want. We want them to go out and compete," Lindsey said of Hines's effort. "I thought he had it, and he thought he had it."

"You can't say I won't run through a fence for you, coach," Hines told Lindsey after the game.

Southview's next batter, John Cozart, hit a soft liner that eluded Coonrod for an infield single. DiMacchia scored to tie the game.

But Ross got to Saints reliever Dominic Cruz in the bottom of the seventh. After Cruz retired Mike Davis on a fly to center, Jered Kingsborough, Adam Garcia and Gabe Sanchez worked consecutive walks to set up Yost for the game-winner. Garcia

Said Lindsey of Yost, who is the team's best bunter, "We went over and talked to him about squeezing, and he said, 'Coach, I'll get it in the outfield.'"

Ross (5-1, 3-0 GLL) won a roller-coaster contest that saw the lead change hands four times in the final three innings. It was the league opener for Southview (0-3).

The Little Giants have made a habit of winning close games, a proclivity that eluded them last season. Ross opened the season with a 6-5 victory over Tiffin Columbian and has won two other one-run games since.

"It's good because we're getting comfortable with close games," Yost said.

The Little Giants appeared to have the game in hand in the bottom of the sixth inning after senior rightfielder Aaron Hines rifled a two-out double to the left-field fence to score Yost. The run gave Ross a 5-4 lead.

But after Ross reliever Clint Coonrod retired the first two Southview batters in the top of the seventh, the Saints mounted a final charge.

Jason DiMacchia drove a long shot to right field, where Hines crashed into the fence as he tried to make the grab. The ball bounced away, and DiMac-

The Fremont Ross baseball team returned from its spring break trip to Columbus with an 0-3 record.

But the Little Giants hope they're a more cohesive unit after the trip. They showed evidence of that by nearly sweeping a Bryan team that was 11-1 entering Saturday's doubleheader in Bryan.

Ross won the first game 7-6 Saturday and led 6-1 after three innings in the nightcap before falling 10-7.

The Little Giants are 6-5 on the season after dropping games to Marion Harding, Columbus Watterson and Westerville South during the spring swing. The Ross players also made visits to workouts by the Columbus Clippers and Ohio State University.

"The Columbus trip was outstanding," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "Our kids played hard. They came together. I was happy with the way we performed. We just didn't get the wins like would have liked."

After Harding blanked Ross on two hits Wednesday, the Little Giants managed only seven hits and three runs during losses to Watterson and Westerville South on Thursday.

Watterson (13-4) beat Ross 2-1 in the first game. Neither team scored after the first inning. Mike Davis, Kyle Hintze and Nick Lance got the only hits for the Little Giants. Adam Garcia was the hard-luck loser after holding Watterson to four hits.

Ross scored two runs in the top of the seventh inning but fell short in a 3-2 loss to Westerville South. T.J. Hammer went 2-for-3 with two runs batted in, and Clint Coonrod was saddled with the defeat.

At Bryan on Saturday, Lance went 3-for-4 with a pair of doubles, and Adam Garcia had two doubles and two RBI in the first game as Ross made a winner of Davis. Hammer went 2-for-4 as did Davis.

In the second game, Bryan scored four runs in the fifth and sixth innings to pull out a victory. Davis and Jered Kingsborough each had three hits for the Little Giants, and Lance added two hits. Garcia took the defeat.

KANSAS — Dan McGory shut down the Raiders in the first game, and Brandon Wadding out-hit them in the second game of the Polar Bears' sweep.

McGory limited Lakota (8-5) to four hits and won the opener. Ryan Arnold led the seven-hit Margareta offensive attack by going 2-for-3 with two RBI.

In the second game, Wadding went 3-for-3 with a double, a home run and three RBI. He also picked up the pitching victory.

Tim Ray went 3-for-4 with an RBI for the Raiders. Greg Thrasher was 2-for-4 with two RBI.

The Polar Bears are 7-4.

ROSS CATCHER Nick Lance is hitting .500 and leads the Little Giants in several offensive categories.

By TIMOTHY R. WOLFRUM

There was a time when Nick Lance's bat kept him from what he felt was his rightful place behind the plate for Fremont Ross.

Now the Little Giants are anticipating the heights to which Lance's offense can lead them.

Lance, a senior, is batting a team-best .500 (23-for-46) and leads Ross in several offensive categories, including hits (23), doubles (7), on-base percentage (.558) and slugging percentage (.761).

But it took patience and hard work for Lance to go from Josh Lozano's frustrated backup to a senior catcher and captain.

"It all started with my sophomore year," Lance remembered after Tuesday's practice at Joe Lotycz Field. "Mr. (coach Chuck) Lindsey noticed my hitting wasn't too great. He gave me some tapes to look over. I just started picking at my swing and started making corrections."

Although Lance took the instruction to heart, he wasn't exactly the most cooperative bench player for the Ross varsity back then.

Lance was stuck behind Lozano, a three-time All-Great Lakes League catcher who graduated after last season. Lance hit .250 and failed to drive in a run in limited duty during his sophomore campaign.

"He was a very good defensive catcher," Lindsey said of Lance. "Josh was a very good defensive catcher and a better offensive player, so we had to have Josh in the lineup. At an earlier age, Nick was not hitting the ball the way he is now. Nick has worked really hard at making himself a pretty good hitter."

Said Lance, "I really wanted to play behind the plate, and there were some upperclassmen ahead of me who had been on the team for a while. I wasn't used to sitting the bench because when I was little I was always playing. It just took some getting used to. I was just really frustrated because I wasn't getting to play. It's just something I had to deal with."

And that's where the hitting videotapes came in. Lindsey used them to salve the wounds created by Lance sitting on the bench.

Lance moved to third base in his junior season and hit .319 and drove in 20 runs in a starting role.

"I just thought he had to have more confidence," Lindsey said. "And if he didn't want to hear it from me, take it from somewhere else. That's one of the things I believe in coaching. I don't claim to know everything baseball or any sport I coach. But the one thing I do is I work as hard as anybody about finding out about it and talking to the best people in the country."

Now, with the catching position finally his, Lance has taken the opportunity to showcase his defensive skills. He has committed only one error and has brought along a young Ross pitching staff that has surpassed expectations by posting a 3.67 earned-run average.

"We feel more comfortable throwing what pitches we want because Nick always blocks the ball," Ross ace Adam Garcia said. "He doesn't let anything get past."

Lindsey credits Lance for spurring the Little Giants to the successful season they're enjoying.

Ross is 9-6 and is the Great Lakes League's only unbeaten team at 5-0 heading into important games with Findlay, Oregon Clay and Toledo Whitmer. On Thursday, Ross will meet Ashland in a Division I sectional final at Arlin Field in Mansfield.

"Nicks a fiery guy. I think he gets everybody else fired up."

Lance said all the Ross players share the credit.

"We're all a pretty close-knit team," he said. "I think we all just want to play for each other. We don't have any enemies on the team. We're more comfortable playing with each other. Last year, a few people just wanted to play by themselves and stand out."

Lakota takes SLL softball lead

News-Messenger reports

SANDUSKY — Fremont Ross scored three runs in the top of the first inning, and pitchers Josh Harnish and Mike Davis made it stand up as the Little Giants stayed unblemished in the Great Lakes League with a 7-2 victory over Sandusky.

Harnish started and went four innings to pick up his fourth victory in as many decisions. Davis pitched the final three innings for the save. Neither pitcher surrendered an earned run.

"The key was getting on them early and making some good defensive plays at the right time," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "Harnish did a real nice job of keeping them off balance."

Adam Garcia led the Ross offense by going 4-for-4. Aaron Hines went 3-for-4 with three runs batted in. Jered Kingsborough homered.

The Little Giants are 12-7, 8-0 in the GLL. They are at Lorain Admiral King on Friday before a showdown with second-place Oregon Clay on Monday at home.

Roundup

Frazier went 3-for-4 with a home run and five RBI; Jake Keegan went 3-for-3 with two doubles and three RBI; and Justin Wiedle went 2-for-4 with a double and 4 RBI.

Derick Schneider, who also homered, was the beneficiary of all the offense. He got his first victory of the season, allowing three earned runs and three hits while striking out six.

Steve Woods and Geoff Dartt doubled for Port Clinton (4-21, 1-12 SBC).

The Fliers are at Huron on Friday.

Lakota 11, Otsego 8

KANSAS — The Raiders scored five runs in the bottom of the fifth inning to break a 6-all tie on the way to a Suburban Lakes League triumph.

Greg Thrasher went 2-for-2 with two runs and two RBI for Lakota (11-12, 5-7 SLL). Tim Ray added two hits and two RBI.

Adam Johnson earned the pitching victory. David Rus-

Giants win, set up GLL showdown

News-Messenger reports

LORAIN — The Fremont Ross baseball team is right where it wants to be heading into Monday's Great Lakes League showdown with Oregon Clay.

But the Little Giants had to use pitching ace Adam Garcia more than they wanted to get there.

Garcia filled in for injured hurler Mike Davis on Friday and led Ross to a 5-1 victory over Lorain Admiral King. The win keeps the Little Giants (13-7, 9-0 GLL) perfect in the GLL, a game ahead of second-place Clay.

"It sets a great stage for our program," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "We have a big, big week ahead of us. They want to go out and prove they're a good baseball program."

Ross scored all five of its runs in the fifth inning. Kyle Hintze drove in two runs with a single, Nick Lance had a bases-loaded walk and Aaron Hines knocked in two when he reached on an error.

The Admirals fell to 6-14.

John Franks and Hintze each had two hits for the Little Giants, who host Clay at 4:30 p.m. Monday at Joe Lotycz Field. Unbeaten pitcher Josh Harnish will likely throw for the Little Giants.

Roundup

Clyde 5, Huron 4

HURON — The Fliers only had six hits to Huron's nine but managed to come out on top.

James Brown (4-0) went the full seven innings for the Fliers. He gave up nine hits, four runs, three walks and had five strikeouts.

Justin Wiedle went 2-for-3 for the Fliers. Fellow teammate, Bill Waugaman, also went 2-for-3 with an RBI. Brown added a home run for the Fliers (14-9, 8-5 SBC).

The Fliers will face Sandusky St. Mary on Monday.

Oak Harbor 6, Margaretta 2

OAK HARBOR — Jordan Diekman pitched a complete game for a Rocket win.

Diekman gave up two earned runs, four hits, and two walks. He also fired 11 strikeouts. Dan McGory took the loss for the Polar Bears.

Dominick Lochotzki, Diekman, Tracy Gaines, and Jeremy Potridge all doubled for the Rockets. Potridge also homered. Brandon Wadding had two solo home runs for the Polar Bears.

Potridge went 2-for-3 with two runs scored and three RBI's. Lochotzki went 2-for-

Phillips stops Giants, creates tie for 1st place

By TIMOTHY R. WOLFRUM

With every rainout and tournament postponement, the Fremont Ross baseball team watched the toughest opponents on its Great Lakes League schedule pile up at the end of the season.

But the Little Giants took consolation in the cushion they built by compiling a perfect GLL campaign. Meanwhile, the other league titans were knocking each other off.

On Monday, Oregon Clay's Jim Phillips stuck a pin in that cushion.

Phillips scattered eight hits on the mound and scored two runs as the Eagles knocked off Ross 3-0 in a well-played game before about 125 fans at Joe Lotycz Field.

The victory pulls Clay (20-4) into a first-place tie with the Little Giants (13-8) with another game to be played at Oregon. Both teams are 9-1 in the GLL.

Meanwhile, Ross was to visit Findlay today, but it was postponed due to rain. The Little Giants still have a doubleheader with powerful Toledo Whitmer on the schedule.

"The only thing it is is a loss," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "We're still all right. We still control our own destiny. If we beat everybody else, we still win the league. ... The kids are pretty down right now, and they should be. That's why we keep score; we play hard to win. But they've got to come back."

Phillips outdueled Ross junior pitcher Josh Harnish, who held the high-scoring Eagles to a single run through six innings before giving up two runs in the seventh.

Harnish, a right-hander who has a side-arm delivery, suffered his first loss in five decisions. He allowed seven hits and struck out five while walking one.

"He's a little unorthodox," Clay coach Karl Kneirin said. "He comes from down low, so his pitches break on a different plane. It makes a difference to our hitters. He had us out on our front foot a lot today. He pitched a good game."

Phillips played a key role in each of the Eagles' scoring innings.

Singled with one out in the third inning, moved to third on a single by Nick Branyon and scored when Ross failed to turn a double play on a Justin Thomas grounder.

In the seventh, Josh Johnson opened with an infield single and moved to second on a Tyler Wasserman sacrifice bunt. Ross elected to walk Phillips intentionally and pitch to Branyon, who slammed a run-scoring single to left. Phillips later scored on a fielder's choice.

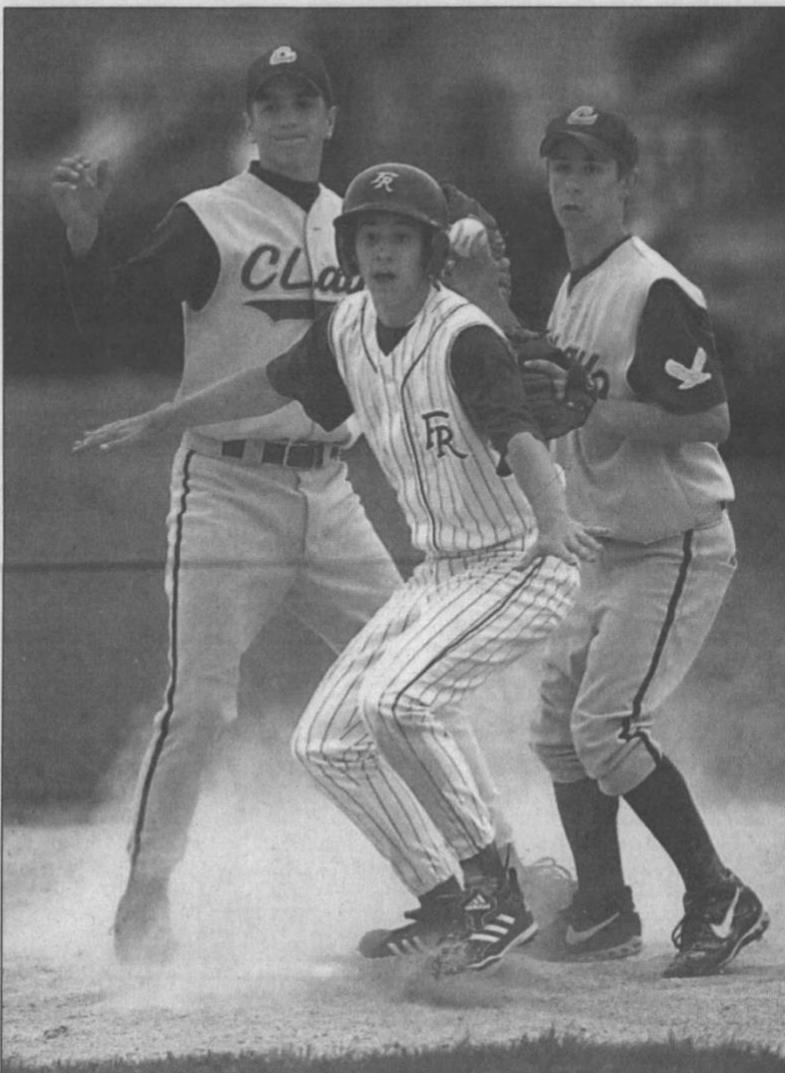

"We just have to make sure we're focused all the time," Lindsey said. "Every time we have a little lapse, we give up a couple runs."

On the mound, Phillips kept the Little Giants scoreless despite surrendering a hit in every inning. He struck out six batters but saved his best pitches for pressure situations.

Ross loaded the bases with two outs in the seventh inning when pinch-hitter Mike Davis was hit by a pitch. Adam Garcia walked and Nick Lance got the last of his three singles.

But Phillips responded by striking out Aaron Hines and Jered Kingsborough to end the game.

Nick Oprie doubled to deep left field with two outs in the sixth inning and moved to third on a bad throw from the outfield. But Phillips struck out T.J. Hammer.

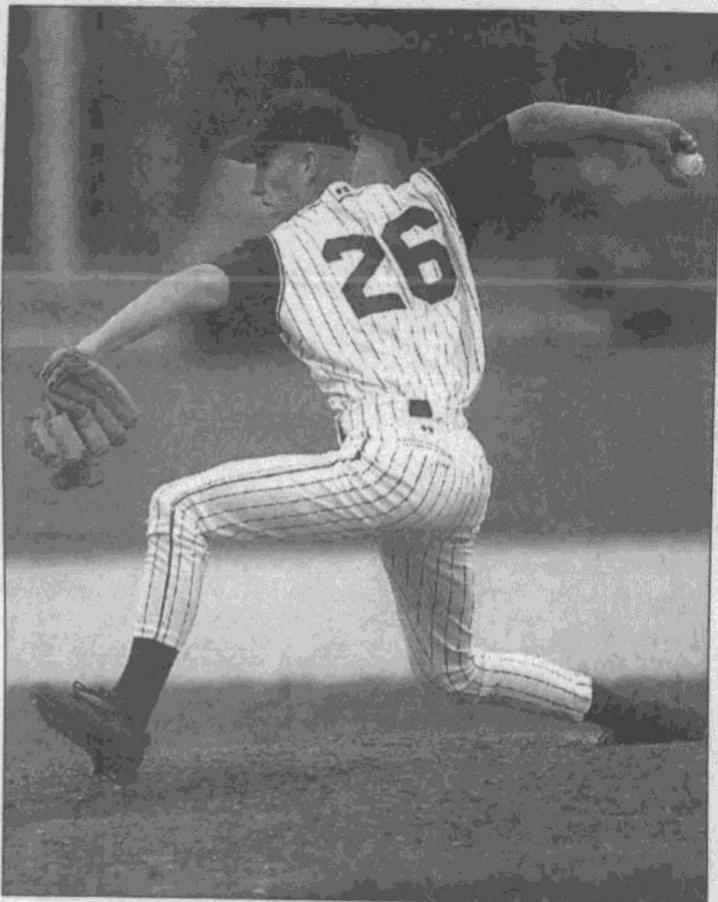

In the first inning, Dash Yost and Garcia got back-to-back singles to open the frame before Phillips fanned the side.

"Jim Phillips threw a real strong game," Knierim said. "They had some baserunners, but he got outs when he needed to and struck some people out in key situations."

The Eagles didn't put any extra emphasis on their first meeting with Ross, even though the game was for first place.

"Every day in this league you don't know what's going to happen," Knierim said.

"There's a lot of parity. ... I don't think you can get too terribly pumped up to play one team as opposed to another one. Every one means the same. It's a league game."

Ruling costs Ross in GLL

News-Messenger reports

OREGON — The Fremont Ross baseball team fell out of the top spot in the Great Lakes League on Wednesday due, in part, to the home run that wasn't.

The Little Giants were shut out for the second time in three days by Oregon Clay, 1-0, even though Ross freshman John Franks hit a ball over the fence in the top of the third inning.

Franks stumbled as he rounded first base. He was later called out for missing the bag after he crossed home plate. It would have been Franks' first varsity home run.

The missed opportunity allowed Clay pitcher Justin Thomas to complete a four-hit shutout. The Eagles (21-4, 10-1 GLL) scored an unearned run in the bottom of the third to take over first place in the GLL. The Little Giants are 13-9, 9-2 in the GLL.

"Our kids went up there and played hard. It just didn't happen," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "What a game. What a week."

Ross junior pitcher Adam Garcia held Clay to five hits. He struck out four and walked two.

Ross hosts Toledo Whitmer at 10 a.m. Saturday for a twin bill. The game postponed Tuesday at Findlay will be made up next week.

The Fremont Ross baseball team fell out of Great Lakes League contention with a pair of losses to Toledo Whitmer on Saturday at Joe Lotycz Field.

Roundup

Whitmer claimed 8-2 and 4-3 victories over the Little Giants to send Ross (13-12, 9-4 GLL) to its fourth consecutive league defeat.

Nick Lance went 2-for-4 in the opener for Ross. Josh Harnish suffered the pitching defeat.

In the nightcap, Adam Garcia and Jered Kingsborough had two hits apiece, but the Little Giants came up short. Kingsborough took the defeat on the mound.

Ross will make up a game at Findlay this week to round out the campaign.

Ross wraps up season with loss

FINDLAY — The Fremont Ross baseball team finished up its season with a 6-2 loss to Findlay on Tuesday.

It was the fifth consecutive league defeat for the Little Giants, who finish 13-13 and 9-5 in the Great Lakes League. Ross is third in the final league standings behind the Trojans and first-place Oregon Clay.

Nick Lance went 2-for-2 with a run batted in the lead the Ross offensive attack. Josh Harnish absorbed the defeat.

Richie VanHoose went 4-for-4 and got the victory on the mound for Findlay, which finished 10-4 in the GLL.

"I thought our seniors brought along our younger kids really well," Ross coach Chuck Lindsey said. "Our kids played a lot of baseball this year and saw some good teams. We're on the right path."
