

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS ROUNDUP

Ross golfers finish second to Napoleon in tourney

News-Messenger reports

Brandon Hoelzer fired a 72, Ian Mowry a 76 and Clay Schwartz carded a 77 for Fremont Ross Thursday, which finished second (307) by a stroke to Napoleon (306) at the Greater Buckeye Conference Tournament.

Hoelzer, Mowry and Schwartz each garnered first all-GBC honors for the Little Giants.

Earning second team recognition was Albert Baumann, who had an 82.

Scott Kosakow added an 84 for Ross, while Michael Hall shot an 84.

TENNIS

SJCC 5, Ontario 0

Leah Walters (No. 1 singles) dropped only two games in a 6-1, 6-1 win and Chloe Beck (No. 2 singles) dropped just three as St. Joseph Central Catholic earned a shutout non-league victory over Ontario Thursday.

Emma Hoffman also won at singles for the Crimson Streaks, winning 6-1, 7-5.

The No. 1 doubles team of Ailish Masterson and Hannah Sani were 6-3, 6-2 winners. And the No. 2 squad Taylor Baker and Emily Ronski won 6-2, 6-0.