2014 GIRLS TENNIS PREVIEW

News-Messenger staff reports

GIRLS TENNIS FREMONT ROSS

Coach: Lisa Wolfe (15th season, 170-78)

Last year: 8-10 (3-4 Three Rivers Athletic Conference)

Key losses: Lauren Emrich (No. 1 singles); Kelley Bondra (No. 3 singles); Emily Hamilton (No. 1 doubles); Aubrey Fox (No. 1 doubles); Emily Moyer (No. 2 doubles); Kana Tritch, Katarine Whisler, Charlott Wiejack.

Key returners: Bailey Druckenmiller (Sr., No. 2 doubles); Taylor Paeth (Jr., No. 2 singles)

Impact newcomers: Gaby Gutierrez (Sr.); Alexia Green (Jr.); Mari Warwick (Jr.); Alyssa Meyer (So.).

Outlook: With only two letter-winners returning from last season and seven freshmen on the roster, the Little Giants are also the Young Giants. Junior Taylor Paeth will make the jump from No. 2 doubles to No. 1, facing the opponent's best player every day. Senior Bailey Druckenmiller is nursing a knee injury and coach Lisa Wolfe hopes she is available to resume playing in September. While Fremont Ross is entering a rebuilding year, Wolfe says what her teams lacks in experience it makes up for with work ethic and an eagerness to improve.

ST. JOSEPH CENTRAL CATHOLIC

Coaches: Liz Pietrowski and Joe Lughman

Key losses: Kelsey Nevius (No. 2 doubles); Laura Biaze (No. 3 singles).

Key returners: Ashley Burns (Sr., No. 1 doubles);
Talia Deibart (Sr., No. 1

Next: Ross plays Central Catholic at Jermain Park Thursday at 4:30pm in first round of OT-CA tournament.

Ross girls tennis swept by Fighting Irish

The Fremont Ross girls tennis team was swept Tuesday in a Three Rivers Athletic Conference matchup against the Fighting Irish.

In singles, Taylor Paeth (No. 1), Alexa Hess (No. 2) and Olivia Henry (No. 3) all fell in straight sets. Ross' doubles duos of Lexie Green/Alyssa Meyer (No. 1) and Kaitlyn McGilton/Brianna Palm (No. 2) also lost.

The Little Giants take on Fostoria on Wednesday.
