

2018 Limited Season Review.

Only meet reported on during the 2018 season

Fremont Ross fourth at Pirate invite

From Staff Reports

Fremont News-Messenger
USA TODAY NETWORK

Track

Pirate Invitational

Dakota McPeak won the 200, Treston Francis the 100 and Tanner Hundley, McPeak, Austin Ostrum and Mike Pierce won the 4x200 relay Saturday as Bellevue's boys finished second at Perkins.

Francis, McPeak, Pierce and Alex Rogers won the 4x100.

Taylor Waldecker won the 1,600 and Cory Santoro, Jenna Binger, Taylor Baxter and Waldecker the 4x400 relay as the Lady Red were second.

McKela Elder won the 800, Olivia DeRodes the high jump and AnneMarie Moses, Kimora Rapp, Ashanti Elkins and Jazzele Lindsey won the 4x200 as Fremont Ross's girls were fourth.

Bryce McKinstry won the high jump as the Little Giants' boys finished fourth.

St. Joseph Central Catholic's Miranda Wammes won the 400 as St. Joseph Central Catholic's girls were sixth.

Genoa's Christian Pearson won the long jump and Daniel Novotney the shot put as Genoa's boys were seventh.

Brad Kadlubowski was second in the 100 as SJCC's boys were eighth.

Hundley was second in both hurdle events and Jake Holmer was second in the long jump.

Lindsey was second in the 100 and 200. DeRodes, Elkins, Madalyn Metcalf and Elder were second in the 4x800 and Moses was second in the pole vault.

Oliver Ellis was second in the 400, Ethan McClory second in the 3,200 and Matt Kuyken second in the 800 for the Little Giants' boys. Ellis, Kuyken, Ka'Von Martin and McKinstry were second in the 4x400.

The Crimson Streaks' Adalia Pasch, Morgan Grahl, Natalie Cook and Tristan Reineck were second in the 4x200 relay.

Sydney Waskielis was second in the 300 hurdles, Kaylia Reesman in the long jump and Lindsey Spurlock second in the 3,200 for Bellevue's girls. Payton Vogel was second in the shot put.

Genoa's girls were seventh. Perkins finished first for the boys and girls.