Trojans Win Team Crown

Findlay and Elyria's Scott Hadaway are the new Buckeye Conference golf kings.

Findlay is the new team champion after edging Sandusky, the defending champion, by one stroke in the annual conference meet at Fremont Country Club yesterday.

Hadaway, a sophomore, fired a neat 77 over the wind-swept course to win the individual title.

Findlay's foursome combined for a 334 total. The Trojans were led by John Delaney's 41-38-79. The Trojans also received a 40-44-84 from Eric Chatelain, a 43-42-85 from Craig Vandlik and a 45-86 from Greg Baird.

Tim McKenna was Sandusky's leading entry. He carded a 39-40-79. Other Sandusky entrants included Jeff Manuella (41-44-85), Jim Kirner (40-45-85) and Dan Sprau (42-44-86).

Fremont Ross finished third in the team race with a 342 total. Marion Harding (345), Elyria (354), Lorain Senior (360), Lorain Admiral King (373) and Mansfield Senior (374) completed the eight-team field.

Jim Decker was low man for Ross with a 41-39-80. Jim Decker, the only upper classmen in the Little Giant foursome, turned in a 38-43-81. Moll's Brother, Bob, carded a 47-40-87. Lee Curtis checked in with a 46-48-94.

Hadaway succeeds Randy Manuella of Sandusky as the tourney medalist. Hadaway fired a 39 on the front side and came back with a 38. Par at the 6,445-yard country club course is 36-72.
