

Oak Harbor wins sectional crown; Ross is runner-up

STAFF PHOTO

Oak Harbor's Jeremy Balboa, right, was runner-up at 138 pounds Saturday in the Division II sectional tournament at Oak Harbor.

By Matthew Horn
Sports writer

Trayvion Scott (113 pounds), Tyler Grine (138) and Jordan Weissinger (152) earned sectional crowns Saturday as Fremont Ross' wrestling team finished second at the Division I sectional tournament at Mansfield Senior.

The top four at each weight advance to districts.

Lamonte Chapman (106) and Rico Puente (126) were second, while Bryce Moreno (195) was third for the Little Giants. Ethan Hetrick (132), Garrett Barth (145), Stefan Johnson (170) and Kieler Foster (182) were fourth, while Ivan Franks (160) was fifth.

D-II at Oak Harbor

Brandon Garber (220) captured a sectional title as the third seed as Oak Harbor finished second.

"He wrestled well throughout the day and (Friday) also," Rockets coach George Bergman said. "Garber chose bottom (in the championship match) in the final period and got out. Brandon did well with the tie-ups and the other guy got desperate. He brawled well in the semifinals and finals."

Dylan Mansor (120), Jeremy Balboa (138) and Rhett Petersen (145) were runners-up, while Trevor Scherf (132), Ben Petersen (152) and Brody Hennig (160) were third for the Rockets. Nick Bergman (126), Kian

Thompson (170) and Simkus (182) were

D-II at Sandusky

Clyde's Gari earned a sectional title. Bellevue's Tr (113), Luke Leona Adkins (138), Chr Logan Vannest (1 (220) and Grant were second for ris notched the 1 his career in his f day.

The Fliers' (160) was second man (120) third (182) fourth and (285) fifth. The R son Kilgore (12

See WRES