Estrada state bound...ain't that a kick in the head?

Ross qualifies two; Clyde sends fourth-most in state with seven

Alex Estrada expected to feel an overwhelming sensation. Instead, he felt a stiff kick to his face.

The St. Joseph Central Catholic senior qualified to this week's state wrestling tournament, but it certainly wasn't even close to the way he envisioned it happening.

Leading 3-1 with about 30 seconds remaining in his 135-pound consolation semifinal bout Saturday during the district tournament at Toledo Waite, Estrada was knocked unconscious by the foot of Otsego's Jason Asmus. Estrada got a bruised jaw, cloudy memory and two stitches in his lower lip, along with his first trip to the state tournament when Asmus, who was attempting to break free from Estrada's grip, was disqualified.

"That's not the way I'd like to win," Estrada said. "I'd like to win by points, I'd like to win in a legitimate match. I don't want to win by someone getting DQ'd."

Estrada was not able to wrestle in Saturday's consolation final round and fell to fourth place. He'll wrestle Corey Pfister of Sullivan Black River in today's opening round at the Schottenstein Center at Ohio State University in Columbus.

A championship round will begin with Division III at 3 p.m. today, followed by one consolation round. Wrestling will resume at 10 a.m. Friday with the championship finals scheduled for 5 p.m. Saturday.

A BED SHEET in the front yard of the Zucker family on Fifth Street in Fremont announces that Fremont Ross wrestlers Jorge Perez and Robert Zucker have qualified for the state wrestling tournament. Robert's mother, Jeanne, and brother, Nathan, made the sign. The state tournament starts today.

Estrada, who will be joined in Columbus by teammate Juni Arreola (140), was not informed that he advanced to state until about three minutes after the match was over. But after last year's district meet, when he twice was a win away from qualifying for state, Estrada is happy to move on — even if it means he'll be forced to wear a protective mask over his face.

"He never really got to enjoy it because they had him over on the trainer's table, and I still think he was groggy then," said SJCC coach Mike Naufel. "It would have been nice to see if that never would have happened, but there's not too much you can do about it."

Still, Naufel is completely confident Estrada would have won the match anyway.

"He never would have lost," he said. "I think the kid he was wrestling realized that and that's why he [kicked Alex]."

SJCC is matched by Ross in number of state qualifiers, as the Little Giants will be sending seniors Jorge Perez (215) and Robert Zucker (275) to Columbus. Bellevue qualified returning state runner-up Jeffrey Peiton (119), Dawson Riedy (119), Kyle Baker (171) and Ed Bazorik (189).

Oak Harbor advanced four sophomores, including three returning qualifiers, Kirk Tank (145), Keith Witt (152) and Cody Magrum (171), who finished seventh last year. Tommy Baker (160) will be making his first trip after wrestling a brilliant district tournament at Ontario. Baker, who finished just fourth

"We wanted them peaking for state, and I think that's what happened. We just prepare them for the end of the year, we taper down at just the right time, and I think it worked."

at sectionals, won three matches in overtime at districts to advance to the championship before falling to Willard's Tyler Thornton.

"I was talking to my two older boys that if we took four to state my pick was Tommy," said Oak Harbor coach George Bergman. "He had a favorable draw at districts and he's wrestled everybody closely. Nobody has really blown him out, so I knew he was right there."

With seven qualifiers, Clyde has the fourth-most participants in Division II behind forces St. Paris Graham, Eastwood and Columbus St. Francis DeSales. The Flyers' Matt Guhn (275) will look to defend his state title, while Robbie Michaels (145) and Eric Schwartz (215) wouldn't need miracles to join Guhn in Saturday's final.

Clyde will also be bringing Brent Aona (140), Thomas Schwartz (152), Aric Thurn (160) and Derek Dencer (171). First-year Flyer coach Matt Merrill believes a top-5 team finish is attainable.

"We wanted them peaking for state, and I think that's what happened," Merrill said. "We just prepare them for the end of the year, we taper down at just the right time, and I think it worked."

Zucker, Arreola advance at state meet

he downed Cleveland Benedictine's Tyler Heil, 12-1, improving to 44-1.

"I have a pretty good draw and if I can wrestle to my potential I should be doing pretty good," he said.

Clyde's Matt Guhn, the defending heavyweight state champion, also won Thursday, pinning St. Paris Graham's Adam Walls in 5:38.

Ross heavyweight Robert Zucker advanced by pinning Mentor district champion Nick Piccirillo of Mayfield in 1:37. Zucker was trailing 2-1 when he executed a pancake throw to put Piccirillo on his back. With about 275 pounds lying on top of him, Piccirillo had no chance.

"I always look for them throws," Zucker said. "It's like a signature move, I guess."

Juni Arreola's signature move is a barrel roll and the SJCC senior worked it over and over in his 20-4 win over Blanchester's Damon Barr. Arreola (51-2) built a 14-point lead after two periods, almost primarily with two-point take-downs.

"Most guys know it's coming, but I've done it so long it's pretty much natural," Arreola said. It's what I do, and I usually score."

Bellevue qualified four wrestlers but only returning state runner-up Jeffery Pelton (119) will be around for day two.

Oak Harbor sophomores Kirk Tank (145), Keith Witt (152) and Cody Magrum (171) all advanced in the championship bracket during their second trip to the state tournament. Tommy Baker (160) was eliminated after losing in the first consolation round.

"I feel a lot better than I did last year, a lot more confident," Tank said.
