

—:—
MISS GERTRUDE Bliss, physical education instructor at Fremont Ross high school, had an easy solution to a problem Tuesday . . . Told by a pupil, Mary Lindstrom, that the latter could not play basketball because she did not have her glasses, therefore couldn't see well . . . "That's okay," said Miss Bliss. "You can be the referee." . . .

—:—
ROSS GIRLS ATHLETIC Association varsity team will host the Alumni GAA Tuesday after school. The annual game will be held between the two teams with refreshments and a social period to follow. These annual get-togethers stimulate sportsmanship, according to Miss Gertrude Bliss, adviser, and give opportunity for the high school girls and the alumni to share experiences. At a later date the alumni plan to host the Ross group with a potluck.