

Schabel lifts Ross to invitational title

Dearsman six shots better than OH field

News-Messenger reports

Youth served the Fremont Ross golf team well on its way to a second straight Golden Bear Invitational title Tuesday at Sycamore Hills Golf Course.

Freshman Spencer Schabel fired a team-leading 74, and sophomore Austin Young added a 78 as the Little Giants won the 12-team event hosted by Gibsonburg.

Schabel and Young were the No. 5 and 6 players in the Ross lineup Tuesday.

"We knew the potential was there," Ross coach Desie Morehart said of Schabel and Young. "But it didn't always show in tryouts."

High School Golf Roundup

Ross won with an total of 315, eight strokes better than its winning score of last season. Wes Eckhardt recorded an 81, and Kevin Vassar and Dave Fausnaugh had 82s.

"I knew our team was stronger this year, so I thought we'd do well," Morehart said. "To me, every win is boost for the kids."

Tiffin Calvert, led by match medalist Matt Reino's 71, finished second at 319. St. Joseph Central Catholic was third at 323 and Woodmore carded a 327 for fourth place. Among other area teams, Old Fort was sixth at 343, Lakota eighth at 349 and Gibsonburg ninth at 359.

St. Joe also got a strong performance from its No. 6 player. Junior Eric Velez led the Crimson Streaks with a 75.

"He's actually been playing pretty close to that in practice the past couple of weeks," St. Joe head coach Greg Kohler said. "He obviously did some work this summer."

Top player Vince Golamb added a 78, Justin Pollock an 83 and Will Woodruff and Robbie LeJeune 87s.

See CLYDE, B3

Little Giants claim invite win
SWANTON — The Fremont Ross golf team claimed first place in the in Bulldog Invitational on Thursday.

The Little Giants won with a 307 score, breaking last year's record of 316.

Spencer Schabel led the victors with a 73, while Andrew Aseltine and Wes Eckhardt each carded a 77.

In earlier season action, Ross earned a non-league triumph over Admiral King with a score 329. Phil Foster and Schabel each turned in a 81 to lead the Little Giants. Aseltine added an 83.

In junior varsity action, Ross earned a score of 356 at the Chippewa Invitational.

Scott King paced the Little Giants with an 83, while Austin Young followed with an 88. Evan Shell finished with a score of 91. Jeff Burr and Corey Fulkerson each carded a 94, as did Grant Hilty.

Kyle Bohland rounded out the Ross effort with a 107

Ross travels to Ottawa Hills on Thursday.

Little Giants win Bulldog Invitational

Continued From B1

Lakota 174, New Riegel 196

Jared Obermyer carded a 41 to claim medalist honors while leading the Raiders past New Riegel for a non-league victory Tuesday at Sycamore Hills.

Raider Tim Ray followed with a 42, while Byran Chaney contributed a 45. Josh Garcia rounded out the scoring quartet with a 46.

Lakota (2-2) faces Otsego and Woodmore on Monday in Tontogany.

Little Giants claim invite win
SWANTON — The Fremont Ross golf team claimed first place in the in Bulldog Invitational on Thursday.

The Little Giants won with a 307 score, breaking last year's record of 316.

Spencer Schabel led the victors with a 73, while Andrew Aseltine and Wes Eckhardt each carded a 77.

In earlier season action, Ross earned a non-league triumph over Admiral King with a score 329. Phil Foster and Schabel each turned in a 81 to lead the Little Giants. Aseltine added an 83.

In junior varsity action, Ross earned a score of 356 at the Chippewa Invitational.

Scott King paced the Little Giants with an 83, while Austin Young followed with an 88. Evan Shell finished with a score of 91. Jeff Burr and Corey Fulkerson each carded a 94, as did Grant Hilty.

Kyle Bohland rounded out the Ross effort with a 107

Ross travels to Ottawa Hills on Thursday.

Little Giants take 3rd at Green Bear

BOWLING GREEN — The Fremont Ross golf team posted a score of 318 for a third-place finish in the Green Bear Cup Invitational put on by Ottawa Hills on Thursday at Stone Ridge Golf Course.

Spencer Schabel fired a team-best 74 to help the Little Giants move up from a ninth-place finish a year ago in the 16-team event. Bowling Green was the champion with a score of 304, while Sylvania Northview (313 points) was the runner-up.

Schabel was tied for the medalist with the 74 and lost in a playoff. Ross teammate Wes Eckhardt carded an 80, while Philip Foster and Andrew Aseltine each had an 82. Dave Fausnaugh turned in a score of 83, and Kevin Vassar rounded out the effort with an 86.

The Little Giants travel to Napoleon on Tuesday.

GOLF

Ross 159, Napoleon 164

NAPOLEON — Scott King and Philip Foster each fired a team-best 39 to pace the Ross golf team past Napoleon.

Austin Young followed with a 40, while Andrew Aseltine carded a 41 to round out the Little Giant scoring team.

Ross plays in the Bellevue Invitational on Saturday.

Golf

High School

Ross 159, Napoleon 164

Ross

Philip Foster	39
Wes Eckhardt	48
Andrew Aseltine	41
Spencer Schabel	47
Scott King	39
Austin Young	40

Napoleon

Matt Price	39
Kyle Borsielm.....	41
Brett Behasceld	40
John Daniels.....	44
Eric Stover	43

JV score: Ross 183, Napoleon 199

Ross results: Dave Fausnaugh (43), Kevin Vassar (47), Jeff Burr (43), Isaiah Garza (50).

News-Messenger reports

NORWALK — The Clyde volleyball team won two of three matches and finished second Saturday at the Norwalk Invitational.

The Fliers downed Shaker Heights (15-1, 15-2) and Norwalk (15-11, 15-13) in two games before falling to Norwalk St. Paul in the championship match. St. Paul earned a 15-5, 15-4 victory to claim the invitational title.

Heather Kwiatkowski led the Fliers with 50 assists and 24 service points for the tournament. Ashley Carter had 20 kills, Brynna Mussell 10 and Erika Straube nine.

Ross also participated in the invitational. The Little Giants' results were unavailable.

Clyde (4-1) is at Perkins on Tuesday.

Woodmore splits pair of matches

ELMORE — The Woodmore volleyball team swept Toledo Waite but fell to Fostoria during a tri-match.

The Wildcats fell 15-5, 15-1 to the Lady Red, then rebounded to earn a 15-6, 15-9 triumph over Waite.

Cadie Brown, Erin Stoffan and Tarah Jacobs each had seven points for Woodmore. Anna Dishong added 100 percent digging.

Woodmore (2-2) is at Lakota on Tuesday.

BOYS GOLF

Ross second in tourney

CLYDE — Scott King and Philip Foster each

KWIATKOWSKI

broke 80 on Saturday to lead the Little Giants to second place in the 13-team Bellevue Invitational at Sleepy Hollow.

Ross fired a 322, 12 shots behind champion Norwalk. Margaretta finished third at 328, and Bellevue was fourth at 329.

King carded a 78, Foster a 79 to lead Ross, which improved six strokes and four places in the standings from last year. Spencer Schabel chipped in with an 80, and Wes Eckhardt had an 85.

Margaretta got a 78 from Grant Kuns, an 82 from Russ Smith, an 83 from Jeremy Long and an 85 from Austin Poe.

Jake Zeller paced Bellevue with a 79. Jason Howard recorded an 81, Matt Ruffing an 83 and Ryan Austin an 86.

Ross hosts Toledo Whitmer on Tuesday.

CROSS COUNTRY

Lakota girls second at Otsego

TONTOGANY — Rachel Munoz placed fifth to lead the Lakota girls to second place at the five-team Otsego Invitational.

Munoz finished in 21 minutes, 13 seconds. The tightly packed Raiders finished with 59 points. Bowling Green won the event with 18 points.

Lakota took spots 12 through 15. Erica Walters and Erin Graber came in 12th and 13th with identical times of 22:45. Kristie Frankart and Tara Swim were 14th and 15th in 22:51 and 22:57, respectively.

The Lakota boys placed third with 69 points. Bowling Green won with 28 points, and Perysburg was second with 53.

Kyle Dussel led the Raiders by coming in third at 18:03. Mat Shultz and Patrick Graber

Ross 167, Toledo Whitmer 174

Philip Foster carded a 38 for medalist honors as the Fremont Ross golf team downed Whitmer in Great Lakes League play at the Fremont Country Club.

Wes Eckhardt shot a 42, and Andrew Aseltine added a 44. Spencer Schabel finished the Little Giant scoring with a 45.

Ross (3-0, 2-0 GLL) hosts St. Joe on Thursday.

news-messenger reports

The Fremont Ross golf team stayed perfect in dual meets by getting past St. Joseph Central Catholic, 166-174, Thursday at Fremont Country Club.

Philip Foster and Wes Eckhardt led the balanced Little Giants' attack with 41s. Spencer Schabel and Kevin Vassar added 42.

Ross improved to 3-0.

Cory Swaisgood led St. Joe with a 42. Teammates David Babione, Robbie LeJeune and William Woodruff had 44s.

Ross is at the St. Francis Invitational on Saturday at Forrest Creason in Bowling Green. St. Joe is at Clyde with Oak Harbor on Thursday.

GOLF

Ross 158, Clay 164

OREGON — Spencer Schabel was the medalist with a 37 as the Little Giants stayed perfect in Great Lakes League play at Eagles Landing.

Philip Foster added a 39, Andrew Aseltine a 40 and Wes Eckhardt a 42 for Ross (6-0, 3-0 GLL).

"It was a very big win," Ross head coach Dessie Morehart said. "We had played against Clay on Saturday in the invitational at Forrest Creason, and they beat us. We were thrilled today."

Ross is back in GLL action Thursday at home against Sandusky.

News-Messenger reports

Sandusky's Ryan Glass fired a one-under-par 34 Thursday at Fremont Country Club to help stop the Fremont Ross golf team's win streak in the Great Lakes League.

The Blue Streaks handed the Little Giants a 157-165 defeat, dropping Ross to 3-1 in the GLL. Sandusky is also 3-1 in league play.

Philip Foster led Ross with a 38. Wes Eckhardt and Scott King had 42s, and Kevin Vassar contributed a 43.

Ross hosts Findlay on Tuesday.

High School

Sandusky 157, Ross 165

Ross

Philip Foster	38
Spencer Schabel	45
Wes Eckhardt.....	42
Andrew Aseltine	44
Kevin Vassar	43
Scott King	42

Sandusky

Ryan Glass	34
Dustin Truman.....	43
Shawn Bahnsen.....	41
Mike Schmidt	40
Dominic Frausto.....	42
Raymond Seiler	44

Record: Ross 3-1 GLL, Sandusky 3-1 GLL.

JV score: Ross 164, Sandusky 191.

JV leader: Alex Odermann (38).

GOLF

Ross 157, M. Harding 182

Philip Foster fired a 37 for medalist honors to lead the Fremont Ross golf team to a non-league triumph over Marion Harding on Monday.

Scott King carded a 39, while Andrew Aseltine had a 40. Spencer Schabel and Wes Eckhardt each contributed a 41.

The Little Giants (3-1) host Great Lakes League rival Findlay at 4:30 p.m. today.

Findlay 151, Ross 156

The Little Giants shot their best round of the season, but it wasn't enough to get past Great Lakes League powerhouse Findlay at Fremont Country Club.

Philip Foster led Ross with a season-best 36, which was one over par. He shared medalist honors with Tyler Riley of Findlay.

Wes Eckhardt of Ross added a 37, Scott King a 41 and Spencer Schabel a 42.

The Little Giants (6-2, 3-2 GLL) are at Toledo St. Francis on Thursday.

David Babione (84) made the second team.

Stockaders' Drew Gaietto (87) and K.C. Fry (88), along with SJCC's Justin Pollock (90) earned honorable mention accolades.

Will Woodruff had a 92 for SJCC, while Todd Baker and Justin Elchert added a 92 and a 95, respectively, for Old Fort.

Sean Harrison had a 101 to lead the Bettsville effort. Adam Lawrence was a stroke behind with a 102, and Brittany Lynch had a 109. Kevin Steele finished with a 114.

SJCC, Old Fort and Bettsville all play in the Division III sectional at Green Hills on Wednesday.

Tol. St. Francis 153, Ross 161
TOLEDO — Andrew Asel-

tine fired a team-best 38 for the Little Giants in a defeat to Toledo St. Francis.

Philip Foster was close behind with a 39. Wes Eckhardt and Spencer Schabel each had 42s.

Ross (6-3) competes in the Genoa Invitational on Saturday.

St. Mary 152, Clyde 168

SANDUSKY — Clyde's Brad Dearsman carded a 39, but so did St. Mary's Kevin Mielke and Steve Claar in a triumph over the Fliers.

The Fliers dropped to 6-9 overall and 4-7 in the SBC.

Josh Zartman and Cory Whitaker each had 41s, while Kyle Hackenburg added a 47.

Clyde competes in the Fostoria Invitational on Saturday.

GOLF

Ross finishes second

GENOA — Spencer Schabel shot a team-best 76 to lead the Little Giants to a runner-up finish at the Genoa Invitational on Saturday at Chippewa.

Ontario won the event with a 311; Ross and Great Lakes League rival Sandusky each followed with a 312 in the 13-team field.

Bellevue finished eighth with a score of 328. Individual scores were unavailable.

Little Giant Andrew Aseltine had a 77, while David Fausnaugh and Wes Eckhardt added a 78 and 81, respectively.