

1990 BUCKEYE CENTRAL CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT

Little Giants claim third place in BCC tournament

News-Messenger reports

LANCASTER — The idiosyncrasies of the Buckeye Central Conference were evident in yet another sport Saturday.

"We finished third (in BCC Volleyball Tournament), but we never got to play the second-place team," Fremont Ross volleyball coach Beth Kidwell said.

Ross defeated Findlay twice by scores of 15-8, 15-13 and 15-6, 15-6 and lost to eventual champion Newark 15-5, 15-12.

Lancaster defeated Zanesville before losing to Newark in the championship match.

Findlay defeated Zanesville for fourth place.

"It's strange, this season we played Findlay four times, Newark twice and did not play Lancaster or Zanesville yet we're third in the conference," Kidwell said.

Ross's Amy Brandt, who was named to the all-tournament first team, set 25 assists to kills.

Tara Young and Annette

Myers were second-team selections.

Young was perfect in 31 trips to the service line, scoring 20 points, and Myers finished with 16 kills.

Angie Roosen served 10 points, including three aces, in the Little Gints' opening round victory.