A THOUSAND PARDONS—

A year ago at this time, we noted that Rio Grande and its fabulous Bevo Francis were to make an appearance at Ashland College . . . Later we had to apologize because it was Ashland, Kentucky, not nearby Ashland, Ohio . . . So, when we saw the name "Ashland" on this year's schedule, we presumed it was the same Ashland, Ky.

Wrong again. This is 1954, and the Rio Grande quintet, including Bevo, will be in Ashland, OHIO, on February 23. The game will be played in the high school auditorium, which seats 1,450 and has standing room for 200. The tickets, which cost $1, will go on sale two weeks in advance of the game. All orders for tickets must be addressed to

Two Ross high athletic squads will be in action Tuesday, which is an open date on the local basketball front.

The swimmers will make their first start in a month against the Toledo Y. M. C. A. in the local pool at 7:30 p. m.

The newly organized wrestling team will make its debut at 4 p. m. at Fostoria. The match was originally scheduled for today but was moved back a day at Fostoria's request.

George Gruse, swimming coach, said he will start the same lineup he announced for the Sandusky meet, which was postponed by the Blue Streaks because of icy highway conditions.

The Y. M. C. A. setto will be the first of two meetings this week, the tankers going to Western Reserve Academy Saturday afternoon.

Mal Mackey's 20-man wrestling squad has been practicing for more than a month, most of the sessions being held at the Y. M. C. A.

"I wouldn't say outright that the owners are trying to get some of that money back but it seems that way. It's a horrible thing they're doing to the players. The job of commissioner is to protect the players. I don't know what the present fellow (Frick) is doing, but he's doing wrong."

Ross Wrestlers Edged Out By Fostoria, 23-21

Ross high wrestlers lost their first match in the school's history, but they turned in a remarkable performance considering it was their initial competitive effort.

The Little Giants were defeated by Fostoria, 23-21. The Redman won in the final match, when Bull Pullom decisioned Dave Wolshuck, 200-pound sophomore.

Fostoria received five gift points when Fremont did not enter a boy in the 114-pound class and was forced to forfeit. A 95-pound match, by agreement, was only an exhibition and did not count in the scoring. Terry Shanahan of Ross pinned Bob Henry of Fostoria in 1:30 of the second round. Under wrestling scoring rules, a pin is worth five points, a decision three points.

Fostoria ran up a 20-0 lead in the lighter weights but once they got into the heavier classes, the Fremonters rolled up 21 consecutive points to take the lead, winning five matches in a row. Then Pullom pulled the match out of the fire for Fostoria.

George Reed, Bob Reed, John Broski, Danna De Lagrange and Ken Hirt scored victories for Fremont.

Coach Mal Mackey said he was well pleased with his squad's performance. Fostoria will wrestle here February 16. A bout will be held here next week with Toledo Central, but the exact date has not been set.

Wrestlers Meet Fostoria Tuesday

Ross high school wrestlers will be out to avenge a close defeat when they meet Fostoria at Croghan grade school auditorium Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Fostoria edged the locals, 23-21, when Ross made its wrestling debut three weeks ago there.

The grapplers will also be in action Friday at Lima Central. Central defeated Ross here last week.

Ross Matmen Gain Revenge On Fostoria

Mal Mackey's Ross high wrestlers got a big measure of satisfaction from last night's victory over Fostoria.

The Little Giants won an easy 42-8 decision over the Redman, who defeated the Fremonters 23-21 there in January.

Fremont won 10 of the 12 individual matches, but among the two losers was Ken Hirt, who was undefeated in four previous tests. He was decided by Wesley True.

The only other Fostoria victory was by Bill Pullom, who pinned Fremont's Roger Shoup in the heavyweight class. Shoup earned the right to wrestle in the place of Dave Wolshuck when he defeated Wolshuck in a challenge match during a practice session. This method is used to determine the lineup in outside competition.

About 150 fans witnessed the match in the Croghan school auditorium. The Giants wrestle at Lima Central Friday.

Fremont victories on pins were won by Bill Sherlow, John Nitschke, Tom Rollins, Wayne Michaels, Bob Reed and Dale Wright, while Ron Kiser, Jerry Kessler, Larry Reed and Dana DeLagrange won decisions.

ROSS WRESTLERS LOSE

Ross wrestlers went down to a 25-19 defeat in their final match of the season at Lima Friday.

Ross high wrestlers won only two of seven matches, but we've heard plenty of praise for the development of Mal Mackey's proteges. This was the first year for the sport at Ross, and the Giants showed an amazing aptitude considering they were trying something new. The Giants lost to Lima Central, 25-19, in their final match last Friday. Now they turn their attention to the annual invitational tournament at Findlay College March 12-13. Victories at Lima were won by Bill Sherlow, John Nitschke, Tom Rollins, Bob Reed and Dana DeLagrange.

Wrestlers Enter Findlay Tourney

A squad of 12 Ross wrestlers are in Findlay today for an invitational tournament, sponsored by Findlay College.

After registration, grapplers will be weighed, then coaches will meet and make pairings. First round preliminaries will be held at 2 p.m. and at 8 p.m.

Saturday weigh ins are slated for 9 a.m., with finals to start at 1 p.m.

Finals will be held at 8 p.m.

Ross 8th In Wrestling Meet At Findlay College

Mantua high, a Cleveland suburb, won the invitational wrestling meet at Findlay College Friday and Saturday. Ross was eighth with nine points. Bridgeport, an Ohio Valley school, was runner-up to Mantua.

Ken Hirt, 178, and Bill Sherlow, 98, got as far as the semifinals for Fremont. Twelve teams entered.
