

Dick Rodenhauser named to All-Ohio Honorable Mention

Name Rodenhauser

The state cage tournaments are still coming up so no one can claim that basketball is dead for the year and accuse us of rattling a skeleton if we devote a few more lines to the winter hardwood sport. However, the column has a couple of items worth mentioning. Fremont's Dick Rodenhauser has received honorable mention on both the United Press and Associated Press all-Ohio schoolboy squads, released this week. Previously he received the same rating by the International News Service, making a grand slam of the biggest wire services.

It's a fine honor that Rodenhauser has earned in his final year of play and, speaking of
