STREAKS IN ACTION: Silverio Gonzalez is trying to work his way out of a grip held by Lee Potter in a St. Joe practice session. Gonzalez was runner-up in the district last year in the 120-pound class. Potter is another letterman and wrestles in the 127-pound class.

COME BACK HERE: John Deno, a 154-pound Ross wrestler, has a strong hold on Felix Palomo, 165-pounder. Both boys were in practice with 58 others as Ross high prepares to open its season against Fostoria Thursday.

Wrestling Opens In Fremont

Streaks Lack Experience

St. Joseph's wrestling team is under coach Joe Kuzman — who is starting his third year along with the new sport at the school — presently is preparing for its opening meet of the season with Defiance here Thursday at 7 p.m.

The Streaks are returning only three lettermen and must rebuild after losing eight varsity performers. A lack of experience is the keynote at St. Joe's.

Bolstering this year's thin squad is Silverio Gonzalez, who wrestles in the 120-pound class. Gonzalez went the farthest last year in the district meet, taking the runner-up position. He is a senior.

The other two lettermen are Lee Potter, 127-pound class, a junior, and Gary Logston, 103-pound class, also a junior. The latter, however, has been in the hospital with a stomach ailment and his status at this time is doubtful. The first line sub in the 103-pound class is Bob Reineck, a sophomore.

Two boys are currently vying for the 112-pound class starting role. They are Dan Rich, sophomore, and Bob Cook, a sophomore.

The 133-pound class will have Denny Good, a junior with no experience.

Leo Buffka, another first year man and a junior in school, is out for the 138-pound division. Larry Wagner, a junior with no experience, is entered in the 145-pound class.

Two boys are fighting for the 154-pound berth. They are senior Mike Bundshu and junior Mike Kelly. Bundshu is a first year man.

The 165-pound class has either Charles Lenhart or Jim Kiser entered. Both are sophomores.

Roger Berberick, a junior with no experience, is trying out for the 175-pound division.

The only heavyweight on the squad is Ron Mayle, a sophomore who is now in the hospital with bronchial pneumonia. There is no replacement in this division.

Ross Returns Seven

Seven lettermen and a squad that totals 60 have reported to Ross high wrestling coach Mal Mackey and his assistant Pete Michaels. Ross opens its season against Fostoria here Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Thirty-five have reported to freshman mentor Lyle Smith.

The Ross varsity lettermen include seniors Ken Smith, Dick Ninke, Dan Carte, Harry Quackenbush and John Deno. Juniors are Curt Joseph and Felix Palomo.

Of the 60 hopefuls, coach Mackey said many are still shooting for berths. But the leading candidates at this time appear to be the following:

103-pound class: Joseph.

127-pound class: Bill Martin, junior.

133-pound class: Quackenbush.

138-pound class: Ken Svanoe, a junior.

154-pound class: Deno.

165-pound class: Palomo.

175-pound class: Either Ninke, Smith or Carte.

Heavyweight: Ed Forgatsch, 205-pound senior. He was a 175-pounder last year.

Mackey, who originated the sport in Fremont 10 years ago, figures Elyria the top team on his slate, with Huron and Sandusky also looming large.

Poor Season

For Coaches

NEW YORK (AP) — The old-fashioned party game of musical chairs again is in full swing among the college football coaches.

Several already have been given the heave-ho, victims of alumni who tolerate nothing short of success, and others have quit. The jobs of a dozen others are hanging by a slender thread.

Among the more prominent coaches reported on the griddle are Dale Hall at Army, John Steigman of Pennsylvania and Lynn Hovland of Washington University (St. Louis).

Kelly and Glenn Haas. Two others who won first place but are not in the photo are Ed Forgatsch and Dennis Carte.

Six of Ross' finest wrestlers brought back first place trophies recently when they took high honors in the Mansfield Invitational wrestling meet. As a team, the Little Giants won the event, though coach Mal Mackey has not yet received official point tabulations.

First place winners for Fremont were Ralph Starr, 112-pound class; Larry Kelly, 127 - pound class; Glenn Haas, 138-pound class; Dennis Carte, 154 - pound class; Felix Palomo, 165 - pound class; and Ed Forgatsch, heavyweight. These winners give Ross well-balanced strength throughout its team.

In other classes, Curt Joseph placed third in the 103-pound division, Mike Franz third in the 120-pound class, Harry Quackenbush fourth in the 133-pound class, Bill Thraves third in the 145-pound division and Ken Smith forfeit in the 175-pound class because of a broken arm.

Sandusky

Trips Ross

Sandusky took a close 24 - 15 wrestling meet from Ross last night in the Little Giants' gym. Matches were close with the Streaks ahead 6-5.

Ross had piled up an early lead after four bouts but the Streaks came on strong to triumph.
