Ross Shows Well In Tussle With Libbey

Ross high's Little Giants gave a big Toledo Libbey team all it asked for in a regulation practice game at Harmon field Monday night. Out-scrapping the husky Toledoans for three quarters, the Fremont eleven weakened in the final quarter and succumbed by a 12-7 count.

Although the scrimmage was unannounced, a large throng was attracted to the Little Giant field by the beaming arclights.

The score was not really indicative of the strength of either team, since Fred McClintock of Ross, and Bill Orwig of Libbey, substituted freely and each was determined to try as many candidates as possible, paying little heed to the outcome.

With Bob Brunover and Lyle Reichert of the Little Giant back-field making persistent gains, Ross carried the fight to Libbey throughout the first half and kept the Toledoans in their own territory.

Midway in the third quarter, Ross punched the ball to the Libbey 10-yard line. Bob Shaw took the ball to the two-yard stripe on an end-around play and Reichert slanted off his own right guard for a touchdown. Vernon Kane, blocking back, converted.

A long pass at the outset of the fourth period set up Libbey's first touchdown, with Capt. Lin Georgia ripping across from the one-yard line. The second Libbey score came shortly afterwards with Walt Rieger taking the ball on a reverse around Fremont's right side 50 yards to a touchdown. Both tries for points were missed.

Ross lined up with a starting team comprised of Johnny Waggoner and Shaw, ends; Dick Hollsinger and Bill Frantz, tackles; Jim Kelly and Art Burton, guards; Hobs Stull, center; Brunover, quarterback; Vernon Kane and Dick Frantz, halfbacks, and Reichert, fullback.

The Little Giant line, from tackle to tackle, proved aggressive and hard to move. However, Libbey met with success in sallies at the wings, especially left end. Among the many substitutes sent in by McClintock, Eddie Myslinski, at guard; Jackson Pratt, center, and Jim Eden, halfback, proved outstanding.

line should give a good account of itself most of the season. Unlike last year, when he was required to pull his hair trying to keep the Little Giants on the field with only 14 or 15 men worthy of varsity consideration, this year McClintock has good replacements for virtually every position, although the reserves lack experience.

Promises Scrap

New coach, Sam Cooper, who succeeds Verne Hoffman at Bellevue, promises his Redmen will give the Little Giants a stiff battle. However, loss of such performers as Houle, Hime and Cal-

Seasoned Little Giant Team Seeks Revenge For '38 Loss

Coach Fred McClintock's Eleven Primed To Open Campaign And Atone For Slump Last Season; Two Newcomers In Lineup; Tilt At 8 P. M.

The Little Giant footballers, anxious to wipe away the injustice of a 1938 campaign in which they won only three while losing seven games, march into the 1939 grid warfare Friday night, facing the Redmen of Central high at Bellevue under the arcs at 8 o'clock.

The inaugural contest will see the forces of Coach Fred McClintock's team and their warden, head coach, seeking full measure of revenge for the 13-6 upset registered by Bellevue over Ross at Harmon field here. With only three faces missing, the 1939 Ross squad is the same that was humiliated by the underrated Redmen last year, which will not make it go any easier for the Bellevue club which has only five holdovers from 1938.

9 Lettermen Start

Nine lettermen are included in the line-up Coach McClintock announced he would send against Bellevue. Only newcomers are Dick Holslinger, aggressive junior tackle; Lyle Frantz, rugged half-back, also a goliath.

Picking up where they left off last season are Bob Shaw and Johnny Waggoner at the ends; Bill Frantz, tackle; Jim Kelly and Art Burton, guards; Howard Stull, center; Bob Brunover, quarterback; Lyle Reichert, right halfback; and Vernon Kane, fullback;

part of the time, but also was used as a back. Missing from last year's club are Al Koebel, fullback, and Bud Gordoni, guard, co-captains, and Burdette Ballard, halfback, all graduates.

Three Foes Dropped
With a heavier, more experienced team, McClintock's row shouldn't be so tough to hoe this year. Although Elyria, a powerful foe, is dropped from this year's schedule, addition of Bryan, which will be played in the first home game of the season next Friday night at Harmon field, will give the Little Giants probably their hardest foe outside of Sandusky.

Defiance and Bowling Green are also new on the Ross slate, replacing Piqua and Bucyrus.

The Little Giants have five Buckeye league tilts, facing Findlay, Columbus, Fostoria, new members, Findlay, Tiffin Columbian and Junior Order Home, Toledo Scott also remains on the Fremont card.

Although the forte of the 1938 Ross machine was a lightning passing attack, with little Bob Brunover doing the pitching and Ray Ross, almost of the running, McClintock stated his club would refrain from using the air as much as possible. "We should have a pretty fair running attack, and we're going to use it," he said.

Line Capable
Brunover has been called upon to do the fancy stepping and Lyle Reichert the line-smashing in practice to date. Frantz and Kane may display their willingness to carry on the blocking. Brunover's toe will rest the punting duties, although Shaw can be called back to boot a few whenever necessary.

The husky, hard-charging Ross line should give a good account of itself most of the season. Unlike last year when he was required to pull his hair trying to keep the Little Giants on the field with only 14 or 15 men worthy of varsity consideration, this year McClintock has good replacements for virtually every position, although the reserves lack experience.

Promises Scraps
New coach, Sam Cooper, who succeeds Vern Hoffmann at Bellevue promises his Redmen will give the Little Giants a stiff battle. However, loss of such performers as Houle, Hime and Calahan will leave Bellevue considerably weaker than last year. The five returning lettermen are Dick Schoen, tackle, Paul Didion, end, Don Oehling, guard, Dick Archer, center, and Art Weeston, halfback.

The Ross reserves, coached by Ed Gabel, will open their season Saturday at 9:30 a. m., on Harmon field here, facing the Bellevue spares.

MOORE, VANDY FACE GIANTS

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 15.—P—

Riding higher than the heat with four straight victories, including a jinx-breaking double win over the Giants, the Cincinnati Reds were out to stay the New Yorkers again today.

It's another twin bill with the Reds hoping to add more distance to the four-game edge they now hold over the pursuant St. Louis Cardinals as a result of yesterday's 10-5 and 9-2 victories. The Cards beat the Boston Bees yesterday, but allowed the Reds to stretch their pennant quest lead a half game by playing only one game.

Whitney Moore, with 12 wins and 10 defeats, and Johnny Vander Meer, who has won five and lost eight, go to the mound today for the Reds. It's Vandy's first start since he had his ailing arm treated.

BLUES DROP THIRD STRAIGHT TO TRIBE

A smashing attack by an inspired Indianapolis team just about washed the Kansas City Blues out of the American Association Shaughnessy playoff series last night. The Indians chalked up their third straight win over the Blues, 13 to 1. It was three down for Kansas City and the Indians needed only one more victory to win the first round of playoffs. Minneapolis stemmed the tide of defeat, however, and closed its home series with Louisville by hammering out a 16 to 1 victory last night after losing the first two games. The teams will resume play Saturday at Indianapolis and Louisville.

BARBERTON LOSES
WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—P—Playing off a 12-inning 4-4 tie of Wednesday, Washington defeated Barberton, O., 9 to 2, yesterday, eliminating the Buckeye crew from the National Amateur Baseball Federation tournament.

ROSS, SAINTS TOLD MISQUES

Coaches Point Out Mis- takes As Teams Get Set For Next Foes

After Monday sessions devoted mainly to ironing out mistakes which cropped out in their opening battles last Friday night, Ross and St. Joseph's grid teams Tuesday turned attention to this week's slate.

The Little Giants, who opened with a 32-0 victory over Bellevue, will make their first home appearance of the season Friday night as they play host to Bryan at Harmon field.

The Saints, victimized 20-7 by Port Clinton in their opener, do not see action until Sunday afternoon when they face Norwalk St. Paul's at Harmon field.

Coach Fred McClintock reported his Ross gridders came through the inaugural scuffle with Bellevue in good shape, with Jack Carroll, substitute back, who suffered a torn ligament, the only casualty.

Drill at Ball Park

The Ross mentor warned his charges they have a real job cut out for them in Friday night's battle with Bryan. The latter edged Toledo Woodward, 7-6, Friday and is rated one of the strongest clubs in the far northwest corner of Ohio.

St. Joe's see in St. Paul's a chance, one of the few that may arise this season, to make an entry in the win column. The Norwalkers were drubbed by Genoa, 15-6, in their opener last week.

Coach Al Hook's team Monday held its first workout of the season at Anderson field, home of the Fremont Green Sox. The Crimson Streaks had to be content with drilling in a prairie across the street from the ball park, while the diamond season lasted.

THREE PURPLE GRIDDERS OUT

1 Jim Vaffis, Jack Carroll,
5 Jackson Pratt Slowed
By Injuries

Three "shock troopers" of Coach Fred McClintock's Ross grid forces probably will be idle Friday night when the Little Giants make their first home stand of the season facing Bryan high at Harmon field.

All three, Jim Vaffis and Jack Carroll, backs, and Jackson Pratt, center, have been rendered hors de combat by injuries. Carroll sustained a torn shoulder ligament in last Friday night's game at Bellevue, while Pratt has pulled up with a bruised foot bone.

Vaffis, a 1938 letterman, has not seen action since the season opened

FREE ADMISSION

Practice of granting free admission to all Fremont grade school children at Little Giant home grid games will be resumed at Harmon field Friday night when Ross encounters Bryan, it was announced Thursday by Roy C. Ballenger, faculty athletic manager.

School children must enter at the Miller street gate and take seats in the stands on the east side of the field, Ballenger stated.

because of a trick knee that has been slow responding to treatment. However, Wednesday Vaffis had his first active workout of the fall and may be ready to go within a week.

After debating whether to concentrate on football or some other extra-curricular activity, Paul Huddle, aggressive guard candidate, this week finally threw his lot with the grid team and has bolstered the guard department considerably.

Wednesday's practice session was confined mainly to fundamentals. Only a short scrimmage was held because of the extreme hardness of the ground, baked by the recent heat wave.

Coach McClintock's starting line-up against Bryan will remain the same that opened last week at Bellevue, the Ross mentor indicated. Bob Shaw and Johnny Waggoner will be at ends; Bill Frantz and Dick Holsinger at tackles; Jim Kelly and Art Burton at guards; Hobs Stull at center; and Bob Brunover, Dick Frantz, Vernon Kane and Lyle Reichert in the backfield.

Little Giants Face First Stiff Test In Home Debut

Coach Cloyce Taylor Brings Seasoned Team To Harmon Field; Fremont Lineup Remains Same For Second Game Of Season; Kickoff At 8 P. M.

By JERRY LISKA

Fremont Ross high's grid machine, after a satisfactory warmup spin against Bellevue's Redmen last week, receives its first real test of the new season at Harmon field Friday night when it collides with a strong Bryan eleven. The kickoff is slated at 8 p. m., under the arclights.

The Little Giants will make their first appearance before the home fan-flock, which has heard Coach Fred McClintock and his aides have a better than average team in the making.

McClintock regards Bryan, coached by Cloyce Taylor, former Oak Harbor mentor, as a serious threat. "Last season Bryan lost only one game, that to Defiance, and this year's team includes a half dozen holdover veterans," he said.

The Ross coach pointed out that whereas the Little Giants had comparatively easy going in their opener at Bellevue last week, Bryan received a real baptism of fire against Toledo Woodward, edging a 7-6 victory.

Experienced Backs

"They're a fast crew all the way and we don't keep up well take a licking," McClintock said.

Bryan's forte lies in a seasoned backfield, which includes only one newcomer, Ralph Bishop, at fullback. However, despite his experience, Bishop is a capable performer, who specializes in line smashes. Capt. Jack Bruce at right half is the sparkplug of the Bryan team, and the mainstay of the backfield. The remainder of the backfield is also comprised of lettermen, Bob Robnett at left half and Bobby Hauger at quarterback.

In Bryan's victory over Woodward, Capt. Bruce cut loose on a 42-yard touchdown jaunt with three minutes remaining to play in the final quarter. He was aided by perfect blocking all the way. Hauger plunged for the point.

No Opponent

The Bryan forward wall is inexperienced, but big and tough. Harry Sanford at tackle, a holdover letterman, is the bulwark of the line and showed well against Woodward.

Bryan is a new opponent on the Fremont slate, having taken over the second game spot previously filled by Toledo. The latter was dropped because of the great distance between Fremont and the southern Ohio city.

Although Fremont scored three touchdowns on passes against Bellevue, the Little Giants will concentrate on their running attack, taking to the air only as a last resort. The Bob Brunover-Bob Shaw aerial combination is a sharp weapon. Coach McClintock is aiming to balance his team's attack with a hard-hitting land offense.

Reserves Play

Although Coach McClintock won't repeat the wholesale substitutions he made at Bellevue against Bryan, he undoubtedly will use a number of capable replacements who have been battling hard for starting responsibility. These include Eddie Mylinski, who has seen action at guard, and center; Walt Huss and Herb King, tackles; Paul Huddle, guard; and Walt Kotch, Ed Fox and Bob Hall, backs.

Officials for the game are Ollie Klee, referee; Homer Hanhan, umpire; and William Everhart, head linesman, all from Toledo.

The Ross reserves will play their second game of the season at Toledo Saturday morning, facing the Libbey high reserves. Last week,

REDSKINS BACK AMID HUZZAHS

Tribe Returns From Most Successful Eastern Trip In Years

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 22.—AP—Cleveland fans, always enthusiastic about a winner, welcomed the Indians home today with open arms after the club's most successful eastern tour in recent years.

The Redskins closed their trip with nine victories in 11 starts yesterday as Al Milnar beat Washington, 6 to 3, on a seven-hit game. Manager Oscar Vitt promised to give the fan faithful a treat today by nominating his ace fireballer, Bob Feller, to pitch the opener of a double header with a Detroit. McKinley was due for the Tribe. Cleveland downed the Senators on a six-run rally in the eighth inning. The decision increased the Indians' third-place margin over Chicago to two full games, but left them still three games in back of the also victorious Red Sox.

Roy Weatherly, who was knocked unconscious when he crashed into the filled bases trying to catch Charley Gehring's seventh inning home run, started the winning rally with a clean single. The Indians batted around before Dick Bass, rookie 31-year-old right-hander, could get them out.

The Detroit series will close with a double-header Sunday.

Blasting Blocks . . .

The feature of Fremont Ross high's 27-6 victory over Bryan last Friday night was the jolting blocking done by the Little Giants from the start of the game until the finish.

Most of the Purple rooters left Harmon field expressing admiration for the "best blocking team at Ross for the past three or four years." This may be a debatable claim, but certainly the Rossmen hit as hard in the Bryan game as any Fremont team in the last five years.

Ross has a speedy, shifty runner in Bob Brunover, but he is the only deceptive ball-carrier in the line-up. The rest of the backfield, Lyle Reichert, Vernon Kane and Dick Frantz, are husky, hard-charging lads who seldom prefer to detour.

On almost every one of the long gains made by Fremont against Bryan, there was an example of "mow-'em-down" blocking. The 33-yard run by Bob Shaw which led the way to Ross high's first touchdown was made possible by some beautiful down-field blocking.

Virtually every time Brunover set out on his substantial darts around end, he followed a well-hewn path. It was not the fault of Brunover, nor a pair of Fremont blockers that the former did not break away for a touchdown in the second period when he streaked down the sidelines after fumbling a punt. At least four mates picked Brunover up at midfield and one made a slashing block of the Bryan safety man, knocking him off his feet. But the latter made a sensational play, while on his hands and knees just barely tripping the flying Fremont on the Bryan 38.

The final Fremont touchdown of the game saw another fine bit of blocking. Shaw took the ball on an end-around play and swept wide around Bryan's left side from the 4-yard line. Ahead of him was Dick Frantz, rolling along like an express train. One Bryan back came up fast and unhappily got in Frantz' path. The Fremont back bore down on him and rode him far back into the end zone without leaving his feet and Shaw actually leafed across the goal line.

Ross lost 45 yards on penalties while Bryan didn't have a single infraction called against it. Against Bellevue the week before, Fremont lost 85 yards on penalties. Rather than look upon the mis-uses as a fault, we are inclined to view them in a commendable spirit. Most of Fremont's penalties have been for offside, hence the element of viciousness is eliminated. They result from anxiety to get the jump on the other team. The Little Giants should attempt to curb this, because it may prove costly in a close game. But right now it's a good barometer of the new-found Ross aggressiveness.

It's still too early to envision a near-perfect (we'd say perfect, but Sandusky routed Elyria 26-0 last Friday, sooo) season for the Little Giants. However, it is apparent that if the Rossmen continue to "give out" in the same manner in which they have started, the campaign will turn out to be McClintock's best in his three years at the Ross helm.

Brunover has been playing superb ball and should be one of the outstanding backs in the Buckeye league if he keeps his present aggressive attitude. Frantz, Reichert and Kane round out a rugged, scrappy backfield. The line, from end to end, is hard charging, fast and clever. And best of all, from McClintock's viewpoint, is a flock of replacements with plenty of confidence and considerable ability . . .

PURDUE-IRISH TILT FEATURED

Dozen Other Headline Games Found On Sat- urday Card

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A dozen years ago, you probably could not have imagined such a thing, but Purdue is playing Notre Dame this week, and Pitt's Golden Panthers are flying west to meet the University of Washington.

In addition, the schedule for September's last week-end lists such games as New York university-Colgate, Temple-Georgetown, Nebraska-Indiana, Duke-Davidson, Rice-Vanderbilt, Southern Methodist-Oklahoma, and Texas Christian-U. C. L. A.

This week's program, bringing the first general action despite the 100 or so games already played, shows how things have changed since the colleges began paying more attention to the cash customers.

Of the teams listed above, only Davidson and Vanderbilt already have played. And Davidson's Wildcats took an 18-14 setback from North Carolina State Saturday, while the Commodores were held to a 13-13 tie by Tennessee last Wednesday.

Other noteworthy games last week-end saw North Carolina pile up one of the biggest scores ever made in southern conference competition, 50-0, against The Citadel. Wake Forest, another title contender, beat South Carolina, 19-7.

Arkansas and Texas A. & M. of the southwest conference, and Iowa State of the Big Six also started well, but on the west coast, Washington State had difficulty beating Gonzaga, 19-6.

This week, however, it is all business. A few big teams, mostly in the east, have warm-up games

Shaw And Brunover Sparkle As Ross High Trips Defiance

Coach McClintock's Squad Hits Toughest Opposition Yet; Ross Blocking Ragged In Early Part Of Game

Producing a smashing attack in the fourth quarter, the Ross high school Little Giants took a 37 to 12 decision Friday night from Defiance high school at Defiance.

Bob Shaw, Fremont left end, accounted for four of the Little Giant touchdowns, getting his total in the final period. Defiance took a 6-0 lead in the first period, but Brunover passed to Shaw, who lateraled to Vaffis, for a touchdown near the end of the second period to even the count.

The Defiance eleven started with a rush, catching the Fremonters napping. Rosendale, Defiance left end, intercepted a lateral and galloped 56 yards for a touchdown. Rosendale, a big and clever as Fremont's left end Shaw, battled the Ross ace for honors.

Shaw scored on the first play of the fourth quarter on an end around from his five-yard line. Kane missed place kicks on the first two touchdowns.

Defiance Fumbled

Defiance fumbled the kickoff and Kelly, Ross left guard, recovered on the Defiance 29-yard line. Shaw pulled the end-around play to go over from the five-yard line. Kane's kick was good.

A pass, Brunner to Shaw, was good for 53 yards and a touchdown a few minutes later. Kane missed the extra point. Brunner boosted the Fremont total to 31 when he skirted left end for 12 yards. Brunover's drive attempt was futile.

Second and final Defiance touchdown preceded the last Little Giant marker. A long pass, Vogel to D. Small, was good for 55 yards and the touchdown.

An intercepted pass by Pratt, Ross substitute center, who downed the ball on Defiance's 14-yard line, put the ball in the hands of Fremont touchdown. Shaw pulled the end-around play again to score from the five-yard line after a forward-lateral. Brunover, Shaw to Eden, made nine yards. Brunover missed on the try for extra point.

Good Punting

Brightest spot of the Fremont attack, aside from scoring plays, was the punting of Brunover. He kicked off several nice kicks which traveled for 39, 33 and 51 yards, while a few eluded Defiance safety men to roll a greater distance.

Blocking of the Fremont team was below par for much of the game. The Little Giant offense was listless at times in the first half. Defiance could do little with the Fremont line or get far around the ends.

Both Defiance touchdowns appeared slightly as gifts, with the long pass receiver getting behind Dick Frantz for the second tally. Fremont used a passing game to good advantage, as 10 were completed and only two intercepted.

Little Giant gridironers faced a little overconfidence in the early part of the contest. Better blocking will be needed in future contests if the Little Giant victory string continues.

Best Team Yet

Defiance presented a better ball club than Bryan did here last week in the first home game. Biddle against Findlay here next Friday night will provide Ross high school with stronger opposition than encountered in the first three starts.

REDS CONTINUE WINNING WAYS

Cleveland Sweeps Two From Hapless Detroit Tigers

By Associated Press

Amid all the jubilation of the Cincinnati Reds, somebody forgot to shut off the ignition.

With their National League pennant clinched Thursday, the Reds played their scrub team against the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday and won, 2-1.

That eccentric elbow, Lefty Lee Grissom, scattered seven hits and knocked home one of the Cincinnati runs with a triple.

The only player to start was Hank (Buck) McCormick, ambitious to acquire an endurance record. He was relieved in the third, the first time he has missed a single inning at first base in two years.

In the only other National League game, the Brooklyn Dodgers and Boston Red Sox divided a doubleheader, insuring the Dodgers a berth in the first division and freezing out the New York Giants.

Tom Earley won the first game for Boston, 2-1, on four-hit pitching. He had a no-hitter until the seventh. Seven-hit hurling by Hugo Casey in the nightcap won, 7-4, for the Dodgers, who were helped by four Boston errors.

Cleveland swept a doubleheader from the Detroit Tigers, 4-3 and 3-0, in the sole American League competition and took a firmer grip on third place.

Little Giants Face Trojans In Buckeye Loop Inaugural

Outcome Will Do Much To Determine Champion Of Revised Schoolboy Circuit; McClintockmen Will Get Strong Opposition From Unbeaten Foe

The championship issue in the revised Buckeye league may be settled at this early date as Fremont Ross high's undefeated Little Giants tangle with an also unbeaten Findlay Trojan team at Harmon field Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock.

It will be the first loop encounter for the season, and it will be settled through three pre-league campaign tilts with impressive wins. Findlay has been victorious in one previous Buckeye clash, having defeated Bowling Green last week, 13-0.

With Tiffin Columbian, Junior Order, Bowling Green and Fostoria, the latter two new members, representing the state, failing to show any appreciable power in their opening scraps, the tussle for loop honors lies mainly between Fremont and Findlay.

Trounced Last Year
Thus, the winner of Friday night's game here will gain a distinct edge in the league race despite the fact the field has just left the wire.

Coach Fred McClintock's Little Giants still are smarting from a 34-6 trouncing handed them last year by Mentor Walter Wilson's Trojan powerhouse. This season, the two teams meet on even terms, with each one of the game bound to play an important part in deciding the outcome.

McClintock's chief worry throughout the week has been a trace of over-confidence which his club has shown as result of victories over Bexley, Marion, Delaware, top-heavy schools. In annexing the three triumphs, Ross has rolled up 96 points, an average of 32 per game.

Strong Backfield
However, should the Trojans effectively stop Bob Shaw, signal-calling end of the Little Giants, who has scored eight touchdowns to date, Ross may find itself fighting a uphill battle.

Findlay has an exceptionally strong set of fleet-running backs who will give the Ross line a real workout every inch of the way.

And if Fremont spots the Trojans

ONLY LOOP BATTLE
The Fremont-Findlay game is the only Buckeye loop competition on tap Friday night. Bowling Green faces Detroit Cranbrook, Fostoria plays Columbus East and Tiffin Columbian encounters Willard. Tiffin Junior Order Home is not slated to see action.

only a touchdown or two it may lead to the downfall of the Little Giants, who will find it considerably more difficult to score against Findlay than any of their previous foes.

Loss of Hobs Stull, veteran center, with an arm injury, has tended to weaken Fremont's chances, although Jackson Pratt and Eddie Myslinski, his understudies, may deliver the goods.

Gates Open at 7 p. m.
McClintock announced that Pratt will get the starting call at center, flanked by Jim Kelly and Art Burton. Guards, Bill Fentz and Dick Holzner, tackles and Shaw and Johnny Waggoner at the ends. In the Ross starting backfield will be Bob Brunover, Vernon Kane, Dick Frantz and Lyle Reichert.

Although reports from Findlay indicated Halfback Gene Fekete, Fulback Merritt Newcomer and End Jack Larkins might not play against Ross because of injuries, it is believed these three veterans definitely will see action for the Trojans.

Norman, Fekete, Bill Abbott and Russell Wolfe all are threats in the Findlay backfield. Wolfe's plunging led the way to Findlay's 13-0 triumph over Bowling Green. In their opening battle, the Trojans toppled Columbus East.

Gates at the stadium will be opened at 7 p. m. for tickets for the game. Bill Bright Haley, referee; Ollie Klee, umpire, and Harvey Straub, head linesman.

SANDUSKY MEETS CANTON M'KINLEY

SANDUSKY, Oct. 6.—Big time football comes to Sandusky Friday night.

Colonial McKinley, one of the better known high schools in Ohio grid circles, sends its representative eleven here to battle the Blue Streaks at Strobel Field. If weather is favorable, the crowd is expected to surpass 8,000 persons.

The sting will have been removed from that Waite defeat of the previous week should the Whittaker-coached team surprise tonight with a victory. Canton does not boast a powerhouse as in former years, but nevertheless has kept its record clean to date by amassing three victories.

Brunover Paces Purple To Important League Victory

Sensational Booting, Passing Of Diminutive Back Features Of Triumph; Score In 2nd And 3rd Periods After Findlay Takes 6 To 0 Lead

By JERRY LISKI

Fremont Ross high Little Giants cleared a major hurdle in the Buckeye league race at Harmon field Friday night as they vanquished the Findlay Trojans, 20-6, before a throng of more than 2,500.

The conquest was the fourth straight for Fred McClintock's high-scoring outfit and gave the Purple a total of 116 points to date, but the score was not quite indicative of the performance in the first two terms, as the first two periods were a trifle easier for Ross and the second for the Trojans, who last week defeated Bowling Green.

Only on Ross touchdown was tallied in impressive fashion, the other six being scored on "breaks" of the game. Findlay's hard-running back rolled up 155 yards from 20 carries, compared to 107 compiled by Ross.

Fremont's accurate passing attack was the chief factor in the Little Giant triumph.

Ross registered 12 first downs to 10 for Findlay, and the Purple made 333 yards made through nine completed passes in 20 attempts.

Trojans Score First

Findlay got the first, using a tricky forward-lateral to push over from Fremont's eight-yard stripe. The scoring play was an over-the-line pass from Halfback Russell Wolfe to End Jack Larkins, the latter easily sweeping over for a touchdown. Wolfe's try for point failed.

Fremont's initial touchdown did not come until late in the game, when Findlay's halfback, Eddie Ross, crossed up Findlay by pulling Shaw back and to the huddle. Shaw then picked up to score the point.

The second Purple score came when Brunover, slithering inside Findlay's right tackle to register a 10-yard gain, was tackled in the place kick again was good, giving Ross a 14-6 lead.

The Little Giants nearly wasted another scoring opportunity late in the same game to Guard Art Burdette, who at a right turn on Findlay's 5, Shaw left four yards, picked up only one yard on the 10, and then on the 14, Shaw set sail on his end-around specialty, bumped off three of the four defenders, and then hit the goal line in the northeast corner of the field. Kane's try was blocked by Findlay's fullback.

In Better Shape

It was a better conditioned Fremont team which clipped Findlay's Coach Pinky White, which last year smashed Ross, 34-6. The Trojans clearly outdid Ross, the first marking and even two sensational quick-kicks by Brunover, one for 30 yards going out of bounds on Findlay's 10, and the other for 30 yards traveling to Findlay's seven, failed to check the Ross' momentum. The cold on Findlay's six after receiving a well-edged break when Wolfe fumbled, was the only score Bill Franz recovered for Ross.

Just as the first period closed, Wolfe on a Findlay end-around, end 52 yards to the Ross 32. Fullback Merritt Newcomer ripped off 12 yards on a Fremont's 10, and then after two plays failed to score, the Trojans worked the forward-laterals and that gave them their only score of the period.

More than Findlay's 10, Fremont's vaunted passing attack halfed with the first five Ross serials failed to find the mark, but the first really successful toss from Brunover to Shaw came with four yards to go, and was quickly followed and was good for 20 yards, putting the ball on Findlay's 38. That was when the Ross' defense, Shaw which was intercepted by Wolfe on the Findlay 14, but was recovered by End Art Sader, got into a defense. On the next play, Shaw faded back and tossed one to Brunover, who grabbed it and ran it after falling on the pay stripe.

Fremont's scoring drive in the second period was the best, but was the only one without any strikes attached. Kane returned Sader's fumble to the Findlay 25, and Fremont 38. A buck by Kane and two end runs by Brunover by the 10. The Shaw again found a target in Brunover with a pass good for 13 to Findlay's 10. Brunover ripped off eight yards, followed by a Brunover Shaw pass that carried the leather to the Findlay six. On the next play, little Brunover stung instead Findlay's right tackle and churned across the goal line, barely making it before the bell, but easily secondary bore him far back.

61-Yard Boot

The stage was set for Fremont's third and final touchdown midway in the third quarter as Brunover sliced through the Findlay back sharply and should have been away for a touchdown except for a 15-yard penalty.

Fremont blockers to nail the runner after a 15-yard romp. Shaw advanced to the Findlay 10, and then end-around, but a 15-yard penalty moved the ball back to the 35. Two passes were good, and then Brunover sliced a nifty punt out of bounds on Findlay's two.

Newcomer on the Findlay first Findlay play and Brunover recovered for Ross on the Trojan three. Findlay's defense had been the first two plays, but Shaw finally swept out on an end-around to score for the Findlay seven.

Findlay clearly was worn out in the second half and four Trojans had to leave the field in a lop shape. The Little Giants took full command in the final period, although the two teams had four consecutive first downs took the ball to Findlay's one-yard line but were stopped by a 15-yard penalty, recovered. The game ended in a flurry of pass interceptions, with Findlay taking down a Findlay toss as the game sounded, advancing to midfield.

Bill Franz, who had been hacked and guards was commanded. The Little Giants were below par defensive, especially in open field tackling. In the line, Bill Franz and Dick Hollinger at tackles, Kelly at guard and Johnny Waggoner at center were outstanding.

Little Giants Play Host To Fostoria In Buckeye Scrap

Undefeated Fremonters Face Friday 13th Jinx And Dangerous Redmen Club; Trubey Team Hopes To Halt Brunover-Shaw Pass Attack

By JERRY LISKA

With their collective fingers solemnly crossed, Fremont Ross high's undefeated Little Giants will shoot for their fifth straight victory and their second Buckeye loop conquest at Harmon field Friday night as they encounter Fostoria high's eleven.

The kickoff is scheduled for 8 p. m. . . .

While superstition has had little to do with the progress of Coach Fred L. McClintock's charges in rolling up 118 points in four contests thus far, the Little Giants have resorted to duck ladders and detour black felines Friday night.

First of all, it's Friday the 13th. That alone may be enough to spook the Purple's perfect record. But Mentor McClintock isn't giving too much thought to that possibility. He's mainly concerned with a crew of Redmen who have a distinct psychological advantage in the renewal of a 44-year rivalry between Fremont and Fostoria.

In Loop Doubt

Bumped off in their last two starts, the Redmen will make their Buckeye league debut swinging from the turf with everything to gain and nothing to lose. They have been made the underdog, which is exactly to the liking of Coach Ike Trubey.

Ross, on the other hand, has piled up a record that's getting hard to balance. A show of too much confidence may bring sad results. But, likewise, a too-cautious brand of ball will also handicap the Little Giants against a team that probably will hang away with everything it has.

Trubey has spent the entire week building a Fostoria pass defense to halt the Bob Brunover-Bob Shaw pass combination. Should

In the last 10 years, Fostoria has won but two games from Fremont. In 1931, the Redmen upset the Little Giants, 12-7, and last year's undefeated Trubey grididers spanked Ross, 38-0. The field between the two schools dates back to before the turn of the century. Despite Fremont's domination of the series, the rivalry has been hotly contested all along the years.

ARMY, NAVY BELOW FORM

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—A—They'll take the wraps off the service teams tomorrow in a pair of crackerjack eastern football contests—and don't be surprised if you don't recognize either of them.

The day before, the Army-Navy has been impressive—in spite of the colorful support lent them by their spic and span cheering sections. Both are notoriously slow starters, and both, under expert coaching, haven't opened heavy firing—largely because the opposition up to now hasn't warranted it.

But major foes are at hand in Saturday's games and it will take all of Army's smartly-drilled maneuvering and all of Navy's tactical strategy to get by Columbia and Dartmouth.

82 FROSH REPORT AT CHICAGO—WOW!

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—A—A turnout of 82 freshmen for football at the University of Chicago, for years the basement tenant in the Big Ten prompted talk of a gridiron renaissance on the campus today.

On the midway, where a Phi Beta Kappa key is more highly regarded than a football monogram even in the fall, a squad of 82 youngsters was nothing short of amazing. Not only is the squad double the size of last year's but it has some rugged youngsters who in the words of Frosh Coach Nels Norgren, "look like pretty good ballplayers."

COP WINS GOLF CROWN

the Redmen succeed in this endeavor the Rossmen will be cut down to Fostoria's own size, although a week of concentration by Fremont on its running attack may bear fruit.

Pratt May Start

Although it appeared earlier in the week that Hops Stull would be able to take over his pivot job, the veteran's injured arm has been slow responding to treatment and Jackson Pratt most likely will again get the starting call at center against the Redmen.

Others in the Ross line-up remain unchanged with Shaw and Johnny Waggoner at the ends, Bill Frantz and Dick Holsinger at tackles; Jim Kelly and Art Burton at guards; and Brunover, Dick Frantz, Vernon Kane and Lytle Reichert in the backfield.

Fostoria has only three veterans from the club that trimmed Fremont, 38-0 last year. But two of these, Clark Imber and Alex Lind, are exceptionally maneuverable. Both are hard-running backs, stars on defense as on offense, Lind was a guard last year, but was drafted into the backfield this season because of his versatility. Stretch Kisabeth, towering tackle, is the one other holdover veteran.

It was not expected Lind would see service against Fremont, however. Death of his mother occurred in Fostoria Wednesday.

After whipping St. Wendelin's, 13-0, and Bucyrus, 19-0, the Redmen had an 18-straight win string snapped by Lima South, 13-0. Last week, Fostoria bowed to Columbus East, 14-7. This season marks the re-appearance of Fostoria in the Buckeye league. Several years ago, the Redmen withdrew be-

46-Yard Touchdown Dash By Shaw Gives Fremont 5th Win

Stubborn Redmen Club Plays McClintockmen To Standstill At Harmon Field Friday; Purple Stage Goal-Line Stand, Then Score On 79-Yard Drive

By JERRY LISKI

Fostoria high's stubborn Redmen nearly made Friday 13th all it's cracked up to be at Harmon field last night as they beat the Fremont Purple Stage 14-7. The Little Giants laboriously chiseled a 7-0 victory, marking their fifth straight win and second Buckeye league triumph.

With the Bob Brunover half of Fremont's widely-acclaimed passing combination incapacitated midway in the second period, it remained for big Bob Shaw to carry on for the Little Giants, via the overland route. That the 195-pound senior did in scintillating fashion.

The only touchdown of the game was registered by the long-standing Shaw as the undefeated Little Giants' defense, which had a book with only eight minutes of the game left to play, Shaw, who went 100 yards on a 46-yarder when Brunover suffered a pulled tendon on his left ankle, raced 46 yards to the end zone. The Ross men braced to stop a 60-yard Fostoria march on their one-yard line, but the Purple Stage made his place-kick try for point good to further assure victory.

The Little Giants' supposedly superior passing attack failed to click at a time when the Rosses and three Ross aerials were intercepted. They fumbled a half dozen times, but the Purple Stage had disastrous results, and generally handled the ball poorly.

The Rosses' only fullback in Chuck Imber, Fostoria tore holes in the Fremont forward wall, especially in the second half, when the play was in Purple territory all but the closing eight minutes. The Rosses rolled right down to Fremont's nine. Ross out-gained Fostoria from scrimmage.

215 yards to 88, for which the inexpressible Shaw can be singly thanked. Shaw hauled the leather a total of 109 yards, peeling out on a 46-yarder, 10 yards, as well as his 46-yard touchdown jaunt. With only seven yards left, Shaw plunged through right tackle 17 yards to coast across the goal line, but he played the ball out for a Fremont 21-yard pass.

The turnover count of the contest came within three minutes' time during which victory was gained from the 20 by the Redmen's own arm's reach of the Ross goal line.

A 33-yard pass from Imber to Hafford, followed by a 10-yarder to the Fremont 16, just as the third quarter ended. In three plays, the Redmen had the ball in the end zone and then Imber made it first down by inches on the Ross 7. Hafford then picked up three yards and then Imber rammed to the Fremont 1. Imber was stopped by a 10-yard run by Ross, the fourth down the Fostoria fullback tried center and met a swarm of Rosses, who recovered, taking the ball on its own 1-yard stripe.

Shaw pointed to the Fremont 30 and after the Redmen failed to gain on three plays, either punting or a 20-yarder to the Fremont 21. Then Shaw took charge of the contest. He sailed around end to the Ross 10, then, after a 10-yarder, Lytle Reichert picked up two off guards. Shaw plunged five yards to middle. Reichert recovered and took a 10-yarder to the 10. Reichert place-kicked the point.

Following a desperate, futile half, the Redmen had pointed to the Redmen 46. And again Shaw made the sunlight. He followed an 11-yarder, plus a 20-yarder to the Fostoria 20. On the latter play, he streaked into a clear field but was cut from behind. Two plays later, Shaw dashed through right tackle and barged 17 yards to score a double line again. But Fremont was stopped and the play called back. The game ended that moment later.

The Little Giants had three first-quarter scoring chances in the first half, but blew them without much ado. At the opening of the second quarter, Brunover recovered a 44-yarder to the Fostoria 11. But on the 10, he was tackled by Dick Franz and Fostoria recovered. Threat Nipped

Shortly after a 20-yarder, an interception and a 10-yard run, both by Brunover, took the ball to the Fostoria 20. The Redmen's half-center was hurt on the latter play and had to be carried from the 20 to the 10. Two downs at this point, but two plays later, Hob Stull hooked a Fostoria 10-yarder to the 22. On the Redmen 22, Shaw ripped the ball away and Reichert's pass was intercepted.

Late in the first period, a Fremont 10-yarder, which Imber fumbled on the Fostoria 12, and guard Art Burton recovered for Ross.

Brunover went back into the game in the second half on a nose-tackle. The young, limping youngster was unable to help Fremont's cause any.

Shaw was the undeniably hero of the game. Guard Jim Kellogg must be credited with an out-

On his first run, he was tackled by a Ross and aside Fostoria's right tackle to open Shaw's goal-line path.

Little Giants Weakened By Injuries In Buckeye Tilt

Gun For Sixth Straight Triumph In Redwood Stadium; Hopes Rest On Ball-Carrying Ability Of Bob Shaw In Backfield Replacing Brunover

An injury-weakened Fremont Ross eleven invades Tiffin Friday night seeking its sixth straight triumph and its third Buckeye loop victory as it faces a lowly, but dangerous Columbian aggregation. The kickoff is slated at 8 p.m. in Redwood stadium.

Despite the fact that Columbian has won only one game in five starts, Coach Fred McClintock of the Little Giants was frankly pessimistic as his team left Fremont Friday evening.

"We're under the strain that affects all undefeated teams," he said. "The only hope is to take into consideration that our line-up will be strictly experimental as result of injuries."

Important Switch

He reported that the switch placed signal-calling Bob Shaw in to a starting backfield position and put untried LaVerne Nickel at left end berth vacated by Shaw. If this maneuver to offset the loss of star end Bob Brunover, disabled quarterback, who was injured in the Fostoria game, doesn't click, the Little Giants will be in for a meager evening.

Lyle Rickett, right half-back, is chiefly a plunger, while Dick Frantz, left halfback, and Vernon Kane, fullback, are solely blockers. That means Shaw must carry the ball for the Purple, or else there

2 LOOP GAMES

An unexpected defeat at the hands of Tiffin Columbian Friday night would throw Fremont Ross into the first loop with Findlay in the grid race of the Buckeye high school league.

The Trojans, with two wins in three loop starts, do not see themselves in the loop. Toledo Scott at Findlay, Ross currently is pacing the circuit with a pair of wins in as many starts.

Only other league contest scheduled is the Junior Order Home-Fostoria clash on the October 13th. It will be the 1939 loop debut for the Juniors, while Fostoria drops its only previous start to the Purple.

Bowling Green, the sixth Buckeye member, plays Napoleon in a non-league encounter.

Loop standings:

	W.	L.	Pct.
FREMONT	2	1	.666
Findlay	2	1	.666
Bowling Green	1	1	.500
Fostoria	0	1	.000
Junior Home	0	0	.000
Columbian	0	2	.000

may not be a great deal of ground made against Coach Bob Seel's outfit.

Coach McClintock is holding Jack Carroll, Jim Wilson and Ed Fox in readiness for ball-toting duties if Shaw's services are considered valuable in the line.

Star Game Fight

Two other regulars, Hob Still, center, and Bill Frantz, tackle, were not expected to start against the Blue and Gold because of injuries. They were replaced by Jackson Pratt and Walt Hoss, center and tackle respectively.

In its two Buckeye loop starts to date, Columbian has bowed to Bowling Green and Findlay. But in losing to the Trojans, the Tiffin club put up a game fight before bowing, 40-20. Twenty points were all that Fremont served against Findlay in winning, 20-6.

Maplespring in Columbian's attack is Fullback Eldon Cutlip, husky veteran. Cutlip has not been effectively stopped by any of Columbian's opponents and will give the Fremonters a strenuous workout.

Other Veterans

Four other Tiffin players—Halfback Doyle Nutting, Left End Feltor, a substitute halfback, and End Borderer and O. Gannon, saw action with Cutlip against the Rosses last year, when Fremont won 26-7.

Roundout the Ross line-up will be Johnny Waggoner at right end, Dick Holisinger at right tackle, Jim Kelly, left guard and Art Burton on the center.

Fremont's record to date:

Ross 27, Bryan 6.

GOPHERS SET FOR BUCKEYES

Minnesota Strengthened By Return Of Two Veterans For Tilt

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 20.—P—Minnesota's Golden Gophers, with regulars George Frantz and Carl Ohlgren recovered from injuries and ready for duty, confidently awaited the arrival today of Ohio State's 38-man grid squad for tomorrow's important Big Ten tilt.

The Buckeyes entrained at Columbus late yesterday, receiving patriotic cheers from a crowd of students and fans. They were accompanied on the trip by 127 blue clad members of State's famous marching band, and about 100 rooters, including Gov. and Mrs. John W. Bricker.

"If we've got the defense we think we have, we'll take 'em like we took those other fellows," said Coach Francis Schmidt, as the train pulled out. Schmidt referred to last week's 13-0 victory over Northwestern. Capt. Steve Andriko, 189-pound center, nodded assent.

But word from the Minnesota camp indicated that the Gophers would make a determined try to wreck Ohio's Big Ten title hopes.

Frank and Harry Van Every put the train passing session yesterday, presaging an air attack on the Buckeye defenses.

The Bucks were scheduled for a light workout on the Minnesota field soon after their arrival.

Shaw Sparkles In Win Over Columbian, Scoring 5 Times

Little Giants Stow Away Third Buckeye League Win; Rangy Ross Star Sprints 300 Yards In Pay-dirt Gallops; Reichert, Myers Also Tally

With big Bob Shaw romping rampant, Fremont Ross high's Little Giants, 32 of 'em, gave Columbian high a 41-7 drubbing at Tiffin Friday night for their sixth straight win and third Buckeye East triumph.

Ross' star sprints covered some 300 yards in scoring four touchdowns, all in spectacular fashion. Shaw gave an explosive sample of what a Redwood stadium crowd of 2,500 could expect by gathering in Tiffin's first punt on the Fremont 8 in the first two minutes of play and racing 92 yards through the entire Columbian team for a touchdown.

On an end run to his right, reversed on his field and zoomed 28 yards around the corner en route to Tiffin 12, setting the stage for Fremont's second touchdown when a seven yard plunge by Lyle Border, 17, followed.

Midway in the second quarter, Shaw again hauled and circled to a 20 yard mark, the key-cut after taking a hook lateral pass from Southpaw Reichert in a beautifully-timed play.

Long Lateral

Within a minute of the third period, the star had good for the fourth Fremont touchdown, with Reichert rippling through left tackle and zipping a long lateral to Shaw leaping on the sidelines. Shaw snared the leather on the Ross 40, shifted into high gear and streaked 60 yards into pay-dirt.

The range Ross spent on his 55 yards for his fourth touchdown! A pair of rookies teamed together for the first time to score a touchdown in the last quarter on their first play of the game. Both Bob and Jim Nutter, 17, had been end, entered the game at the same time and Quarterback Shaw, who had been calling the signals, set them to work right away. Hall faded back and tossed an 18 yard pass to Nutter, who ran end zone. Incidentally, Shaw toted the ball to the 11-yard stripe on a 14-yard jaunt on the previous play.

Reichert, 17, and Myers, 18,

Fulback, Vernon, Kanes drove four of his five place-kick tries for points squarely through the uprights. The star sprints, plus an already heavy laurel wreath, Shaw place-kicked the point after the final 12 deep in the final quarter. The try was from a bad angle and went wide. Columbian's only touchdown came in the fourth quarter on a 12-yard pass from Nutter to Bob Border, Edson Cutlip, fullback, plunger for the polka romp, to Tiffin 1. The 18 is first to go to Fremont's five. But the Little Giants had little time for making further gains, as they were concentrating on touchdowns.

Coach Fred McClellan used every man he had been able to except of Jim Vaffis, out with a leg injury. He kept up a continuous pressure on the Columbian attempt to keep down the score and, at one time, the entire Ross team was comprised of underclassmen.

Hard-working Art Burton played a hang-up game at guard, consistently holding his own in the give-up Tiffin plays before they got underway. Along with Jim Kelly, his guard, Burton made a good contribution some nifty downfield blocking. Kelly was the key man in Shaw's success in the second and the third quarters. He picked off the only man with a good chance of getting Shaw in midfield with a hard block.

LaVerne Nickel turned in a laudable performance, his hill to hill at left end, breaking up numerous Tiffin plays after he made a weak show of opportunity in the first half of the game. Bob Brunner, place Shaw in the backfield, got him down, but downed him, but, but only long enough to hold the ball on Kanes's placement attempt.

Shaw utilized good blocking in his great ball-lugging exhibition, but, but only when no help. Bob used a deceptive change of pace, stout stiff-arm and a pair of weaving tips to good advantage. On his 75-yard jaunt in the second period, it appeared impossible for him to get by Chuck Van Camp, Tiffin safety, who had tried to trail along the sidelines on the Columbian 33. But Shaw shook his hips just as Columbian safety, a Tiffin player went sprawling on the turf. Score Sat.

After taking the first punt of the game on the Fremont 8, Shaw ran 10 yards to the 18, then 10 to the 28, but he stormed through one after another until he broke into the end zone on the 12. He had two touchdowns, but he circled Tiffin's right end 24 yards to cross the goal line on the Columbian 12 in the first period. The play was called back because of a Fremont offside.

Undefeated Fremont Eleven Seeks 7th Straight Victory

Tilt Slated For 8 P. M., At Scott Stadium; Rossmen Turn Down Home Stretch Of 10-Game Campaign Against Foe That Trimmed Them In 1938

Fremont Ross high's undefeated Little Giants swing down the home stretch of their 10-game campaign when they confront Scott high's Bulldogs under the lights at Scott stadium in Toledo Saturday night. The kickoff is slated for 8 p. m.

The Purple and White charges of Coach Fred McClintock will be after their seventh win in a row at the expense of the Bulldogs, who loom as a dangerous foe despite the fact they were vanquished by Findlay's Trojans, 28-6, last week.

The contest will be the fifth in the current Scott-Ross rivalry, with two games won by the Toledoans, one by Fremont and one decided.

Revenge for a 38-14 drubbing suffered from Scott last year will be an added incentive for the Ross eleven, which is comprised mainly of gridironers who have action against the Bulldogs.

Shaw Is Furlum

Bob Shaw, whose conversion from end to quarterback brought rich dividends against Tiffin Columbian last week, again will be the fulcrum of the Fremont attack since Bob Brunover, triple-threat atom, is still hobbling around on an injured foot.

Lyle Reichert, Vernon Kane and Dick Frantz will round out the Purple and White with LaVerne Nickel and Johnny Waggoner all at the ends; Dick Holzinger and Bill Frantz at the tackles; Art Burton and Jim Kelly at guards; and Jackson Pratt at center. With Hob斯 Still, veteran pivot, still hampered by a shoulder injury, Pratt will be expected to carry the brunt of the snapper-back duties, although Eddie Myslinski, who operates both at guard and center in capable fashion, undoubtedly will spell him off.

Two Veterans

Coach McClintock expects considerable trouble from two Scott veterans—Quarterback Russell Wenzlau and Halfback Al Jones. Both are hard, shifty runners, giving the impression that a semblance of the power they had last year when Jolting Al Hoover was battering the forward walls of Bulldog opponents.

Neither of these two started against Findlay last week, but they entered the game late and sparked the drive to Scott's only touchdown in the third quarter, with Wenzlau climaxing a 39-yard march with a dive into pay-dirt from the one-yard stripe.

Al Jones, Findlay's outgalloping Scott, 272 yards to 91, most of the Trojan yardage was made on long runs. With Brunover out of the line-up, Shaw is the only Little Giant capable of reeling off long gains and if Scott had scouts at Tiffin last week, the Bulldog defense will be primed to check the big boy.

Juniors Dangerous

To date, the Rossmen have defeated Belville, Bryan, Defiance, Findlay, Fostoria, Columbus, Alton, Saturday night's clash at Toledo, the Little Giants face Tiffin Junior Order Home, Sandusky and Bowling Green.

As result of Junior Order's victory over Findlay Thursday night, the Rossmen open their home field next Friday virtually will be for the Buckeye league championship. Fremont is unbeaten in three league starts, while the Juniors have defeated Fostoria and Findlay in their only loop games.

The Purple went through a brisk session of passing, running and signal drill. Harmon field Friday afternoon, Brunover was in uniform but limped badly as he participated in the kicking and recycling phase of the workout.

Vaffis In Shape

Jim Vaffis, who has seen little service because of an injured knee, appeared to be ready for action as he boomed out long punts. Vaffis, a 1938 letterman, plays the tall-back position and is one of the few speed ball-luggers available to McClintock.

A large Ross delegation is expected to follow the Little Giants to Toledo, duplicating the mass trek to Tiffin last week, when Fremont partisans outnumbered the home fans.

Probably starting line-ups:

Ross	Scott
Nickel	LE Swartzbaugh
W. Frantz	LT Steinberg
Kelly	LG Kohns
Pratt	G Fornari
Burton	RG Behm
Holzinger	RT Haklus
Waggoner	RE Swing

RESERVE HELD TO TIE; POLAR BEARS WIN, 6-0

CLEVELAND, Oct. 28.—Wooster Reserve, one of Ohio's pre-season football favorites, slipped another step downward on the ladder of mediocrity today.

The once-proud Red Cats, already beaten by Ohio University and Baldwin-Wallace, battled to a scoreless deadlock with Cincinnati last night in one of the state's three games.

In the other tussles, both Ohio conference games, Marietta edged Denison, 7 to 6, at Marietta and Ohio Northern stopped Capital at Columbus, 6 to 0.

Reserve, gaining 176 yards by running for 10 first downs, threatened to score several times, but always was repulsed by a stout Bearcat line. Cincinnati's best chance to tally came early in the game when Halfback Tom Lonchar attempted a field goal from the 23-yard line, but kick went wide. His punting, however, was a big factor in keeping the Clevelanders away from the goal line.

Aerial Attack

Capital, previously undefeated in conference play, fell before the Polar Bears when a second-period aerial attack brought a touchdown from Quarterback Bill McPeek in the second period. Halfback Eddie Synder followed for the Big Red in the third period on a plunge, but Griffin's kicking try for the deadlocking point hit a goal post and bounced wide.

Today's schedule listed 19 games, headed by the Ohio State-Cornell clash at Columbus, preceding five Ohio conference contests.

In the league games Muskingum entertains Wooster, Case and John Carroll clash here, Bowling Green plays at Wittenberg, Mt. Union goes to Heidelberg, and Ashland is host to Otterbein.

Sandusky Parochial Veterans In Lineup For Clash Tonight

SANDUSKY, Oct. 28.—Ken Smith, fullback, and Gene Ott, halfback, will be in the St. Mary's lineup against Oak Harbor here Saturday night, Coach Lee Zierolf announced.

Smith has had a bad ankle, while Ott's injured shoulder has hindered his play.

Game starts at 8 p. m. Admission is 40 cents for adults, 25 cents for students.

Oak Harbor defeated Oak Harbor there last year, 6-0, and won the game here two years ago, 14-7. In last season's game, the Oak Harbor eleven had the ball on St. Mary's two-yard mark as the game ended.

Oak Harbor has the heaviest team in history this season. Szwartz and Slovak are the big threats. The latter is a brother of Marty Slovak, former Toledo U. grid star now playing in professional football.

Record to date follows:

Oak Harbor 7.	Whitmer 0.
Oak Harbor 0.	Clay 0.
Oak Harbor 32.	Fremont Res. 0.

Underrated Bulldogs Crush Ragged Little Giant Eleven

Over-Confidence Takes Toll After Rossmen Score 14 Points In Opening Minutes Of Contest At Scott Stadium Saturday; Juniors Next

By JERRY LISKA

Taught a stinging lesson concerning the evils of over-confidence by an underrated Scott high eleven at Toledo Saturday night when they suffered their first defeat in seven starts, the Little Giants of Fremont Ross Monday began preparing for a crucial Buckeye league battle with Tiffin Junior Order, same here Friday night.

Wallowed 24-14 as the Bulldogs of Coach Bob Rettig scored a touchdown in each the first and second periods and a pair in the final quarter, the Rossmen gave a ragged exhibition under the aces at Scott stadium.

Scored 14 points in the first 10 minutes of play.

Reichert and Vernon Kane, star blocking backs, through injuries early in the game, a soggy field and a bad line placement, the Bulldogs might be offered by way of explanation away the upset.

But it was an erratic, unenterprising Fremont eleven that saw a winning streak snap at 14 games, the longest second time in three years by the Scott team. In 1937, a strong Ross club from Toledo, winning its seventh straight, but was turned back.

Shaw, 15-yard punt.

Ross scored its 14 points in the first six minutes of the game with Bob Shaw crossing the goal line twice, first after a 30-yard 3-yard stripe and then taking a lateral from Reichert and scoring 35 yards down the field to the 10-yard line. Kane booted the first post-touchdown bonus and Shaw the second.

Despite the fact that Scott scored immediately after Fremont's initial touchdown on a 63-yard

March, it appeared the Little Giants would win as they pleased. But the Rossmen, who had completely closed after the first period closed, perhaps because the Little Giants failed to move on finding Friday's 28-6 win over Scott the previous week and their own 26-compact of Friday.

Shaw, 15-yard score four touchdowns against Tiffin Columbus a week before carried the onus into the game and gained 83 yards in the first quarter, was stopped cold by the rushing Scott forces. After a 10-yard run in the second period with a foot injury, Fremont's interference foundered, and the Rossmen, who had with a side injury in the third quarter, it dwindled almost completely.

Cotty Interception With only Dick Frantz remaining as the Rossmen's long-striding Shaw was easy prey for the Bulldog line. The Ross running back, who had been McClelland called upon Bob, still hampered by a strained tendon to toe, was unable to use his weapon was poorly used with three interceptions and five incompletions. The only mistake was probably the most glaring mistake was an attempt in the third quarter by Brumley to score on his own 28, with a Scott interception, twice setting the stage for the Bulldogs third touchdown.

Ross, 15-yard battering left half, was the chief Scott thorn in Fremont's side as he scored three touchdowns. With a 15-yard run off of tacklers with a twisting, powerful charge, Wendtau repeated his 15-yard run of the second period to be short line plunges. The first time Scott came in possession of the ball, he had 37 yards to the Ross 26 and five plays later, slammed across the goal line for a 15-yard score.

Wendtai scored again in the second quarter after Jack Carroll's fumble, and with a 15-yard run by Scott in midfield and an exchange of kicks gave Toledo the ball on the Ross 26 in two plays. Wendtai rammed to the Ross 20, and then hanged bunched left tackle, spun and twisted his way over the remaining distance to the Ross 11 for a touchdown.

Jones Scores Brunover's 15-yard pass in the third quarter gave Wendtai another opportunity to score. The weather was bad, but the Open, Open Scott center, and he returned to Fremont's 29 before being downed. Wendtai, who had 15 yards to the Ross 17 and then an end-around by Earl Sals shot the Bulldogs to the Fremont 11 in two plays. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Wendtai rammed across the goal line for a 15-yard score.

The final Scott touchdown was scored by Al Jones, swift Negro halfback, who had 15 yards to the tackle and scored 27 yards down the sidelines with two minutes of the game remaining. Four of Scott's conversion attempts for placement failed.

Only one play in the first period did Ross penetrate beyond Scott's 30. That was after Scott's second touchdown of the second period. Walt Katch picked up Opalka's kickoff on his own 15 and tore all the way to midfield, before being downed at the Ross 20. The Rossman would have been away for a touch down had he received a little better blocking.

Pratt Shines For another six back, ripped off eight yards and then to Verne Nickel went 12 yards to Scott's 33 on an end-around. Shaw plus a 15-yard run of his own 26 and then smashed to the Scott 20. Shaw, doing the signal-calling, U.

ELEVEN TEAMS STILL PERFECT

Michigan, Notre Dame Among Unbeaten Untied Grid Clubs

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The "perfect" moment of the college football season starts this week.

The first half of the battle for national honors, winding up Saturday, produced some surprising results expected.

Starting part two, the "major" undefeated and untied teams are:

East—Cornell, Duquesne, Catholic, South—Tennessee, Kentucky; Midwest—Michigan, Indiana, Northwestern; Southwest—Texas A. & M.; Rocky Mountain—Colorado Mines; Pacific Coast—Washington, San Jose (Cal.) State.

But undefeated are Dartmouth, Cornell, Indiana, in the east; Tulane, North Carolina and Richmond, in the south; Nebraska and Oklahoma, in the Midwest; Southern California and U. C. L. A. on the west coast, and Utah tied with two others, the Rossmen and the Bulldogs.

Contested in the mid-western laurels shape up like this for the first week-end of October:

Deserted, that thumping from Corn-nell, Ohio State plays the leading role in the Big Ten, facing Indiana.

Michigan, which has led the Midwest for the conference lead, while Indiana's Hoosiers, the last week had a 13-0 win over Michigan, will win another from Illinois, 13-0 victim of Northwestern. Northwestern, 13-0 winner over Wisconsin, meets Purdue, which took a 13-6 licking from State.

Nebraska overwhelmed Kansas State, 25-9, and Oklahoma routed Missouri, 28-7. Virginia, conference leader, Oklahoma Aggies, 41-0. Missouri gained a tie with Nebraska.

On the West Coast, Oregon State 21-0. The two leaders collide Saturday. Oklahoma plays Iowa State, and Kansas meets Kansas State.

JIM RICH NEW PREP LEADER

Jim Rich seized the leadership in the high school division of the weekly archery competition at Cornell University. Yesterday he plucked 30 of a possible 45 points. Al Baumann pulled up second with 37, close followed by Jim Rich '76, Carl Ritter, Jim Gitter with 35 and 33 respectively.

Among the men, Bob Kaiser, sophomore, was the shafts to victory with 82x50. Jack Rich was second with 78x50. Other scores were: Dave Jones '76, Jim Rich '76, Bob Ritter, Carl Ritter and Griffen of Clyde, '74; Dave Jones, Carl Ritter and Bill Campbell, 68 each.

Miss Katzenberger again topped the women's competition. Her record place went to Betty Van Glaan with 62. In pistol competition women were: Betty Van Glaan most expert with 25 of a possible 30.

Failed to pass at this point and his apparently aimless toss was intercepted by Wendtai on the Scott 10 and returned to the 17. The Rossmen, however, were running as far as Ross was concerned.

In the entire second half, Fremont scored only 20 plays, including 11 running plays good for a paltry single yard.

Jackson Pratt, center, stood out

defensively, with Johnny Waggoner and W. Frazee, right end, and

was Buckeye league title for the winner, since Ross is undefeated in three local starts and the Tiffin seven wins in two. Lineups and summary:

NICKEL, KANE AND REICHERT ARE INJURED

Little Giants Prep For Invasion Of Dangerous Tiffin Team

With the possibility three regulars will be unable to see action this week, Coach Fred McClintock Tuesday revised his Fremont Ross lineup for the important clash with Tiffin Junior Order Home at Harmon field Friday night.

Lyle Reichert and Vernon Kane, backs, and LaVerne Nickel, end, may be on the bench when the Little Giants seek to clinch the Buckeye league title against the Juniors, who emerged as a strong dark horse in the loop chase by upsetting Fostoria and Findlay.

Reichert sustained a torn side muscle, Kane a foot injury, and Nickel a jammed finger on his left hand in the Toledo game Saturday night.

Stull is Ready

This combination is faster than the regular Frantz-Reichert-Kane-Shaw backfield, but lacks the blocking power possessed by the latter.

The Ross mentor stated he planned "very little, if any, scrimmage" this week in order to rest his squad from the bruising it took in the 24-14 upset by Scott.

He announced that Hob Stull, who has been on the sidelines most of the campaign with an elbow injury, will be ready to start against the Juniors, replacing Jackson Pratt, who has proved a sterling understudy.

The rest of the lineup will be the same, with Bill Frantz and Dick Holsinger at the tackles, Art Burton and Jim Kelly at the guards, and Johnny Waggoner at right end.

Little Giants Face Crucial Tilt After Upset At Toledo

Winner Of Contest Under Lights At Harmon Field Virtually Clinches Championship; Tiffin Club Has Speedy Backs; Test Of Ross Morale

With the menacing shadow of Sandusky high gone for the first time in Buckeye league grid history, the 1939 loop title goes on the block at Harmon field Friday night as Ross and Tiffin Junior Order Home battle for undisputed possession of first place. The kickoff is scheduled for 8 p. m.

The Little Giants are unbeaten in three loop starts, while Junior Order has been victorious in two circuit frays. After Friday night's tussle, Bowling Green is the only league foe on the Ross slate, while the Juniors encounter Bowling Green and Tiffin Columbian.

On the basis of strength thus far displayed, both teams seem destined to win their closing loop games, thus making Friday night's struggle the key to the title.

The loop race was thrown wide open this year, when Sandusky perennial champion was canceled league membership. Following resignation of the Blue Streaks, Bowling Green and Fostoria dropped into the loop.

Stock Rises

Up until last weekend, Ross was generally conceded the title, but when the Little Giants suffered the first loss of the season in hapless fashion at the hands of Toledo Scott by a 24-14 count Saturday night, the odds immediately plummeted.

Meanwhile, Junior Order Home's stock rose sharply following their 19-13 triumph over Findlay, lost over the weekend to the Trojans, who were defeated earlier by Ross, 20-6. Coach Arthur Mehaffey's Maroonmen showed the same speed, spirit and stamina that carried

"STOP, STOP" IS BIG 10 CRY

"Feudin' Week-End" Enlivens Action On Mid-Western Grid Front

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—AP—They are harrying Big Ten football fronts with "stop" signs for tomorrow's battles.

At Illinois it is "Stop Harmon," at Purdue "Stop Kinnick," at Ohio State "Stop Hursh," and at Minnesota "Stop anyone of those many Northern loop backs."

The invading Indiana, Indiana and Northwestern teams, meantime, will find themselves really on the "go" against such fancy steppers as Purdues "B's"—Brown, Byelens and Brock—Ohio State's Scott & Co., and Minnesota's Van Every. And though Hallowe'en be four days off, tomorrow even unbeaten Michigan may be harassed by witchery a la Zupnik plus revival of that harrowing tale of the "galloping ghost."

All in all it's a "feudin'" weekend. The comparison of Tom Harmon to "Red" Grange, with repercussions from Illinois' partisans, this to the Illinois Michiganians, Purdue can't forget the Iowa last year which cost it a championship tie, while Northwestern will try again to score its first triumph at Minneapolis since 1930. The new Indiana-Ohio State rivalry, dawning from the arrival of young coaches Modlin and Francis Schmidt, speaks for itself.

Tomorrow's conference schedule: Michigan at Illinois; Iowa at Purdue; Northwestern at Minnesota, and Indiana at Ohio State.

them to a thrilling triumph over Fostoria the previous week.

Ross was hard pressed to eke a 7-0 victory over Fostoria three weeks ago. Junior Order has lost only one game in six starts. Columbus, which has won up to the third contest of the season. Besides Fostoria and Findlay, victims of the Tiffin club have been Rossford, Defiance and Willard.

Two Bob Back

Success of the Little Giants in Friday night's battle depends greatly on the mental attitude of a team that has a lead in morale and took a sound physician beating at Toledo Saturday night.

Coach Fred McClinton has hopes his Purple warriors will bound back to the same level on which they rolled to six straight wins. He has both Bob Shaw and Bob Brunover, heavy scoring threats, both in harness. End Vernon Kaine, back, definitely out with a foot injury, and Halfback Lyle Reichert, likely to see little action because of a torn side muscle, the touchdown path may be a lot rockier for Brunover and Shaw than it was during the first half of the campaign.

If Reichert is unable to start, Walt Kotch will replace him in a tickleback that also may include Shaw, Brunover and Dick Jackson. End LaVerne Nickel, another Scott game casualty, is a doubtful starter, with Ed Wilson slated to play in his stead. One bright spot in the Ross outlook is the return of Hob Stull to his center job. Although Jackson Pratt turned in a reliable job at the pivot while Stull was recovering from a torn knee injury, the wily veteran's experience in line-backing makes his return valuable.

Speedy Quartets

Bill Frantz and Dick Holsinger at the tackles, Jim Kelly and Art Burton at the guards and Johnny Waggoner at right end, round out the Ross lineup.

The Rossers probably will show the Little Giants more speed than any club they have faced thus far. Coach Mehaffey has four of the swiftest backs in the Buckeye in Russell Owens, Banks Chamberlain, Charles Perkins and Jim Sykes. It doesn't take much shaking to get one of these boys loose and running, whether any of them gets into an open field.

Against Findlay, first Sykes streaked 85 yards to a touchdown, then Perkins sprinted 69 yards to score, and finally Chamberlain intercepted a pass and dashed 25 yards to pay dirt. And it should be pointed out that this game was played on a wet field, that made running extremely slippery.

Officials for the game will be W. H. Etter of Otterbein, referee; Ollie Klee, Ohio State, umpire; and Charles Wertz of Wesleyan, linesman.

The Ross reserves play host to the Junior Order reserves at 4 p. m., Monday at Harmon field.

Little Giants Rally After Trailing, 7-0, At Halftime

Bob Shaw Again Leads Fremont To Victory With 3 Touchdowns; Speedy Tiffin Backs Cut Purple Defense To Ribbons In First Quarter

By JERRY LISKA

A lion-hearted Fremont Ross eleven, pased by bustling Bob Shaw who scored 19 points, dashed its way to a 20-7 victory over Tiffin Junior Order Home at Harmon field Friday night to virtually clinch the Buckeye league grid championship.

Before annexing their fourth straight loop triumph and their seventh decision in eight starts, the Little Giants had to transform from a dispirited club that made a feeble first half effort to a team that went on a rampage that swept aside a 7-0 Tiffin lead and hammered across one touchdown in the third quarter and two in the final period.

The defeat was Junior Order's first loop setback in three years and the Tiffins, out of their first place tie with Fremont, only returned to the gridiron to find the Little Giants are against Bowling Green two weeks hence, followed by a midweek battle with Sandusky next Saturday. Unless the Blue Streaks take too much out of themselves, the Purple tock's grididers should close with a win over an unimpressive Bee Gees club.

The Fremont eleven opened Friday night's first half showing the effects of a 14-14 tie with Marion Scott last week and folded helplessly before a sparkling Junior Order attack that moved 100 yards to a touchdown in the first eight plays of the game.

50-Yard Spark

In the first minutes of the first half, the Little Giants came to life and swooped 80 yards to the Tiffins' 20-yard line. The threat ended just as the intermission gun sounded.

The second half set off Fremont's offensive and completely changed the complexion of the game was a sensational 100-yard drive that midway in the third quarter that was good for 50 yards of the Juniors' end zone.

It started with Bob Brunover, quarterback, passing from his own to the 45. Dick Pratt, fullback, Junior 33, Frantz made a great catch while in full stride, and almost immediately was in to the 10, to Jim Kelly, guard, who tore down the sidelines with the fine of a halfback. Jim Kelly was then trapped, but he rammed and sidestepped his way clear to the 4-yard line.

Shaw hit center for a scant yard and then Brunover, who was 132 yards from the goal line, was dumped for a loss on the 5-yard line. Shaw slumped through tight tackle and was out to the 1-yard line again. On the fourth down, Shaw again was dumped, but this time he was out to the 10, having shown off to the best of the hometown Verner Kans, regular fullback, who saw little service because of an injured knee, was 10 yards from the goal and punched the point to knot the score at 7-7.

Then came the 50-yard spark. At the outset of the fourth quarter, the Fremont attack gained further momentum. Tiffins' 10, their own 20. The Little Giants rolled 76 yards to score in seven plays. Jim Kelly, after a 10-yard strike to Shaw on the Junior 45 and the big boy ran, frontwards and then right to the 20, where he was hauled down. Brunover darted six yards to the 23 and then Shaw again was dumped, but this time Shaw punched left, broke, and this time clear to the Junior 4.

Down to the 10, Shaw was given the oval in the shadow of the goal posts and once again he was thrown, this time to the Junior 6. Shaw took the ball on the next play and fought his way to the 10, where he was again snuffed over for a touchdown through left tackle. Brunover, however, found a tremendous version, was unable to control the pass from center and amidst the swirls of the crowd, he was forced to attempt a wild, vain pass over the line of scrimmage.

The final and final touchdown was handed to the Little Giants on a silver platter less than a minute after the 50-yard spark. On the first play after he returned the kickoff to the Home 20, Quarterback Jim Chamberlain funneled and End Johnny Waggoner recovered for Ross on the Tiffin 13.

Takes 2 Plays

It took Shaw just two plays to plow through the Tiffins' defense on his first attempt, he ripped all the way to the 1-yard line and then batted the ball over the Tiffin line to score easily. Shaw tried for placement for point and his boot split the uprights to give the final margin of victory, 20-7.

The first quarter was so poorly played by the Tiffins that, indeed, it appeared a rout of the Purple people was inevitable. Chamberlain, Jim Kelly, Chambers, Sykes rounded the Fremont wings as though they were fire hydrants in the early days of the speed seen at Harmon field this season.

On the opening play of the game, Sykes took the ball on the Tiffin 20 yards. Then Perkins streaked around left end 18 yards to the Fremont 35. Jim Kelly, Sykes and Perkins and Chamberlain participated in carrying the ball to the Fremont 10, where Sykes scored this point, but when one running play failed to gain, Chamberlain threw the ball to the end zone in the middle to Paul Edwards, end, who made a leaping catch between two Tiffins and ran one yard for the touchdown. Chamberlain placed-kicked the point.

In the first initial quarter, the Juniors again turned on the heat, with the ball on the Home 15. Perkins, end, took the ball on a 10-yard punt on third down. Instead he tore around left end, reversed his field and ran 10 yards to the 5, where 26 before he was driven out of bounds. A pass from Chamberlain to its 10, and then 10 yards to the Fremont 8. But on the next play Sykes fumbled and Center Jackson Pratt recovered for Ross on the

Bob Shaw Carries 117 Point Total Against Blue Streaks

If there is any catch phrase being barked in the Sandusky high grid camp as the Blue Streaks prepare for their Armistice Day clash with Ross high at Harmon field here, it is "Stop Shaw."

Regardless of the nonchalant respect Coach Bob Whittaker and his gridders might hold for Fremont's Little Giants, whose pursuit of victory over the Blue Streaks is beginning to grow whiskers, they can't ignore the scoring prowess of Rapid Robert.

When he rammed across for three touchdowns and booted a conversion in Fremont's 20-7 win over Tiffin Junior Order Home last Friday night, Shaw hoisted his season's record to 117 points. Few Class A prep leather-toters in the state can come close to that mark.

Started As End

The tall, husky lad, who started the season at end and then dropped behind the line as a bona fide ball-carrier, has scored 19 touchdowns, more than half of the 30 six-pointers Ross has accumulated in winning seven of eight games to date. He has tried three placements and cashed in on each one.

Because of his height, it was expected at the start of the season, Shaw would be a gilt-edged asset as a pass receiver with Bobby Brunover machine-gunning 'em at him with regularity.

But Shaw's rambling, speedy stride soon made it plain he would be more valuable carrying the mail in a backfield minus tricky runners but blessed with good blockers.

Breaks Tie

Injury to Brunover in the Fostoria game was the clinching factor in Shaw's conversion to the backfield. Prior to that contest, he confined his ball-carrying mainly to end-around plays. Midway in the fourth quarter against the Redmen, with Ross confronted by a scoreless tie, Shaw sliced through tackle and raced 46 yards for a touchdown.

In the following game against Tiffin Columbian, Shaw ran wild, scoring four touchdowns and rolling up almost 300 yards single-footedly. Toledo Scott upset the Rossmen, but Shaw scored both of the Purple's touchdowns. Then last Friday night, he battered his way to three more against Junior Order.

Thus, in Fremont's last three games, Shaw has anked his way to 10 touchdowns, giving him 15 scores from scrimmage for the season. His four other touchdowns were made on aerials.

Balconi Is Threat

While Sandusky is shaping a defense to halt Shaw, Coach Fred McClintock's Purple warriors are scheming to check Geno Balconi, big gun of the Blue Streaks. Balconi's point total is 97, considerably smaller than Shaw's, but the slippery Italian has generally been confronted by stiffer opposition than Shaw. Against Columbian, the same team that surrendered four touchdowns to Shaw, Balconi collected 31 points.

It would be well for the Little Giants to realize that Sandusky's claim that Balconi is one of the best halfbacks in the state is not just a home-town fancy. He is amazingly fast and cat-like with surprising drive for his small stature. Ross held him in leash last season as the Purple went down to a 28-6 defeat at Sandusky. But the game was played on a snow-bound field on which only straight power plays were used.

The Little Giants came through the Junior Home battle in good shape. Lyle Reichert and Vernon Kane, regular backs, are still on the injured list, the latter seeing a little action Friday night. Whether they will be available by Saturday is problematical. Return of either one will mean much to the Little Giants' chances against a Sandusky team that for once appears whittled down to Fremont's size. Not since 1925, when Ken Hawk led the Purple to an 8-6 win, has Fremont defeated Sandusky.

OLD FORT IN 36-11 VICTORY

Old Fort high school's basketball team, led by coach C. A. C. Miller, won 36 to 11 to Friday night with a victory over the Hopewell-Louden gymnasium.

The Old Fort team took a 32 to 11 deficit from the Hopewell-Louden reserves. Old Fort will travel to Bettsway Wednesday night to face a strong Bettsway court aggregation, and on Friday night will entertain at Old Fort for the Jackson-Amadan team.

BEN HAYES SWIMS AGAINST WOLVES

Ben Hayes, Fremont Ross' high state breast stroke champion, will swim under the colors of the Cleveland Athletic Club against the University of Michigan on an exhibition meet at the C. A. C. Pool Saturday night. He will be accompanied to Cleveland by Coach Bill Stults of the Little Giant mermen.

Hayes was expected to compete in the 100-yard breast stroke against standout Wolverine performers, including Jim Skinner, freshman, who holds the American outdoor 200-yard breast stroke record.

Shaw, W. Frantz Unanimous Selections In League Poll

Stull Wins Center Berth On First Team As Ballot Of Scribes, Coaches Honors Only Three From Title Club; Four Rossmen On 2nd Eleven

By JERRY LISKA

Three husky grididers, two from the championship Fremont Ross eleven, were unanimous choices on the 1939 all Buckeye high school football team selected by a poll of scribes and coaches in the six-team loop.

Both tackles, William Frantz of Ross and Judy Brondes of Findlay, and Bob Shaw, Ross high's prolific quarterback, received a maximum ballot of 11 votes.

Although undefeated in their five league starts, Fremont's Little Giants placed only three men on the first team, Howard Stull, aggressive center, rounding out the trio with Shaw and Frantz.

Second place Tiffin Junior Order Home likewise had three performers named on the first team, Paul Edwards, star wingman, who received nine votes; James Ashmore, a center shifted to guard through the balloting; and James Sykes, speedy, hard-hitting fullback.

5 Barely Miss

Bowling Green was honored with two first team berths. William Sams winning a guard post and Onie Banks chosen as right halfback. Findlay, Columbian, Fostoria each placed one man, giving every team in the league first team representation.

The lowly Fostoria team which failed to win a loss could have Charles Imber, a halfback, who was elected at left halfback, while Wayne Bordner of Columbian won an end position.

The many Wagners and Art Burton, Ross end and guard respectively, Banks Chamberlain, Junior Order Home, quarterback, and Findlay's two great backs, Russell Kelly, guard, and Dick Holisinger, tackle, to Ross, also were named on the second team.

While most of selections paid no heed to their regular positions, these changes were necessitated in compilation of ballots.

Imber and Espen were fullbacks on their respective teams, but their running ability and围绕 talent easily qualify them for the halfback posts they were given.

Shaw was one of the state's top swimmers with 148 points and behind such blocking as Imber, Espen and Sykes could provide would be a ball-carrying scourge. Shaw's own star halfback, Dick Frantz, Kyle Reichert and Verner, were forced to receive recognition on the first two teams.

Outstanding Tackles

Although his club had a dismal season, Imber seldom failed to spark his team, his defense offensively and defensive work. Sykes was a key man in the Junior Order middle-a-minute backfield. A rugged youth, he was exceptionally fast and had plenty of room of movement. He lunged at the mail. Espen was a standout triple-threat man for Bowling Green and led his team in scoring with 77 points.

Frost and Espen were two of the classic tackles produced by the Buckeyes in several seasons, indicated in the fact they were included on every team picked throughout the circuit. Both were rough, tough, battleship types, wreaking havoc the entire campaign.

Only one coach and scribe failed to list Edwards as a first team end. The Junior Order Home, Old Fort, will travel to Bettsway Wednesday night to face a strong Bettsway court aggregation, and on Friday night will entertain at Old Fort for the Jackson-Amadan team.

WILLIAMS IN MAT WIN HERE

Newcomer Defeats Steve Nenoff; Orth Outlasts "Rough House"

Wistey Williams of Chicago and Paul Orth of Toledo triumphed in the weekly mat show at the Jackson arena Friday night. After dropping the first fall to Steve Nenoff, bulky Bulgarian, Williams, a newcomer here, snared the final two falls.

Orth tangled with Jack (Rough House) Hagen of Shreveport, La., and won the first and third falls in as many seconds, held at the arena in seven months.

Nenoff took the first fall from Williams with an arm-lock in 19 minutes. The second fall went to Williams in a leg twist in eight minutes. The third fall Williams was copped by Williams when he reversed an arm lock and tied Nenoff into a knot.

With Orth hitting Hagen with everything but a kitchen sink, the Toledo ruffian copped the first fall in nine minutes with a half-crab. Hagen rallied to win the second fall in four minutes with a double and inside slams. Orth "used his head" to cop the final canto, shoving Hagen against the ropes and then butting him to the canvas to pin him in seven minutes.

Rogie Cook defeated Bud Elbert with a body-scissors in 12 minutes of the preliminary.

Greenman, Stickel Pace Eight-Man Field In Class B Meet

Harry Stickel and Don Greenman are current leaders in the Class B 3-cushion billiards tourney being held at the Congress Billiard Parlor under sponsorship of the National Billiard Association.

Elbert, top an eight-man field with four victories, against no defeats. Wayne Fee, tourney director, indicated the round-robin event probably would include early next week.

Urban (Eppie) Miller is third with three wins and one defeat, while Earl Gracemyer and Jim LeJeune are next with one triumph apiece. Miller, followed by Jack Ahner, with one win, and Jack Cooley with one loss and Charles Cooley with four reversals.

Greenman holds a high run of seven in the tourney for amateur players. Last night's match was the Miller-Stickel stick-tango, won by the latter, 20-19, after Miller held the lead most of the 46 innings the match went before Stickel rallied to cop.

GENOA SPANKS FOE, 56 TO 28

GENOA, Dec. 2.—Genoa high stepped to an easy victory over Walbridge, 56 to 28, held here Friday night, piling up a 56-28 decision. The Genoa girls copped 32-18, while the Genoa reserves lost, 12-10.

Paced by Center Drummond, who piled up 17 points, Genoa surged away to a 10-4 lead in the opening quarter and scored as it pleased the remainder of the game.

The visitors salted away the contest with a 19-point surge in the second period. Belcek, substitute forward, led the losers with seven points. The summary:
