The Fremont Ross boys' tennis team is 23 athletes strong this spring under their veteran coach, Lisa Wolfe. All, plus a few new faces, return as there were no seniors on last year's team.

Veteran singles players returning for the Little Giant include seniors Weston Schroeder and Kurt Harrison, and Brayden Ebinger will be competing for the top spot.

While seeing double action will be senior Gabe Ontiveros and a pair of juniors in Gage Ross and Evan Garcia. All these young men are letter winners except for newcomer Cole Kinsey, who is a freshman.

New faces to the team this year, besides Kinsey, include Senior Reece Carter, who Wolfe says, "is looking like our eighth man and will see some varsity time." Others include senior Elijah Mendez, sophomore Adam Taylor, and freshman Zach Bishop. "These players mentioned have all worked their way to the top of our 16-man junior varsity team," Wolfe added.

The boys finished 7-13 last season and 2-5 in the TRAC, placing sixth.

Giants fall to St. Francis 5-0

By Bill Bray

TOLEDO – "I know when we play St Francis it's going to be tough," coach Lisa Wolfe's words proved to be prophetic as the Giants lost in a TRAC matchup 5-0.

Senior Kurt Harrison (pictured) had the toughest match in #2 singles falling 5-7 and 2-6. "They even added two freshman to their already talented team," Wolfe said.

In the other singles matches, Weston Schroeder lost his #1 singles match 1-6, 1-6. Ross freshman Cole Kinsey was defeated in #3 singles with scores of 4-6, 0-6. "Cole came off the court knowing what he needs to work on," Wolfe said. In doubles play, Gabe Ontiveros and Brayden Ebinger dropped their match 2-6 and 0-6. In second doubles, Gage Ross and Evan Garcia played the best doubles they had played so far this early season, according to Wolfe.

Senior Reece Carter, playing his first match, had a good match despite the loss, according to Wolfe, with scores of 1-6 and 4-6. See less
