ROSS DRILLED UNDER LIGHTS

Went Well Against Heavy Gibsonburg Eleven At Stadium

Coach Legs Binkley put his Ross high Little Giants through their last intensive drill before the season's opener with Port Clinton Friday night when he sent them through a prolonged scrimmage against Gibsonburg last night.

It was this year's edition of the Little Giants' first practice under the lights at Harmon stadium and a number of rough edges were smoothed off against the heavy Golden Bears.

Gibsonburg has a heavy eleven this season, one that outweighs the Fremonters, and it presented formidable opposition. While no score was kept, the Little Giants ran up a couple of touchdowns, chiefly on runs by Halfback Bob Demmel.

Team Is Light

The Little Giants will be the lightest team to represent Ross high in years and the Tuesday night scrimmage revealed that the forward wall is still weak in spots. The pony backfield functioned well, especially on the offense, but needs plenty of help from the line.

Coach Binkley used virtually his entire squad during the game but started out with what will probably be his first string varsity, at least for the opening game here. This team had Capt. Len Brudzinski and Dick Pence, at ends; Emmett Mackey and Jack Frantz at tackles; Dan Lease and Arlo Williamson at guards; Kent Darr at center; Warren Inks, Dick Rodenhauser, Bob Demmel and Willie Koebel in the backfield.

Faced into a hole, scoring punch into a hole, seemed odd, Ross high's Little Giants scored 19 to 14 victory over Port Clinton in a game of 100 fans at Harmon stadium last night. It was the first tilt for both teams and the contest was a bit on the rugged side.

Played off their feet for about 10 minutes in the first period, the Rossmen found themselves once they got their hands on the ball and were off and running, the spectators as well as the Ottawa countours with their vicious come-back.

The Little Giants were trailing 7 to 0 when they found their scoring touch. The first time was Watt's charges could stem the onslaught they had scored all 19 of their points. They were stopped twice after that, once in each of

Ross Outweighed

Port Clinton's first score came early in the final period, but they only had the ball in their possession once during the game and ended with it on their 15.

Cutie ighed plenty to the man in charge on the short end of first down, but to the Little Giants nevertheless gained more ground on the turf than their opponents. In the end, the Port Clinton, garnered the more points, Bob Demmel and Willie Koehel, Cason and Sibley, the offensive, sparked in the 10th, with Capt. Len Brudzinski cutting in on the end zone with two nice pass catches, one for a score.

But the light and inexperienced forward wall shouldn't be overlooked. Although it was dangerous, the Rossmen held their own, attack every inch it gave it gave grudgingly and fightingly.

The game opened with Demmel kicking out of bounds and Port Clinton's first score was on an 88. From there Mackey, Bloom and Selgo steamrolled the Fremont defense, with the ball on downs. The Fremont fans had scarcely recovered their breath when the Rossmen took the ball again and this time they drove 28 yards with Jack Mackey taking a short pass from Dick Selgo for a touchdown. Bob Gardner, who kicked the point.

Things looked bad at this point, but then their complexion changed. Brudzinski took the kick-off back 11 yards to the 44 and the Little Giants were off. With Demmel running the ends and Koehel knifing into the line, they again took the ball to the 10 and then Demmel reeled off 18 yards inside eight end. Koehel had plowed in for three points. The period ended and on the first play in the second period he plunged it over the goal line with a placement to tie the score.

Score on Run, Pass

Port Clinton's second ball on downs was the Fremont 15 and again the Little Giants started to go. Demmel was a 4 to Brudzinski, who placed the ball on the 48 and after Koehel had picked up five, Dick Selgo took a pass and set sail along the east side lines for 47 yards and another score. The second point was wide.

With Koehel as a 4 for the third and final tally by intercepting Selgo's pass on the Fremont 27, the ball was at Port Clinton 27 before he was downed. He next tossed a long pass to Brudzinski, which the latter snatched out of the hands of Selgo and Clemens and stumbled across the goal line for the winning points. It was a beautiful catch.

The Little Giants threatened twice after that but couldn't cash in. In the third, Selgo intercepted a pass from his own 10 to end a 45 yard drive and in the fourth another march that started at the 10, which was halted on the 10 when Koehel failed to make the yards by inches.

Port Clinton's second score came early in the fourth period. An offside attack took the ball 50 yards, a 15-yard penalty on Fremont starting them off. Mackey converted the score and Gardner converted.

With the exception of the passing, the Rossmen's Demmel and Koehel were the only players to handle the ball offensively during the entire game.

Fremont Gridders Travel

Fremont will be without a single football game this weekend as both its scholastic teams hit the road for Friday night encounters.

The Ross high Little Giants renew athletic rivalry with Lorain after a 20-year lapse while the St. Joe Streaks will be in Fostoria, meeting the St. Wendelin's team for the eighth year in a row.

Not since the days of the Little Big Seven have the Little Giants and the Steelers clashed and, from all indications, the Purple picked a poor year in which to renew gridiron hostilities. In their opener last week the Lorain club steam-rollered Akron North, 54 to 0, using but five different plays during the entire game.

Lorain Heavy

Coach Pryor has a team that averages a bit over 170 pounds and which gained a total of 457 yards at the expense of the Vikings, 353 on the ground and 104 through the air. Six of his backs figured in the scoring, his kickers averaged 37.7 yards on punts, and his safety men ran punts back a total of 104 yards.

This, then, is the aggregation against which Coach Legs Binkley's light squad, which averages less than 160 pounds, will collide in their first road contest of the season.

Coach Binkley announced that there will be but one change in his line-up for this game, Miller getting the nod for a starting berth at guard in place of Emmett Mackey.

Streaks Favored

The Streak should have a decidedly easier assignment in their second invasion of foreign fields inasmuch as the Mohawks took a sound, 48 to 0, trouncing at the hands of Fostoria high last Friday.

Coach Jim Marinis' crew showed plenty of possibilities in downing a heavy Bellevue team, 14 to 7, and should have the edge over the Seneca county lads. However, it was the Mohawks who snapped their winning streak last year, handing them a surprise 31 to 0 thumping after the Fremonters had chalked up three straight victories.

The St. Joe mentor has stated that there will be no changes in his starting line-up and he will use the same players as carved out the initial victory. Incidentally, only 12 boys saw action against Bellevue, Kritzel getting into the game twice to kick placements after touchdowns.

CINCINNATI, O.—Reds have an excellent chance of beating their own major league fielding record. They are duplicating their 1940 percentage of .981.

THREE SCORES FIRST PERIOD DOWNS PURPLE

Chalk Up 18 Points In 2 1-2 Minutes In Otherwise Even Game

Ross high's Little Giants suffered their first defeat of the season last night when they renewed athletic rivalry with Lorain after a 20-year lapse, but followers of the Purple and White team termed it a moral victory.

The final score was 24 to 6, but except for a whirlwind finish to the first quarter, the Little Giants played the powerful and heavy Steelers on even terms.

Outweighed by 15 pounds to the man, the Little Giants and Steelers battled on even terms for the first nine minutes of play. Then Coach Pryor's club cut loose with the same kind of an offensive that overpowered Akron North, 54 to 0.

In exactly two and a half minutes the up-staters rolled over three touchdowns for an 18-point lead that was never seriously threatened. In this whirlwind offensive, George James started the Steelers rolling with an 85-yard scamper around left end on a reverse.

Fumbles Count

On the following kickoff Bob Demmel fumbled the ball on his own 16 and Nolan fell on it for Lorain. On the first play Willoughby slashed through the line for the score.

Following an exchange of kicks, Bart tossed a 31-yard pass to Nolan, who was downed on the Fremont 25, and two plays later he went over for the score.

After a scoreless second stanza, the Little Giants started to click a bit better and mid-way the period Ed Sells pounced on a fumble on the Lorain five. Koebel and Demmel each picked up a yard and then the former plunged over for the score. Demmel's kick was wide and low.

The final score came in the last canto when James took the ball on a reverse, started around right end and then cut back to scamper 36 yards and cross the last stripe standing up.

The game was fairly evenly fought despite the difference in poundage. Lorain had a 7 to 3 edge in first downs.

Next Friday night the Little Giants play their first Buckeye league game when Findlay, 13 to 6 winner over Bowling Green, invades.

Both Teams Are Meeting Formidable Foes Tonight

Little Giants Open Defense Of Buckeye League Title At Harmon Stadium; St. Joe Opponent Is Regarded As One Of Strongest Clubs In Section

Erie Proving Ground will have nothing on a pair of football fields, one in Fremont and the other in Fostoria, tonight. For on these two fields, Fremont's pair of scholastic elevens will be given tests that will go a long way toward indicating what kind of season they will have.

The Little Giants will engage the Findlay Trojans under the Harmon stadium arcs and before what should be one of the largest crowds of the season in their initial Buckeye League tilt, opening brush in defense of their crown.

St. Joseph's Streaks, off to an auspicious start and undefeated in two games, face even a stiffer test. For the second straight weekend they journey to Fostoria, and this time they face a club that has given every evidence as being among the most powerful in this section of the state.

Regulars Injured

Coach Legs Binkley has allowed his squad to take things comparatively easy this week, resting up from the bruising battle with the Lorain Steelers last Friday. In that game the Rosamens played their heavier opponents on even terms in the second half and looked like a tough ball club.

There is not much in the way of comparison between the Little Giants and Trojans as yet. However, it has been reported that Findlay was the only loop club to beat the Fremonters last season and have always been tough for the local gladiators.

Whether or not it is a bear story won't be known until tonight, but rumors emanating from the Hancock county seat are to the effect that three of Coach Carl Bachman's regulars may be on the bench. If this is true, the chances of the lighter Ross eleven will be immeasurably dimmed.

Look About Even

Ralph Askum, 170-pound tackle, broke two bones in his hand last week and may not start. Halfback Don Bish has been troubled by an injured leg while Guard Ed Rooney is laid up with an infected foot.

For those who like comparative scores, there is little to choose between the teams. Findlay lost to Columbus Aquinas, 21 to 6, and beat Bowling Green, 14 to 0. The Bee-Gees beat Gibsonburg, 13 to 6, and the latter club lost to Port Clinton, 19 to 14, victim of Ross, by a 44 to 20 count. Findlay has scored 20 points with 21 scored against them. Ross has tallied 25 and had 42 scored against them.

Coach Binkley will start the same line-up he used against Lorain. Capt. Len Brudzinski and Dick Pence will be at ends, Ed Sells and Jack Frantz at tackles; Arlo Williamson and Bill Miller at guards, and Vince Koebel at center, Bud Inks, Bob Demmel, Dick Rodenhauser and Willie Koebel in the backfield.

Big Job For Streaks

The St. Joe club is in much tougher than the Little Giants this week. In fact, the Fostoria Redmen loom as the hardest team they'll have to face all season and added to that will be the handicap of playing away from home. In Fostoria, they are halting the Redmen as the city's best team in 20 years.

Undefeated, the Redmen ran over St. Wendelin's, 48 to 0, and took Lima South, 25 to 7. While the Streaks weren't pushed by St. Wendelin's, they could run up only a 15 to 10 score, leaving them on the short end of an offensive comparison.

The Streaks came through last week's game in good shape physically, and Coach Jim Marinis has been working them hard this week. Fearing the strong Fostoria defense against ground plays, he has been stressing a passing attack although he has also been brushing up on the Streaks' running game.

In an effort to counteract the polish and drive of tonight's opponents, he will use an over-shifted six-man line to try and half Standard Woodland & Co. This line has tallied 10 touchdowns between them and accounted for all but six of the Redmen's 83 points. If they can be stopped, or even slowed down, the Streaks have a chance to spring a major upset.

Entering the contest the admitted underdog and with only an outside chance of protecting their undefeated record, the Streaks should have a slight psychological edge at least.

Trojans Overcome
Ross Early Lead;
Demmel Is Injured

Unlucky at finding themselves trailing by a touchdown before the game was three minutes old, the Trojans, after hitting Findlay eleven yards back in the second half at Harman Field, won the game, 12 to 6, in a Bunker league game.

In the second straight league victory, the Trojans, coming on top of their 14 to 0 conquest of the Little Giants last week, and left them at the top of the five-school circuit.

LITTLE GIANTS IN FOSTORIA FOR LOOP GAME

Streaks Favored To Win Game Here But Ross Is Underdog

Fremont football fans, and especially those who follow St. Joe athletics and who have been kept close to home and health by Pooh-bah Ickes and his gasoline shortage, will have their first opportunity of seeing the Crimson Streaks in action tonight.

The Streaks, with what appears to be their best team in history in the loop, play host to Sandusky St. Mary's in the city's only home grid contest of the week. They take over at Harmon stadium, under the lights, while the Little Giants are in Fostoria.

The Streaks make their home debut against an arch-rival and it makes an admirable opening opponent for the club that has won two games and lost one and has broken even in brushes with two Class A opponents to date.

Saints Untested

Just how much power the Saints in their loop is still a question as they opened it last week, bumping off Genoa, 15 to 6, in a game that saw all the scoring packed into the last two periods. The Salinis, however, were within the Genoa 10 on three separate occasions in the first half only to fumble and lose the ball.

Once they got over their jitters they played a good game, mixing a running and passing attack with excellent results. One touchdown came on a punt run-back of 72 yards by Rich Kaman, another came after a long power drive and a running attack set up the third. Coach Ziegler is off to a start at making a lot out of a little and his clubs play smart ball and are quick to capitalize on breaks. This season, with Sandusky high out of football, he has more material than usual to draw on and has a 40-man squad, only 10 of whom are freshmen. Nine players are seniors.

Streaks Ready

The team is fairly light, averaging about 155 pounds, but the attack is spearheaded by Kaman, an 175-pounder, who is something of a triple-threat in that he can run the ends, smash the line, take or toss passes.

The Streaks will be in top shape for their home opener despite the fact that they played the rugged Fostoria high crew last week. All of Coach Jim Marinis' players came through in good shape and will be after their third conquest of the campaign.

Coach Marinis will use the same starting line-up that has scored a pair of wins so far. Vic Gelinek and Herb Redding will play at the ends; Doyle Kusma and Bill Mehling at tackles; Bill Leite and Johnny Gabel at guards; Jim Courtney at center; Bob Chudzinski, Joe Kusma, Bill Wagner and Joe Halm in the backfield.

The St. Mary's line-up will have

Bob Will and Bob Foley, at ends;

Bob Naier and Jack Reed at tackles;

Dick Butler and Lyle Beier at guards; Ron Roth at center;

Tom Gaudelberger, Dick Kaman,

Don Mancay and Bill Daniels in the backfield. The game will start at 8 p. m.

Ross Underdog

While this is going on in Fremont, the Little Giants will be meeting a formidable Buckeye League foe in Fostoria, which so far has looked like one of the best teams in this section. The Redmen have scored impressive victories over St. Wendelin's, Lima South and St. Joseph's.

Coach Legs Binkley will have most of his regulars available for fray but it is questionable as to the condition they will be in. Vince

Koebel probably will not be in at center or Bill Miller at a tackle, but Bob Demmel will be in the backfield and Ed Sells will start at a tackle.

The Redmen, with Stoddard and

Woodland carrying the offensive

burden, are expected to concentrate on the Ross line, which hasn't been too strong in any game yet.

The Little Giants will take the field the underdog.

The game will start at 8 p. m.,

for those who have gas to travel,

EACH MENTOR SURE OTHER HAS AN EDGE

Teams Appear Evenly Matched For Game That Should Draw Well

If such a thing were possible—and if you talk long with Coaches Legs Binkley and Jim Marinis you begin to think it is—Ross high's Little Giants will win tonight's brush with the St. Joe Crimson Streaks by a couple of touchdowns while the Streaks will score the same easy victory over the Little Giants.

Both clubs can't win the same game, tossing out the victories that are classed as 'moral,' yet as this city's two scholastic elevens near the deadline for their first game in history, both are certain to finish on the long end of the score.

Both mentors figure the other has the advantage and talk depreciatingly of their team's chances. On several other points they also agree. Both expect a hard-fought, bitterly-contested game and, while neither has said so in as many words, it's easy to deduce that both expect their clubs to score.

Teams About Even

Ordinarily when two city rivals meet there is some basis of comparison that makes one of them either a slight or a heavy favorite. That has usually been true when the Little Giants and Streaks met on the basketball court, but as they come up for this initial gridiron test it is not.

The Little Giants appear to have the edge in confidence and experience and have played a heavier schedule. Most of the players have been out for football since junior high days and have, admittedly, been bucking into better teams.

The Streaks, however, will have a slight pull in weight and are in better condition, physically, than their Friday night opponents. This last may be due to less powerful previous opposition. They will also have the advantage of going into the fray as the underdog, something that every one of Coach Marinis' players feels to be true whether it is or not.

On the score of lettermen, the two clubs are even, both having seven veterans scattered between the line and the backfield.

One Common Foe

The two have met but one common foe and there is little difference when comparison is made. Fostoria scored 21 points against the Little Giants and 20 against the Streaks which would make the defensive play of both elevens even as the point after touchdown in every instance was a matter of booting the ball between the goal posts.

Offensively, based on this one game, the Rossmen have a two touchdown advantage, tallying a pair of markers against the Redmen while the Streaks were held scoreless.

In the four games both teams have played to date the Rossmen have scored 44 points and had 81 scored against them while the Streaks have chalked up 35 and held the opposition to 46. This is a poor comparison, however, as the lower Croghan streeters have met all Class A clubs and the upper Croghan streeters two Class A and two Class B combines.

Every indication points to the close, tough game that both mentors expect and both have been working hard all week in an effort to dig up some little advantage.

Same Type Game

The Little Giants effectively stopped Fostoria's hard-running ground attack so the Streaks can be expected to try the airways tonight. For the same reasons Coach Binkley has undoubtedly been drilling his charges on a pass defense. One should counteract the other and leave the fans right where they started insofar as pre-game calculations are concerned.

The two clubs are similar in yet another way. The Little Giants have depended almost entirely on Bob Demmel and Willie Koebel for ball-carrying duties with Dick Rodenhauser and Bud Inks doing virtually nothing but blocking.

Coach Marinis also has been using a "two-man backfield," Bob Chudzinski and Joe Kuzma doing the major share of running and passing with Charley Wagner and Joe Halm taking on the blocking assignments.

Maybe one coach or the other, maybe both of them, will blossom out with a new backfield threat tonight and he may prove to be the difference between the two teams.

Probable Line-ups

With good weather prevailing, the game should draw the season's biggest crowd to Harmon stadium as, after all, it is the first meeting of the city's two gridiron machines and, this year at least, they appear fairly evenly matched.

This, however, is another point on which the opposing factions disagree. The Ross athletic bosses doubt if tonight's crowd is as large as the one that saw the opener this year. The St. Joe majordomos believe the game will pack 'em in.

The game starts at 8 p. m. and following are the probable starting line-ups:

STREAKS OPEN FAST TO SCORE EARLY IN TILT

First Game Between
Two Teams Is Bitterly Contested Affair

Out-played and out-scored for 24 minutes, Ross high's Little Giants, who had been the final quarters last night to punch out a 19 to 6 victory over St. Joseph's, were the team that found the game ever played between the two schools.

About 1,000 thousand rain-soaked and wind-swept fans who put football above personal comfort, were either stunned or overjoyed, depending on which side they were on, as the best team St. Joe ever fielded forced into a six-point lead early in the game and then out to hold it until the final gun.

Apparently needful, however, because they had been out-played and trailing 6 to 0 at half-time, a Ross high team which it must be confessed was not at all disgraced back in the two closing stanzas for a well-deserved victory.

The game, which was bitterly contested all the way, and if there is any consolation in so-called moral victory, the Rossites themselves can claim that distinction today.

The Streaks played a while of a game, after all, and deserved, acquited themselves nobly.

Strike Early

Striking early, the undauntedly over-confident Ross team early in the game, the Streaks completed a 100-yard half-back play and, with a bit of luck, miles of room, racked up at least one more touchdown before their surprised opponents realized that it was about.

Playing smart, head-up football, the Streaks took advantage of the slippery field and the elements from the very outset and not only

CLYDE LOSES TO HURON SIX

Gabbell Proves Too Much For Fliers, Who Held Halftime Lead

CLYDE, Oct. 16.—The Clyde high Fliers lost their fourth game in five starts Friday afternoon, 6 to 0, to the Huron team rollers after holding a slim 13 to 8 lead at half time.

The Fliers had a good touch-down and a safety in the initial period to take an eight-point lead over the Fliers, but the second stanza only twice. The lead was short-lived, however, as Huron scored back in the third period, then again in the fourth and then added two more in the final period.

O'Harrow started and the Fliers, including the Fliers, were scorers in the early stages of the game but camped in Ross territory for the rest of the game.

The ball was as wet as the faithful fans and slippery in the beginning, but play was mainly by frequent fumbles, caused, of course, because the Streaks were smart enough to tackle in the Little Giants backfield, but the Little

Giants was in this manner that they were able to score, only one of the first half, with the ball shortly after the game got underway.

St. Joe won the toss, elected to defend. Willie Koebel took the kick-off and ran and charged up to the 40 and fumbled when he was tackled by Jim Wagner, recovering for the Streaks.

Score on Eight Plays

Right there and there the upper Clyde team had a field day, as they might be a Class B team but were a tough one.

Play was a confused attack and some sure ball handling, they covered the 40 yards to the goal line in eight plays, with Jim Chudzinski picking up 15 on a fake reverse. Joe Kuzma went 14 on a reception, then ran 10 more through tackle. Chudzinski fumbled and recovered for a three yard pass, Kuzma picked up another yard and Chudzinski and Joe Hoyer punched for three more. Then Chudzinski crossed the center of the Ross line and was in for the touchdown.

Punty Koebel was rushed in to place the ball on the point and his boot was blocked, but the Little Giants had been set back on their own 20 and the ball was then fumbled and recovered by the Ross men on their own 20. The play then went to the Little Giants who recovered the ball and then the Little Giants recovered somewhere and started to move, running to the 10 and then to the mid-stripe but no farther.

Darr Blocks Punty

First down of the game came early in the third quarter when St. Joe was forced to punt on their own 20. Jim Chudzinski tried to block Chudzinski's kick and Ed Sells recovered on the St. Joe 30. Dale Hoy, sub for Willie Koebel, around end and then Sophomore Dale Hoy, sub for Willie Koebel, also around end, recovered the ball.

Hoy took the ball nine straight times, every time through the line, and was tackled at the 10 yard line from the three. Bob Demmel's try for a field goal was wide and the score was 13 to 6.

The Little Giants had started to move, however, and after that they had to punt again, but they dominated play the rest of the way. The Streaks failed to register a single point in the final period.

Later in the third period the Little Giants started another drive with Demmel taking a punt on his own 20 and running to the 40.

The ball was on the Streaks 27 when the period ended and Koebel, who had been the punter, kicked a 20 when Koebel shot a short pass to Demmel, who took the ball to the 15 and dashed down the sidelines for the score that broke the deadlock.

Demmel's kick was good this time and the Little Giants were out in front 13 to 6.

Score on One Play

This seemed to snap the Streaks' power and nothing they did went right after that. Jim Chudzinski was headed goalward again when Koebel fumbled and St. Joe recovered. A short pass to Koebel, a strong attack failed and Chudzinski was forced to punt with the ball on the 40.

He punted a fairly good kick but Demmel took it on the 37, and with Hoy throwing the block that really spun him around for the final touchdown.

The game was a bitterly contested battle, both teams showing up well under fire. Ken Darr, Dan Lease and Capt. Len Brudzinski had been the leaders of the Fliers, while big Doyle Kaubel and John Gabel stood out on the St. Joe side.

Dale Hoy was perhaps the hero of the game, at least from the Fliers' point of view, as he had blazed at the line and the fact that he had carried the ball little until the final period was the mark of the Streaks outstanding ball carrier.

It was perhaps as good a game as any of the 100 games in the home lot this season and it was unfortunate that the weather held up the game, which may have been the season's largest crowd.

ARE CONCEDED GOOD CHANCE TO WIN GAME

Team In Good Shape For Tilt; St. Joe In Lima Saturday

Unsuccessful in two league starts to date and with three defeats charged against them in five games, Ross high's Little Giants will attempt to start a whirlwind finish to their current gridiron campaign tonight.

The Little Giants are tangling with Tiffin Columbian in the lone Buckeye league game of the week, and while its outcome cannot affect the loop leadership, it might go a long ways today determining the runner-up.

Columbian has been defeated but once in five starts, Fostoria turning the trick last week, and is generally conceded to have an edge in tonight's game plus the fact that it is being played on their own field.

Tiffin Has Edge

Tiffin will have a bulge in the weights and although only three veterans are in the line-up, the eleven has rolled up 60 points while holding opponents to 26 and is said to have a powerful ground game.

Heorig and Nigh are their chief offensive threats and this pair has accounted for seven touchdowns between them with Felton as the third man in the ball carrying combine.

Coach Legs Binkley said his team, with one exception, was in better physical condition this week than for the past three games. The one exception is Dale Hoy, sophomore line-blaster, who powered his way into prominence against St. Joe last week. The tilt appears a toss-up.

Play Saturday

While the Little Giants see action tonight, St. Joe's Crimson Streaks won't play until Saturday night when they trek to Lima to meet the South high Tigers, fourth Class A team on their schedule this season.

Streak stock took a slight rise early in the week when it was learned that both Rod Barrington, quarterback and captain, and Bob Howard, left-handed passer, would be out of the Lima line-up, but it has dropped again due to injuries in the St. Joe camp.

Coach Jim Marinis said today that Herb Redding, Doyle Kusmer and Bob Chudzinski were all still nursing injuries received in the Ross game while Johnny Gabel had twisted an ankle in practice this week. All will see action, however, as Marinis said he had no capable replacements.

Coach Binkley also plans to start the same team that has answered the starting whistle in all five games and apparently there will be no changes in the personnel of either Fremont varsity.

DEMMLER'S 83
YARD RUN IS CALLED BACK

Blocked Punt, Poor

Out Fremont Margin

Three bad breaks that came with stunning consecutiveness in the final period, mixed up with two bad calls by the referee, by an official selected to fill in at the last minute, and the officials, a heart-breaker is the 12 defeat at Tiffin Columbian last night.

The bad breaks were the calling back of an 83-yard touchdown run by Bob Demmler and the substitution of Art Fletcher for the injured end that gave Columbian the ball on the Fremont nine and a touchback. The ball was stopped by crawling and yet was allowed. The three came bang, bang, bang.

The referee, Art Fletcher, Head Lineman Maxwell, who appeared in the uniform of a Navy officer to take the place of the official classification of Demmler's touchdown run on a highly questionable decision, and the officials who crawled across the goal for the score that decided the game.

All three bad breaks occurred with about six minutes remaining in the last quarter and with Fremont ahead 12 to 6 after a shaky try to completely outplay the cocky Columbian. Horng's pass to a punch-drunk Bill Fenton brought the deciding point.

Tiffin Scores First

The Little Giant line was extremely shaky at the start and only a 47-yard punt by Demmler and his replacement, Fletcher, prevented the Seneca outlaws from getting away to a big head start.

Art Fletcher, the new end, with a short punt gave Columbian the ball on the Fremont 39 and eight plays later Horng lugged the leather over from the 40, crossed and crawled up and down the line for the extra point but got nowhere.

The line was pretty badly outplayed in this period and picked up only 20 yards to Columbian's 68 but the Seneca had scored only the Little Giants braced.

Koebel Evens Count

The line had their own 34 late in the quarter and added by two five-yard penalties, had possession of the ball on Columbian 37 when the period ended. On the first play of the second stanza, Little Giant end, Art Fletcher, who fumbled the ball, picked it up and ripped off 12 yards. Fremont's Bill Fenton off tackle and then Willie Koebel blasted him way through the center of the line for a 12-yard gain.

Demmler's kick was wide of the posts and the score was knotted 12-12. The line had only one minute of play in the second.

Tiffin came back to travel from the 37 to the 10 and then when Horng fumbled and Ed Sells pounced on the ball and the march was on. The line had to stop Fremont traveled to the 30 where Horng stopped the march with an interception and the game ended.

Horng Blasts Away

A punt that went outside on the first play of the third came to start at the 10 and then went toward their second time. Dale Hoy was on the game and ripped off 28 yards to the 12. He then spotted pass from Dick Rodenhausen to Brudzinski was good for 15 more.

He then ran through the line again, shook off three or four tacklers and started for the end zone. He was tackled on the two. But on the next play he scored. This time Demmler's try from the 10 was good for 12 yards.

Brudzinski stopped Tiffin in the third by recovering a fumble on the 10 and then went to the 12 and completed his fumbling on his own 45. After the next punt, while Little Giant end, Art Fletcher, had up and made seven, and Koebel had ripped off nine yards. Demmler took the ball for a 12-yard gain to the 30.

He had good blocking, but Maxwell charged that Sells, who took to the 10, had been flagged for holding. The halfback was guilty of holding on the 45 and the ball was out of bounds and Fremont penalized to the 30.

Punt Blocked

One of the two officials said there was no holding and the other was uncertain. The penalty was not called. The ball was out of bounds and the 10. Tiffin, two plays later, Fenton blocked. Demmler then took the ball and after it, scooped it up on the two and got to the nine before he was downed.

The Little Giant line braced and on three tries Nigh and Horng had to give up. Tiffin's last remaining game was Fremont's long run and the highlight. On the forward wall the ball was played well with Brudzinski standing out after the first quarter.

It was a tough game to lose with Tiffin holding the upper hand in virtually every department.

There appeared little likelihood Sells would be able to score. Tiffin's defense, however, would probe the draft status of any Fremont players although a test

ARE FAVORED TO COP FIRST CIRCUIT TILT

St. Joe Also Plays
At Home, Meeting Cal-
vert At 9 P. M. Friday

A double-barreled football program is on tap for Fremont fans this week-end as both Ross and St. Joseph's highs attempt to get back on the victory trail after numerous detours. Both play on the home lot, as well.

The Little Giants will swing into action first, meeting Bowling Green in their final Buckeye league game of the season Thursday night. Not only will the Rossmen be seeking to break a string of three straight loss setbacks, but they will also be fighting to escape the league basement.

The St. Joe Streaks will mark time until Friday night when they, too, will play under the stadium lights in their first home game since the Ross brush. The opponent will be Tiffin Calvert, an old foe, and the game has been moved back to 9 p. m., because of the Army Day parade.

Both Teams Favored

Both Fremont teams will go into this week's frays on the favored end. Bowling Green has won by one game this season, the opening tilt with Gibsonburg, and has given evidence of being considerably weaker than the Little Giants.

While Coach Legs Binkley's crew has but two victories in six games, they have been playing a heavier schedule and have been giving a much better account of themselves, even in defeat, than have the Bobcats.

Despite the bitter and bruising battle over in Tiffin last Friday, the entire Little Giant squad is in good shape and Coach Binkley will be able to field his usual first-string line-up.

Regulars Back

The contest will be the annual Mom and Dad's Night tilt and parents of squad members will be guests of the Athletic association at the game and at a buffet supper afterwards at the high school.

The upper Croghan street Streaks are also scenting victory in their brush with Tiffin Calvert, a team that hasn't shown a great deal of offensive power this season and is still in quest of its first victory.

The Streaks' record is also two victories but one of them was over a Class A team while three of the setbacks were also at the hands of the upper bracket boys.

Coach Jim Marinis was unable to use End Herb Redding and Guard Johnny Gabel for more than a quarter last week, but both are expected to start Friday night and his team will be materially strengthened.

DEMML TAKES LEAD IN LOOP SCORING RACE

Makes 4 Touchdowns
And Five Conversions
To Run Total To 36

Exploding in the second and third periods and adding an unneeded touchdown in the final stanza, Ross high's Little Giants escaped the Buckeye league cellar last night by bowing over Bowling Green, 35 to 6, before the smallest crowd that has filed into Harmon stadium in several seasons.

The victory, first in league competition this year, came in the Little Giants last start in the circuit and, barring miracles, saved them from finishing last in the five-team circuit. The Bobcats still must meet Fostoria but by no stretch of the imagination can anyone picture them topping the Redmen.

opportunities to the winds, the Little Giants settled down to carve out a victory over the visitors, composed largely of freshmen, and had little difficulty.

The Bobcats best tell the true story of the game, but they might be a bit misleading. Three of the Bobcats' first downs and 85 of their yards gained from scrimmage came in the last period after Coach Legs Binkley had mercifully sent in an entire team of second-stringers.

Demmel Goes Hot

The game was high-lighted by the performance of Halfback Bob Demmel who, operating behind a line that easily out-charged the opposing forwards and with a trio of blocking backs clearing the way

Late in the period Barr punted from deep in his own territory again with the ball going to Inks on the 45 with him totting it back to the 38. It was on the 12 when the period ended and on the first play of the final canto Willie Koebel lateralized to Demmel on the 12 and he again scored.

The Ross second-stringers took over at this point and, spearheaded by Freshman Voorhees, the Bobcats started to move and managed to get to the Fremont five where the line stopped them cold and Fremont again took over. The game ended shortly after this lone threat.

Dick Rodenhauser did some excellent work in the game and Ernenbacher, in for brief moments, tore off some nice gains. It must be said for the visitors, who played with six freshmen in the line-up, that they did the best they could.

BOTH ELEVENS ARE MEETING TOUGH FOEMEN

Ross Conceded Even Chance But Streaks Have Harder Task

Fremont football teams take to the road again this week-end, both playing away from home and leaving the city without a single contest, and both are tackling formidable foes.

The Little Giants, fresh from an easy victory over Bowling Green in their last league start of the season, trek to Elyria to meet Coach Ike Trubey's Eels, while the Crimson Streaks take on their fifth Class A foe in Findlay high.

The Fremont-Elyria game might be considered in the nature of a toss-up and the Little Giants must be conceded an equal chance of taking their fourth game of the current campaign.

Teams About Even

The Eels are playing their first year under Trubey, former Fostoria mentor and have a record of four victories, two losses and one tie, not too much different from the Rossmen's three-four mark. Trubey was forced to build from the ground up, having but three lettermen back and none of the three regulars from last year.

The Elyrians have scored victories over Cleveland Heights, Oberlin, Niles and Shaker Heights, the last 20 to 0 verdict hung up last week. Cleveland Shaw was tied and losses were at the hands of Lakewood and Mansfield.

Reports on the Eels tend to show them as big but not overly fast and if Coach Legs Binkley has his offense clicking on all four and if speed merchant Bob Demmel can be shaken loose a couple of times, the Little Giants may return with more to show for their trip than a few assorted bruises.

St. Joe Weakened

The St. Joe Streaks, on the other hand, appear to be facing a far more formidable foe in the Findlay Trojans. Chiefly because the Hancock county lads will be on the rebound from a totally unexpected 20 to 0 defeat at the hands of Lima South last week.

The week previously the Trojans had knocked off previously undefeated Marion Harding and probably suffered a let-down before meeting South.

Lima South was lucky to beat St. Joe, 25 to 12, scoring a pair of touchdowns in the last few minutes of play, but Coach Jim Marinis has found rough sailing since that time and his team will not be at full strength.

Guard Johnny Gabel and End Herb Redding are still nursing injuries and while they will probably see action against Findlay, cannot be counted upon for 48 minutes of service. Quarterback Bob Chudzinski is in still worse shape and if he plays at all it will only be in flashes.

How costly the loss of this trio can be was demonstrated last week when Tiffin Calvert turned in a 19 to 0 upset victory here.

SECOND FRAME SLUMP FATAL IN HARD GAME

Elyrians Build Up Winning Margin With Two Long Marches

After out-playing their heavier opponents the entire first period and driving to the 23-yard line only to lose the ball on downs, Ross high's Little Giants had a partial collapse in the second frame and Elyria ran up 13 points, enough of a margin to take a 20 to 12 victory in a game played at Elyria last night.

With Willie Koebel carrying the offensive burden in the first chapter, the Little Giants made four first downs to Elyria's one, although their drive to the 23 was the only time they approached pay dirt.

At the start of the second period Elyria buckled down and staged a 50-yard drive that netted them their first score. It took the Eels seven plays to cover the needed yardage with a 28 yard end run by Frank Yarsa and a 16 yard plunge through the right side of the Fremont line setting up the score.

Yarsa Scores Twice

The Little Giant line braced and two plunges failed to gain, but Yarsa dropped back and shot a pass to Browne that was good to the five where the runner was forced out-of-bounds by Bob Demmel. On the second play Yarsa knifed through the line for the score and Tom Mynchenberg place-kicked the point.

The Eels weren't done yet, however. In the closing minutes of the quarter Dick Rodenhauser fumbled on the Elyria 31 and Yarsa engineered a 63-yard march which he climaxed by going through left tackle to score standing up. The try for point was wide.

The Little Giants attempted a second-half comeback and for a time it appeared they might make it. Shortly after the third period opened the Rossmen drove 63 yards with a long pass, Bud Inks to Len Brudzinski, taking the ball from the 35 to the four. Held for three downs, Inks finally scored on a sneak play. Demmel's try for point was no good.

Demmel Runs 64

The bid was short-lived, however, as Elyria took the following kickoff and went 60 yards for its third touchdown. Fullback Haw Hopkins going over from the three. This time Meschler kicked the point.

Bob Demmel accounted for the last score of the game in the closing chapter. Standing on his own 36, he gathered in Browne's punt and, behind some good blocking, sprinted 64 yards for a touchdown. He missed the try for point.

Late in the game Fremont drove to the Elyria 10 where a passing attack failed and the Eels took over. Elyria had the ball on the Fremont seven when the game ended. Fremont made 13 first downs to 17 for the winners.

ROSS MENTOR DROPS KOEBEL AND DEMMEL

Shifts Brudzinski To Backfield For Final Home Contest

A Ross high football team that undoubtedly will pack less offensive punch than in any game this year will take the field against Toledo DeVilbiss tonight in the final home game of the season.

Coach Legs Binkley has announced that neither Halfback Bob Demmel nor Fullback Willie Koebel will be in the line-up and that the pair are through for the season. Too much self-esteem and a lackadasical practice attitude of late on the part of the two star backfielders was given as the reason by the Ross mentor.

With Demmel, the team's speed merchant, and Koebel, chief threat on line plays, out of the game the Little Giants will present a revamped appearance and the burden will fall on other players.

Brudzinski Shifts

Dale Hoy, sophomore flash who has been running well, will be at fullback with Dick Rodenhauser at left half and Bud Inks at quarter. Capt. Len Brudzinski will shift from an end to the other halfback position and his former spot at a flank will be taken over by Bob Zink, who has seen little action as yet.

The rest of the opening line-up will be the same with Bob Pence at the other end; Seils and Frantz at the tackles; Hoffman and Williamson at the guards and Darr at center.

How the team will function without Demmel and Koebel is something that won't be known until the game gets underway. DeVilbiss hasn't an outstanding record this season, having won but three of eight games and, on paper, looks about like the Fremont eleven which has also won three and lost five.

Toledo Has Edge

The Toledoans are expected to flash a passing attack with Brown on the throwing end, mixed in with a running game spearheaded by Capt. Ehrhardt, an elusive and fast-stepper.

This will be DeVilbiss' only road trip of the entire campaign and all its past games have been played in the tough Toledo city loop. In advance, any edge between the two elevens would seem to rest with the visitors.

The game will get underway at 8 p. m. under the Harmon lights and, besides being the final home game, is the next-to-last tilt of the campaign for the Little Giants. They will wind up their season a week from Saturday at Toledo Scott.

BLOCKED PUNTS SET UP BOTH TOLEDO SCORES

Pfeiffer Is Hero As Rossmen Feel Loss
Of Demmel, Koebel

Playing without the services of Bob Demmel and Willie Koebel, who have spear-headed the attack all season, the Little Giants fell easy prey to Toledo DeVilbiss on a snow-blanketed gridiron last night, 12 to 0.

Although the opening game was played in the season's heaviest snow which, with a little stretch of the imagination, could have been called "blinding" in the last quarter.

A pair of blocked punts which made Jackie Pfeiffer, DeVilbiss' elongated six foot four end, the hero of the game, beat the Little Giants. One was blocked in the second stanza and the other in the fourth and both set the stages for the only scores of the game.

Pfeiffer swarmed through the Ross forwards late in the second period as a hero. Late in the half, converted from an end into a half-back, stood on his own 41 and attempted to punt. He hit the ball and followed it up as it bounded toward the Ross goal and finally fell on it.

Take Advantage

That was all the break the visitors' needed and on the first play Davis Brown, 130-pounds of dynamite in a football uniform, circled his own 41 and for the first time Brown also tried to kick through tackle for the extra point but was stopped.

That was all the score until early in the third period when the Little Giants were again forced to punt. This time the ball was on the Fremont 49 and Pfeiffer blocked it and recovered on the 41. Brown, Nappenbaugh and Erhardt combined to take the ball and return them. Nappenbaugh went wide around his own right side to score standing up. Brown tried a pass to the big end for the extra point but it was knocked down.

The game was largely played between the two 30-yard lines. Toledo made an early bid for a score and had the ball down to the Fremont 20.

more 26 when Brown essayed a pass. Carl Erchenbacher would intercept it on his own 15 and raced up the field 44 yards before he was downed on the Toledo 41. It was the longest single gain of the contest.

Make Two Threats

This started about the only concerted Fremont drive of the game and it ended on the 22 from where Brudzinski punted into the end zone. Late in the thin period the Rossmen traveled from their own 30 to the 10 and Brown and Brudzinski gaining most of the ground, before the attack stalled.

There wasn't too much difference in the statistics with both teams making a few first downs, but there was no doubt that the Little Giants missed Demmel and Koebel. With this pair in the game the last home contest would undoubtedly have ended with the Little Giants resting comfortably on the home end zone.

There were few high-lights and looking the best for Fremont were Sophomore Dale Hoy and Brudzinski who piled up most of the yardage that was made.

The game was otherwise down the crowd to a few hundred hardy souls and was responsible for many of the arc lights blinking off. When the game ended only six of the 16 on the east side of the field were still lighted.

LaMOTTA WINS SPLIT VERDICT

Crowd Boos Decision As Fritzie Zivic Loses Garden Fight

NEW YORK, Nov. 18—UP—

Ancient Fritzie Zivic, Miracle Man of Maul, may be re-matched today with Jacob LaMotta, the squat Bronx middleweight who won an unpopular split decision over Fritzie last night in their 16-round "super match" at Madison Square Garden.

Promoter Mike Jacobs would like to have them into the Garden again on Dec. 17, to satisfy the 11,330 fans who witnessed last night's battle and who voiced their disapproval of the verdict with lusty boos.

Zivic, 36-year-old former welterweight champion, captivated the crowd with his great performance against the No. 1 civilian middleweight contender—a lad of 22, who out-weighted him 142 pounds to 114 pounds. Pug-nosed Fritzie, who had entered the ring a 4-1 underdog, was given a grand ovation when he climbed down. But cheers for Bronx LaMotta were strictly by Bronxists.

Fight Is Close

It was a close fight, as were their two previous meetings at Pittsburgh in which each won a disputed decision. Even the young fighters at the ringside were divided in their opinions. The United Press gave Zivic six rounds, and LaMotta four. LaMotta was penalized the ninth round for low blow.

Judge Jack Goodman voted Fritzie even money and LaMotta only three; but Judge Marty Monroe and Referee Eddie Joseph each gave LaMotta six and Zivic four.

Zivic had complete command in the first four rounds, but LaMotta, who had LaMotta a boxing lesson in most of the first five heats. But the Pittsburgh veteran tired in the later going, and his younger, heavier opponent came on with a vengeance in the last four rounds of the last five sessions. There were no knockdowns; but Fritzie staggered LaMotta with a straight right to the chin in the third. Jake had Fritzie on wobbly pins in the seventh after hitting a hard left hook to the body and a right smash to the face.

GIANTS CLOSE GRID SEASON ON SATURDAY

Go To Toledo To Meet Tigers From Scott High School

Coach "Legs" Binkley's Little Giants close their 10-game season Saturday afternoon when they tangle with the Toledo Scott Tigers at the latter's field. Game time is 2:30 o'clock.

The Ross high eleven is in fine fettle with one exception, Tackle Ed Seils. Ed sprained an ankle in practice Wednesday and probably will be out of the game, Coach Binkley said.

Demmel Back

Offsetting the loss of Seils is the return of Bob Demmel, slippery halfback whose absence from the DeVilbiss game November 12 was sharply felt. Bob will be in there on the left wing and has promised to "give all I've got."

It should be a fairly close fight. Toledo Scott holds one win and one loss in its two games with DeVilbiss, the eleven that downed the Little Giants 12-0. They have won four of nine encounters. Danger spots in Coach Ollie Klee's outfit are Capt. Koinis, hard-hitting fullback, and Schutt, also a back.

Season's Record

Ross high goes into its last game with interesting score statistics. They have won three of their nine games—have scored 122 points and have had 122 points scored against them. The Little Giants went scoreless in one tilt, against DeVilbiss, and held one opponent scoreless, Bowling Green, 35-0. Demmel has been outstanding as point-getter.

LAST PERIOD TRY THROUGH AIR IS SHORT

Bulldogs' Early Lead Stands Up Despite Desperate Late Rally

Ross high's Little Giants exploded a delayed-action bomb under Toledo Scott's Bulldogs Saturday afternoon but it didn't pack quite enough wallop and the Fremonters closed their football season with a 25 to 19 defeat.

Pounded into the turf for most of three periods, the Rossmen pulled themselves together for a bit of third-period bombing in Scott stadium to turn what had been pretty much of a rout into a good ball game but, as has been the case before, they didn't have quite enough.

Scott won the ball game and they were entitled to it. A 19-point vamp in the second period that left the Little Giants hanging on the ropes did the trick.

It was a bad score that the Little Giants threw into the Scottmen, but little more. After punching to the Bulldogs 18 early in the first period and then losing the ball on downs the Little Giants didn't do much until a belated aerial attack started to click.

Score On Passes

After the first period thrust the Bulldogs took over and in the second stanza shoved over three touchdowns. Bob Robison galloped 35 yards for the first and then Bill Franklin intercepted one of Bob Demmel's passes and jaunted 45 yards for the second. The third Scott touchdown was scored by Johnny Kohnis, a sophomore sub, on a 15-yard sprint around end.

The Little Giants hit pay dirt the first time in the same canto. After recovering a Scott fumble and working the ball deep into Scott territory, Demmel shot a spot pass over the line of scrimmage to Dick Rodenhauser. The latter took it on the 10 and stepped the rest of the way across the goal line. Demmel's try for point from placement was no good.

Trailing by 13 points at halftime the Little Giants were stalemated in the third while Scott added six points, but came roaring back in the final frame to throw a big scare into the winners.

Demmel Runs

Late in the third the Little Giants started to roll with Carl Erchenbrecher reeling off a nice gain for a first down on the Fremont 44. Demmel followed through with a pass to Dick Pence that took the leather to the Scott 42 and as the last chapter opened Demmel connected on another aerial, this time to Len Brudzinski, that was good to the 20. Dale Hoy then took over the throwing burden and lofted a pass to Rodenhauser for a touchdown.

The final Little Giant score came after a 47 yard march with Demmel circling end for the final 16 yards.

Coach Al Sacksteder, with his eyes on the Turkey Day game with Waite, used his second stringers whenever he could, but needed his varsity boys in the closing minutes to stave off a determined Ross rally.

No Captain Named At Ross; Most Valuable Award Still Pending

Varsity football letters have been awarded to 32 members of the Ross and St. Joseph's highs varsity football squads of the past season, Coaches Legs Binkley and Jim Marinis announced today. In addition letters went to four student managers.

Both high school mentors awarded letters to 16 players, a smaller number than usual at each school, at the conclusion of campaigns that were far from successful at both institutions.

In addition to naming lettermen, Coach Marinis announced that Crimson Streak squad members had elected Halfback Joe Kuzma honorary captain for the season just past, but that the selection of the "most valuable player" was being delayed.

No Ross Captain

At Ross high, where Len Brudzinski captained the eleven after having been elected last year, no captain for next season was named. Acting captains will be named before each contest next year, Coach Binkley said.

Earning their varsity spurs as Little Giants were Capt. Brudzinski, Dick Rodenhauser, Dick Pence and Dan Lease, seniors; Vince Koebel, Bob Demmel, Warren Inks, Ed Seils, Jack Frantz, Kent Darr, Emmett Mackey and Bill Miller, juniors; Dale Hoy, Howard Hoffman, Arlo Williamson and Bob Zink, juniors.

In addition to the seniors that will be lost through graduation, Vince Koebel has already enlisted in the Navy while Arlo Williamson is slated to take a similar examination today, the Ross mentor said.

Officially Over

At St. Joseph's those who won recognition were Bob Chudzinski, Dick Hershey, Doyle Kusmer, Herb Redding, Pat Collins, Bob Leite, Joe Kuzma and Joe Halm, all seniors; Johnny Gabel, Jack Courtney and Vic Celek, juniors; Bob Mehling, Jim Kritzel, Don Stang and Jack Wurzel, sophomores; Tom Swartz and Charles Wagner, freshmen.

Student managers given letters were Jack Weigman, Ross high; Howard Mehling and Bob Hershey, St. Joe, while John Ash, Ross assistant manager, received numerals.

With the awarding of letters the football season was virtually tucked away for the winter months. Members of the Ross squad were guests at a banquet in the cafeteria last Wednesday night and all that remains at St. Joe is the choosing of the most valuable player although there is a rumor that a banquet is also in the making.

Five Fostoria Players Placed On First Team

Championship Redman Eleven, Undefeated In 8 Starts, Dominates Team; Findlay And Tiffin Snare Two Places As Bobcats Are Ignored

Fostoria high's undefeated Buckeye League champions placed five players on the all-league team, selected by the coaches and sports writers in the five rival cities, it was announced today after ballots had been counted.

Tiffin Columbian, runner-up with one defeat in league play; Findlay, which finished third, and Fremont, fourth place club, each placed two players. Only Bowling Green, which failed to win a loop tussle, went unrepresented.

In addition to snaring the lion's share of first team places, the Redmen also boast the only two unanimous choices. The other three each received four of the five possible first-team votes.

All-League Team

The team was selected by the coaches and scribes lines as follows:

Ends, Norm Seebon of Fostoria, and Len Brudzinski, captain of the Fremont team. Tackles, Pat Newell of Fostoria, and McElroy of Tiffin Columbian Guards, Bob Currier of Fostoria and Shellhammer of Tiffin, center. Long of Findlay.

Backs, Bob Denney of Fremont, Dick Miller of Findlay, Dale Stoddard and Jack Woodland, both of Fostoria.

Currier and Woodland, both of whom were placed on the second all-Ohio team by one of the news services, were unanimous choices, polling five first place votes.

Newell, who made another one of the services' all-Ohio second teams; Seebon and Stoddard each received four first team votes. Stoddard, however, the only one who failed to give these three boys a first team place also failed to put them on the second team, ignoring them entirely.

Have Close Race

Balloting for some of the other positions was extremely close. Brudzinski snared a first team flank position with two first team and three second team votes, giving him a one point edge over Felton of Tiffin, who had two first and two second team votes, and two assignments on Junior Morel, Fostoria, who had two first team and one second team nod.

McElroy made one of the tackle posts with two first team votes, doubling the points garnered by Bower, Bowling Green; Askan, Findlay; Bowersox, Columbian and LaSavage, Columbian, all of whom received one first team vote, and August of Findlay, who was placed on three second teams.

Stoddard had a close squeeze for guard, beating out Bayer of Findlay by a lone vote, while Long snared center by one point over Smith, Columbian snapper-back.

Backs Outstanding

The backfield race was simply "no contest." Woodland was an unanimous choice; Stoddard received four first team votes, Seebon and Currier picked three first teams and one second and Sink on two first teams and one second.

Their closest rivals were Steegman of Findlay and Bennett of Fostoria, each of whom received one first team and three second team ballots.

Both Woodland and Currie were returns from last year's all-league team. If any adjustment is needed for selecting three linemen from Fostoria it can easily be had—in four league games only 19 first downs were registered against the Redmen, 10 of them by Fremont and part of these against a second team.

Make Second Team

On the second team Felton, Columbian, and Morel, Fostoria, made the ends; five boys, all mentioned before, tied for the tackle posts; Bayer of Findlay and Miller of Fremont, made the guards and Smith of Columbian, center.

The backfield is composed of Steegman, Findlay; Bennett, Fostoria; Red Hoerig, Columbian, and Night, Columbian.

Honorable mention goes to Ponce, Fremont; and Simpson, Findlay, ends; Scheidhauer, Fostoria; Bower, Bowling Green; Frantz and Seile, Fremont; and Reinhardt, Fostoria, tackles; Williamson, Fremont, and Auble, Findlay, guards; Smith, Fostoria, center; Barr, Bowling Green; Koebel, Fremont; Treece, Findlay; Egbert, Columbian; Beaver, Columbian; Rodenhausen, Fremont, center.

and Barringer, Fostoria. All received at least one second team vote.

OHIO HUNTERS STALKING DEER

Thousands Take To Woods In State Game Reservations Today

PORSCMOUTH, O. Dec. 6.—
UP—The first deer hunting season in Ohio in 80 years opened today as several thousand hunters, eager for venison, entered the timbered hills of Scioto, Adams and Pike counties.

Each hunter is permitted to kill one buck during the season which closes Dec. 18 and which is restricted to the three counties.

Up to 625 hunters were permitted to enter in Roosevelt game preserve and Shawnee Forest and each hunter was required to register at one of the checking stations established at the edge of the state forest preserves.

Conservation officials estimated that approximately 4,500 deer are in the area where hunting is permitted.

Ohio's state hunting tracts have been divided into 13 districts with two game wardens assigned to each district.

An army of hunters converged on Portsmouth on the eve of the opening of the season. Hotels were taxed to capacity and some hunters, unable to find accommodations, were quartered in private homes.

The weather was unusually mild, but hunters were handicapped by the dryness of the woods. Conservation officials issued sharp warnings to hunters not to shoot until definitely certain of their prey and to be careful of starting forest fires.

RHODES ELECTED TO A. A. U. OFFICE

COLUMBUS, O. Dec. 6.—
UP—Lawrence Dibenedetto of New Orleans, began his fifth year as president of the Amateur Athletic Union today, after winning re-election by a substantial margin at the closing session of the 35th annual convention yesterday.

Dibenedetto was opposed by an opponent block which supported former Vice President James M. Roche of New Haven, Conn.

Other officers elected were William M. Grelm of Denver, Colo., first vice president; Judge Eugene Bonelli of Philadelphia, second vice president; James A. Rhodes of Columbus, O., third vice president, and Edward Rosenblum of Washington, fourth vice president.
