Ross finishes third

News-Messenger reports

FOSTORIA — Rob Hammer's 79 at Fostoria Country Club earned player of the year honors in the Great Lakes League Tuesday, but Fremont Ross finished third in the team standing in the league tournament.

"We were looking good for a while until double and triple bogeys hit," Ross coach Dave Fleming said.

Sylvania Northview won the championship with 337, one shot better than Findlay's 338 and six shots ahead of the Little Giants' 343.

Jim Straight of Ross shot 84 to earn second-team, all-league honors. Chad Donovan was honorable mention after shooting an 88.
