Bowling Green tops Ross in AAA sectional

News-Messenger reports

Fremont Ross softball coach Sue Wolf was succinct.

"We just didn't play very sparkling today," Wolf said after the Little Giants' 9-1 loss to Bowling Green in a Class AAA sectional championship game Tuesday at Rodger Young Park.

"We took ourselves out of the game; we had runners in scoring position but didn't do anything."

The Bobcats, 5-6, will play Sylva Northview in the district tournament next week at Rodger Young Park.

In other games Tuesday, Lake defeated Clyde 7-5 and Edison whipped Oak Harbor 24-1 in the Class AA sectional at Community Park in Clyde. Fremont St. Joseph Central Catholic beat Port Clinton 18-0 and Bettsville topped Woodmore 16-1.

run in the top of the sixth. The Bobcats countered with four runs in the bottom of the inning on a lead-off single by Diana Quinby and consecutive home runs by Gena Ault, Heather Cass and Holly Murphy.

"We got three runs early... that was important," BG coach Greg Brown said. "I didn't feel comfortable, though, until the bats came alive."

Quinby was 4-for-4 for the Bobcats and scored four runs. Lisa Watts had two hits for Ross, 5-9.

Tina Stuckey was the winning pitcher and Deb Hammond took the loss.

The Bobcats outthrew the Little Giants 11-5.

Lake 7, Clyde 5

Top-seeded Lake scored six runs in the fifth inning to bounce

Clyde from postseason play.

The Flyers will play Bellevue for the sectional championship Saturday.

Robin Ptacek was the winning pitcher and Jenny Greenslade took the loss, each allowing four hits.

Heidi Scheck and Tracy Archer scored two runs apiece for Clyde, which committed six errors.

Lake improved to 12-3 and the Flyers fell to 6-4.

Edison 24, Oak Harbor 1

Second-seeded Edison scored nine runs in the third inning and 12 in the fourth of the shortened game.

Oak Harbor, 1-13, scored its run in the fifth on back-to-back doubles by Heather Miller and Shelley Whitaker.

The Chargers will play Rossford for the sectional championship Saturday.

St. Joe 18, Port Clinton 9

St. Joe scored in every inning but the third and sixth, improving to 7-3.

Veronica Underwood had three hits for the Crimson Streaks, who outthrew PC 12-9. Heidi Schultz had three hits for the Redskins and losing pitcher Jennifer Armstrong homered for the Redskins, 4-7.

Jennie Ewanski was the winning pitcher.

Bettsville 16, Woodmore 1

The Bobcats scored six runs in the fifth inning and six more in the sixth to end the game early.

Lisa Heilman collected three of Bettsville's 11 hits, drove in two runs and scored three times.

Carrie Windau was the winning pitcher and Shawna Crispin took the loss as Bettsville improved to 9-4 and Woodmore slipped to 4-6.

LISA WATTS (11) of Fremont Ross is safe at second during a third inning play Saturday in the Class AAA girls sectional softball tournament at Rodger Young Park. Sara Schroyer of Whitmer, left, waits for the throw, while second baseman Kelly Mananny watches. The umpire is Tom Woessner of Oak Harbor. The Little Giants nipped the Panthers 7-6 in eight innings.

Ross girls come back in sectional

News-Messenger reports

Kelly Gierhart scored on Kelli Lance's bunt in the eighth inning Saturday and Fremont Ross held on for a 7-6 victory over Toledo Whitmer in the Class AAA sectional softball tournament at Rodger Young Park.

Ross, which averaged last Monday's 5-2 loss to Whitmer, will play Bowling Green Tuesday in the sectional final.
