

Sectionals swing into full gear

News-Messenger reports

Sectional volleyball tournaments swing into full scale action today.

Thirteen area teams are in line for taking the first tournament step.

Ross, with Buckeye Central Conference Coach of the Year Tom Joseph, plays top-seeded Sandusky in the second match of the AAA sectional at Norwalk High School.

At Norwalk High School, second-seeded Sandusky, 20-4, defeated Fremont Ross 15-3, 15-2 in its first match and went on to win the sectional title. Top-seeded Bellevue, 21-3, after a first-round bye, defeated Norwalk 16-14, 15-2 in the title game.
