Wrestlers Impress at Annual Board Wars Tournament...

Over the weekend, the Fremont Ross Little Giants wrestling team made the journey to Defiance to compete in the highly anticipated annual Board Wars Tournament. This prestigious two-day event showcased elite talent from Ohio, Michigan, and Indiana, drawing in 52 teams to battle for supremacy on the mats.

The Little Giants put on an impressive performance, finishing 5th overall in the team standings, a testament to their hard work, skill, and determination.

Individually, several wrestlers stood out with remarkable achievements:

Lincoln Ollom: At 120 lbs., Ollom displayed grit and resilience, earning a 6th place finish amidst fierce competition.

Brody Barth: Competing at 165 lbs., Barth secured an impressive 4th place finish, demonstrating his strength and technique throughout the tournament.

Bryce Estep and Jayce Frymire: These two standout athletes were the stars of the weekend. Estep, wrestling at 138 lbs., and Frymire, at 150 lbs., both climbed to the top of the podium, claiming championship titles in their respective weight classes. Their dominance on the mat was a highlight for the team and a proud moment for the Fremont Ross community.

The Little Giants' 5th-place finish is a significant achievement, especially in such a competitive field. Head Coach Chad Hetrick praised the team's effort and highlighted the importance of tournaments like Board Wars in preparing for the rest of the season. "This event gives our wrestlers invaluable experience against top-tier talent," said Coach Hetrick. "The way our athletes performed this weekend shows their dedication and the potential we have as a team."

The Fremont Ross wrestling team looks forward to carrying this momentum into their upcoming meets, aiming to build on their success and continue representing their school with pride.

Fremont Ross Wrestling Teams Dominate in Matchup with Sandusky...

The Fremont Ross High School wrestling teams delivered impressive performances against our foes from Sandusky, with the boys winning 45-27 and the girls taking a commanding 49-22 victory.

Boys' Team Shines with Key Wins

The Little Giants secured their victory with a combination of pins, technical skills, and clutch moments. Leading the charge with pins were Aidan Autullo, Bryce Estep, and Brody Barth, who showcased their dominance on the mat.

Anthony Salazar added to the team's momentum with a tech-fall, demonstrating precision and control throughout his match. In a thrilling overtime bout, Nathan Craig sealed the deal with a swift takedown, earning crucial points for Fremont Ross.

Additionally, Lincoln Ollom, Joel Pickard, and LaMarius Byrd contributed team points by accepting forfeits, rounding out the boys' impressive 45-27 win.

Lady Giants Excel with Depth and Determination

The Lady Giants continued Fremont Ross's success with a 49-22 victory, fueled by a mix of dominant pins, tactical decisions, and forfeits.

Earning wins by pin were Zoe Kaczmarek, Kylie Peck, Adelynne Scherer, and Brooklyn Koebel, each displaying technical prowess and resilience.

Decisions went in favor of Malaya Hughes and Nayeli Vasquez, whose hard-fought victories highlighted their skill and determination.

Adding to the Lady Giants' tally were forfeits accepted by Jaiden Long, Soledad Resendez, and Keyonna Vann, ensuring a well-rounded team effort in the win.

Ross Wrestlers Dominate Findlay at this year's Beauty and the Beast Event...

FREMONT – The Fremont Ross Little Giants showed grit and determination in their dual meet victory over Findlay at this year's Beauty and the Beast event, overcoming illness-related forfeits in three weight classes to secure a hard-fought win.

The event, which pairs wrestling matches with gymnastics performances to celebrate both sports, delivered thrilling moments and a true showcase of athleticism.

Key Performances Propel Little Giants to Victory

Freshman Jackson Durbin made a statement in his match at 113 pounds. Despite bumping up in weight and facing a senior opponent, Durbin displayed resilience and composure, ultimately clinching an overtime victory that set the tone for the team.

Another standout performance came from Lincoln Ollom, who dominated his state-ranked opponent in what many considered the most impressive win of the day. Ollom's convincing victory not only boosted the team but also solidified his reputation as a force to be reckoned with.

Senior leaders Bryce Estep and Brody Barth both earned falls in their respective matches, showcasing their veteran experience and drive. Aidan Autullo and Anthony Salazar contributed with major decision victories, adding valuable points to the team's tally.

Collinn Ollom and Zeb Zucker also played crucial roles, each collecting forfeits that helped the Little Giants overcome the deficit caused by their own forfeits.

A Milestone Moment for Barth

The event was especially memorable for senior Brody Barth, who celebrated his entry into the prestigious century club with his 100th career win. Barth's milestone victory was met with cheers from the crowd and his teammates, marking a proud moment for the Little Giants program.

Teamwork and Tenacity Pay Off

Despite the adversity of forfeiting three weight classes, Fremont Ross demonstrated the depth and determination necessary to secure a win. Head coach Chad Hetrick praised the team's resilience, stating, "This was a total team effort. Every match mattered, and these guys stepped up when it counted the most."

The Little Giants' victory over Findlay highlights their potential for the rest of the season as they continue to build momentum for the upcoming post season.
