

1988 Season Review...

Swimmers open today

By TIM HARMON
Staff writer

The only people who have higher expectations than Coach Tom Thomson for the Ross High School swim team are the swimmers themselves.

The Aqua Giants open against Calvert at five o'clock today in the Tiffin YMCA.

"Potentially, if everything falls into place we could have eight boys and four girls advance to the state meet," said Thomson. "They work hard and that's going to pay off later in the season."

"I've never had a group of kids who like to work out as much as they do. They don't want to leave anything to chance and I'm hoping they live up to their expectations."

Senior co-captains Steve Schaaf and Todd Vogel lead the Ross boys team while senior co-captains Jamie Brudzinski and Tina Streeter along with senior Pam Ratcliff lead the girls squad.

But the Little Giants are not a senior-oriented team.

"We're light on seniors and our depth comes from our younger swimmers," said Thomson.

Comprising that depth are juniors Brian Schaaf, Rob Penrod and James McMaken and sophomores Rob Schaaf, B.J. Blair and Chad Root among the boys and juniors Brenda Audorff, Todie Heslet, Dawn Brooks, Katie Hiser and Gwen Poust and sophomore Ann Wells among the girls.

Blair and Root are divers.

Blair finished 16th at last year's state meet.

"The girls are more experienced than last year's team and they are more experienced than the boys," Thomson said. "Most of the girls have been around the block (competed in meets) prior to high school.

"On the boys team, I have a dozen swimmers in that group, but another dozen that don't have that meet decorum."

Thomson said the Ross boys team and its girls team are like night and day.

"The boys are primarily a sprint team and the girls are more of a distance and finesse team," he said. "We have girls that like the tough events. They like to get in the water and work.

"That's not to say the sprints aren't tough events. The boys like the sprints mainly because (the sprints) are their best events."

Ross, 6-4-1 (boys) and 4-5 (girls) last season, has all away meets again in 1987.

"We have one of the best road teams in Ohio, and obviously we can't afford not to," said Thomson. "If you look at (all away meets) that way, it puts a smile on your face."

A successful season will keep Thomson and his swimmers smiling.

"If we stay healthy in January, we should have a successful dual meet season," Thomson said "After that (state) you have to keep working hard and have the right swim at the right time."

The Little Giants' schedule is highlighted by meets against perennial strong teams from Sandusky Perkins, Sylvania Southview, Sandusky and Sylvania Northview.

Ross swim teams open with victories over Calvert

News-Messenger Reports

TIFFIN — Ross opened the swim season with a pair of victories Wednesday over Calvert.

The Ross girls splashed to a 99-48 win and the boys paddled past the Senecas 115-32.

"It was a good meet for our younger swimmers," said Coach Tom Thomson. "We had a few of them who were a little in awe but they responded very well.

"The young swimmers were very helpful. They do have a long ways to go but they will help us," Thomson said.

The Ross girls won seven of the 10 events. There was no diving in both meets.

The medley relay team of Todi Heslet, Ann Wells, Brenda Audorff and Tina Streeter won in 2:11.04 and the free relay squad of Wells, Streeter, Jamie Brudzinski and Heslet won in 4:11.98.

"That was a very good time this early in the season for them," Thomson said about the free relay.

Other Ross girls wins went to Natalie Albert in the 200 free in 2:36.09, Wells in the butterfly in 1:08.05, Brudzinski in the 500 free in 6:08.76 and Heslet in the backstroke in 1:08.24.

The boys swept all 10 events including a pair of wins by Steve Schaff and Brian Schaaf. Steve Schaff won the 50 free (23.45) and the 100 free (52.35). Brian Schaaf captured the individual medley in 2:15.47 and the butterfly in 1:03.14.

Other boys victories went to James McMaken in the 200 free in 2:13.86, Dave Tallman in the 500 free in 6:51.7, Rob Penrod in the backstroke in 1:01.3, Rob Schaaf in the breaststroke in 1:08.83 and the medley and free relays.

The medley team was comprised of Penrod, Steve and Brian Schaaf and Jason Sprenger, winning in 1:49.68, and Harry Sargent, Rob Weiker, Joe Pemberton and Sprenger with a 4:04.47.

Because the meet was held in a YMCA pool, Heslet and Penrod in the backstroke made YMCA zone cutoff times. Rob Schaaf made the high school district meet cutoff time in the breaststroke.

Ross girls win No. 2
