

2025 Season Review

Lady Giants Wrestling Starts Season Strong...

The Fremont Ross Lady Giants wrestling team opened their 2024-2025 campaign in dominant fashion this past Sunday, securing a first-place team finish and showcasing their depth and talent across multiple weight classes.

Three Lady Giants wrestlers stood atop the podium as champions:

Malaya Hughes (100 lbs): Demonstrating incredible skill and determination, Hughes controlled her matches from start to finish.

Nayeli Vasquez (125 lbs): With a combination of power and technique, Vasquez powered her way to the top spot.

Keyonna Vann (190 lbs): Vann's strength and strategic approach earned her the championship in her weight class.

The Lady Giants displayed not only individual excellence but also a collective team effort, setting a high standard for the rest of the season.

Next up, the Lady Giants will take a short trip east to compete in the Flier Invite at Clyde High School next Sunday. With momentum on their side, the team is poised for another standout performance. See less

Lady Giants Shine at Clyde Invitational...

The Fremont Ross Lady Giants wrestling team made an impressive mark at this year's Clyde Invitational, showcasing their talent and determination against tough competition. Out of a field of 32 teams, the Lady Giants clinched an impressive 5th-place finish, underscoring the program's growth and competitiveness.

Several Fremont Ross wrestlers earned well-deserved podium spots, reflecting their hard work and dedication on the mat:

Jaiden Long (115) – 3rd Place

Malaya Hughes (100) – 4th Place

Keyonna Vann (190) – 4th Place

Kailani Long (105) – 5th Place

Brooklyn Koebel (155) – 6th Place

The Lady Giants demonstrated both skill and resilience throughout the tournament, competing fiercely in every match and continuing to build on their strong season.

Next up, the Lady Giants will travel to Findlay this weekend to compete in the annual two-day FIGHT Invitational, a highly anticipated event that will test their abilities against some of the best wrestlers in the region. The team looks forward to carrying their momentum into this challenging competition. See less

Fremont Ross Wrestling Teams Dominate in Matchup with Sandusky...

The Fremont Ross High School wrestling teams delivered impressive performances against our foes from Sandusky, with the boys winning 45-27 and the girls taking a commanding 49-22 victory.

Boys' Team Shines with Key Wins

The Little Giants secured their victory with a combination of pins, technical skills, and clutch moments. Leading the charge with pins were Aidan Autullo, Bryce Estep, and Brody Barth, who showcased their dominance on the mat.

Anthony Salazar added to the team's momentum with a tech-fall, demonstrating precision and control throughout his match. In a thrilling overtime bout, Nathan Craig sealed the deal with a swift takedown, earning crucial points for Fremont Ross.

Additionally, Lincoln Ollom, Joel Pickard, and LaMarius Byrd contributed team points by accepting forfeits, rounding out the boys' impressive 45-27 win.

Lady Giants Excel with Depth and Determination

The Lady Giants continued Fremont Ross's success with a 49-22 victory, fueled by a mix of dominant pins, tactical decisions, and forfeits.

Earning wins by pin were Zoe Kaczmarek, Kylie Peck, Adelynne Scherer, and Brooklyn Koebel, each displaying technical prowess and resilience.

Decisions went in favor of Malaya Hughes and Nayeli Vasquez, whose hard-fought victories highlighted their skill and determination.

Adding to the Lady Giants' tally were forfeits accepted by Jaiden Long, Soledad Resendez, and Keyonna Vann, ensuring a well-rounded team effort in the win.

Lady Giants Dominate on Senior Night...

Fremont, OH – It was a night of celebration and domination for the Fremont Ross Lady Giants as they honored their seniors in style with an impressive performance on the mat defeating Liberty Benton 58-12. Prior to the contest, the program recognized four dedicated seniors: Isabella Harrison, Zoe Kaczmarek, Kylie Peck, and Soledad Resendez, each of whom has left a lasting impact on the program.

The Lady Giants carried that energy into their match, delivering a commanding display of skill and determination. Key victories fueled their dominant performance, including decisive pins by Jaiden Long, Brooklyn Koebel, and Keyonna Vann. Kailani Long showcased her technical prowess with a major decision victory, while Nayeli Vasquez and senior Kylie Peck secured hard-fought decisions to contribute to the team's success.

Senior Night was not just about competition—it was a moment to celebrate the hard work and dedication of the departing athletes. Isabella Harrison, the team's invaluable mat statistician, was recognized for her contributions behind the scenes. Meanwhile, wrestlers Zoe Kaczmarek, Kylie Peck, and Soledad Resendez wrapped up their home careers with pride, leaving behind a legacy of resilience and commitment.
