St. Joe Qualifies Three, Ross Two For District

Sandusky continued its domination of the Fremont Sectional wrestling tournament Saturday afternoon and evening, winning four championships and qualifying nine for the district tournament next weekend at Toledo Whiteman. Sandusky was one of only three schools to win more than one individual championship. The others were Fremont St. Joseph and Edison, each with two.

St. Joseph, one of the smallest schools in the competition and one of only three Class schools in the sectional, finished a surprising fourth place and qualified three wrestlers for the district meet. Bill Beier at 145 pounds and Ed Fiber, 165, both won championships for St. Joseph. Greg Levers, like Blechinger won the consolation for third place at 138 pounds and a trip to the districts.

Ross managed to qualify two for the district as Ted Brunner and Mark Weiser fought their way through the consolations for third place. In the 175-pound and heavyweight divisions each of the Little Giants won three consolation matches.

Final unofficial team score was: Sandusky, 100; Bellevue, 51; Milan Edison, 47; St. Joseph, 46; Norwalk, 42; Huron, 39; Port Clinton, 37; Vermilion, 23.
