Ross has high hopes for Nesbitt, Ritzman

By JOHN CUMMINGS
Staff correspondent

The mission is clear in the Fremont Ross High School cross country camp: return Tim Nesbitt back to state and get Amy Ritzman there period.

The rest of the season is a building block for the future, according to Ross coach John Elder.

Nesbitt placed 41st in the state meet a year ago. Richmond just missed qualifying.

"(Nesbitt) knows that he can do it," Elder said. "We have to get him back there and see what he can do."

"Amy has been so close the last couple years, maybe we can get her over the hump this year."

Steve Jay, David Boda and Mark Sheidler, the Little Giants' five through seven men in 1989, will be looked to run second through fourth this year.

"It is unknown what it is going to be like for us this year," Elder said. "Hopefully, we can make it a little fun so we can build on it."

"That way we can change our philosophy a little bit in a couple of years."

Elder considers the girls' team to be a mirror image of the boys' squad.

"They are the same in the fact that we want to gather experience for the future," Elder said. "It is kind of an unknown quality in what we are dealing with."

Leah Lomax and freshman Heather Mears look to be the supporting cast for Ritzman. Senior Bridget Boda, depending on her recovery from an injury, could also help.

"I don't think they know how fast they can run three miles," Elder said. "Then again, I don't know how fast they can run three miles."

"As far as the team goes, we're just going to wait and see what happens."

Ritzman, Nesbitt win invitational

By TIM HARMON
Staff writer

Tim Nesbitt and Amy Ritzman of Fremont Ross placed first in invitational cross country events on the same day for the second time this season Saturday.

Ritzman and Nesbitt, who both took first place in the Maumee Invitational Sept. 22, captured the top spots at the Purple Invitational at Wolf Creek Park.

"(Nesbitt) talks about Amy and him winning on the same day," Ross coach John Elder said. "So when Amy wins, he puts pressure on himself."

Nesbitt won the boys' race in 16:47 after Ritzman won the girls' race in 20:52.

"I thought it was going to be close," Nesbitt said. "I wanted to win on the kick."

"I was going to run with the kid (Mark Silva) from (Toledo) Waite, but I took off hard, got the lead and didn't have to worry about the kick."

Nesbitt was jostled around at the start of the race, ran behind Reynoldsburg's Pat Crumley for the first mile and finished 25 seconds in front of Silva.

"I don't know what they were trying to do (at the start)," Nesbitt said. "They were knocking me from side to side."

"I wanted to stay cool ... get into position before we went into the woods."

Nesbitt said his familiarity with the Wolf Creek Park course gave him the edge over Silva.

Quellhorst despite a disappointing time of 20:52.

"Plus battling the wind slowed me down."

Angie DuGai and Sarah Sanzenbacher placed fourth and fifth, respectively, for the Panthers in 22:52 and 22:57.

Heather Mears of Ross placed 10th in 23:28.

Waite won with 32 points followed by Reynoldsburg (50), Maumee (62), Ross (81), Keystone (118) and Vermilion (172) in the boys race.

Silva's second-place finish was backed up by Pat Soto (fourth) and Milo Ramirez (seventh) and Jesse Perez (eighth).
